This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

Preface

The volume herewith presented is the twenty-third consecutive annual edition of this publication. The general form of the reports has been continued, the statistical exhibits have been amplified.

The underwriting, investment and gain and loss exhibits show the net result of the operations of the respective companies, both as regards their underwriting and their investments, upon the established basis of accounting; and the gain and loss exhibit shows the increase or decrease of surplus during the year under review, explaining the reasons for such change.

Under the heading "Ratios to Premiums Earned," we show the ratios of losses and expenses incurred and of the net underwriting profit or loss to premiums earned; showing also, under the appropriate heading, the ratios based upon premiums written. Companies in their first year, and companies whose income is rapidly increasing, are enabled to show moderate ratios of losses and expenses to premiums written, but the large increase of undischarged liabilities must be taken into account in arriving at the true result of their transactions.

Embodied in each report will be found a record of premiums written and losses incurred (with ratios) on miscellaneous classes of business, if any such are written by the company under review. The increasing importance of such miscellaneous classes of business makes this information interesting and valuable.

The annual statements for the year 1921, from which the reports in this volume are compiled, furnish interesting and valuable information concerning these miscellaneous classes of business, not previously available. The increasing volume of income derived by the fire and marine insurance companies from these classes, and their effect in the results of the operations of the companies writing them, make the segregated showing a very valuable addition to these reports. The companies are required to report as to their operations in the following classes, viz:

1. Fire.
2. Ocean marine.
3. Motor Vehicle.
4. Aircraft.
5. Inland Navagation and Transportation.
6. Tornado.
7. Hail.
8. Sprinkler Leakage.
9. Riot, Insurrection, Civil Commotion.
10. Any other classes written not included in the above.

The statements show gross premiums, reinsurance, return premiums and net premiums; gross amounts paid for losses, reinsurance, salvage, and net amount paid for losses, in each of these classes separately. The liabilities show the total amount of unpaid losses, reinsurance and net amount of unpaid losses in each class separately. The commissions and underwriting expenses applying to each class, would be very valuable in showing the actual underwriting results of each class, but unfortunately those data are not available, nor are there sufficient data to compute the earned premiums by classes.

Special care has been devoted to the section embracing Reciprocal or Inter-insurance exchanges, which during the past few years have multiplied in number. We have carefully investigated the methods and plans of operation of every association of this class in the United States and have reported thereon. To a student of insurance practices the special features of each plan of operation will be found interesting, although the general plan is similar. In connection with this subject, an important article introducing the section of this volume dealing with Reciprocal or Inter-insurance exchanges should be read.

We again thank our subscribers for their continued support of this bureau, and pledge them our best efforts in the future, as we have given them in the past, toward the elimination of weak or fraudulent insurance concerns and of improper insurance practices.

ALFRED M. BEST.

NEW YORK, June 28, 1922.

How to Read the Statement of Condition of an Insurance Company

The following is intended to be a non-technical explanation of the principles of insurance accounting for the enlightenment of the layman:

A policy of fire insurance is an agreement on the part of the institution issuing it to indemnify the policyholder for loss or damage caused by or arising out of the occurrence of a fire. It usually continues in force for a considerable period. To afford ideal protection, the policy must be enforceable under the most adverse possible conditions, which means that the institution issuing the policy must be, beyond question, responsible, both at the time the policy is issued and the time the loss occurs; and that the terms of the contract shall be clear and comprehensive, the minds of the insurer and the insured meeting on every essential point. In this article, however, we deal only with the analysis of the statements of fire insurance companies, and not with the preparation of forms.

Fire insurance companies file an elaborate annual statement with the insurance departments of each of the States in which they are licensed to operate. These are prepared as of December 31st, and are practically uniform throughout the United States. They include detailed information concerning assets, liabilities, income and disbursements. Knowledge of a few fundamental principles of underwriting and insurance accounting will make them clear even to those who have no deep technical knowledge of insurance.

Fire insurance companies are always subject to the possibility of sustaining great losses through a conflagration. Their assets should therefore be liquid and of sufficient volume to offset all liabilities, including capital, and leave a substantial surplus, which in well managed companies is maintained at an amount at least equal to the paid-in capital. Such companies might find themselves called upon to pay for conflagration losses, at any time, an amount equal to their premium income for six months, or more. Consequently, a fire insurance company doing a general business of average character should not write annually in net premiums an amount greatly exceeding its combined capital and surplus, unless the business is more widely distributed than is usually the case. On the other hand, since fire insurance is based upon the law of average, it is desirable that a company operate in a sufficiently wide territory to be able to make up with reasonable promptness losses sustained at any one point by means of the income derived from other sections.

In applying these few general principles the following items in the statements of the companies should be considered:

Assets.— In their statements the companies set out in detail the nature and amount of their assets. In most States the kinds of investments permitted are carefully restricted, but in other States considerably more latitude is allowed, and frequently abused. Heavy investments in real estate are undesirable because non-liquid and because arbitrary increases in valuations may be made to conceal excessive losses. Good real estate mortgages, bonds and stocks are more desirable, but, of course, the desirability of all of these investments varies greatly, and the lists should be closely scrutinized. Securities in the least degree speculative are undesirable; the shrinkage in recent years in even standard securities has been so great that the supervising insurance officials agreed to permit fire insurance companies to list their securities at the end of 1917 at the average of the quotations of November 1, 1916, and the first of February, May, August and November, 1917; and a similar process was approved for the statement as of December 31, 1921, resulting in considerable inflation of the returns. From one point of view this is equitable, but policyholders must remember, in scanning the statements published this year, that the companies could not realize on these securities at anything like the figures reached by this averaging process—unless there should be a most unexpected recovery in the next few months. Therefore, the surplus shown should be proportionately discounted. A compartively few of the companies have valued their securities at market quotations December 31, 1921, which reports herein will show in each case. It is understood that at the end of 1922 all companies will be required to use market valuations.

Liabilities.— Most of the items set down in the published statements need no explanation. Losses are reported gross, with deductions, stated separately, for reinsurance recoverable. If a company's business is not prosperous, there is a temptation to minimize the estimates for unsettled claims, but usually this item is honestly reported. The item of unearned premiums (or reinsurance reserve) represents the amount returnable should all policies in force be canceled. This is computed on the entire premium, without considering the expense of acquiring the business, including the commissions allowed to agents. If policies are canceled, the agents' percentage of commission is in practice deducted from the return premium, and where business is reinsured en bloc the company assuming the business usually allows a very substantial commission upon the unearned premium turned over to it, representing the expense which would attend the acquisition of a similar volume of business through its own agents. There is, therefore, an unrevealed element of strength in the statements of well-managed fire insurance companies, representing the amount which could be realized by the cancellation or reinsurance of the business in force. In other words, the unearned premium liability, under ordinary conditions, can be discharged by the payment of from 40 to 70 per cent. of the amount which the companies are required by law to report as a liability.

Premiums are shown net, after deducting return premiums on canceled policies and reinsurance premiums. The premium income is the fund from which losses and expenses are to be paid. Therefore, in all standard statistical publications the last-mentioned items are compared with the premium revenue. Roughly speaking, losses on a business which is of reasonably stable volume should average, over a period of years, about 50 and expenses 40 per cent., or a little less. On a rapidly increasing business the loss ratio is deceptively low, because premiums are paid in advance for a considerable period, during the whole of which period losses will occur and must be paid. The true test, therefore, of the progress or retrogression of a fire insurance company is a comparison of the losses and expenses incurred (taking into account the increase or decrease of those unpaid) with the premiums earned, taking into account the increase or decrease of unearned premium liability.

To sum up: The business man should satisfy himself as to the character of the management and the quality of the assets (including a consideration of their convertibility into cash quickly and without undue sacrifice) of each company whose policy is submitted; he should make sure that it is transacting a volume of business neither too large nor too small in proportion to its net resources — i. e., first, its surplus, and, second, its paid-in capital, and he should make sure that its loss and expense ratios are normal, for a prosperous company is likely to be more just in its settlements than one which maintains only a struggling hold upon existence.

These comments apply particularly to the statements of standard stock fire insurance companies. The statements of mutual companies and reciprocal or inter-insurance exchanges are, in many instances, made up upon a basis so different from the one under discussion that it would be impossible within the limits of such a statement as this even to attempt to fix rules for their analysis. The important articles introducing the reciprocal, or inter-insurance section of this volume will help to an understanding of that class of institutions.

FOREIGN EXCHANGE

The rates of foreign exchange have fluctuated so greatly in recent years that if, on any given date, the statements of foreign insurance companies were converted into United States values at the current rate of exchange they would not long be correct. In converting these statements we have used arbitrarily the same rates of exchange which we have used for years in our publications. This gives a better basis of comparison of these foreign statements with those of previous years. If an exact showing is desired the current rates of exchange should be applied.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1857. Its authorized capital is 12,000,000 francs ($2,400,000), divided into 12,000 shares, par value, 1,000 francs ($200) each, of which 3,000,000 francs ($600,000) has been paid in, and the balance is represented by stockholders' liability. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note page vii.) The company is under the same management and control as two other companies of similar title, one of which was established in 1877 to write life insurance, and the other in 1881 to write accident insurance. The United States Branch was established in 1911 and wrote reinsurance only, but since March, 1919, the company is also operating direct throughout the United States. Previous to that time the company wrote some "surplus lines" in this country through its present United States managers.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent repute at its home and abroad, and its loss paying record is excellent. Starkweather & Shepley, Inc., its United States managers, are in excellent standing and are conservative underwriters. They also represent, as United States managers, the Union Nationale and Phenix insurance companies, of Paris, all of which write a direct fire insurance business. They also control and act as general agents for the Rhode Island Insurance Company, of Providence, R. I.

The expense and loss ratios of the United States Branch of this company have been moderate. In 1921 the loss ratio was high.

The bonds owned are of excellent character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The company writes a full volume of business compared with its United States resources.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses, wherever incurred. We therefore present the following information from the Home Office balance sheet (the latest available), which includes all its assets and liabilities: Total assets, December 31, 1920, $6,415,083.48; capital paid in, $600,000, and net surplus, $1,876,806.41. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

AFFILIATIONS.— Western Insurance Bureau, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

UNITED STATES MANAGERS.— Starkweather & Shepley, Inc., 17 Custom House Street, Providence, R. I. President, Geo. L. Shepley; vice-president and manager agency department, Emil G. Pieper.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1862, with a paid-in capital of $100,000, later increased to $200,000. In 1907 a stock dividend of $100,000 was declared, increasing the paid-in capital to $300,000, and in 1911 another stock dividend of $100,000 was declared, increasing the paid-in capital to $400,000. The par value of the stock is $40 per share.

The company's operations were confined to the Province of Nova Scotia up to July 31, 1905, when it secured a Dominion license, and now operates throughout the Dominion of Canada and also in Newfoundland.

Early in 1915 the Phoenix Assurance Company, of London, acquired a controlling interest in this company, and the underwriting in upper Canada is controlled from the Canadian office of the "Phoenix."

Policies entitled "Allied Underwriters" are guaranteed by this company and the "Phoenix," such policies being issued only in the provinces Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is well managed, and the Phoenix Assurance Company, of London, a very large and reputable institution, guarantees its policies.

The company bears an excellent reputation in the matter of loss settlements. The volume of business written is conservative. The loss and expense ratios are about normal.

Substantial dividends have been paid to stockholders each year since the company began business.

Its investments are of good character. The real estate is the head office building, carried at book value.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire and hail insurance.

TERRITORY.— Operates throughout the Dominion of Canada and in Newfoundland.

DIVIDENDS.— Since organization the company has paid dividends ranging from 6% to 15%; from 1914 to 1921, inclusive, the rate was 6%.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated by special act of the Legislature of Connecticut in 1819 to write fire insurance. The first meeting of the stockholders was held on June 15, 1819, and its first policy was issued August 17, 1819. The company's authorized capital was $150,000, with authority to increase it to $500,000. In 1839 its charter was amended to cover inland marine risks.

On May 26, 1820, $150,000 additional stock was authorized, and the company given authority to write life insurance and grant annuities. On May 28, 1853, the charter was amended, and from the annuity fund a separate corporation was formed under the title, "Ætna Life Insurance Company," the present corporation of that name.

In addition to the original $150,000 capital, which was paid up in instalments, the following increases have been made: 1822, $50,000; 1846, $50,000; 1849, $50,000; 1854, $100,000 cash payment and $100,000 stock dividend; 1857, stock dividend, $500,000; 1859, stock dividend, $500,000; 1864, stock dividend, $750,000; 1866, stock dividend, $750,000; 1881, $1,000,000, by the issuance of 10,000 new shares at par; 1910, $1,000,000, by the issuance of 10,000 new shares, par value $100, at $200 per share, adding $1,000,000 to surplus. This made the total paid-in capital $5,000,000.

The company issues and guarantees policies under the title "Ætna Underwriters Agency."

Management and Reputation.— The underwriting policy of the company has been conservative and very successful. It has made steady progress and ranks as one of the leading companies of the country.

Its directors are successful men, prominent in business and financial circles. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 only $241,100, par value of the company's $5,000,000 capital stock.

The company's loss paying record is excellent, under all conditions. In conflagrations, the company's losses have always been moderate in proportion to its income and resources, showing that the conflagration hazard is carefully observed. It writes a volume of business in proper proportion to its net resources.

Its expenses of operation are very moderate and its loss ratio normal.

Its investments are excellent. The security valuations are at actual market value. The real estate owned consists of a fire-proof stone and brick five-story office building at 662-680 Main street, Hartford, Conn., and a lot, and building thereon, at 45 Prospect street, adjoining same in rear.

The company has paid substantial dividends, and in addition has steadily increased its surplus. In 1921 it had a bad year in ocean marine and motor vehicle insurance, and brought its security valuations to actual market value, the previous valuations being those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. This operated to reduce the surplus.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business as a mutual company in 1853. In 1863 it was incorporated as a stock company with a paid-in capital of $50,000 and a surplus of $21,847.15, which was taken over from the mutual company. In 1865 its capital was increased to $100,000 by the issuance of new stock; in 1872 to $200,000, by a stock dividend; in 1880 to $300,000, by a stock dividend; in 1883 to $500,000, by a stock dividend of $200,000. In 1874 its stockholders contributed $100,000 to make good an impairment of capital which was brought about by new reserve requirements. On April 3, 1920, the Superintendent of Insurance of the State of New York approved the increase of the capital to $1,000,000 by transfer of $500,000 from surplus, and at the same time the par value of the shares was reduced to $50 per share.

The par value of its stock is $50 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has successful and substantial men identified with it as directors, and its stock is well distributed. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $235,800, par value, of its $1,000,000 capital stock.

Its underwriting policy has been conservative and successful. The company has made steady progress and bears an excellent reputation. It is in excellent repute concerning its treatment of loss claimants.

Its management expenses have been about the average, and its loss ratio has been below normal.

The investments of the company are of excellent character.

The mortgage and collateral loans are well secured. The real estate owned is the Home Office building.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of New York in 1811 with $500,000 authorized capital. In 1829 its capital was reduced to $300,000, and in 1851 to $100,000. In 1857 the capital was increased to $125,000; in 1859 to $150,000; in 1872 to $200,000, and in 1889 to $250,000, the amount at which it now stands.

The par value of the company's stock is $50 a share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is backed by substantial interests, and its directorate includes prominent business and financial men. The directors of the company owned at the end of 1921 $56,806, par value, of the company's $250,000 capital stock.

Its underwriting policy has been conservative, and the company has built up a substantial surplus. Good dividends have been paid to stockholders. The majority of the company's stock is held by residents of Albany.

The company's loss paying record is excellent. Its expense ratio is somewhat above the average. Its average loss ratio is normal, but in 1918 and 1919 the loss ratio was low. In 1921 it made an underwriting profit and a substantial gain in surplus.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgage loans are well secured by improved property in New York State.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1824. Its authorized capital is £5,450,000, consisting of 250,000 original shares of £20 each, with £2 4s. paid up, and 450,000 new shares of £1 each fully paid up, making the total paid in capital £1,000,000. The balance of the authorized capital is all subscribed and subject to call. It entered the United States and Canada in 1892.

In January, 1907, it ceased writing fire business in the United States, but in 1911 re-entered to write marine and inland business only, under the management of Chubb & Son, of New York.

It is one of the leading companies in England and one of the strongest insurance companies in the world.

It maintains a branch in Canada, where it writes only fire insurance.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— All assets of the company (other than life insurance funds) are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. On December 31, 1920, the total assets amounted to $138,256,726; capital paid in, $5,000,000. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has exceptionally strong backing. It is in excellent repute at its home and in this country. Its loss paying reputation is excellent.

Mr. W. Knox Denham is manager at the Home Office in London.

Chubb & Son, its United States managers, also represent, as United States managers, the Marine Insurance Company, Limited, of London, the Sea Insurance Company, Limited, of Liverpool, and the United States Marine Branch of the London Assurance Corporation; they also manage the Federal Insurance Company of Jersey City, New Jersey. In April, 1917, they became the managers of the Marine and Inland Department of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn.

The expense ratio of the United States Branch has been low, and the loss ratio, except in 1918, 1920 and 1921 in recent years has also been low.

The investments are of excellent character.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEES.— Bankers Trust Co., New York.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— In the United States States it writes marine, inland, registered mail, tourists' baggage, war risk and automobile insurance. The Home Office writes life, fire, marine, personal accident, liability and burglary insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated December 5, 1904, and began business January 1, 1905, with $500,000 capital and $500,000 surplus paid in.

The company reported a net loss of $1,063,576 in the San Francisco conflagration in April, 1906, which exhausted its capital and surplus. Its stockholders contributed $15 a share as a voluntary contribution, $10.86 of which was applied to capital and $4.14 to surplus account. In return for this the company issued scrip bearing interest at 6%, which was not considered a liability against the company and which was to be redeemed later at the discretion of the directors. During 1911 the scrip, amounting to $194,348.16, was redeemed.

In 1911 its capital was increased from $500,000 to $750,000. On December 26, 1919, the stockholders approved an increase of 25,000 shares of the capital stock of the company. During 1920 the entire amount was subscribed and paid for and $125,000 contributed to surplus.

It will be noted that the company carries in its statement an item of $640,652.96, "Contingent Reserve Fund," which is not included in the net surplus.

The par value of the stock is $10 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company was organized by prominent insurance and business men of Philadelphia, many of whom are also identified with the Insurance Company of North America, Philadelphia, a large and responsible company. It is under the same management as that company.

It is backed by substantial interests, and its directorate includes prominent business men and financiers. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 only $95,200, par value, of the $1,000,000 capital stock.

The underwriting policy of the company has been conservative and successful. During 1920 the company increased its writings heavily, necessitating a large increase in unearned premium reserve, which contributed to an underwriting loss and a decrease of surplus.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions. Its average expenses of operation are very low, and its average loss ratio is normal. The marine loss ratios in recent years were high.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania September 3, 1918, and received its license September 26, 1918, to transact a general fire insurance business.

The authorized and paid-in capital is $100,000. The stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $150 per share, so that the company started with a paid-in surplus of $50,000. The organization expenses consisted merely of charter fees and the necessary expenses attached thereto amounting to approximately $500.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has reputable backing, and the management is closely affiliated with that of the Pittsburgh Lumbermen's Mutual Fire Insurance Co., of Pittsburgh.

Edwin M. Hill, president of the company, is vice-president of the Pittsburgh Lumbermen's Mutual Fire Insurance Company. He has been engaged in the lumber and planing mill business for many years, and is in excellent repute.

Carl Van der Voort, secretary of the company, has acted as secretary of the Pittsburgh Lumbermen's Mutual since its organization in 1907. He has had considerable insurance experience and is in excellent standing.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $74,800, par value, of the company's $100,000 capital stock.

It writes a small volume of business and has had a low expense ratio for a new company, considering also the volume written. The loss ratio has been high. It has a good loss paying reputation.

The company's investments are of excellent character. The mortgage loans are all upon Allegheny County property valued at over twice the amount loaned. The bonds owned are all Liberty bonds.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized in December, 1896, with an authorized capital of $200,000, and began business in February, 1897. On June 3, 1910, its capital was increased from $200,000 to $300,000.

It was organized and is controlled by the British and Foreign Marine Insurance Company, of Liverpool, England, a very large and responsible company, which is owned and controlled by the Royal Insurance Company, Limited, of Liverpool.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The underwriting policy of the company has been conservative and successful, and it has made steady and substantial progress.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $6,500 par value of its capital stock of $300,000.

Its loss paying record is excellent. Its expenses of operation have been very moderate, and its loss ratio has been very low. In 1919 its expense of operation and its loss ratio were above normal. It increased its business considerably in 1918 and made a large underwriting profit that year, but in 1919 its volume fell back to its former level and it sustained a small loss from underwriting. In 1920 it had a favorable loss ratio, a very low expense ratio, and made an underwriting profit of $208,682.94. In 1921 the premium income reduced considerably from that of 1920, the loss ratio was high, and there was an underwriting loss of $200,049.38.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

Its president is United States manager of the British and Foreign Marine Insurance Company and also of the Reliance Marine and Ocean Marine insurance companies of England.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Marine, tourists' baggage, registered mail and automobile insurance.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1902 to 1906, inclusive, 5%; 1907 to 1913, inclusive, 7%; 1914 to 1916, inclusive, 10%; 1917, 15%; 1918, 1919 and 1920, 20%; 1921, 25%.

OFFICERS.— President, W. L. H. Simpson; vice-president, W. A. W. Burnett; secretary and treasurer, John E. Hoffman.

DIRECTORS.— Burnett, W. A. W.; Hoffman, John E.; Jamison, W. A.; Macomber, Frank Gair; Mather, Chas. E.; Pollock, Walter B.; Post, James H.; Simpson, W. L. H.; Mackintosh, W.; Thacher, A. G.; Topping, John A.; Walters, J. H.; Carter, Walter.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Missouri December 15, 1911. It was organized under the general insurance laws of Missouri for companies other than life, and its charter powers are broad. The intention of the company, however, is to confine its underwriting to all kinds of insurance on automobiles, including fire, theft, collision, property damage and liability, and any other insurance relating to automobiles.

It began business January 1, 1912, with $200,000 authorized capital divided into 2,000 shares, par value $100 each. The stock was sold at $131 per share and a premium of $62,000 was realized. Of this amount $12,000 was paid to the organizers of the company, out of which all expenses of organization, up to the date when it commenced business, had been paid, so that the company started with a capital of $200,000 and a net surplus of $50,000.

In December, 1912, its capital was increased to $300,000, and $50,000 surplus was paid in. On December 9, 1913, the capital was reduced to $225,000, thus transferring $75,000 to surplus account. In August, 1916, the capital was again increased to $300,000, such increase being paid in by stockholders at par. In the early part of 1920 the stockholders paid in $225,000 to surplus as a voluntary contribution to take care of the rapidly increasing business. In the latter part of 1921 $225,000 additional funds were contributed by the stockholders to the surplus account. The total amount paid in by stockholders was $937,000, of which $300,000 was applied to capital, $625,000 to surplus and $12,000 for organization expenses.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The directors of the company are substantial financial and business men of St. Louis. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $237,966, par value, of the capital stock. The active managers are energetic and efficient.

The President, Charles W. Disbrow, has general charge of all departments and gives special attention to the underwriting, claims and statistical departments; but each department has its own superintendent. He is an attorney at law and admitted to the New York and Colorado bars. In 1902 he was appointed special agent of the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore, and was later made manager of the Mountain Department of that company, with headquarters at Denver, Colo. Later he was transferred from Denver to St. Louis as manager of the Central Western Department of the same company, from which position he resigned November 1, 1911, to organize this company.

The Treasurer, S. S. Williams, had many years' experience as an accountant before he became connected with this company several years ago.

The average loss ratio has been moderate, and the expense ratio low, with an increasing tendency in the last few years. Since 1916 the premium volume has increased very greatly and it is large in proportion to the company's capital and surplus. The company, however, writes only automobile insurance, and therefore it is not subjected to the same conflagration hazard as a company writing a general fire insurance business.

It had a loss from underwriting in 1920 of $145,891.78 and an increase of $120,450.29 in surplus. It increased its reserves for unearned premiums about $112,000 and paid dividends of $12,000, which were offsets to the $225,000 contribution to surplus. In 1921 it had a loss from underwriting of $309,505.94, the interest income and $225,000 contributed by stockholders offsetting this item and adding $43,710.75 to surplus.

The company's reputation in regard to loss settlements is good. The reserve for unpaid liability losses in the above statement is figured on the same basis as required of all standard stock casualty companies.

We have been advised that the company charges conference rates for fire, theft, property damage and collision insurance, but does not in all cases charge manual rates for liability coverage.

The investments are of good quality and are remunerative. We are advised by the company that the security valuations are at the market quotations.

DIVIDENDS.—A 10% dividend was paid in 1915 and 12% in 1916; 1917, 12.5%; 1918, 12%; 1919, 16%; 1920, 4%; 1921, none.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Missouri, and commenced business in February, 1853, as a mutual company, with the title "Atlantic Mutual Insurance Company." It operated on that basis until 1869, when it became a stock company, with a subscribed capital of $300,000, and changed its name to "Atlantic Insurance Company." Early in 1870 the present title was adopted.

On January 1, 1870, the paid-up capital was $143,719.10; a year later, $231,370, and on January 1, 1872, $275,000, at which figure it remained until January 1, 1876, when the remainder of the $300,000 authorized capital was paid in. During 1881 it was increased to $600,000. In 1901, $400,000 capital and $400,000 surplus, and in 1906, $1,000,000 capital and $1,000,000 surplus were paid in.

On December 23, 1913, its directors voted to change the par value of the stock from $100 to $50 per share, reducing the capital of the company from $2,000,000 to $1,000,000 and transferring the difference to surplus account. This action was approved by the stockholders and the transfer made on March 6, 1914, with the approval of the Missouri Insurance Department.

For a number of years the Mercantile Fire and Marine Insurance Company of Boston, Mass., was represented in the West in the Home Office of this company, and the latter company's New England business was handled by the Home Office of the Mercantile Fire and Marine. In 1912 the "American Central" reinsured the Mercantile Fire and Marine's business.

A contract was consummated December 31, 1914, by and between this company and the Commercial Union Assurance Company, Ltd., of England, by which the Commercial Union reinsured one-half of the entire net liability of the American Central and entered into a continuing contract for a considerable term of years to reinsure one-half of all business written. The stock control of the company was purchased by the Commercial Union Assurance Company in April, 1916, and that company owns 19,250 of its 20,000 shares of capital stock. The above reinsurance contract was by mutual consent terminated December 31, 1919, and commencing January 1, 1920, the American Central retained the full amount of its net writings for its sole account.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—This company is under competent management, and is in excellent repute.

The company is writing a full volume in proportion to its capital and surplus. During 1920 the company greatly increased its premium income, being nearly two and one-half times as much as that written in 1919, resulting in a heavy contribution to unearned premium reserve, and a considerable reduction in surplus. Although its premium volume decreased in 1921, compared with 1920, its unearned premiums increased, and with loss and expense ratios somewhat above normal there was an underwriting loss. The investment account produced good gains and there was a substantial increase in the surplus.

The business written in the congested centers of the largest cities is of moderate volume, the conflagration hazard being carefully observed. The business of the company is widely distributed through the operation of over 6,000 agencies.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its treatment of loss claimants.

Its average expense ratio is below the average of companies transacting relatively the same volume and character of business. The average loss ratio is about normal.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Ohio February 6, 1906, with $200,000 authorized capital. It was licensed by the Ohio Insurance Department January 15, 1907, with $100,000 paid-in capital. During 1908 $50,000 capital and $25,000 surplus were paid in. On February 10, 1920, the authorized capital was increased to $300,000, and by June 1, 1920, the additional $100,000 capital and $5,000 surplus were paid in.

The par value of the stock is $25 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has reputable local backing and is under competent management, which is reflected in its large underwriting profits.

The company's stock is well distributed among druggists, the directors owning at the end of 1920 $37,912.50 of the $300,000 capital stock then outstanding.

It insures only drug stores.

The volume of business written is conservative and the risks are well scattered. Its expense of operation has been moderate, and its loss ratio much below the average.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations are those fixed by the National Convention of Insurance Commissioners. It owns three small pieces of real estate, all in Cincinnati, and all carried at cost.

KIND OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York State and began business in August, 1915, with $1,000,000 capital and a like amount of surplus paid in. It was organized for the purpose of continuing the business of the Fidelity Underwriters, whose policies were guaranteed by the Continental and Fidelity-Phenix Fire Insurance Companies of New York.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— This company is under the same management as the Continental and Fidelity-Phenix Insurance Companies, very large and reputable institutions.

The American Eagle Investing Company, Incorporated, a business corporation of the State of New York, owns all of the capital stock of this company, except Directors qualifying shares.

Its expense ratio is very low, and its average loss ratio is low. Its loss paying reputation is excellent.

The company's business increased greatly during 1919, and a corresponding increase in the unearned premium liability was made. At the close of the year a good underwriting profit was shown. In 1920 it made an underwriting profit, but a reduction in surplus was caused by continuing to adjust the securities to market value. In 1921 the volume of premiums written, and the unearned premiums increased a considerable amount, and there was a moderate underwriting loss. The interest earnings and profit on investments enabled the company to show a substantial increase in surplus.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York State and received its license from the New York Insurance Department on April 12, 1918. It writes both direct and reinsurance.

The company began with a paid-in capital of $400,000 and a paid-in surplus of $600,000, the par value of the shares being $100. There were no organization expenses, which is commendable.

In December, 1920, the Manufacturers Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill., was merged with this company. The capital of each company was $400,000, and the capital of the merged company was made $500,000, thus transferring $300,000 to the surplus account. Sixty per cent. of the stock of the merged company was allotted to the stockholders of the American Equitable and 40% to the stockholders of the Manufacturers.

The par value of the shares is $5.

The Manufacturers Insurance Company was incorporated October 25, 1913, as the Associated Industries Fire Insurance Company, changing to the former name in 1919. A part of the policies written by that company were on a participating basis.

This company and the Knickerbocker Insurance Company of New York guarantee a series of policies issued under the title "American International Underwriters," and "Metropolitan Assurance Underwriters."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is controlled by interests identified with Corroon & Duffey, Inc., which interests also control the Knickerbocker Insurance Company of New York.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $165,720. par value, of the company's capital stock.

The company maintained a marine department in charge of the Columbia Underwriting Agency, Inc., 54 Beaver street, of which Albert Ullman is president and underwriter, but has discontinued writing marine insurance. It also discontinued writing motor vehicle insurance in 1921.

The Central Fire Office, Inc., 92 William street, New York, which also acts in the same capacity for the Knickerbocker Insurance Company, is general agent for the direct fire business. It also acts as Metropolitan district manager of a number of other companies.

The company has written a full volume of business in proportion to its net resources, but in 1921 the writings were greatly reduced, and were moderate in that year. It had a normal loss ratio on fire business and a moderate loss ratio on marine transactions during 1919.

The figures in the company's statement for 1920 represent the combined figures of the two companies reported above as having merged. The expense ratio of the combined figures was about the average, but the loss ratio was above normal. The underwriting loss in 1920 was $247,966.51.

In 1921 the loss ratio was, of course, heavy on the run off of its ocean marine and motor car risks. Its fire losses were above normal. On the earned premium basis its losses were rather high and the expenses about the average. The underwriting loss for the year was $74,555.31. The dividends paid operated to reduce the surplus in approximately the amount paid.

The company is in good repute in the matter of loss settlements.

The securities owned by the company are of excellent character.

AFFILIATIONS.— Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— The company writes direct fire, marine, tornado, explosion, civil commotion and riot business, and also fire and hail reinsurance.

DIVIDEND.— 25% declared during 1921.

TERRITORY.— The company is licensed in Ariz., Ark., Cal., Colo., Conn., Del., Fla., Iowa, Idaho, Ill., Ind., La., Maine, Md., Mass., Mich., Miss., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Ore., Pa., R. I., Tenn., Texas, Utah, Wash. and W. Va. It also operates throughout Canada.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia as The German American Fire Insurance Company of the District of Columbia, and began business in 1873 with $100,000 authorized and paid-in capital. The present title was adopted during 1918 and was later legally approved.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Management and Reputation.— The company is small but well managed and bears an excellent local reputation. Its business is entirely local and has been profitable.

Its expense of operation, due to the small volume of business transacted, is high, but its loss ratio has been very low.

General Review.

History.— This is a stock company, incorporated under the laws of Illinois, November 19, 1920, and received its license November 29, 1921. The authorized capital is $200,000, the par value being $10 per share. We are advised by the company that the stock was sold at $20 per share, the subscription blank authorizing an organization cost of 15%. The stock was sold largely to the stockholders of the Zenith Companies, Inc., of Minneapolis, Minn., which is interested also in the Merchants Life and Casualty Company of Minneapolis, the Union Insurance Company of Winnipeg, and the Merchants Casualty Company, of Winnipeg, Canada.

Management and Reputation.— The management of the Company is under the Supervision of its president Mr. P. J. Kiefer, who has been engaged in the insurance business for a number of years, having been associated with the United States management of the Svea Insurance Company, of Sweden, and its affiliated Companies. The underwriting will be in charge of the secretary, Mr. Henry J. Woessner. Mr. Woessner has been engaged in the insurance business for many years, starting with a local agency in Menominee, Michigan. He was State Agent of the American Central Insurance Company, of St. Louis, Mo., six years, and manager of the Western Department of the California Insurance Company, of San Francisco, seven years. He was later secretary and managing underwriter of the Marquette National Fire Insurance Company, and more recently assistant managing underwriter of the Columbia National Fire Insurance Company, of Lansing, Mich.

The examination of the company by the Illinois State Insurance Department in considering application for a license showed that a large part of the assets of the company at that time ($244,185), was in shares of the Zenith Companies Inc., and a substantial part ($119.365) notes secured by stock, 25% or more having been paid. The company advises that, December 31, 1921, it held stockholders' notes unpaid, and not due, $113,277.38, but this item is not included in the above statement.

Officers.—President, P. J. Kieffer; vice-presidents, S. D. Works and L. W. Mack; secretary-treasurer, C. A. Koepke; secretaries, B. N. Anderson and H. J. Woessner.

Directors.—E. B. Bradford, M. D., Hudson, Wis.; J. E. Burchard, Minneapolis, Minn.; P. J. Kieffer, Chicago Ill.; C. A. Koepke, Chicago, Ill.; L. A. Kramer, Chicago, Ill.; L. W. Mack, Chicago, Ill.; S. D. Works, Minneapolis, Minn.

No items of income and disbursements are shown as the company is only starting to write business in 1922.

General Review.

History.— This company began business in February, 1846, as the American Mutual Fire and Marine Insurance Company. In 1855 it discontinued writing marine business, but in 1917 again began writing that class. Dividends or profits were paid policyholders in the form of scrip, which amounted to $600,000 in 1872, and in addition the company had a net surplus of $291,907. In that year the company discontinued issuing scrip and was reorganized as a stock company with the $600,000 scrip as capital. In 1899 it reinsured the risks of the Rockford Insurance Company, of Rockford, Ill.

In 1907 its capital was increased from $600,000 to $750,000 by the issuance of $150,000 additional stock, which was sold at 300%, producing $300,000 additional surplus, and in 1909 it was increased from $750,000 to $1,000,000, by the issuance of $250,000 additional stock, which was sold to old stockholders at par, the market price of the stock at that time being about 500%.

During 1917 the capital was increased to $2,000,000 by a stock dividend of $1,000,000. In 1921 there was paid in capital $500,000, making the paid-in capital $2,500,000, and $500,000 was contributed to surplus.

The par value of the stock is $5 a share.

Policies entitled "The Jersey Fire Underwriters" are also issued by this company throughout the United States.

Management and Reputation.— The company is backed by substantial interests, and its directorate includes prominent business men and financiers. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $199,510, par value, of the company's $2,000,000 capital stock.

Its underwriting policy has been conservative and successful. It has made steady progress and bears an excellent reputation. Its business has been profitable, and substantial dividends have been paid to stockholders.

It writes a full volume of business in proportion to its net resources. Its writings have increased considerably in recent years. Its average loss ratio has been favorable and the average expense ratio moderate.

Its general loss paying record is excellent.

Its investments are of excellent character.

The principal items of real estate are the Home Office building at 68 to 72 Park Place, Newark, acquired in 1902, and carried at $357,800 (cost over $425,000); a building at the northwest corner of Main and Peach streets, Rockford, Ill., used for the Western Department office, built in 1904, with a new addition built in 1913, carried at $96,900, and a dwelling and lot adjoining at 56 Main street, Orange, N. J., valued at $15,960.

Its mortgage loans are nearly all small, and are amply secured by New Jersey real estate.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the Missouri laws June 21, 1916, as the Retailers National Fire Insurance Company. It was licensed by the Insurance Department of that State May 14, 1919, and adopted its present title June 2, 1919, on which date it began business, with an authorized, subscribed and paid-in capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $50,000. In 1920 $100,000 was contributed to surplus.

The company was organized without expense, which is commendable. Its stock, par value, $10 per share, was sold at $12.50 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The president of the company is F. C. Harvey, who was its active promoter. He is attorney and manager of the Western Reciprocal Underwriters. He is capable and in excellent repute.

E. G. Trimble, vice-president, is president of the Employers Indemnity Corporation, which writes accident and health, automobile and teams property damage, automobile liability and workmen's compensation. He has had many years experience in handling these lines.

The company is backed by substantial interests and at the end of 1921 the officers and directors owned, at par value, $109,000 of the capital stock.

In 1920 the loss ratio was very high, but the expense ratio was very low. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and the expense ratio was above normal. There was a comparatively heavy underwriting loss in both these years.

The volume of business transacted is moderate.

No complaints have reached us concerning its treatment of loss claimants.

Its investments are of good character.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized under the laws of New York and began business February 29, 1916, with $200,000 capital and $100,000 surplus paid in. The stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $150 per share. There were no organization expenses.

In August, 1917, the stockholders voluntarily contributed $300,000 to surplus account.

On October 1, 1918, the capital stock was increased from $200,000 to $300,000, the entire new issue being taken by the then stockholders at $500 per share, so that $400,000 was added to the surplus account.

In January, 1919, the paid-in capital was increased to $400,000 by a stock dividend of $100,000.

In June, 1919, the paid-in capital was increased to $600,000, the entire new issue of 2,000 shares being subscribed at $400 per share, so that $600,000 was added to surplus account, making a total contribution to surplus by the stockholders of $1,400,000.

Up to January 1, 1919, the company confined its operations to marine and automobile insurance, but at that time it opened a separate fire insurance branch.

As of January 1, 1919, the company reinsured the outstanding fire business of the United States Branch of the Prussian National Insurance Company, of Stettin, Germany, by contract executed February 5, 1919. The unearned premiums involved in this transaction were approximately $350,000.

In July, 1920, this company ceased writing marine business, and early in August it also ceased writing fire insurance, and reinsured its outstanding fire risks in the National Bonding and Insurance Company (now the Inter-Ocean Reinsurance Company,) of Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

At the time of ceasing business the company had a large amount of claims against unadmitted companies by reason of claims made under its policies which were reinsured, and for which no credit could be taken in its statement to the New York Insurance Department. It has since been bending its energies to collect these claims, and to liquidating its own, and when these unadmitted items are converted to cash, or admitted assets, it will decide upon future plans.

For some time past the New York Insurance Department has been scrutinizing closely the company's affairs, but it has made no formal report of examination.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The officers of the company have had long experience in the marine insurance business, and the interests controlling the company are reputable. The business, however, has been unprofitable.

The company's loss paying reputation is good.

Mr. C. P. Stewart, president of this company, is also president of C. P. Stewart & Company, Inc., formerly managers of insurance companies, and of Frank B. Hall & Company, insurance brokers and average adjusters.

The company wrote a very large volume of business. Its general practice was to write very heavy marine lines, reinsuring all but a small percentage of the risks so assumed. It is primarily responsible for the entire line whether the reinsurance proves collectible or not. This practice of the company is reflected in its statement printed as part of this report.

The expenses of operation were moderate.

In the statement printed above the company takes credit for certain reinsurance in companies not licensed in New York State, and it has set up a reserve of $800,000 for "possible losses on reinsurance recoveries, and on sale of investments," which the Company believes to be ample to cover any loss from those sources. On the New York Insurance Department basis, which does not recognize reinsurance in non-admitted companies, the capital was shown to be impaired $174,064.44. Since this condition was reported upon in our 1921 Fire and Marine Volume, considerable amounts have been collected from unadmitted reinsurers, and it has improved its position over $400,000, computing its assets and liabilities upon the statutory basis.

About twenty-seven per cent of the securities owned are Liberty Bonds, and the others are of a miscellaneous character being carried at the company's book value.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $399,600, par value, of the company's capital stock then outstanding.

TERRITORY.— The company is licensed in Alaska, Cal., Del., Idaho, Ill., Ind., Iowa, Ky., La., Mich., Mont., Neb., N. J., N. Y., Ore., Pa., R. I., Texas, Utah, Wash. and W. Va.

DIVIDENDS.— Cash, $50,000; stock, $100,000, in January, 1919.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Ohio, September 17, 1914, and was licensed by the Insurance Department of that State, November 28, 1916, with $350,000 paid-in capital. The stock, par value, $10 per share, was sold at $20 per share. This is reasonable, and was provided for in the stock subscription blank. Up to the end of 1917, $328,892.20 surplus had been collected. The sale of stock was handled by John W. Zuber, former president of the company, who was formerly State Fire Marshal of Ohio.

In February, 1919, the capital stock was increased from $350,000, to $500,000. The new stock, par value, $10 per share, was sold at $20 per share, without cost or expense to the company, thereby adding $150,000 to surplus account.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company bears a good reputation. It has reinsurance arrangements with the United States Branch of the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, and has the benefit of the conservative judgment and guidance of the Western Department of the Royal Insurance Company.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $52,690, par value, of the $500,000 capital stock.

The company increased its business considerably in 1918, 1919 and 1920, and the underwriting loss in those years was due in part, but not wholly, to the corresponding increase in unearned premium reserve.

The company's loss ratio has been low. Its expense ratio has been high, but has shown a downward tendency in recent years, until 1921, when it increased, and with a considerably increased loss ratio there was a heavy rate of underwriting loss in that year.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgage loans are apparently well secured, and all cover property in Cleveland and Lakewood, except one, which is in Columbus, Ohio.

The company bears a good reputation in the matter of loss settlements.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, sprinkler leakage, hail and tornado insurance.

TERRITORY.— The company is licensed in Cal., Colo., Del., Ill., Ind., Ia., Kan., La., Md., Mich., Minn., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Ore., Pa., Tex., Wash., W. Va., Wis. and Wyo.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated in February, 1897, and began business April 1, 1897, with $200,000 capital and $200,000 surplus. It took over the business of the Assurance Lloyds of America, which was organized in 1892.

In December, 1903, it absorbed the National Standard Insurance Company of New York, organized in 1896, which had been under the same management, and the capital was increased to $400,000. In February, 1904, the company sustained a loss of $183,309 in the Baltimore conflagration, which considerably reduced the surplus. In 1906 it sustained a net loss of $400,750 in the San Francisco conflagration, and the capital was reduced from $400,000 to $200,000, transferring $200,000 to surplus.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized in 1916, and has a paid-in capital of Kr. 1,000,000. Mr. Nils Philipson is the Managing Director, and Mr. C. Rohss the Sub-Managing Director. It entered the United States February 5, 1921, by making statutory deposit with the Insurance Department of the State of New York, and will write in the United States a marine reinsurance business only.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— We have not been furnished with a general Home Office balance sheet, but have been advised by the United States management that on December 31, 1920, the admitted assets were $4,099,814, and surplus, $1,195,239. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— Messrs. Carr & Company of Penn Terminal Building, New York City, represent the company as United States managers. They have had considerable experience in the insurance and reinsurance business. Francis C. Carr being president of Francis C. Carr and Company, Inc., a prominent New York City brokerage office, and Oscar Thieme, a member of the firm, has been engaged in insurance and reinsurance for many years.

In the first year of its operations in the United States, the company wrote a small volume with good results; having a low expense ratio and making a fair underwriting profit.

The securities are high class, and are carried in the statement at the valuations fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

UNITED STATES MANAGERS.— Carr and Company.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey, July 8, 1902, and began business January 5, 1903, with $100,000 capital paid in. In August, 1918, the paid-in capital was increased to $200,000, and $25,000 was collected for surplus. The par value of the stock is $100.

No surplus was contributed when the company started, the surplus shown above having been earned, with the exception of the $25,000 paid in during 1918.

Management and Reputation.— The company has made good progress and is in good repute. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $51,400, par value, of the $200,000 capital stock.

It writes freely upon hotels and other property in Atlantic City, and is subject to conflagration loss, but so far, its local business has been very profitable, and the company has paid substantial dividends to stockholders. The company is now writing business throughout the United States and Canada upon application to its Home Office, and it advises that only risks of the better classes are accepted.

Its loss ratio has averaged very low and its expense ratio is about normal. In 1919 it had a high loss ratio, but in 1920 its loss ratio was favorable. In 1921 the loss ratio was low, and, although the expense ratio was high, an underwriting profit was made.

Its general loss paying record is good.

The securities owned are of good character. The valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgages are all first liens upon Atlantic City and Ventnor property, valued at twice the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of North Carolina in 1905, and commenced business February 1, 1906, with a paid-in capital of $125,000. During that year the stockholders voluntarily contributed $25,000 to create a surplus.

In 1917 the capital was increased to $150,000 through a stock dividend of $25,000. During 1918 it was increased to $200,000 by a stock dividend of $50,000.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— Though small, the company has good local backing, and its underwriting operations have been very profitable, until 1921, when it had an unfavorable year resulting in a small underwriting loss for the year. The company's loss paying record is excellent. It transacts a conservative volume of business. Its loss and expense ratios in recent years have been low, except for the year 1921.

R. S. Busbee, its secretary, was for several years in the employ of the Southeastern Underwriters Association, and for seven years special agent of the Seibels General Agency of Columbia, S. C.

The directors owned at the end of 1921, $102,700, par value, of the capital stock.

The mortgage loans are amply secured by improved town and city property in North Carolina.

The securities owned are North Carolina 4% bonds; St. Mary's School, Raleigh, N. C., 6% bonds; Peace Institute 6% bonds; Liberty bonds; Carolina Power & Light pfd. stock, and Yadkin River Power Co. pfd. stock.

AFFILIATION.— Southeastern Underwriters Association.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was established in 1808. Its subscribed capital is £2,200,000, divided into 220,000 shares of £10 each, of which £1,320,000 has been paid in. It entered the United States in 1886.

Early in 1904 this company absorbed the Manchester Assurance Company, Limited, of Manchester, England.

Policies are issued and guaranteed by this company under the title, "Atlas Underwriters Agency," and policies are issued under the title "The Manchester Underwriters Agency."

As of May 31, 1921, this company reinsured the outstanding policies of the Atlas National Insurance Company, of Sioux Falls, South Dakota.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—As all assets of the company (other than life insurance funds) are liable for the payment of losses, wherever incurred, we present the following information from the Home Office balance sheet: Total assets, December 31, 1919, $32,892,640; capital paid in, $1,283,040, and net surplus, $4,432,537. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is in excellent repute both at its home and in this country.

The United States Branch is under competent and experienced management. It transacts a full business and its operations in this country have been profitable. The premium income increased considerably in 1918, 1919 and 1920, and reduced slightly in 1921. Its operation expenses are moderate, and its loss ratio has been normal. The expense ratio was above the average in 1921, and the company had a considerable underwriting loss in that year.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, December 26, 1919, and was licensed February 9, 1920, with an authorized subscribed and paid-in capital of $300,000 and a surplus of like amount. Shares, par value $50 were sold at $100, thus providing the surplus. There was no expense of promotion, which is highly commendable.

Management and Reputation.— The officers and directors of this company hold similar offices in the Preferred Accident Insurance Company of New York, which company writes general casualty lines, such as accident, health, auto and teams property damage, burglary and theft, fidelity, surety and liability insurance. The company has substantial backing, virtually the same as that supporting the Preferred Accident Insurance Company of New York.

The company reduced its writings in 1921 under that of its first year, 1920, resulting in a high loss and expense

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1919 to write all classes of insurance except life. The authorized capital is £500,000, of which £250,000 is subscribed and £125,001 paid in. The chairman of the board is Edward M. Iliffe, of Mess. Iliffe & Sons, Ltd., a large publishing house. This company was admitted August 1, 1921, to the Dominion of Canada to write fire insurance.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—It is represented in Canada by the Montreal Agencies, Ltd., of Montreal, a subsidiary of the Montreal Trust Company, which office also represents as Canadian managers the Queensland Insurance Company of Sydney, Australia. The Montreal Agencies, Ltd., has a branch office in Winnipeg, which has charge of its business in Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba, and a branch also at Vancouver for British Columbia. All other agents report direct to Montreal. The business of the Autocar will be extended throughout the various provinces of the Dominion.

The underwriting is in charge of Mr. J. D. Cherry, formerly connected with the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All the assets are liable for losses here. The Home Office balance sheet, December 31, 1921, shows assets of £199,070 ($995,350); capital paid up, £125,001 ($625,005). (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used, see page vii.)

The company ceased writing marine insurance in April, 1921, and the volume of the fire business transacted is a large percentage of the total and the company does a substantial foreign business having recently entered Canada as above referred to and it also operates in India and the Near East.

A substantial volume of miscellaneous business is transacted being largely motor car insurance in the United Kingdom only.

AUTOMOBILE INSURANCE ASSOCIATION,

Pierce Building, St. Louis, Mo.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This is an association organized under the laws of Missouri in January, 1922, and began business in the same month. It operates as an unlimited co-partnership. Two hundred thousand dollars has been subscribed and paid in and this amount has been deposited in United States Government Bonds with the Insurance Department of the State of Missouri. It was organized to write fire, theft, collision liability and property damage insurance on automobiles. For the present it will write fire, theft and collision only. It operates on the stock company basis with no mutual, reciprocal or inter-insurance features and will comply with the laws applicable to stock companies in regard to reserves. The shares in this co-partnership are held by eleven individuals as follows:

Charles L. Crane, the manager of this association and president of the Charles L. Crane Agency in St. Louis.

William W. LaBeaume, secretary of this association.

Charles G. Petrie, connected with the management of this association.

John R. Scott, president of this association and a prominent railroad director.

Johns S. Leahy of Leahy & Saunders, attorneys.

Charles H. Duncker of Torlicht-Duncker Carpet Company.

Thomas D. Petrie, Rice-Stix Dry Goods Company.

J. Garneau Weld.

Frank M. Crane.

Harry M. White of the Crane Agency.

George N. Meissner, general manager of General Baking Company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The association is under the management of Charles L. Crane, who is capable and in excellent repute. He is president of the Charles L. Crane Agency at St. Louis where he has been active in the insurance business for many years in the local and general agency business. Associated with Mr. Crane in the management are William W. LaBeaume and Charles G. Petrie, both experienced insurance men who are also interested in the Charles L. Crane Agency.

The formation of this organization is unusual as it is not a stock company although it will conduct its business along the accepted lines of that class, nor is it a mutual, reciprocal or inter-insurance exchange. In accordance with an "Underwriting Agreement" it will file statements with the State Insurance Department, and observe the laws, rules and regulations of that Department applying to corporations underwriting these classes.

It has not operated long enough to have established any records, but as indicated above the management is capable and in excellent repute.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Connecticut June 13, 1907, as the Manufacturers Fire and Marine Insurance Company, with an authorized capital of $2,000,000. Early in 1912 its charter was secured by the Ætna Life Insurance Company interests, and it began business in April, 1913, with $300,000 capital and $300,000 surplus paid in. Its stock, par value $100 per share, was paid in at $200 per share.

On February 3, 1915, the stockholders voted to increase the paid-in capital from $300,000 to $1,000,000, the new stock to be sold at $200 per share. On July 8, 1915, the paid-in capital was increased to $500,000, and $200,000 was added to surplus. In December, 1915, the paid-in capital was increased to $1,000,000 and $500,000 additional surplus was paid in, and as of June 30, 1917, the capital was further increased to $2,000,000 by the issuance of 10,000 additional shares of stock at $200 per share, thus adding $1,000,000 to surplus. The capital stock of the company is controlled by the Ætna Life Insurance Company.

This company is authorized by its charter to write all lines of fire and marine insurance, including use and occupancy, loss of profits, and any other consequential loss resulting from destruction or damage to property by fire, water, explosion, or other casualties or calamities.

Policies entitled "Fire and Marine Underwriters Agency" are issued and guaranteed by this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under the same management as the Ætna Casualty and Surety Company and the Ætna Life Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., and prior to 1915 wrote automobile fire insurance in conjunction with the liability business of those companies. It now writes a general fire and marine business.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $81,100, par value, of the capital stock.

The company greatly increased its writing in the las several years until the end of 1920, requiring heavy additions to its unearned premium liability. In 1921, its premium income was reduced and its unearned premium liability was also reduced, showing an underwriting profit of $105,746.33.

The company has paid $200,000 in dividends each year in 1918, 1919, 1920 and 1921.

The company's average loss and expense ratios have been low.

Its loss paying reputation is excellent.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific and Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Ocean and inland marine lines, fire, hail, windstorm, explosion, parcel post, aircraft, all risk jewelry, fine arts, registered mail, sprinkler leakage and baggage insurance; also fire, theft, collision and loss of use insurance on automobiles.

TERRITORY.— Licensed in all States and Territories ex-

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1915. It is an exclusively Danish company, the majority of the stock being owned by prominent Danish banks and steamship companies whose managers are all members of the board of directors of this company.

The authorized capital of the company is 17,000,000 crowns with 25% actually paid in. No stock of the company can be transferred without the consent of the board of directors.

The company was admitted to the United States in January, 1919, its license being granted by the New York Insurance Department on January 16, 1919.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— The home office balance sheet as of December 31, 1920 shows the following items:

Assets, crowns, 52,154,000 ($13,560,004); capital paid in, crowns, 4,250,000 ($1,105,00); surplus, crowns, 2,375,983.35 ($617,755.56.) (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note page vii).

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent repute at its home, and is under conservative management.

The United States manager for the fire department is Franklin W. Fort, secretary of the Eagle Fire Insurance Company, Newark, N. J. who is in excellent repute. O'Keeffe & Lynch are United States managers of the marine department. They also act in the same capacity for the New Jersey Insurance Company, and United States Marine Insurance Company of New Jersey.

The company transacts a direct marine insurance business in this country and also a fire reinsurance business.

In 1920 the loss ratio was normal and the expense ratio low, but the unearned premiums increased greatly, and the company had an underwriting loss of $270,632.76. In 1921 the premium volume was reduced very materially, the loss ratio was high and there was a considerable underwriting loss. The United States Branch operates at a low expense ratio.

The securities owned by the United States Branch are of excellent character, and are carried at market quotations rather than the higher valuations fixed by the convention of Insurance Commissioners.

TERRITORY.— In the United States it is licensed in Colo., Del., Ill., Ia., La., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., O., Pa., Tex. and W. Va.

The United States Trustee is the Guaranty Trust Company, New York City.

UNITED STATES MANAGERS.— Fire Department, Franklin W. Fort, Newark, N. J.; Marine Department, O'Keeffe & Lynch, 48 Beaver street, New York.

KINDS OF BUSINESS WRITTEN.— The United States Branch writes direct marine insurance and fire reinsurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company began business September 20, 1880, with $215,000 capital, which later was reduced to $200,000. It lost $330,562.35 in the Baltimore conflagration in 1904 and the stockholders promptly paid in $150,000, thereby keeping the capital intact, and maintaining a working surplus. Only two other local stock companies survived the Baltimore disaster.

During 1911 its capital was increased from $200,000 to $500,000 by the issuance of 12,000 shares (par value $25), at $40 per share. The stock was all paid in during the year, with $180,000 surplus.

The par value of the stock is $25 per share.

Prior to 1918 its corporate title was German-American Fire Insurance Co.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is backed by substantial interests. The control is not closely held. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $87,281.25, par value, of the $500,000 capital.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its treatment of loss claims. The volume of business written is conservative in proportion to the company's net resources. Its expense of management is normal and its average loss ratio is low.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The largest item of real estate is the company's office building, No. 411 E. Baltimore street, corner Custom House avenue, carried at $40,000.

The mortgage loans are secured by Maryland property, mainly in Baltimore, valued at nearly three times the amount loaned thereon.

BANKERS & MERCHANTS FIRE INSURANCE

Jackson, Miss.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Mississippi, January 17, 1922, licensed February 27, 1922, and began business on the same date. Its authorized capital is $1,000,000 of which $100,000 is subscribed and paid in in cash, $100,000 was contributed to surplus. The par value of the shares is $10, which shares were sold at $20. We are advised by the management that the additional shares will be sold at a price which will net the company a little over $1,000,000 in surplus above its capital of $1,000,000, the entire cost of promotion not to exceed 15%. The first $200,000 of capital and surplus was paid in without expense. It is being organized by George B. Reynolds who organized the Mississippi Fire Insurance Company, and will write fire and tornado insurance.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The president, R. E. Kennington, will be active in directing the affairs of the Company. Mr. Kennington is prominent in business and

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York State and received its license from the New York Insurance Department on January 9, 1919. It began business with a paid-in capital of $1,000,000, a surplus of $1,000,000 and a special reserve of $500,000. The stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $250 per share, without promotion expense, which is very commendable.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting of the fire business, which it began to write in April, 1919, is under the management of the president, C. V. Meserole. Mr. Meserole is also president of the Pacific Fire Insurance Company of New York and vice-president and fire manager of the New Jersey Insurance Company of Newark, N. J. L. R. Bowden, who is vice-president of the Bankers and Shippers Insurance Company, as well as Pacific Fire Insurance Company, is also the assistant fire manager of the New Jersey Insurance Company.

L. P. Tremaine, assistant secretary, is the active underwriter under Mr. Meserole.

In June 1920 the Automobile Department was placed under the present management, and in September 1920 the management of all business was assumed by the present officers.

The active officers are all thoroughly experienced and in high repute.

Some of the stockholders are associated with several of the largest banks and trust companies in New York City, and also with large shipping and insurance interests.

It is writing a full volume of business with a favorable expense ratio for a young company. In 1919 and 1920 the company added heavily to its unearned premiums, which contributed to an underwriting loss of $207,075 and $372,844 in those years. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was a further underwriting loss of $352,966.50. The marine losses, on business written by the previous management, contributed heavily to the underwriting loss, and the company advises that it has claims for $654,912.76 against unadmitted companies for reinsurance that is deducted as an unadmitted asset.

The company has a good loss paying record.

The securities are of good character.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated July 22, 1920, licensed February 1, 1921, and began business February 4, 1921, with an authorized capital of $500,000, of which $175,000 was subscribed and $133,284.58 paid in, together with $34,427.54 contributed to surplus. In 1921 $13,720.35 additional capital was paid in, and $38,455.94 was contributed to surplus.

The par value of the shares is $100. The shares were sold at from $125 to $150 per share, and the expense of promotion limited to 10% of the par value. It will write fire, tornado and hail insurance, but at the present time is only writing fire insurance.

In 1921 the loss ratio was about normal but the expense ratio very high, as might be expected in its first year considering the small volume written.

The securities owned are Liberty bonds, and the mortgages cover improved property in North Carolina and one on improved property in Virginia.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The directorate is made up of a number of bankers and several men interested in the North Carolina Mutual Life Insurance Company. The secretary, W. Gomez, has had several years' experience in the insurance business.

We are advised that Hon. James R. Young, for many years Commissioner of Insurance for the State of North Carolina, has been acting in an advisory capacity for the management.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the Dominion of Canada May 16, 1913, and began business January 15, 1914. Its authorized capital is $1,000,000, $300,500 of which was subscribed and $105,175 paid in, with $15,025 surplus, when it began business. The organization expenses were $10,814.15. Its stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $105 per share.

The company's Dominion charter called for an annual increase in paid-in capital of at least $15,000, until such item became $175,000. On December 1, 1914, a call of 5% on the subscribed capital was made, increasing the paid-in capital to $120,200, and in 1915, $15,025 more was paid into capital account, making that item $135,225. In 1916 the capital was again increased by $15,025, making it $150,250, and in 1917 it was increased to $165,275. In 1918 it was increased to $180,300; in 1919 it was further increased, by a call of 5% of the subscribed capital, to $195,325, a shareholders' bonus of $15,025 being paid, and in 1920 it was still further increased to $216,360, by a call of 7% of the subscribed capital. At the time of this last increase a special shareholders' bonus of $21,035 was paid, being the amount of call on the subscribed capital. In 1921 it was increased $21,035, making the paid-in capital $237,395. A special shareholders bonus was paid in 1921 practically neutralizing this call upon the subscribed capital.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company bears a good reputation and is conservatively managed. It writes only "preferred" business, and its net lines are small. The expenses of management are moderate, and the loss ratio is low.

The securities owned are of good character.

The unearned premium reserve is calculated upon the Dominion Government basis.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania and commenced business August 1, 1871, with a paid-in capital of $100,000. The capital was gradually increased to $200,000.

The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is managed by reputable interests. The president has been engaged in the insurance business for many years and is in excellent repute.

The business transacted is conservative. The expense of management has been high, owing to the small volume of business transacted, but its average loss ratio is moderate.

On December 31, 1921, its directors owned $15,700, par value of its $200,000 capital stock.

The chief item of real estate is the Home Office building of the company at 1812 Carson street, which cost $24,536.03 and is carried at $17,500. The mortgages are well secured by improved property located in Allegheny County, chiefly dwelling and mercantile property, valued at more than twice the amount loaned. The securities owned are mainly municipal and Liberty bonds, carried at market values.

KIND OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed only in Illinois and Pennsylvania.

DIVIDENDS.— It paid dividends of 10% for several years prior to 1913, 1913 to 1918, inclusive, 12%; 1919, 16%; 1920, 14%; total dividends paid since organization, $719,046.

OFFICERS.— President, Wm. Henning; vice-president, Joseph F. Ploeger; secretary, A. J. Henning; assistant secretary, A. G. Kaufmann.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated in December, 1873, with $300,000 authorized capital (par value $100) as the Boston Marine Insurance Company, and began business January 20, 1874, writing only marine insurance. In 1876 its capital was increased to $500,000, and in 1881 to $1,000,000. In 1886 it was authorized to write fire insurance, but did not commence writing that class of business until April, 1896. In April, 1898, its present title was adopted.

The Old Colony Insurance Company of Boston is under the same management.

Policies entitled "Michigan Commercial Underwriters" are guaranteed by this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has been conservatively managed and has made excellent progress. It has paid substantial dividends to stockholders besides having built up a large surplus. It is backed by substantial interests.

The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921, $124,000, par value, of the company's $1,000,000 capital stock.

The business written in the larger cities is of moderate volume, indicating that the conflagration hazard is carefully observed. In 1921 the ocean marine losses were very high, and the company had a substantial underwriting loss.

Its expenses of operation have been low, and its average loss ratio normal.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its treatment of loss claims.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations shown in this statement are actual market value as of December 31, 1921.

The real estate owned is the company's Home Office property at the corner of Milk and Kilby streets, Boston, carried at $474,900. The mortgages are all upon property in Boston and its suburbs, and are well secured.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated in 1833 as the British America Fire and Life Assurance Company, and began business in June, 1835. Its title was afterwards changed to the above.

Its authorized capital is $3,000,000, of which $1,400,000 has been subscribed and $1,399,029.79 paid in. Of this, $550,000 is preferred stock and $849,029.79 common.

It entered the United States in 1874. It is under the same directorate and has the same president and general manager as the Western Assurance Company of Toronto, Ontario, but the offices of the companies are in separate buildings and the stockholders are not identical.

To offset heavy losses sustained in the Baltimore, Md., and Toronto conflagrations in 1904 the stockholders agreed to write off $500,000 of the capital, and authorized the issue of a like amount of new stock. The stockholders paid into the treasury $350,000 on account of this new capital, making same $850,000.

The company reported a net loss of $1,029,025.43 in the San Francisco conflagration in 1906, to offset which $550,000 of the preferred stock was issued at a premium of 25%, and the entire proceeds of the new issue, viz., $687,500, were paid in before December 31, 1906.

A policy entitled "British Empire Underwriters" is guaranteed by this company. It is issued in Canada only.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has strong backing, its board of directors being influential and wealthy men. Its stock is fairly well distributed.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims, and credit is due it for the manner in which it has met the severe conflagration losses sustained in the past.

The United States Branch writes a large volume of business in proportion to its net resources. The expense and loss ratios of the United States Branch have been above the average.

The loss from underwriting in recent years was due partly to the increase in the company's business in those years and the corresponding increase in unearned premium liability. In 1919 a substantial underwriting profit was made. The marine loss ratio in 1918 and 1919 was very high. Its surplus decreased $36,997.96 during 1919, but this was due to the fact that $347,017.95 net was remitted to the Home Office. In 1920 the United States Branch of the company had an underwriting loss of $62,993.15, and remitted to its Home Office $226,906.60 more than it received in remittances from the Home Office. The surplus decreased $246,490.99. In 1921 the company had an underwriting loss of $149,266.41, there was remitted from the Home Office $117,494.45 more than was remitted to it, and the surplus at its United States Branch increased $122,870.33.

Its investments are of excellent character. The valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1863. Its authorized capital is £1,340,000, of which at last advices £804,000 had been paid in. It entered the United States in 1876, and is owned and controlled by the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, one of the strongest insurance companies in the world. This company controls the American and Foreign Marine Insurance Company, of New York.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses, wherever incurred. We therefore present the following extracts from the Home Office balance sheet, the latest available, which includes all its assets and liabilities: Total assets, December 31, 1919, $19,072,188; capital paid in, $3,912,666; net surplus, $9,287,735. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting policy of the company has been conservative and successful. It has made steady progress and is in excellent repute. Until the last three years its expense and loss ratios have been very low. In 1919 and 1920 its loss ratio was high and its expense of operation was above normal. In 1921 the loss ratio was very low, especially considering that it was a bad year for the class, and the expense ratio was high, but applied to a considerably reduced income.

Its United States manager, W. L. H. Simpson, is president of the American and Foreign Marine Insurance Company, and is also the United States manager of the Ocean Marine and Reliance Marine insurance companies, of England.

The company's loss paying reputation is excellent.

The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.— Central Union Trust Company, New York, N. Y.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Marine, tourists' baggage, registered mail and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.— It operates throughout the United Kingdom, and in Canada and the United States.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated in March, 1909, with $2,000,000 authorized capital, of which $500,000 was subscribed and $150,000 paid in. It began business on June 1, 1912. The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

In 1912 the subscribed capital was increased to $1,000,000 and the paid-in capital of $170,000; a premium of $20,000 was collected that year. In 1914 the paid-in capital was increased to $170,350, and $350 was collected for surplus. During 1915 the paid-in capital was increased to $218,877.50 and a premium of $29,650 was collected. In 1916 the paid-in capital was increased to $219,805; in 1917 to $220,135.70; in 1918 to $247,041.34; in 1919 to $248,670, in 1920 to $301,145, and in 1921 to $309,145. The amount paid in by calls on subscribed capital was $13,400, of which $8,000 applied to capital and $5,400 to surplus.

On December 31, 1919, the capital was impaired $138,307.29; December 31, 1920, $141,025.06; and on December 31, 1921, $183,284.35.

Management and Reputation.— The company is under the management of Theodore Meunier, who has had many years' insurance experience. In 1906 he accepted the managership of the Dominion Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Waterloo, Quebec, and in 1908 became the manager of the Providence Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Montreal. Mr. Meunier advised us that both of these companies were in bad condition when he undertook the management and that he was asked to straighten out their involved conditions. In 1909 these two companies were placed in voluntary liquidation, Mr. Meunier being appointed liquidator.

Mr. Carl F. Sturhahn, of Hartford, Conn., prominent in the insurance business as officer and manager of several reinsurance companies, is now a director of this company. Mr. Sturhahn is in excellent repute.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company, was organized in 1904. It entered this country by being admitted to do business in the State of New York on May 21, 1920, having made the statutory capital deposit with the Insurance Department of that State.

At the sixteenth annual meeting held April 7, 1920, it was decided to increase the authorized capital to £1,000,000, and to issue 250,000 shares, making the subscribed capital £500,000, of which £125,000 would be paid up.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— The company had as of December 31, 1921, an authorized capital of £1,000,000 ($5,000,000) of which £695,455 was subscribed and £174,439 ($872,198) paid in, and had total assets of £1,462,469 ($7,312,346).

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— Its United States managers are Henry W. Brown & Company of Philadelphia and New York, who are also United States managers of the Century Insurance Company, Ltd., Edinburgh, Scotland, and they control the Independence Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, Pa. They are in excellent repute and are conservative underwriters.

The United States trustee is the Bankers Trust Company of New York City.

In 1921, the expenses were moderate but the loss ratio was above normal.

The underwritting for these companies is conducted in conjunction with the underwriting department of the Colonial Assurance Company of America, New York, under charge of Charles S. Conklin, secretary.

Thomas Dobbin, 17 St. John street, Montreal, has been appointed general agent of the company for Canada.

BRITISH OAK INSURANCE COMPANY, LTD.

London, England.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1908. The authorized and subscribed capital is £1,000,000, paid-up capital £250,000. The name was formerly British Oak Benefit Insurance Company. It operates in England as a non-tariff company, and writes a general fire, marine and accident insurance business. Sir William Edgar Nicholls is chairman of the Board, H. B. F. Bingham, general manager, and Herbert Cowan, fire manager.

This company entered the Dominion of Canada October 1, 1921. It is not admitted to do business in the United States.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— J. Gillis Keator is manager for Canada. Mr. Keator is in good repute and is a member of the firm of Rainnie & Keator, of Halifax, N. S., and the head office for Canada will be located with that firm.

The company is not entered in the United States, but writes a small amount of surplus line business through Fred S. James & Company, who are in excellent standing and write surplus line business for several other foreign companies, and in addition are United States managers of the General Fire Assurance Company of Paris, the Urbaine Fire Insurance Company of Paris, and the Eagle Star and British Dominions Insurance Company, Limited, of London.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— The assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. The Home Office balance sheet of the company showed the following items as of December 31, 1920:

Assets, £475,337 ($2,376,685); capital paid in, £250,000 ($1,250,000); insurance funds, £89,508 ($447,540); profit and loss balance, £9,201 ($46,005). (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

Upon entering Canada the company started operations in the Provinces of Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, Quebec and Ontario. It will extend its plant to the other Provinces.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in 1867 as the China Traders Insurance Company, Ltd. The present title was adopted in May, 1916. It is owned by the Union Insurance Society of Canton, Ltd., Hong Kong, China, a large and reputable British company, which was established in 1835 and which operates practically all over the world.

The British Traders Insurance Company, Ltd., was licensed on April 17, 1918, to transact fire insurance in the Province of Ontario, Canada.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—The home office balance sheet of the Company as of December 31, 1920, shows the following items:

Assets, £1,636,694 ($8,183,470); capital paid in, £192,000 ($960,000); working account balance, 1920, £399,515 ($1,997,575). (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used: see note page VII).

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The Canadian manager is C. R. Drayton, 36 Toronto street, Toronto, who acts in the same capacity for the Union Insurance Society of Canton, Ltd. The company is operated in Canada entirely independent of the Insurance Society.

The company has a contract with Marsh & McLennan, of Chicago, Ill., who are in excellent repute, for writing excess lines on fire, tornado and automobile business in the United States, Canada and Mexico.

All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses wherever incurred.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Ohio, being originally chartered as the People's National Fire Insurance Company, with an authorized capital of $100,000. The title of the company was changed to Buckeye National Fire Insurance Company in January, 1914. It was licensed on September 24, 1914, and began business October 1, 1914.

The stock of the company, par value $10, was sold at $20 a share and the subscriptions were payable in instalments, 25 per cent. being payable upon the signing of the subscription, the remainder being subject to call within thirty days after the entire capital stock had been fully subscribed. The company began business with its entire capital paid in and with a surplus of $48,097.18 The organization expenses were high, being 25 per cent. of the proceeds of the sale of stock. During 1920 $100,000 additional capital was authorized, and $1,470 additional was paid up, with $1,176 in addition subscribed to surplus. Efforts to sell the balance ceased owing to general financial conditions

Management and Reputation.— The company is backed by substantial local interests. Its stockholders are said to number over 1,000, and reside in Toledo and northwestern Ohio. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $21,000, par value, of the capital stock.

The Underwriting Department is in charge of Chas. H. Harraden, who has had thirty-eight years of practical experience in insurance in both office and field work. H. S. Bassett, secretary of the company, was identified with the Ohio Insurance Department for nine years.

The company's underwriting operations, with the exception of 1918, have shown a loss. Its expense ratio is moderate, considering the volume of business written. During 1918 its loss ratio on fire business was very high, partly due to a decrease in the volume of fire premiums written. Its loss ratio was high in 1920. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was a moderate underwriting loss. It also wrote, for a time, a considerable volume of marine business on which its losses were heavy. On the entire business the statement as of December 31, 1918, indicated that it made an underwriting profit of 10.2%; but no adequate provision was made for unreported and unknown marine losses. The company ceased writing marine business February 1, 1919. The marine premiums for January were $11,662.84. Upon discontinuance of writing marine risks it reinsured the term business and cost of reinsurance and return premiums on cancellations consumed the premiums; $20,042.38 in losses, incurred in 1918, but not reported December 31, 1918, were paid in 1919. The fire underwriting operations in 1919 were profitable, but show a heavy ratio of underwriting loss in 1920.

The volume of business transacted is conservative.

The company bears a good reputation in the matter of loss settlements.

The company's investments are of good character. The mortgage loans are secured by improved farm and city property in Ohio, valued at over twice the amount loaned.

BUFFALO INSURANCE COMPANY — Continued.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business February 15, 1867, with $100,000 paid-in capital. Its capital was increased to $200,000 in March, 1870. In April, 1914, the Buffalo Commercial Insurance Company (capital $200,000), was merged with it, increasing the capital to $400,000. It was formerly the Buffalo German Insurance Company, but during 1917 the above title was adopted.

The par value of the company's stock is $100 per share.

It issues policies in accordance with the special reserve fund and guaranty surplus law of New York, and has on deposit with the Insurance Department of New York $300,000 "special reserve fund" and $300,000 "guaranty surplus fund."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company does a conservative business, and has built up a large surplus besides having paid substantial dividends. Its directorate includes prominent business and financial men of Buffalo. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $66,900, par value, of the company's stock.

It writes a moderate volume of business in proportion to its loss paying capacity, with a good spread of liability.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. Its expense of operation has been above the average, but its loss ratio is normal.

The real estate consists of a five-story fire-proof office building at Main street and Broadway, Buffalo, occupied in part by the company, carried at $525,000. The cost of the building was $320,000.

The securities owned are of excellent character and are carried at the prices fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The collateral loan is well secured. The mortgage loans are secured by improved property in Buffalo, valued at nearly three times the amount loaned.

AFFILIATIONS.— Western Insurance Bureau.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire and tornado insurance.

DIVIDENDS.— The dividends paid in recent years have been as follows: 1901 to 1905, inc., 30%; 1906, 20%; 1907 to 1909, inc., 30%; 1910 to 1912, 35%; a special dividend in 1913 of 100% (on account of increase in the valuation of its real estate); and in 1914, 15% on the increased capital; 1915 and 1916, 24%; 1917, 24.5%; 1918, 24%; 1919, 25%; 1920, 25%; 1921, 25%; total dividends paid since organization (cash), $3,068,925.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized December 24, 1897, and began business March 24, 1898, with $200,000 capital paid in. It is owned and operated by the Caledonian Insurance Company of Edinburgh, an old and reputable company. The business written prior to 1920 was small and was mainly reinsured in the parent company. Late in 1919, $275,000 was contributed to surplus account by the parent company and the company will hereafter write independent lines.

This company guarantees policies under the title "Caledonian-American Underwriters."

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION. — It is under the same management as the United States Branch of the Caledonian Insurance Company of Edinburgh, Scotland. Its expense of management has been moderate, and its loss ratio is normal. During 1920, the company considerably increased its writings and increased its unearned premiums accordingly. This operated to decrease the surplus. The expense ratio increased in 1921, and this together with an increasing unearned premium account caused a moderate underwriting loss.

Its general loss paying reputation is excellent.

The securities owned are high grade. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated in 1861. In 1892 it reinsured all its outstanding policies and retired from business until June, 1905, when it resumed with $240,000 capital and $150,000 surplus paid in. In 1907 its capital was increased from $240,000 to $400,000 and $80,000 surplus was paid in. On February 4, 1920, its capital was increased to $1,000,000 by the issuance of 15,000 shares at par value of $40 per share and its charter was amended to include marine, boiler and machine, sprinkler leakage, team and vehicle and other miscellaneous lines.

The company's record is unique and admirable. Its net losses in the San Francisco conflagration in 1906 were considerably over five times its combined capital and surplus. The stockholders levied eight assessments upon themselves, and the company settled all claims in full (100%). The par value of its shares is $40. Six assessments of $40 (100%) per share, one of $35 per share, and one of $30 per share, were made on the 6,000 shares of its capital stock, a total of $305 per share, or $1,830,000.

In October, 1913, control of this company was purchased by the Commercial Union Assurance Company, Ltd., London, England, a strong and reputable company.

This company and the City of New York Insurance Company, of New York, guarantee policies entitled "New York-California Underwriters," which are issued only in California. This company also guarantees policies entitled "California Underwriters Agency," issued only in California, Montana and Washington. It also assumes two-thirds, and the Home Insurance Company of Hawaii, one-third of the "California-Hawaiian Underwriters," issued in the Hawaiian Islands, and one-half of the liability of the "Pacific Underwriters," the Nevada Fire Insurance Company, of Reno, Nevada, assuming the other one-half, which policies are issued in California, Nevada and Idaho.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has been conservatively managed and in recent years has made excellent progress.

The volume of business written is moderate. The company's expense of management has been slightly above the average, but its loss ratio has been low. In 1920 the company considerably increased its writings, necessitating a considerable increased unearned premium reserve, and it had an underwriting loss of $177,288.82. In 1921 the loss and expense ratios were above normal and the company had a considerable underwriting loss. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $2,000 par value of the company's capital stock of $1,000,000.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions.

Its investments are excellent. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate owned is a four-story and basement brick building located at 550-558 Sacramento street, San Francisco, Cal., carried at $60,000. The company also has a one-quarter interest in a new sixteen-story class "A" building at the northwest corner of Pine and Montgomery streets, San Francisco, Cal.

The mortgages are well secured by improved property in California, Oregon and Washington.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, boiler and machinery, sprinkler leakage, team and vehicle, automobile and tornado insurance.

TERRITORY.— This company is or anticipates being licensed in the near future in all the States of the Union with the exception of Ark., Guam, N. D., Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, S. D. and Virgin Islands. In the Dominion of Canada it is entered in Alberta, British Columbia, Man., Ont., Saskatchewan and holds a Dominion license.

DIVIDENDS.— 1908, 7.5%; 1909 to 1912, inc., 15%; 1913, 13.8%; none since; total dividends paid since organization, $325,000.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated as a mutual company and commenced business in April, 1841. In July, 1870, $105,730 of its surplus was capitalized, the policyholders becoming stockholders in proportion to the amount of premiums in force.

Up to 1900 its operations were almost entirely local. In that year its capital was increased from $105,730, to $200,000.

Additional amounts have since been paid in to capital and surplus:

Year.	Capital.	Surplus
1903	$100,000	$100,000
1904	100,000	100,000
1909	100,000	100,000
1912	100,000	100,000
1916	100,000	100,000
1918	200,000	Nil
1920	250,000	250,000

The amount paid in to capital since and including 1903, being $1,050,000, making the paid-up capital $1,250,000, and during this time $850,000 was paid in to surplus.

This company issues and guarantees policies entitled "Eastern Underwriters' Agency." These policies are issued in all States in which the company is licensed.

The par value of the stock is $5 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has been conservatively managed and has made excellent progress. Its directors are substantial and of high business standing. The company's stock is fairly well distributed. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $152,055, par value, of the $1,250,000 capital stock.

The company increased its writings in recent years, and now transacts a large volume in proportion to its net resources. Its expense of operation and its loss ratio have been about normal. The marine less ratios in 1918, 1919 and 1920 were high.

Its loss paying record is excellent, under all conditions.

Its investments are excellent. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate consists of a two-story brick office building, and additions, corner of Fifth and Federal streets, Camden, carried at $60,000; a two-story brick annex to office building at 428 Federal street, carried at $70,000; and a frame dwelling in Oaklyn, N. J., carried at $1,193.43 During 1920 the association acquired property 424-426 Federal street, at a cost of $22,998.70, for the purpose of erecting an addition to the Home Office. The mortgage loans are chiefly upon dwelling-house property in southern New Jersey, mainly in Camden, and are well secured.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Insurance Bureau, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated on April 7, 1909, by a special act of the Parliament of Canada, and began business August 8, 1911. Its authorized capital is $3,000,000, of which $2,050,400 has been subscribed. Its stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $115 per share.

In 1911, $380,044.13 capital and $279,061 surplus were collected. The organization expenses during that year amounted to $101,423.17. In 1912, $386,610.79 capital and $27,214 surplus were collected. During 1913, $290,652.58 capital was paid in and $817.61 surplus. In 1914, $270,152.89 capital was collected; in 1915, $230,367.69; in 1916, $150,332.64; in 1917, $53,887.93. No surplus was paid in during those years. This made the paid-in capital at the end of 1917, $1,762,048.65. In 1918 the capital was increased to $1,795,077.70; in 1919 to $1,825,958.20; in 1920 to $1,849,736.35 and in 1921, $1,872,845.52.

It maintains a reserve fund or $100,000 to meet any contingencies arising from depreciation of securities or from other causes.

Besides its own policies it issues and guarantees the policies of the Federal Underwriters Ltd.

In 1920 the company made a deposit of £20,000 in securities with the Government of Great Britain, and entered that country to write fire reinsurance.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is backed by substantial interests. W. T. Alexander, its managing director, is president and manager of the Great West Permanent Loan Company of Winnipeg, and it was mainly through his efforts that the company was organized. He is also managing director of the Imperial Canadian Trust Company of Winnipeg. Several of the directors of the company are also identified with the Great West Permanent Loan Company and the Imperial Canadian Trust Co.

The company transacts a very moderate amount of business in proportion to its large net resources. Its loss ratios in recent years have been moderate.

The real estate consists of the company's head office and other property carried at $648,263.57. The mortgage investments are distributed through the four western provinces and Western Ontario.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share; the stock was sold at par.

This company is owned by the Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society, Ltd., of Norwich, Eng., a very old company, which is in excellent repute at home and abroad.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is controlled by the Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society, which is in excellent repute, and its operations in 1917, 1918, 1919 and 1920 were profitable.

The company had an unprofitable year in 1921, the loss ratio being high.

The amount of unearned premium liability seems small compared to the annual premium volume, but a large part of the company's business is hail insurance, in which there is no outstanding liability at the close of the year.

The securities owned are of good character.

The company is a member of the Canadian Hail Underwriters Association and the Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association.

OFFICERS.— President-manager, John B. Laidlaw; vice-president, Sir James A. Lougheed; secretary, T. B. Redding.

DIRECTORS.— Coste, Eugene; Gooderham, H. F.; Laidlaw, John B.; Lougheed, Sir James A; Malcolm, C. Stuart; Patteson, G. B.; Rodgers, A. H.; Sketch, R. Y.; Woods, Sir Jas. W.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized under the laws of the Province of Manitoba in 1895 with $500,000 authorized capital. By the year 1901 it had a paid-in capital of $110,000, which has been increased by stock dividends as follows: 1902, $15,000; 1904, $125,000; 1908, $250,000; 1917, $500,000, making the present capital $1,000,000.

The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

In 1897 the company received a Dominion charter.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is conservtively and well managed, and its operations have been very profitable. It is backed by substantial interests.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $275,100, par value, of the capital stock.

Its directors control the stock of the Canadian Indemnity Company, and are large holders in the Great West Life Assurance Co., of Winnipeg. C. S. Riley is manager of both this company and the Canadian Indemnity Company.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. Its average management expenses are low, and its loss ratio has been much below the average. The volume of business written is conservative and in proportion to the company's net resources.

From 1913 to 1916, inc., cash dividends of 10% were paid

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the Province of Manitoba, March 26, 1912, and began business May 1, 1912, with $500,000 authorized capital, of which $200,000 was subscribed and $30,000 paid up. Stock dividends of $20,000 in 1912, $10,000 in 1913, $40,000 in 1914 and $100,000 in 1916 increased the paid-in capital to $200,000 at the end of 1918. In 1919 this company was taken over by a company of the same name but a Dominion corporation. The entire capital of $200,000 of the Provincial company was purchased at $150 per share and the present company has an authorized capital of $1,000,000, and a paid-in capital of $300,000.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has reputable backing. Its operations in 1915 were very successful. In 1916, however, the losses were heavy and the underwriting results very unprofitable. This, together with the stock dividend paid in that year resulted in an impairment of capital of $21,679.40.

In 1917, 1918 and 1919 the business was profitable and the surplus increased. The company had a very good year in 1920, and the surplus increased $92,074.72. In 1921 the fire loss ratio was low but the hail loss ratio high. The net result was a slight increase in surplus. The underwriting expenses have been low.

The company is closely affiliated with the Canadian Fire Insurance Company of Winnipeg, C. S. Riley being manager of both companies. The rate of dividend in 1918 was 10%. In 1919 it was 10% on $200,000, and in 1920 10%. None was paid in 1921.

On December 31, 1920, the directors owned $159,000, par value, of the capital stock.

AFFILIATIONS.— Canadian Hail Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Fire Underwriters Association of British Columbia, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire and hail insurance and some fire reinsurance of the Canadian Fire Insurance Company.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed and operated in the Provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba and Saskatchewan only.

OFFICERS.— President, R. T. Riley; secretary, James A. Dowler.

DIRECTORS.—

CANTON INSURANCE OFFICE, LTD.,

Hong Kong, China.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1836. It transacts a marine business on the Pacific coast, and at last advices had deposited $200,000 of United States registered bonds with the Insurance Department of the State of Washington. Jardine, Matheson & Co. are general agents for the company at Hong Kong, and Messrs. Parrott & Co., of San Francisco, have been the United States agents since 1882.

The company is conservatively managed and is in good repute.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— The assets of the company are liable for losses here. December 31, 1920, the paid-in capital was $500,000; assets, $4,334,694; surplus, $2,822,563.44. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business March 19, 1886. On June 5, 1915, the capital was increased from $200,000 to $300,000, of which $110,000 is common and the balance 6% preferred stock.

The stock was all common until 1909, when $90,000 was retired and the same amount of 6% preferred stock issued to stockholders who were not satisfied to wait until the company was strong enough to pay larger dividends. Since 1912 it has each year paid a 10% dividend on the common stock, and 6% on the preferred.

No surplus was paid in when the company began business. The surplus shown in the above statement has been earned.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

In addition to its own policies, it guarantees policies issued under the title "New England Underwriters Agency."

The Underwriters Fire Insurance Company, the Phenix Mutual and the Manufacturers and Merchants' Mutual fire insurance companies, all of Concord, N. H., are closely identified with this company, and are practically under the same management.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company bears an excellent reputation, and has substantial backing.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $24,900, par value, of the company's capital stock.

The volume of business written is conservative and a large portion of the business in force is term business. The average loss ratio is moderate, but the expenses have been a little above the average. In 1921, both the loss and expense ratios were somewhat above the average.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its treatment of loss claims. The business written in the larger cities is of moderate volume, indicating that the conflagration hazard is carefully observed.

Its investments are of good character, the bonds owned being a general selection of government, municipal, railroad and industrial issues. The stocks are railroad, bank and industrials, about equal in value to the bonds owned.

The real estate is a brick building on School street, Concord, N. H., carried at $75,000.

The mortgages are upon improved property in New Hampshire, Kansas, Vermont and Massachusetts, valued at more than twice the amount loaned.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, motor vehicle, tornado, sprinkler leakage, riot, civil commotion and explosion insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Ark., Colo., Conn., Ill., Ind., Iowa, La., Mass., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., Ohio, Pa., R. I., Texas, Vt. and W. Va.

DIVIDENDS.— From the year it began business until 1895 it paid dividends of 6% per annum, and the rate was then reduced to 4%. In 1901 only one dividend (2%) was declared, and in 1902 none, earnings being added to the surplus. It paid 4% in 1903, 1904 and 1905, and 5% in 1906, 1907 and 1908. In 1909 it paid 2.5%; 1910, 4.5%; 1911, 4.5%; 1912 to 1921, inclusive, 10% on the common stock, besides the regular annual 6% dividend on the preferred stock.

present title was adopted before the company received a license to do business, which was granted January 20, 1912. The par value of the shares is $1.

During 1915 an assessment was called and paid on the capital stock of $67,500. In January, 1916, the capital stock was reduced to $225,000.

In 1919 an assessment of 30% on stockholders was made and $67,500 was thus provided for surplus.

In 1921 $101,250 was paid in to surplus by an assessment on the stockholders.

Policies entitled "Liberty Underwriters of Capital Fire Insurance Company" are guaranteed by this company, and are issued through the general agency of C. J. Stovel, of San Francisco, Cal.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $42,903 par value of the capital stock of $225,000.

Under the laws of California, stockholders of insurance companies are liable to assessments to meet the companies' obligations.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting management of this company is now in the hands of Rollo V. Watt, its president, who is manager of the Pacific Coast Departments of the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, England, the Queen Insurance Company of America, of New York, and the Newark Fire Insurance Company, of Newark, New Jersey.

In 1921 the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., secured an option on a majority of the shares of this company, but will not assume stock control unless this option is exercised. The former president, H. C. Muddox, who had held that position since the company was organized, retired, and was succeeded by the Pacific Coast manager of the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., and its associated companies. F. B. Kellam, the vice-president, is assistant manager of the Royal; the secretary, F. H. Farr, and two other directors are also associated with the Pacific Coast Department of the Royal.

Since organization, the company's underwriting operations have been very unprofitable. The expense and loss ratios have been high.

On March 8, 1921, this company reinsured all its eastern business (which was in charge of the Mets-Stovel Agency, New York City) in the Globe and Rutgers Fire Insurance Company, of New York.

The remainder of its outstanding risks were reinsured in the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., and it had no net liability as of December 31, 1921, so that loss and expense ratios cannot be applied.

By virtue of a contract entered into as of July 1, 1921, all business written is automatically reinsured in the "Royal," profits, if any, to be divided upon an agreed percentage basis.

The mortgage loans are upon improved property in California and are considered of good character.

The principal item of real estate owned is a lot and building in Sacramento, which was acquired by the company on November 1, 1915, at a cost of $32,637.62. It is now carried in the assets at $55,000.

It also owns a piece of property in Sacramento acquired October 9, 1917, for $20,634.52, which it carries in the above statement at $50,000.

The company bears a good general reputation in the matter of loss settlements.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated in 1887 with an authorized capital of $50,000 and commenced business in 1889. The capital is all paid in.

The par value of the stock is $10 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has good local backing. On December 31, 1921, its directors owned $29,260, par value, of the capital stock.

It writes a conservative volume of business and bears a good general reputation. It has paid good dividends to stockholders, and the surplus has shown a steady increase. It operates only in North Carolina.

Its expense of operation has been moderate. Its average loss ratio is below normal. In 1921 its loss ratio was low but its expense ratio increased, and it had a small underwriting loss, still showing an increase of surplus.

The mortgage loans are upon improved property located in Wilmington and valued at about twice the amount loaned.

TERRITORY.— North Carolina.

DIVIDENDS.— It paid 6% each year up to 1909, inclusive, and 8% to 1917; 1917 to 1919 it paid 10%, in 1920 and 1921, 12%. Total dividends paid since organization, $108,710.40.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company commenced business in March, 1865, with $60,000 paid-in capital. In January, 1871, a stock dividend of $240,000 was declared, increasing the capital to $300,000, and in January, 1878, a stock dividend of $200,000 was declared, increasing the capital to $500.000.

In 1904 the company lost $924,497.31 in the Baltimore conflagration, which it was able to pay out of its surplus and still show a good balance. It was one of only three local stock companies to survive that disaster.

It was formerly known as the German Fire Insurance Company, the present title being adopted during 1918.

The par value of the stock is $10 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has been conservatively and successfully managed and is in excellent repute. It transacts a moderate volume of business, and its surplus has steadily increased. It is backed by substantial interests.

The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $56,270, par value, of the company's $500,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. Its loss ratio has been unusually low; its expense ratio is slightly above the average.

Its investments are high grade. The security valuations in this statement are based upon those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate consists of one-half interest in buildings at Baltimore and Holliday streets, 308 and 310 E. Baltimore street, and 8 N. Holliday street, Baltimore, Md.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union and Southeastern Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, tornado and hail insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Maryland, Pennsylvania and Virginia only.

DIVIDENDS.— The company paid 10% dividends for a great many years prior to 1904, when it paid 5%. In 1905 it paid 3%; from 1906 to 1913, inc., 6%; 1914 to 1919, inc., 10%; 1920, 11%; 1921, 12%.

CENTRAL INSURANCE COMPANY, LTD., London, England.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was originally established in 1899. Early in 1907 it was absorbed by the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Company. On the transfer of the business to the Liverpool & London & Globe the old company was wound up and a new company formed, using the identical title of the old one.

This new company was incorporated in June, 1907, and has power to write most classes of insurance. Its authorized capital is £100,000, all of which has been paid in in full. No balance sheet has been issued since the absorption, as all obligations are now guaranteed by the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Company.

It is writing "surplus lines" in the United States through Fred S. James & Company, 123 William street, New York, who are in excellent standing, and who hold power of attorney to accept service in case of disputes in this country.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY. — This company was incorporated under the laws of Iowa in November, 1916, and began business May 1, 1917, with $500,000 authorized capital, of which $209,300 was subscribed and paid in, together with approximately $145,000 surplus. During the year 1917 it collected $500,000 for capital account and $350,000 for surplus account.

The par value of the stock is $100 a share, and the selling price was $200 per share. The stock was sold through a firm under contract limiting the organization expenses to 15% ($150,000), which is moderate and commendable.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The president of the company has been in the insurance business for many years. He organized the Anchor Fire Insurance Company, of Des Moines, and was for ten years its president, retiring some time before that company discontinued business. Upon retiring from the Anchor he organized the Century Fire Insurance Company, serving for ten years as its president, until that company sold out its business.

The secretary of the company was for fifteen years secretary of the State Insurance Company, of Des Moines, which reinsured in 1913, three years after he had resigned.

This company began business in 1917, and has developed a reasonable though conservative volume of business compared to its resources. During the first three years its loss ratio was low, in 1920 moderate and in 1921 fairly high. Its expense ratio has been high (which the company explains is due to the extension of its agency plant), and this, with the necessary additions to unearned premium reserve, has produced an underwriting loss and a reduction in surplus each year. In 1920 the surplus decreased $55,396.74. In 1921 the underwriting loss was $79.520.37, and the surplus was reduced $22,461.93. In 1921 the company retired from five Eastern States on account of an unprofitable experience, the resulting loss of income had a tendency to increase the expense ratio.

The company is in good repute concerning its treatment of loss claimants.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned only $102,000 par value, of the company's $500,000 capital stock.

The securities owned are high class.

The securities owned are high class. The real estate item in the company's statement is its Home Office building.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Kansas February 2, 1915, and began business May 1, 1916, with $250,000 authorized capital, of which $132,250 was subscribed and $100,000 paid in in cash, together with $96,727.81 surplus. The par value of the stock is $100 per share and the selling price $250 per share.

The fiscal agent of the company was B. B. DeMasters, of Kansas City, Mo., who received 25% of the selling price for organization expenses. This was not specified in the stock subscription blank, and the percentage is high.

On December 31, 1916, the paid-in capital amounted to $105,950 and the net surplus $68,181.38. At the end of 1917 the subscribed capital was $226,300, and the paid-up capital, $138,050; the surplus was $62,441.52. On December 31, 1918, the paid-up capital was $151,550 and the surplus, $73,557.92. On December 31, 1919, the paid-up capital was $205,600 and the surplus $180,297.97. During 1920 the balance of the authorized capital of $250,000 was paid in, and $31,785 contributed to surplus.

November 1, 1921 interests identified with the Phœnix Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., secured control of the company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting management is now under the same general management as the Phœnix Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., and companies identified with it, a notably successful group of companies. The president was formerly State agent of the Phœnix Insurance Company for the State of Missouri.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned only $1,700, par value, of the capital stock.

The volume of business transacted is conservative.

The company's loss ratio was low in 1917 and 1918, but the expense ratios were high in those years. In 1919 the loss ratio was very low and expenses moderate. The company's operations in 1919 were profitable, and the surplus increased $106,740.05.

In 1920 its expense ratio increased considerably and this with an increase reserve contribution to an underwriting loss of $45,974.68, and a decrease in surplus of $24,050.32.

In 1921 the expense ratio was still high, and the loss ratio high, resulting in a high rate of underwriting loss, and a considerable reduction in surplus.

It bears a good reputation for loss settlements.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated June 8, 1921, and licensed by the Illinois Insurance Department on the same date. It began business July 15, 1921, with $200,000 capital authorized and fully paid in in cash, together with $100,000 subscribed to surplus. The par value of shares is $100 which was sold at $150 per share. There was no promotion expense, which is very commendable.

The company is controlled by the interests identified with the Gardner Mortgage and Security Company, of Bloomington, Ill.

All of the risks written in 1921 were reinsured by a running contract with the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia, Pa., therefore no net premium income is shown. In 1922 the automobile liability is being reinsured in the Queen Insurance Company of America, New York, and all other lines in the Great American Insurance Company, of New York, both continuing contracts, the liability being assumed concurrently with the binding of this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The officers of the company have had considerable experience in the insurance business. The president, H. P. Gardner, is manager of the farm department of the Great American Insurance Company, of New York; vice-president, W. H. Gardner, twenty years in the local agency business; secretary, L. M. Linnell, for twenty years chief examiner of the western department of the Great American Insurance Company; assistant secretary, A. D. Veniel, six years with the Illinois Insurance Department.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $30,400 of the par value of its $200,000 capital stock.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Ill., Iowa and Nebraska.

AFFILIATIONS.— Western Union, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, automobile, riot, sprinkler leakage and tornado.

OFFICERS.— President, H. P. Gardner; vice-president, W. H. Gardner; secretary, L. M. Linnell; assistant secretary, A. D. Vensill.

CENTURY INSURANCE COMPANY, LTD.— Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company was founded in 1885 with an authorized capital of £315,000, of which, at last advices, £105,000 was paid in. At first it wrote only health insurance, but later extended its business to life and fire insurance and general casualty lines.

In November, 1908, it began writing "surplus lines" in the United States upon the better classes of risks, operating through Henry W. Brown & Company, of Philadelphia and New York, its present United States managers. In October, 1911, it regularly entered the United States. The control of the company was purchased in 1918 by the Friends' Provident Institution, of London, a large and reputable mutual organization, established in 1832.

The staff and organization of the Century Insurance Company will remain unchanged, but certain directors of the Friends' Provident Institution now serve on the board of the Century, and vice versa.

Home Office Resources.— All assets of the company (other than life insurance funds) are liable for the payment of losses, wherever incurred. We therefore present the following information from the Home Office balance sheet, which includes all its assets and liabilities: Total admitted assets, as of December 31, 1919, the latest available, $11,512.210; capital paid in, $525,000; unearned premiums, fire account, $386,675; surplus funds, $666,915. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

Management and Reputation.— The company is in excellent standing. Its United States managers are Henry W. Brown & Company, of Philadelphia and New York who are in excellent repute and conservative underwriters. They also manage the United States Branch of the British General Insurance Company, Ltd., of London, England, and they control the Independence Insurance Company, of Philadelphia, Pa.

The expense of management of the U. S. Branch has been moderate and its average loss ratio is normal. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was a considerable underwriting loss.

On March 1, 1915, Henry W. Brown & Company, on behalf of the Century Insurance Company, Limited, and the Independence Insurance Company, joined forces with the underwriting department of the Assurance Company of America, New York; and Mr. Charles S. Conklin acts as underwriter for the Century and the Independence and for the Assurance Company of America and the Colonial Assurance Company.

The Canadian Branch of the company is located at Vancouver, B. C. T. W. Greer, who is managing director of the Pacific Coast Fire Insurance Company, is chief agent.

Its investments are of excellent character.

CHICAGO FIRE & MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY

Chicago, Ill.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Illinois December 20, 1920, received its license February 15, 1922, and began business on the same date. The company was the out-growth of the Chicago Fire & Marine Insurance Company, incorporated March 12, 1919, but the charter of that company was not used and a new charter was taken out on December 20, 1920. The authorized capital is $1,000,000 fully paid and $573,344.33 was contributed to surplus. The company holds notes given for subscriptions which will expire in 1922 and the proceeds will be applied to additional surplus. The par value of the shares is $10 and the stock was sold at $25 per share. We are advised that the organization expenses are being limited to 15% of the amount paid in to capital and surplus.

This company issues policies in Illinois under the title "Chicago Fire and Marine Underwriters."

MANGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company was organized under the influences of and will be managed by the same interests as the O'Brien Insurance Agency of Chicago, Illinois. This agency has been in business for many years and is in good repute. The underwriting for the company will be in charge of the assistant-secretary, Henry Hoffman, who was formerly connected with the Marquette National Fire Insurance Company in the capacity of an underwriter.

At the time of going to press we had not received full financial statement showing the character of the company's assets.

OFFICERS.— President, Harold M. O'Brien; vice-president, Frederick O'Brien; secretaries, William J. Nolan and Charles R. McCabe, Jr., treasurer, Willett M. Potter; assistant secretary, Henry Hoffman.

DIRECTORS.— Harold M. O'Brien, Frederick O'Brien, George M. Willetts, Edward J. Young, Louis M. Alsted, Alexander J. MacKay, Samuel Weedon, Geo. L. Avery, Kenneth MacLellan.

CHINA FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY, LTD.,

Hong Kong, China.

GENERAL REVIEW.

This company is not regularly licensed in the United States, but transacts a fire and tornado "surplus line" business in the United States, Canada and Mexico through Messrs. Marsh & McLennan, of Chicago, a large and reputable insurance house.

The Home Office statement of the company, as of December 31, 1920, shows assets, $6,168,718, and paid-in capital $400,000, (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

The company is in excellent repute and is owned by the Union Insurance Society of Canton, Ltd., a long established and responsible institution, which company is licensed and transacting a general fire and marine business in all the States and Territories, a report upon which will be found elsewhere in this volume.

Marsh & McLennan advise us that they are retaining premiums on business written through them in the United States, and that losses incurred on such business are paid by them from such fund, which is deposited in one of the Chicago banks.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized in 1847, and is one of the leading fire insurance companies of Norway. Its subscribed capital is $1,350,000, of which, at last advices, $945,000 had been paid in. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.) The Board of Directors is as follows: H. Ingetad, barrister at law; Fr. Rustad, marshal of the Royal Court; A. Arntzen, solicitor; W. R. Pihl, C. E.; Chr. Hansson, managing director.

It was admitted to the United States in January, 1918, to transact a fire reinsurance business.

This company owns a majority of the shares of the Hudson Insurance Company, of New York.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. No late Home Office balance sheet is available.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— United States manager is J. M. Wennstrom, who acts in the same capacity for the Svea Fire and Life Insurance Company, Limited, of Gothenburg, Sweden. He is also president of the Hudson Insurance Company, of New York.

The company has operated in the United States only since January, 1918. During that year it wrote a good volume of business, and an underwriting loss was caused by the large unearned premium reserve which the company had to set up against such business. In 1919 it made an underwriting profit. In 1920 it had an underwriting loss of $272,028.67, but a large amount was added to the unearned premium reserve. In 1921 on a considerably reduced premium volume the expense ratio was low, but the loss ratio high, and there was an underwriting loss of $414,718.61.

The volume of its United States business is large compared to its net resources at its United States Branch.

The securities owned by the United States Branch are high grade, and the valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.— J. M. Wennstrom, 100 William street, New York City; assistant U. S. Manager, Fred W. Kentner.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.—The New York Trust Co.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— In the United States the company writes only fire reinsurance.

TERRITORY.— The company is licensed in Ark., Colo., Ill., Ind., Iowa, Kans., La., Mass., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Pa., Tex., and W. Va.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in 1837. In 1899 it passed into the control of interests identified with the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn., one of the strongest of the American companies, and it is under the same management as that company. During 1906 $35,000 additional surplus was paid in.

The paid-in capital of the company is $200,000. The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

At the end of 1914 practically all of its outstanding business was reinsured in the Hartford Fire. The greater part of all the business written is reinsured in that company. In recent years all of the marine business was reinsured.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent repute and is under the same management as the Hartford Fire Insurance Co., a large and reputable institution.

Its average expense of operation has been low and its average loss ratio about normal.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire and marine insurance.

General Review.

History.— This company was created on December 24, 1920, by the merger of the City Insurance Company of Pittsburgh (organized in 1870), and the North Branch Fire Insurance Company of Sunbury, Pa. (organized in 1911). The capital of the former was $250,000 and of the latter $500,000; the capital of the merged company was fixed at $600,000, thus transferring $150,000 to surplus, that item, at the end of 1920, being $183,591.21.

The par value of the stock is $20 per share.

Prior to 1916, the City Insurance Company of Pittsburgh was licensed only in Pennsylvania, where it transacted a small volume of business. In October, 1915, control of the company was purchased by interests identified with the North Branch Fire Insurance Company. Both companies increased the volume of their business greatly, and this proved unprofitable. In the latter part of 1920 the active manager of the companies resigned.

Policies entitled "Pennsylvania Underwriters" are guaranteed by this company.

On December 30, 1920, the North Branch Fire Insurance Company reinsured all its outstanding risks (except that ceded to them by a reinsurance pool contract) in the Baltica Insurance Company, of Copenhagen, Denmark.

Management and Reputation.— The underwriting management is in the hands of the secretary, A. F. O'Daniel, who has had over twenty-five years experience with the Delaware Insurance Company of Philadelphia, Underwriters Association of the Middle Department, as secretary at Allentown, Pa., and special agent of the Philadelphia Underwriters, and the Fidelity Phenix Ins. Co. of N. Y.

The present management has been in control only since the latter part of 1920, too short a time to justify comment.

In 1921 both the loss and expense ratios were high, and there was a considerable underwriting loss.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $76,666 of the par value of its capital stock of $600,000.

The securities are of a miscellaneous nature. Among the mortgages are two loaned upon property in Montana, which fell due in 1921, aggregating $45,000, and which we are told has been appraised at the request of the Pennsylvania State Insurance Department, at $84,592.

The companies merged to form the present corporation were in good repute concerning their treatment of loss claims.

Affiliations.— Western Insurance Bureau and Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— Fire, automobile, tornado, hail, sprinkler leakage and explosion.

Dividends.— It paid dividends of 10% each year for many years up to 1916; 1917, 7.6%; 1918, 9%; 1919, 10%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company began business April 12, 1905, with $200,000 capital and $300,000 surplus paid in. During 1909 its capital was increased from $200,000 to $500,000, the new stock being sold at a premium of 100%, which produced $300,000 additional surplus. In July, 1913, the directors unanimously adopted a resolution to increase its capital from $500,000 to $1,000,000, the new stock, par value $100, to be sold at 200% to produce $500,000 additional surplus. Of this increase $80,000 with $80,000 surplus were paid in in 1913; $3,200 in 1914, and none in 1915, 1916 or 1917. As of December 31, 1918, a stock dividend of $16,800 was paid, increasing the capital stock to $600,000.

In March, 1920, the capital of the company was increased from $600,000 to $1,000,000 by the issuance of 4,000 shares, all of this stock being taken by interests closely identified with the Home Insurance Company, New York, N. Y. This new stock, together with other stock already purchased, gave the control of the company to these interests, and the City of New York Insurance Company will hereafter be operated as a separate corporation. The official staff of this Company is made up largely from the officers of the Home Insurance Company. The new stock issued was paid for at $200 per share, which added $400,000 to surplus account.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The management of the company is now directed by the management of the Home Insurance Company, one of the largest and most successful of the American companies. The directors are substantial and reputable, and owned at the end of 1921 $52,100, par value, of the $1,000,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claimants. The volume of business written is conservative and in proportion to the company's net resources. Its expenses of operation have been high, but in recent years have shown a steady and satisfactory decrease, and are now low. Its average loss ratio is normal. In 1921 the loss ratio was above normal and there was a substantial underwriting loss.

Its investments are of excellent character.

The mortgage loans, with one exception, are upon improved property located in New York City.

AFFILIATIONS.—Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific. Automobile Underwriters Conferences: Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Ohio, October 14, 1911, with an authorized capital of $250,000. On May 19, 1913, the authorized capital was increased from $250,000 to $400,000; on June 28, 1913, to $500,000; on September 4, 1913, to $600,000; on November 6, 1913, to $700,000; and on January 12, 1916, to $1,000,000.

Its stock, par value $10 per share, was sold at $15, $20, $22.50 and $25 per share.

The first $700,000 capital stock was sold as follows: 5,398 shares at $15; 39,843 shares at $20; and 25,400 shares at $22.50 per share, a total of 70,281 shares upon which had been subscribed $1,441,230. The stock was oversubscribed 281 shares.

No stock has been sold since January 1, 1917.

The company began business April 1, 1914, with $700,000 capital and $360,738.31 surplus. The total expense of organization was 24.9% of the total stock subscriptions, which is very high. During 1916, $139,130 capital and $125,217 surplus were paid in; during 1917, $450 capital and $405 surplus were collected. During 1918 $10,000 was contributed to surplus.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting management of the company from November, 1915, until early in 1919 was handled by J. H. Macfarlane, who then resigned to become connected with the Niagara Fire Insurance Company, of New York.

The underwriting is now in charge of Archibald Kemp, who has had long experience as an underwriter and who is in excellent standing. He was a member of the agency firm of Wickham & Kemp, New York, and was formerly connected with the Camden Fire Insurance Company, of Camden, N. J.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $42,320, par value. of the capital stock.

The company's underwriting so far has shown a loss each year, which is not unusual in the experience of new companies; in 1919 decided improvement was effected, and the very small technical underwriting loss was more than offset by the value of the substantial addition to the company's premium volume. Its loss ratio has been normal, but its expense ratio has been high, with, however, a downward tendency. During 1920 the company discontinued some reinsurance arrangements which produced a considerable volume of premiums, and extended its agency plant for direct writing. The expense of extending the agency plant added somewhat to the expense ratio, but there is still a slight reduction in the expense ratio to premiums written The loss of income from reinsurance contracts continued to affect its income in 1921, and the extension of the agency plant and reduced income adversely affected the expense ratio; the loss and expense ratios were above normal resulting in the underwriting loss shown.

The volume of business transacted is conservative.

The company bears an excellent reputation for its treatment of loss claimants.

The securities owned are of good character and are valued in this statement at the average rates fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgage loans are upon improved property in Ohio, valued at twice the amounts loaned. The real estate owned is a farm of 143 acres in Summit County, Ohio, carried at market value.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business July 15, 1896, under the management of George A. Stanton & Co., which firm later organized the Washington Assurance Company of New York. The Colonial and Washington Assurance companies were merged on December 31, 1899, under the above title, with $400,000 capital, and $5,011.94 net surplus over capital and all other liabilities. In August, 1900, the capital was reduced to $200,000, the difference being transferred to surplus. The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The management is reputable and capable. The company's underwriting has, on the whole, been profitable in recent years, and the company is making progress.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $112,700, par value, of the capital stock.

It transacts a moderate volume of business. Its expense of operation, and its average loss ratios have been moderate.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business March 1, 1901, with $250,000 capital and $50,000 surplus paid in. In March, 1902, the capital was increased to $400,000, and $30,000 additional surplus was paid in. The par value of the stock is $100 per share. A majority of its stock is owned by the Union Marine Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, which in turn is controlled by the Phoenix Assurance Company, Ltd., of England, but the company is conducted as a separate institution.

In 1919 it started to transact a general fire business.

During 1921 the stockholders contributed $388,425.55 to surplus.

ing management of the company is directed by Frank H. Cauty and the Fire Branch by Percival Beresford, United States manager of the Phoenix Assurance of London and president of the Imperial Assurance Company of New York (which is also controlled by the Phoenix). The management is capable and in excellent repute.

The principal business office of the company is at 27 William street, New York City. Frank H. Cauty, vice-president, treasurer and manager, is also United States manager of the Union Marine Insurance Company, of Liverpool, England; the North China Insurance Company, of Shanghai and London; the Thames & Mersey Insurance Company, of Liverpool, England; the United States Marine Department of the Phoenix Assurance Company, Ltd., of London; the United States Marine Department of the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Company, of Liverpool, England, and the Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society, Ltd., of Norwich, England.

The fire business is transacted in accordance with the policy of the Phoenix of London, which, under Mr. Beresford's management, has produced excellent results for that company.

The underwriting results were good until 1919, when the company had a moderate underwriting loss. In 1920 it had a rather heavy underwriting loss, due largely to heavy increase of unearned premiums as a result of fire volume being increased. In 1921 the underwriting loss was rather heavy, the loss and expense ratios being above normal.

The average expense and loss ratios are about normal. The company writes a full volume of business.

The loss paying record of the company is excellent under all conditions. The investments are high grade. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

December 31, 1921, the directors owned $700 of the par value of the capital stock.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— It writes marine transportation, automobile fire and sprinkler insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in all States and Territories of the United States except Ariz., Nev., Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands. It also operates in Canada.

DIVIDENDS.— It has paid dividends as follows: 1902, 3%; 1903, 3½%; 1908, 3½%; 1916, 6%, and 6% extra; 1920, 12½%. For several years the policy of the management had been to strengthen the surplus instead of to pay out its earnings in dividends.

OFFICERS.— President, Percival Beresford; vice-presidents, Frank H. Cauty and Herbert W. Ellis; secretary, Howard Terhune.

DIRECTORS.— Beresford, P.; Busk, Frederick T.,; Cauty, Frank H.; Crane, George F.; Ellis, Herbert W.; Hallock, George D.; Thatcher, Archibald G.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Indiana in July, 1911, with $50,000 authorized capital in shares of $10, par value. Later in the same year the authorized capital was increased to $100,000.

It took over a company previously organized under the title Inter-State Securities Corporation, issuing for that purpose 5,900 shares of Columbian Insurance Company stock at par. All the shares were sold at $20 per share with the exception of the 5,900 shares just noted.

The company began business in March, 1912, with $60,819.50 paid-in capital and $5,976 net surplus. In 1912 the company again increased its authorized capital to $150,000, and in 1913 to $250,000.

The collections on account of capital and surplus have been as follows:

Year	Capital	Surplus
1913	65,399 17	66,436 03
1915	6,708 64	7,132 15
1916	37,896 36	26,523 64
1917	12,675 00	8,183 00
1917	*—92,184 00	*+92,184 00
1919	16,382 00	21,163 55
1920	8,123 76	10,730 45
1921	265 24	.....

* In 1917 the capital was reduced $92,184, transferring that amount to surplus, and the par value of the stock was changed from $10 to $7 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting management is in the hands of the secretary-treasurer, E. T. Lyons, assisted by A. M. Wagner as agency superintendent, who, we are advised, has had seventeen years' experience in the insurance business.

The company's underwriting has shown a loss each year, and the surplus has declined to the amount shown in the above statement. Its expense of operation has been high. In 1919 it showed some improvement, though still operating at an underwriting loss.

The average loss ratio in recent years has been about normal. In 1921 the volume written was considerably reduced, showing a still higher expense ratio to premiums written, but a moderate cost ratio to the earned premiums. The loss ratio was high, and a considerable underwriting loss resulted.

It writes a full volume of business compared to its net resources.

Its loss paying reputation is good.

The directors owned at the end of 1921 $47,040, par value, of the capital stock.

The company owns the building which it occupies, carried in 1920 at $60,000. The book value of this building was increased by adjustment in 1921 to $75,000, which the company advises us, is an appraised value and that it will probably be taken over by the County in 1922 for public purposes. The net income from the building for the past three years has been: 1919, —$159.84; 1920, $583.16; 1921, —$990.90. It also owns two dwellings in Indianapolis, carried at $340.50 and $1,100. Its mortgage loans are on Indiana real estate valued in the aggregate at about three times the amount loaned thereon. The securities shown under the bond and stock item are of very high class, being all United States issues of Liberty and Victory Bonds, except a small amount of local school and township bonds.

The security valuations in the statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

General Review.

History.—This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Michigan in May, 1911, with an authorized capital of $500,000, divided into 20,000 shares of a par value of $25 each. It was licensed to begin business on February 27, 1913, with its full capital paid in and a surplus of $229,248.54. During 1913 its authorized capital was increased from $500,000 to $1,000,000, and $402,650 of the additional capital was paid in, with $104,265.68 surplus. In 1914 $59,675 capital and $94,956.19 surplus were collected; in 1915, $925 capital and $5,018.13 surplus were collected; 1916, $425 capital and $50 surplus; 1917, $500 capital and $500 surplus. In 1918, $12,500 capital and a like amount of surplus were paid in, making the paid-up capital $976,675 on January 1, 1919.

The contract for the sale of the first $500,000 capital stock sold provided for a commission of 27½%, and 25% for the second $500,000 capital stock, making the total amount to be paid $525,000 on the total subscriptions of $2,000,000. Its stock was sold at $50 per share, and subscription payments were made in instalments as follows: 40% in cash with subscriptions, 40% three months later, and 20% six months later.

The persons most active in the promotion of the company were John G. Ewing, who was a professor at law at Notre Dame University, Notre Dame, Indiana, and Sherman Steele, who was a professor at the St. Louis University, St. Louis, Mo. The stock of the company was sold mainly to Roman Catholics. The organizers of the company are open to criticism for the heavy cost of promotion.

On April 10, 1915, John G. Ewing and M. M. Welsh resigned as president and secretary, respectively. At that time H. P. Orr, formerly Deputy Insurance Commissioner of Michigan, was elected secretary, and T. A. Lawler, then first vice-president, was designated acting president, later being elected president.

At the stockholders' meeting held January 26, 1920, it was voted to change the Home Office of the company from Detroit to Lansing, Mich.

Management and Reputation.—The control of the management is in the hands of the President, J. A. Lawler, an attorney of Lansing, Mich.

In 1921 a "Committee of Stockholders" circularized the other stockholders alleging mismanagement of the Company's affairs, and proposing a change of management or merger with another company. Owing to a dispute over the recognition of proxies submitted, the annual meeting April 11, 1921 was adjourned, and at a special meeting June 24, 1921 the management was sustained. The secretary and treasurer, J. E. Murphy, resigned in 1921, and was succeeded by W. D. Lawrence.

The company's underwriting operations since organization have been unprofitable. In 1919 the surplus was increased by $31,818.24, and underwriting loss being more than offset by the gains from investments. The loss and expense ratios have been above normal. In 1920 the company had an underwriting loss, but, paying no dividend, the investment earnings exceeded this amount by $41,463.76 and the surplus increased in that amount. In 1921 the loss and expense ratios were high, resulting in an underwriting loss of $172,827.90. A dividend of $48,833.75, and the surplus decreased $118,641.46.

The stock of the company is not closely held. At the end of 1921 the amount of stock held by the directors, at par value, was $83,350.

It transacts a moderate volume of business.

The real estate shown in the assets is valued at about cost.

Its investments appear to be of good character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgage loans are secured by property mainly in Michigan, Illinois, Iowa and Minnesota.

Affiliations.—Western Union, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific.

COLUMBUS INSURANCE AND MORTGAGE COMPANY,

Columbus, Miss.

GENERAL REVIEW.

This is a very old institution which, under the style of Columbus Insurance and Banking Company, has conducted a banking and also a local insurance business, formerly reinsuring all risks written in six very large and reputable companies. It was chartered February 14, 1852, and maintained its credit during the war, redeeming its circulation after the war. It is small but reputable, and has very substantial local backing. Its insurance operations are not extensive, and are of a local character.

On May 14, 1915, the company's charter was amended and its name changed to Columbus Insurance and Mortgage Co. On May 15, 1915, the banking department of the Columbus Insurance and Banking Co. began business as a National Bank.

The company writes fire and tornado insurance only.

The December 31, 1921, Statement of the Company shows the following items:

Admitted assets	$210,062 58
Total liabilities (including $58,188.96 unearned premiums)	$72,305 84

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated and began business June 1, 1859, with an authorized capital of $200,000. The capital was reduced in 1871 to $100,000 by reason of the Chicago conflagration and then restored to $200,000 by an assessment on the stockholders. In 1889 a dividend of 50% was paid to stockholders, returning the amount which they had been assessed in 1871.

The par value of the stock is $25 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is backed by substantial interests. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $61,100, par value, of the capital stock.

The volume of business written is conservative in proportion to the company's net resources. Its expense ratio has been above the average, but its loss ratio is normal. In 1919 the loss ratio was low and it made a good underwriting profit, and also a fair underwriting profit in 1920 In 1921 it made an underwriting profit, and a substantial gain in surplus.

Its investments are of good character. The securities in the statement are carried at market valuations, except Liberty bonds, which are at the valuations fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate consists of two four- and five-story brick buildings, adjoining and communicating, at 53, 55, 57 State street, Albany, formerly used in part as the Home Office and now rented for mercantile and office purposes, and a three-story brick and stone building, and one-story brick building in the rear, situate southwest corner Lodge and Howard streets, Albany, N. Y., now used as the Home Office. The company carries both properties at considerably less than the market value.

The mortgage loans are first liens on real estate in the city of Albany.

AFFILIATION.— Western Insurance Bureau.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Cal., Conn., Ill., Ind., Me., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., N. J., N. Y., O., Pa., R. I. and Wis.

DIVIDENDS.— It has paid dividends of 10% for many years; total dividends paid since organization, $1,316,000.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1861. Its authorized and subscribed capital is £2,950,000, of which £1,475,000 has been paid in. It has operated in the United States for many years, having entered in 1871.

It owns and controls the West of England Life Insurance Company, the Palatine Insurance Company, the Union Assurance Society, Ltd., and the Ocean Accident & Guarantee Corporation, Ltd., of London. In connection with the purchase of those companies it carries in its statement $9,571,275 of 4% debenture stock. It also controls the Commercial Union Fire Insurance Company, of New York, the California Insurance Company, of San Francisco, Cal., and the American Central Insurance Company, of St. Louis, Mo. It is one of the largest and strongest companies in the world.

On December 31, 1914, a contract was made with the American Central Insurance Co. of St. Louis, Mo., by which this company reinsured one-half the entire net liability of that company and entered into a continuing contract, which continued until it was terminated by mutual consent December 31, 1919, to reinsure one-half of all business written by the American Central.

Policies issued under the title "Hand-in-Hand Underwriters" and "Atlantic Underwriters," issued in the United States, are guaranteed by this company.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— All assets of the company (other than life insurance funds) are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. We therefore present the following information from the fire branch of the Home Office balance sheet: Total assets, December 31, 1920, $100,793,997.13; capital paid in $7,375,000 (in addition to the debenture stock mentioned above); surplus except capital, $15,436,411.10. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used, see note page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent repute, both at home and abroad, and transacts a large and profitable business. It is one of the largest and strongest companies in the world.

On March 1, 1920, Col. A. H. Wray, who had served as U. S. manager for many years, retired and was succeeded by Whitney Palache, who resigned as vice-president of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company to assume the management of the United States business of this company and its affiliated companies. The assistant United States manager has had a wide experience in the insurance business. Previous to coming with this company he was vice-president of the Continental Insurance Company, of New York.

The company's operations in the United States have been very profitable.

The expense of management of the United States Branch is very moderate, and its average loss ratio is normal.

The real estate owned consists largely of property in New York City, carried at $800,000, and property at 416-420 Walnut street, Philadelphia, carried at $160,000, and parcel of land in San Francisco, carried at $250,000.

The bonds and stocks owned are of excellent character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southwestern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

UNITED STATES OFFICIALS.— Manager, Whitney Palache; assistant manager, F. W. Koeckert.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEES.— John Claflin, Walter P. Bliss and Frederick B. Campbell, all of New York.

GENERAL AGENTS AND DEPARTMENTS.—

Western Department, Chicago, Ill.— F. A. Rye, manager; A. M. Nelson, assistant manager.

Northwestern Department, Denver, Colo.— J. F. Edmonds, manager.

Pacific Coast Branch, San Francisco, Cal.— C. J. Holman, manager; R. C. Medcraft, assistant manager.

Southern Department, Atlanta, Ga.— Dowdell Brown, manager; assistant manager, E. M. Ransom.

Texas Department, Dallas, Tex.— W. Hugh Hunter, manager.

Philadelphia Surburban Department, Philadelphia, Pa.— Frederick L. Holman, suburban secretary.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Life, fire, automobile, tornado, accident, and marine insurance.

In the United States it writes fire, marine, war risk, explosion, sprinkler leakage, automobile, tourists' baggage, earthquake, registered mail, flood, horse and wagon and tornado insurance.

TERRITORY.— In the United States it is licensed in all the States and Territories except Alaska, Guam, Philippine Islands, Porto Rico and Virgin Islands.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York with $300,000 authorized capital. It began operations September 15, 1886, with $300,000 capital paid in. In January, 1887, its capital was increased to $500,000.

The company's operations previous to 1900 showed little, if any, profit. Early in 1907 control of the company was purchased by the North British and Mercantile Insurance Company, of London, and it has since been under the same management as the United States Branch of that company, but operated as a separate institution.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— Early in 1919 Mr. Richards retired as president of this company and was succeeded by Cecil F. Shallcross, who at the same time became United States manager of the North British and Mercantile Insurance Company, Ltd.

The company is in excellent repute and is conservatively managed.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions. Its operating expenses are moderate and its average loss ratio is normal. In 1918 and 1919 the marine loss ratio was high. In 1919 it had a very low loss ratio on fire business and made the large underwriting profit of $189,992.71. In 1920 the unearned premium reserve increased heavily but it made a small underwriting profit. In 1921, operating on a reduced volume, its loss and expense ratios increased and it had a moderate underwriting loss.

Its mortgages are all upon improved property in New York City.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated in 1870, under a special act of the Legislature, as a joint stock and mutual insurance company, with $50,000 subscribed capital. Its original title was "Concordia Mutual Fire Insurance Company." It began business in March, 1870, with a paid-in capital of $52,600. Its capital was increased from time to time up to 1882, when it amounted to $200,000.

The company reported a net loss of $195,237.10 in the San Francisco conflagration in 1906, and by the issuance of $100,000 of new stock at 150% its capital was increased from $200,000 to $300,000 and $50,000 additional surplus was collected.

In 1912 the capital stock was increased from $300,000 to $600,000, which was sold so as to provide $300,000 additional surplus. During the latter part of 1917 the capital was increased to $750,000 by the issuance of 1,500 new shares at $150 per share, thus also adding $75,000 to surplus.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

It issues a separate policy under the title "Wisconsin Underwriters Agency."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under capable management and is in good repute. The company is controlled by prominent business men and financiers, its control being in comparatively few hands. On December 31, 1921, its directors owned $126,400, par value, of its $750,000 capital stock.

Until 1918, in recent years the company's underwriting had not been profitable. In both 1918 and 1919 good underwriting profits were made and in the latter year, besides adding greatly to unearned premium reserve because of increased volume, it paid a 12% dividend and added $197,705.25 to surplus. In 1920 it increased its business considerably, especially marine and inland. Its unearned premium reserve increased considerably and it had an underwriting loss of $127,088.12, and decreased its surplus $91,930.72. In 1921 the volume decreased with the loss and expense ratios slightly above normal, resulting in a small underwriting loss.

It is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. The company writes a large volume of business in proportion to its net resources.

The average expense of operation has been above normal, but its average loss ratio below normal.

Its investments are of good character and yield a good return. The security valuations shown in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgages are upon improved property in Wisconsin and Illinois valued at more than twice the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Connecticut in June, 1850, and began business in July of the same year with $200,000 authorized capital (par value of shares, $100 each). Its capital was increased from time to time up to December 31, 1905, when it stood at $1,000,000. In 1906 the capital was reduced from $1,000,000 to $500,000, the difference being transferred to surplus account. At the same time $500,000 of new stock was issued at a premium of $500,000, adding $1,000,000 to the company's resources.

During 1913 control of the company was purchased by interests allied with the Phœnix Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn. Of the stock of this company, 9,988 shares out of 10,000 are held by the Phœnix Securities Company, a holding company which was organized for that purpose.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— This company is very well managed, in excellent repute, and has made excellent progress.

It is under the same general management as the Phœnix Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., and the Equitable Fire and Marine Insurance Company, of Providence, R. I.

It writes a full volume of business, but the liability is widely distributed. Its expense ratio has been about the average, and its average loss ratio moderate.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $1,100 at par of the capital stock.

Its investments are high grade. The security valuations in the statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgages are upon improved property in Connecticut, Illinois and Minnesota, valued at over twice the amount loaned.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Western Insurance Bureau, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference Eastern Tornado Association, Southern Tornado Association, and Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, Marine, automobile, tornado, tourists' baggage, earthquake, hail, explosion, registered mail, riot and civil commotion and sprinkler leakage insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in all of the States and Territories except Guam, Miss., Philippine Islands, Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands; it also operates in all the Provinces of Canada.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1900 to 1903, inc., 10%, 1904 and 1905, 12%; 1906, 9%; 1907 to 1909, inc., 12%; 1910 to 1912, 16%; 1913, 18%; also a special dividend of $75 per share, or $750,000; 1914, 16%; 1915, 1916 and 1917, respectively, 20%; 1918, 1919, 1920 and 1921, 25%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was established in 1903, being the oldest British reinsurance company in existence. The authorized capital is £600,000 all of which has been subscribed, there being 470,740 ordinary shares of £1 each, 2s called, and 129,260 ordinary shares of £1 each, fully paid, or a paid-up capital of £176,334.

It entered the United States for fire reinsurance and was licensed by the Insurance Department of the State of New York on February 21, 1920.

It wrote in the United States in previous years fire reinsurance through its representatives, Fester & Folsom, although not regularly admitted to this country.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— The Home Office balance sheet as of December 31, 1920, showed the following: Total assets, £2,889,864 ($14,449,320); capital paid in, £176,334 ($881,670); insurance and reserve funds, £1,436,113 ($7,180,565); profit and loss account, £106,202 ($531,010).

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— This company bears an excellent reputation at home. The United States manager is in excellent repute, and acts in a similar capacity for the State Assurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, England, and the Western Alliance Reinsurance Company, Ltd., of London, England. Mr. Hare was for many years United States manager of the Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society Ltd., of Norwich, England.

Henry L. Rosenfield, who acted as United States manager of this company since it entered the United States, resigned early in 1921.

It will write for the present fire reinsurance only.

The expenses are moderate but the loss ratio was high in 1921, and a considerable underwriting loss resulted.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.— Wm. Hare, 100 Maiden Lane, New York, N. Y.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.— The Bankers Trust Company of New York.

TERRITORY.— Licensed in Ark., Colo., Ill., Ia., La., Me., Mass., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., O., Pa., Tex. and W. Va.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in January, 1853, with a paid-in capital of $500,000 (par value $100 per share). In October, 1871, its capital was increased to $1,000,000 by the sale of new stock, and in March, 1910, it was increased to $2,000,000 by a stock dividend of $1,000,000.

In January, 1916, the capital was increased to $10,000,000 by a stock dividend of $7,000,000 and the issuance of $1,000,000 new stock at par. The number of shares was changed from 20,000, par value $100 per share, to 400,000 shares, par value $25 per share. Stockholders were given the right to subscribe at par for two shares of the new stock (par value $25) for each share of the old stock held.

The Fidelity-Phenix Fire Insurance Company and the American Eagle Fire Insurance Company, of New York, are under the same management as this company.

This company guarantees policies issued as the "Continental Underwriters" and together with the Fidelity-Phenix guarantee policies entitled "Fidelity Underwriters," the latter issued in Canada only.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting policy of the company has been conservative and very successful. It has made steady progress and ranks as one of the leading companies of the country. It is backed by powerful interests. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $1,210,125, par value, of the company's $10,000,000 capital stock.

The conflagration hazard is carefully observed. The volume of business written is conservative in proportion to the company's net resources.

Its average expenses of operation are moderate and its loss ratio has been moderate. In 1920 the company made an underwriting profit of $89,452 33. In 1921 it had a small underwriting gain, and a large gain from the increased value of securities resulted in an increase in surplus of $3,092,027.11 after paying a large amount in dividends.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions.

The Marine Office of America, 56 Beaver street, New York, represents the marine department of this company.

Its investments are excellent. The securities in this statement are carried at the actual market values as of December 31, 1921, and not at the higher average rates allowed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate is a building at 158 Montague street, Brooklyn, valued at $30,000, and property in Chicago upon which the company intends to erect a building for its use as an office and in which the Fidelity Phenix Insurance Company will have a one-half interest.

AFFILIATIONS.— Western Union, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, marine, war risk, automobile, sprinkler leakage, explosion, tornado, tourists' baggage, registered mail, earthquake and hail insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in every State and Territory of the United States, except Guam and Hawaii. It also operates throughout Canada, Central America and Cuba, and is also a member of American Foreign Insurance Association which operates in Foreign Countries.

DIVIDENDS.— For some years previous to 1903, when it paid 30%, the rate was 25% per annum. In 1904 and 1905 it paid 36%; in 1906, 1907 and 1908, 45%; in 1909, 55%. In 1910 it paid $750,000 cash dividends and a special stock dividend of $1,000,000. The rate each year from 1911 to 1915, inclusive, was 50%. In 1916 it paid in January a cash dividend of 25% on $2,000,000 capitalization, and in July, 5% on $10,000,000; also a special stock dividend of $7,000,000; 1917, 12%; 1918, 14%; 1919, 20%; 1920, 20%; 1921, 20%.

CONTINENTAL FIRE AND CASUALTY COMPANY

Huron and Erie Building, Winnipeg, Manitoba.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business October 26, 1909. Its authorized capital is $500,000, $441,700 of which has been subscribed, and $55,337.50 paid in. The name of the company was formerly the Continental Fire Insurance Company, and was changed to the present title in 1921.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company transacts a moderate volume of business compared to its net resources. The management of the company was formerly in the hands of M. J. A. M. de la Giclais, but control was secured by the present directors and officers November 1, 1921.

The securities owned are war loan bonds and municipal and school debentures, which yield a good return. The company's expense ratio has been high, due in part to the small volume of business transacted. Its loss ratio in 1919 and 1920 was low.

The surplus decreased $4,232.45 in 1917 and $1,280.72 in 1918, due in part to the increase of unearned premium liability. In 1919 the surplus increased $5,395.43, and in 1920 $2,300.19.

This company had not, at the time of going to press, furnished us with financial statement as of December 31, 1921, and report of its operations in 1921. The comments upon its assets and operations contained in this report, are made from information previously furnished to us.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, health and accident, automobile, bonding and transportation insurance.

TERRITORY.— It operates in Alberta, Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

DIVIDENDS.— In 1913 the company paid $1,917; in 1914 $2,157.50; in 1915, $1,767; none since.

OFFICERS.—President, D. W. McCuaig; vice-president, A. E. Hom; secretary and treasurer, G. S. Francis.

DIRECTORS.—

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated in 1832 under the laws of Pennsylvania, under a perpetual charter, with an authorized capital of $400,000, as the Fire Insurance Company of the County of Philadelphia. It began business in 1833 with $100,000 paid-in capital. In 1880 its capital was increased to $200,000 and in 1883 to $400,000. In 1915 $100,000 was contributed to the surplus.

Its present title was adopted on December 7, 1905.

A controlling interest in the company's stock was acquired late in March, 1914, by the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company of Manchester. That company reinsured the entire liability of this company as of June 30, 1915. Since that date all business written has been automatically reinsured, to a large extent, in the New Hampshire Fire. In 1921 the capital was increased to $500,000, the additional $100,000 having been paid in and $300,000 was contributed to surplus.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Management and Reputation.— The company now is under practically the same management as the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company, a large successful company in excellent repute. In the statement below we show income, disbursements and ratios upon the net basis, but show also the net premiums and losses including the business ceded by reinsurance to the parent company.

The expense ratio, when the business ceded to the parent company is taken into account, is low, and the loss ratio normal.

Its directors are substantial and of high business standing, and on December 31, 1921, owned $2,400 par value of the capital stock of the company of $500,000.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. Its investments are of good character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The largest item of real estate is a four-story brick and stone office building on the west side of Fourth street, Philadelphia, carried at $48,000. There are five other small Philadelphia properties, all conservatively valued.

The mortgage loans are upon improved Philadelphia property, worth over twice the amount loaned.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— Fire and tornado insurance.

Territory.— It is licensed in Cal., Colo., Conn., D. C., Fla., Ga., Ill., Ind., Iowa, Kan., Ky., La., Me., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., Mont., Neb., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Okla., Pa., R. I., Tenn., Texas, Utah, Va., Wash., W. Va., Wis. and Wyo.

Dividends.— It paid 6% dividends for many years until 1906, and 8% each year up to July, 1914, when a dividend of 50% was paid in connection with the purchase of control mentioned above. No dividend was paid in 1915 or 1916. In 1917, 1918, 1919 and 1921 it paid dividends of 5%.

DES MOINES REINSURANCE FIRE COMPANY — Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated July 2, 1919, as the "Re-insurance Fire Company," with an authorized capital of $500,000, of which $100,000 was subscribed and paid in, and with a surplus of $100,000. Stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $200 to provide the surplus. The company was licensed January 10, 1920. On April 27, 1920, the name of the company was changed to the present title.

During 1920 additional capital of $182,950 was paid in. The total amount paid in by stockholders to December 31, 1920, was $648,340; $157,175,17 commission was paid for selling the stock, a cost of 24.2%, which is high.

On March 22, 1921 the authorized Capital was reduced to $300,000, and in 1921 $17,050 additional capital was paid in making the capital fully paid, and $5,775 was contributed to surplus.

Management and Reputation.— The president, P. J. Clancy, has been for the past twelve years engaged in the local agency business in Des Moines and his is one of the prominent agencies in that city. His previous connection was with local companies, such as the Hawkeye Insurance Company of Des Moines, which some twelve years ago passed out of existence through reinsurance.

Starting as a stenographer, he served in various capacities, being finally promoted to chief examiner of the Hawkeye Insurance Company and being elected in 1907 secretary of the Commercial Fire Insurance Company.

The secretary and underwriter, Frank E. Hathorn, has been in the insurance business since 1893, when he started with the Farmers Insurance Company of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, as an endorsement clerk. After having served in numerous capacities he became an examiner, handling the Iowa field. In 1899 he resigned from that company and for three years was a local agent in Cedar Rapids, selling out his agency to become special agent of the Farmers Insurance Company for the Iowa field. He left that company in 1905 and was State Agent of the Hanover Fire Insurance Company, of New York, resigning from that Company to assume his present position. He is in good repute.

It has operated too short a time to have established records.

1920 was the first year of its operations, and it wrote a substantial volume of business, requiring a corresponding unearned premium liability.

In 1921 its loss ratio was high and it had a comparatively heavy underwriting loss.

The valuations of securities in the statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The company transacts a reinsurance business.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Michigan in January, 1866, with $500,000 authorized capital (par value of shares, $50), and began business March 14, 1866, with $100,000 capital paid in. In 1873 its paid-in capital was increased to $150,000. The balance of the authorized capital of $500,000 was paid in by stock dividends amounting to $350,000, as follows: 1876, $100,000; 1881, $50,000; 1887, $50,000; 1891, $50,000, and 1896, $100,000.

Policies under the title Niagara-Detroit Underwriters were formerly guaranteed by this company, the Niagara Fire Insurance Company of New York and the Michigan Fire and Marine Insurance Company of Detroit, Mich., but this company no longer guarantees this Underwriters' policy.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has made good progress; is conservatively managed, and bears an excellent reputation.

It is backed by substantial interests, and its directorate includes prominent business and financial men. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921, $113,550 par value of the company's $500,000 capital stock.

The volume of the business written is conservative.

The company's average expenses of operation are moderate, and its average loss ratio has been normal.

Its loss paying record is excellent.

Its investments are high grade and yield a good return. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate consists of the Home Office building, carried at actual cost, $144,963.25, and some small properties acquired under foreclosure. The mortgage loans are secured by improved property in Michigan valued at about three times the amount loaned, and the other securities owned are high class, and are included at the valuations fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The collateral loans are well secured.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, tornado, sprinkler leakage, explosion and marine insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Ariz., Ark., Cal., Colo., Conn., Idaho, Ill., Ind., Ia., Kan., Ky., La., Me., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., Ohio, Ore., Pa., R. I., Tenn., Tex., Utah, Vt., Wash., W. Va. and Wis.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1900-1908, inc., 10%; 1909, 12.5%; 1910, 10%; 1911, 14.5%; 1912, 12%; 1913, 13%; 1914 and 1915, 12%; 1916, 12½%; 1917 and 1918, 12%; 1919, 1920 and 1921, 14%.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Michigan, in February, 1911, and began business January 10, 1912. Its authorized capital at first was $100,000 and was later increased to $500,000, divided into 10,000 shares, par value $50 each. It began business with a paid-in capital of $140,250 and a surplus of $66,917.84.

During 1912, $140,300 capital and $139,550 surplus were paid in; 1913, $90,150 capital and $88,775 surplus; 1914, $18,150 capital and $18,150 surplus; 1915, $500 capital and $500 surplus; 1918, $750 capital and $300 surplus. Up to the end of 1918, therefore, $390,100 capital and $314,192.84 surplus had been paid in. The surplus remaining on January 1, 1919, was only $13,233.72. In December, 1919, the capital was decreased to $200,000 and $200,000 was turned into surplus account.

The stock of the company was at first sold at $100 per share, and $25 per share allowed for organization expenses. The present par value is $25.

It reinsured May 2, 1919, all of its outstanding business received through agency channels in the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn. This contract included all liability from agencies whether under direct policies or policies of reinsurance. It did not, however, take in reinsurance of other companies which this company had assumed direct.

The company retained the larger portion of its agency plant in Michigan.

Management and Reputation.— In March, 1919, Paul Turner, formerly president of the company, resigned, and changes were made in the directorate and list of officers of the company. He was succeeded by Philip Breitmeyer, formerly vice-president of the company, a wealthy wholesale florist, who was at one time mayor of Detroit.

At the same time George K. March was elected secretary and general manager. He is an experienced fire insurance underwriter in excellent repute. He was in charge of the business of the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company in Michigan for many years. He is careful, straightforward and reliable.

The new board of directors is composed of men of means, who are all in excellent business standing.

The stock of the company is widely scattered, and its control is not in the hands of any one group of individuals. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $26,775, par value, of the company's stock.

The expenses have been very high and the average loss ratio considerably above normal. Its operations thus far have resulted in an underwriting loss each year, but improvement is looked for under the new management.

Its loss from underwriting in 1919 was $90,082.78, notwithstanding the fact that it received over $60,000 from the Hartford in the reinsurance transaction referred to above. In 1920 both the loss and expense ratios were very high, and the company had an underwriting loss of $22,327.09. In 1921 the loss ratio was more nearly normal, but the expense ratio still quite high, and there was an underwriting loss of $22,473.35.

The company is now transacting a limited volume of business, and exercising care in its selection and supervision, under the direction of its secretary and general manager, who has had many years' experience in the field in Michigan.

Its loss paying reputation is good.

Its investments are of good character. The property owned consists of three pieces of farm property in Cass and Roscommon counties, Michigan, acquired through foreclosure. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgage loans are upon improved property in Michigan, except two small loans on property in Illinois, and are apparently well secured.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated March 14, 1906, under the laws of North Carolina, with $500,000 authorized capital. It began business September 1, 1906. The par value of its stock is $50 per share.

In June, 1909, the North Star Fire Insurance Company, of Greensboro, which was under the same management, was merged with this company.

In 1911, 1913 and 1915 the company reinsured most of its business and has since operated in a smaller field. During 1920 the company entered additional territory, being now licensed in twenty-two States.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company's underwriting operations previous to 1916 were not profitable, but early in 1916 changes were effected, and since the reorganization the company has made satisfactory progress and its underwriting has been profitable.

It is now being operated along conservative lines. The underwriting is in charge of the president, who also manages the American Insurance Co. of Newark, the Yorkshire Insurance Co., Ltd., Caledonian Insurance Co. and the California Insurance Co., for Virginia and North and South Carolina.

The company writes some business, principally sprinklered, in States where it is not regularly licensed through the general agency of Edward E. Hall & Co., New York. The company advised us that in Louisiana and Texas it does not write any direct business, but under a reinsurance contract accepts cessions on cotton and storage, fire proof and sprinklered risks from a prominent company operating in those States.

Its directorate includes a number of men prominent in business and financial circles. The directors owned $126,250, par value, of the total $500,000 capital on December 31, 1921.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. Its expense of operation and its loss ratio in recent years have been moderate. In 1921 the loss ratio was above normal, and there was a moderate underwriting loss. The surplus has made gains in each of the last several years.

Its investments are of good grade. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate is a six-story stone building in Greensboro partially occupied by the company, carried at $208,943.07. It has been appraised at $325,000.

The mortgage loans are upon property, mostly improved, in North Carolina, South Carolina, and Virginia, valued at over three times the amount loaned.

AFFILIATION.— Southeastern Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, tornado and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.— Ark., Colo., Fla., Ga., Ill., Ind., Ia., La., Mass., Mich, Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., O., Pa., S. C., Tex., Va. and W. Va.

In Ark., Cal., Ind., Ia., La., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., O. and W. Va. the company is entered for reinsurance only and is not doing a direct business.

DIVIDENDS.— It paid a dividend of 8% in 1908 and 6% in 1913; 1914, none; 1915 to 1921, inclusive, 6%; total dividends paid since organization, $279,343.

DOMINION FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,

20 Victoria Street, Toronto, Ontario, Canada.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated in March, 1904, by interests in Vancouver, B. C., but it did not begin business until May, 1907.

The authorized capital of the company is $1,000,000. of which $250,000 is paid in.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Its paid-in capital was impaired $163,180.75 on December 31, 1908. This impairment has since been gradually made good until, December 31, 1919, it had a net surplus of $58,540.71.

We have been unable to secure statements of this company for either 1920 or 1921 transactions, before going to press with this report. The list of officers and other information contained herein is that reported to us as of December 31, 1919. If our subscribers are interested and will require a statement of the company and send same to us we shall be glad to report upon it.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— At the time of our last advices the underwriting management of the company was in the hands of its secretary, Neil W. Renwick, who is an experienced underwriter. The company was handicapped by several drains upon its resources the first eighteen months of its existence, having paid out upwards of $50,000 in promotion expenses, losing a large sum by the failure of its reinsuring companies, and about $70,000 through the conflagration at Fernie and Three Rivers. In recent years it has made steady progress.

The company has substantial backing. The president of the company is the largest stockholder.

The company is in good repute concerning its treatment of loss settlements. Its investments are of good character.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire and hail insurance.

TERRITORY.— The company operates in all the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada, except New Brunswick.

DIVIDENDS.— No dividends have so far been paid to stockholders.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Iowa, with $25,000 authorized capital, and began business July 18, 1883. In 1891 its capital was increased from $25,000 to $100,000. During 1905 a stock dividend of $100,000 was declared, increasing the capital to $200,000. On May 14, 1920, $300,000 was transferred from the surplus to the capital account, thus making the paid-in capital $500,000.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Policies under the title "Iowa Underwriters" are issued and guaranteed by this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has made good progress. It is controlled by substantial business men, the control being in comparatively few hands. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $173,000, par value, of its $200,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. It writes a full volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus. Its expense of operation has been above the average, but its loss ratio has been very favorable. In 1919 it had a very low loss ratio, and it also had a good result in 1920. In 1921 the underwriting results produced a very slight loss, with a substantial gain from the investment account. Substantial dividends have been paid stockholders.

The company does not figure its unearned premiums on the 40% basis, as permitted under the Iowa laws, but on the higher one used by other states.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgage loans are upon improved city and farm property in Illinois, Oklahoma, South Dakota and Iowa, and are well secured.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey, February 27, 1912, to write fire insurance. It was licensed February 25, 1913 and began business June, 1913 with a paid-in capital of $100,000 (par value of stock $25 per share), and a paid-in surplus of $72,000.

On December 1, 1913, the company increased its capital stock to $200,000 and $72,000 surplus was paid in. At the time the stock was increased, a number of prominent business men of New Jersey were elected to the board. Concurrent with the increase of capital, it was arranged to liquidate an investment company that had furnished much of the initial capital of the Eagle Fire Company which up to that time had owned a majority of its shares; this has since been done. On March 22, 1915, the stockholders authorized an increase in the capital stock to $500,000.

In 1917 the paid-in capital was increased to $250,000, and $40,000 was collected for surplus account, without commission or other expense to the company.

In May, 1918, the directors, feeling that the chief need of a reinsurance company was surplus rather than capital, recommended to the stockholders that the par value of the stock be reduced from $25 to $20 per share, but that the sale of stock be continued at $45 per share. The stockholders approved this resolution, and the company immediately proceeded with its plans.

In April, 1919, the paid-in capital of this company was increased from $250,000 to $400,000. The new stock was sold at $45 per share (par value $20), so that $187,500 was added to surplus. There were no commissions or other charges against this sum, the stock being subscribed for almost entirely by the old stockholders.

Management and Reputation.— The company is doing a reinsurance business exclusively. It is well managed and bears a good reputation.

The company has arranged contracts with several companies whereby they accept retrocessions of a share of the reinsurance written by the "Eagle."

The gross volume of business written during 1919 increased greatly, but was reduced through the retroceding by the " Eagle " of a greater share of its writings. This reduced the net premiums considerably, but the net volume was a substantial increase over that of 1918. The expenses have been moderate, and in 1920 were low.

In 1920 the company still further increased its gross and net writings, continuing to cede a large proportion as reinsurance. In 1921 the incurred loss ratio was high and the expense ratio low. There was a moderate underwriting loss.

The securities are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are at actual market value. The mortgages are on improved property in New Jersey valued at over twice the amount loaned.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— Fire, automobile, riot, sprinkler leakage, and tornado reinsurance.

Dividends.— In 1914 it paid a dividend of 6%; 1916, 5%; 1917, 2½% on $200,000 and 2½% on $250,000 capital; 1918, 6.7%; in 1919 it paid $36,250; 1920 and 1921, 15%.

EAGLE STAR AND BRITISH DOMINIONS COMPANY, LTD. — Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company was established in 1904 as the British Dominions Marine Insurance Company. It transacted only marine business up to early in 1911, when its name was changed to British Dominions General Insurance Co., Ltd., and a fire branch added. In 1917 it was merged with the Eagle Insurance Company, of London, established in 1807 and the title Eagle and British Dominions Insurance Company was adopted. Early in 1918 it absorbed the Star Assurance Society, of London, established in 1843, and the present title was adopted. In the same year it acquired control of the British Crown Assurance Corporation, Ltd., of Glasgow, Scotland.

Its authorized capital is £3,000,000. During 1919 additional capital was issued to make £2,956,000 subscribed, of which £1,049,000 will be called. December 31, 1919, the paid-in capital was £825,144.

The company wrote surplus lines in this country from 1912 to October, 1916, when it regularly entered the United States

In May, 1919, the United States Branch was licensed by the New York Insurance Department to transact an ocean marine business in addition to the fire insurance business which it has been writing in this country since 1916.

This was the first stock company to write rain insurance in the United States, having at first maintained a separate department to write that class, and later consolidated this with its United States Branch.

Home Office Resources.—All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. The Home Office balance sheet showed the following as of December 31, 1919, the latest available, total assets, $90,377,795; capital paid in, $4,125,720; investment reserve fund, $550,000; reserve fund, $5,544,965; additional reserve, $1,181,995. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

Management and Reputation.— The company is in good repute at its home and in this country. Its United States managers, Fred S. James & Company, are in excellent standing, and act in the same capacity for the General Fire Assurance Company, of Paris, and the Urbaine Fire Insurance Company of Paris.

Its business in this country increased greatly during 1918, 1919 and 1920, and an underwriting loss in those years was due largely to the corresponding increase of unearned premium liability. Until 1921 its expense ratio was moderate, and its loss ratio low. The underwriting loss was large in 1920, the addition to unearned premiums being especially heavy in that year.

In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was a large underwriting loss, which was overcome, however, by the investment account. The volume is heavy at its United States Branch.

The company's investments are of high grade. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized in 1902 with $100,000 capital and $200,000 surplus paid in. In 1904 $100,000 was transferred from surplus to capital, making the latter item $200,000.

The par value of its stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company in general bears a good reputation. Since 1910, when it reinsured practically all of its outstanding liability and retired from most of the States in which it had been operating, its management has been conservative, and the volume of business written has been small, but is steadily increasing and is in proportion to its capital and surplus. Since 1911 its expenses have been moderate.

Its underwriting operations in 1913-1918, inclusive, were profitable and its resources steadily increased. In 1919 it sustained an underwriting loss and its surplus decreased $20,718.22. In 1920 the loss ratio was very high to net premiums written, due, at least in part, to a reinsurance of part of the outstanding liability of the company in November, 1920, but the expense ratio was low, and the company made an underwriting profit of $10,734.47. The results in 1921 were quite unfavorable, the loss ratio was high and there was a heavy ratio of underwriting loss.

Its directorate includes prominent local business and financial men. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $63,129, par value, of its $200,000 capital stock.

Its general loss paying record is good. Its investments are of good character and yield a fair return.

The company is writing lines throughout the United States and Canada through Corroon & Duffy, Inc., 68 William street, New York, principally as reinsurance of the Knickerbocker and American Equitable Insurance Companies.

The mortgage loans are secured by improved property in Atlantic City, and Ventnor, N. J., valued at over twice the amount loaned.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire and motor vehicle insurance.

DIVIDENDS.— 1908, 6%; 4% in 1912 and 1913; 1914 to 1917, inc., 5%; 1918, 6%; 1919, 9%; 1920, 8%; 1921, 6%; total dividends paid since organization, $186,000.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Virginia in March and commenced business April 2, 1906, with an authorized capital of $100,000, all of which was subscribed and $20.550 paid in in cash. The paid-in capital at the end of 1915 was $36,990. Each year from 1916 $13,152 was paid in, making the paid-in capital on January 1, 1920, $102,750. In 1921 $1,850 additional was paid in, making the paid-in capital $104,600.

It confines its operations to the eastern portion of Virginia.

The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company, though small, is efficiently and conservatively managed, and its underwriting has been profitable each year. Its loss ratio has been low, and its expenses ratio low also, considering the small volume of business transacted.

It has the backing of substantial interests, and is in excellent repute.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $21,650 of its $104,600 capital stock.

General Review.

History.— Interest connected with the Texas Employers' Insurance Association, Dallas, Texas, organized this company. The charter was filed at Austin, Texas, on July 2, 1920. The capital of the company, fully paid, is $150,000, with a par value of $100 per share. This was sold at $125, thus yielding $37,500 as surplus.

There were no organization expenses, which is commendable.

Management and Reputation.— The officers and directors of this company are very nearly the same as that of the Texas Employers Insurance Association, of Dallas, Texas, a mutual association writing workmen's compensation and employers' liability insurance. That association has been in sucessful operation since May 15, 1914.

On December 31, 1921 the directors owned $3,390 par value of the capital stock of $150,000.

The company has not operated long enough to have established a record, but in 1920 the losses were nominal, and the expense ratio low, especially for a new company. In 1921 the loss and expense ratios were low, and there was a fair underwriting profit.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— (a) Automobile, public liability, private and commerical, property damage, collision, fire, theft and transportation.

(b) General public liability, including owners', landlords' and tenants' public liability; manufacturers' or contractors' public liability and owners' or contractors' protective liability.

(c) Teams public liability.

(d) Theater public liability.

(e) Employers' liability.

(f) Workmen's compensation in States other than Texas.

Officers.— President, W. B. Head; vice-president and general manager, Homer R. Mitchell; vice-presidents, J. E. Farnsworth, Ernest Steves and D. Edward Greer; secretary and assistant treasurer, J. J. Watson; treasurer and assistant secretary, A. F. Allen; assistant secretary and assistant treasurer, E. E. Watts; assistant secretary, W. B. Todd.

Directors.— Allen, A. F.; Burrus, Perry; Farnsworth, J. E., Greer, D. Edward; Head, W. B.; Holmgreen, E. A.; Mitchell, Homer R.; Morgan, Sam T.; Peyton, J. C.; Reed, T. S.; Steves, Ernest; Watts, E. E.; Watson, J. J.

Territory.— The company has not advised us of the names of States in which it is entered, but some time ago advised that it would commence its operations in Texas, and later would enter the States of Arkansas, Louisiana, New Mexico and Oklahoma, to be followed as soon as practicable by entry into Alabama, Georgia, Kansas, Missouri and Tennessee.

EMPLOYERS LIABILITY ASSURANCE CORPORATION, LTD.,

London, England.

CANADIAN BRANCH, 17 ST. JOHN STREET, MONTREAL, QUEBEC.

GENERAL REVIEW

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated October 25, 1880. Its authorized capital is £1,000,000 ($5,000,000), all of which is subscribed, and £200,000 ($1,000,000) paid in. It established a branch in the United States for the writing of casualty lines in 1886. In 1894 it was licensed to write accident and guarantee business in Canada, and commenced such business in 1895. In 1900 it received its license to write general casualty lines in Canada. In November 1910, its Canadian branch was licensed to write fire insurance in Canada, but it is not writing that class of business in the United States.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses, wherever incurred. The Home Office balance sheet, which includes all its assets and liabilities, showed the following as of December 31, 1921:

Total assets, $47,060,675; capital paid in, $1,798,960; general reserve fund (surplus), $8,345,095. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—This company is well and conservatively managed, and in all respects enjoys an excellent reputation. Its casualty business in the United States has been very profitable.

It guarantees policies issued in Canada by the "Britannic Underwriters Agency."

General manager for Canada, Chas. I. Woodland.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, hail, accident, liability, burglary, boiler, automobile, health insurance, riot and explosion, and fidelity bonds.

TERRITORY.—This company operates in all provinces of Canada; in Denmark, England and its colonies, Egypt, Holland, South Africa and the United States. In the United States it writes only casualty lines.

CANADIAN BRANCH STATEMENT.—On December 31, 1921, the company had at its Canadian Branch assets, $2,366,148.46; surplus to policyholders, $982,362.74. Premiums written 1921, $2,283,289.95; losses paid, $1,150,506.31.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began operations in September, 1860, with a paid-in capital of $100,000. In June, 1864, its capital was increased to $200,000, and in February, 1872, to $300,000. The capital was reduced to $60,000 owing to the Boston conflagration in the same year (1872) and then increased to $200,000 by the issuance of new stock. In January, 1881, the capital was increased to $300,000; in April, 1899, to $400,000, and in April, 1915, to $500,000, $200,000 additional being paid into surplus account.

In 1919 the capital was increased to $750,000. The new stock, par value $50 per share, was sold at $100 per share, so that $250,000 was added to surplus account.

In 1920 the capital was increased to $1,000,000 by the issuance of 5,000 shares (par value $50). All the issue was taken by the stockholders at a premium of 100%, thus adding $250,000 to surplus.

The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

During 1911 interests connected with the Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn., acquired control of the company, and on December 1, 1911, reinsured about two-thirds of its outstanding business. The Phœnix Securities Company, of Hartford, owns a majority of the stock.

Policies issued under the title "Equitable Insurance Alliance" are guaranteed by this company and the Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn. These policies are used principally on the Pacific coast and in New York State.

It issues policies in accordance with the special reserve fund and guaranty surplus law of Rhode Island, and has on deposit with the Insurance Department $70,000 "special reserve fund;" it also maintains a $70,000 "guarantee surplus fund."

This Company, effective December 1, 1921, reinsured the outstanding risks of the Prudential Fire Insurance Company of Greenville, S. C.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under the same general management as the Phœnix Insurance Co. of Hartford, Conn., a large and reputable institution, and the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., which is also in excellent repute.

The business written in the larger cities is of moderate volume, indicating that the conflagration hazard is carefully observed. Prior to the change in control the expenses of operation had been much above the average and the loss ratio high. The expenses are now moderate and the loss ratio normal. In 1919, 1920 and 1921 it had a low loss ratio, except that in 1921 on a small volume of ocean marine insurance the loss ratio was high.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations used are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgage loans are upon improved property, chiefly in Providence, valued at over three times the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of South Carolina in December, 1894, with $500,000 authorized capital, with privilege to increase to $2,000,000. It began business in March, 1895, with $100,000 capital paid in and with no surplus; the surplus shown above has been earned. During that year its paid-in capital was increased to $117,800, and in February, 1904, its charter was amended, reducing the authorized capital to $200,000. During 1906 its paid-in capital was increased to $120,000; to $168,500 in 1909, and to $200,000 in 1910. In 1919 it increased the capital stock to $300,000, its charter having been amended to permit this increase.

The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—Its underwriting has been profitable in recent years, and the company is making steady progress. Its loss ratio has been low and its average expense ratio moderate. In 1921 its expense ratio to premiums written was high, largely owing to a reduced premium volume. The volume of business written is conservative.

The company is in excellent repute in the matter of loss settlements.

Among its directors are prominent local business men. On December 31, 1920, the directors owned $52.175, par value, of the $300,000 capital stock.

Its investments are of good character, the security valuations being those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The real estate is a three-story brick brick building, used as the company's Home Office, and warehouse adjoining. The mortgage loans are upon improved property in Charleston. The market value of the property mortgaged is $142,900. The collateral loans are apparently well secured.

AFFILIATAON.—Southeastern Underwriters Association.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed in N. C., S. C. and Va.

DIVIDENDS.—In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1900 to 1902, inc., 6%; 1903, 7%; 1904 to 1909, inc., 6%; 1910 and 1911, 7%; 1912, 7.5%; 1913 to 1916, inc., 7%; 1917, 7.5.%; 1918, 8%. In 1919 it paid $21,865.82. In 1920 it paid 10%; 1921, 11%.

ESSEX AND SUFFOLK EQUITABLE INSURANCE SOCIETY, LTD.,

Colchester, Essex, Eng.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was founded in 1802 by farmers and traders for mutual fire insurance. Its authorized capital is £600,000, of which £560,000 is subscribed and £56,000 paid up. At the commencement a stock capital of £20,000 ($100,000), with £2,000 ($10,000) paid up was provided. By the original constitution, the taking of risks within ten miles of London and in Scotland and Ireland were forbidden. In time the society gradually acquired wealth and strength, and as a local concern operated most successfully for over one hundred years. In 1906 its operations were extended and other classes of business were taken up, and it now writes fire, workmen's compensation, personal accident, burglary and employers' liability insurance. It bears an excellent reputation, and its directors and management are highly respected.

In August, 1911, the Atlas Assurance Company, of London, secured control of this company. It is operated as a separate institution, but its policies are guaranteed by the Atlas, a large and reputable institution.

It is writing "surplus lines" in this country through Fred S. James & Company, 123 William street, New York, who advise us that they hold power of attorney from the company to accept service should suit be brought against the company, and to adjust and settle all losses. Fred S. James & Co. are in excellent repute.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— The December 31, 1921, Home Office balance sheet shows the following figures: Assets, £308,898 ($1,544,490); capital paid in, £56,000 ($280,000); balance to profit and loss, £5,303 ($26,515).

General Review.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania on December 30, 1920, licensed on the same date, and began business January 1, 1921. The authorized and paid-in capital is $200,000 and $200,000 was contributed to surplus. In 1921 $100,000 was paid in to surplus. The par value of the shares is $100. It was organized by interests closely identified with the Berwind-White Coal Mining Company, a large, successful coal mining institution.

This company succeeded to the business of the Eureka Mutual Insurance Company, which, since December, 1915, has been conducted by the same interests, and on December 31, 1920, it reinsured the outstanding risks of that company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting management of the company is now in the hands of Edward B. Creighton, who is in high repute and has had many years' experience in the insurance business. He was for a number of years special agent and adjuster of the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company, and for several years secretary of the Underwriters Association of the Middle Department. For many years he has been closely identified with the Berwind-White Coal Mining Company.

The stock of the company is fairly closely held. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $60,000 of the par value of the capital stock of $200,000. It operated in its first year with successful results. The loss ratio was normal, the expense ratio low, and it made a substantial underwriting profit. Having succeeded to the business of the Mutual Company it was placed promptly on an earning basis.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, motor vehicle, inland marine, tornado, sprinkler leakage, riot, explosion, and eartquake.

General Review.

History.— This company was formed February 14, 1922, by the merger of the Eureka Fire and Marine Insurance Company and the Security Insurance Company, both of Cincinnati, Ohio, all of the capital stock, except a few shares, of these two companies having been purchased by interests identified with the Pure Oil Company.

The Eureka Fire and Marine Insurance Company began business September 26, 1864, and on December 31, 1921, had $100,000 paid-in capital, and $269,569.27 net surplus. The Security Insurance Company began business July 19, 1881, and on December 31, 1921, it had $150,000 paid-in capital, and $198,659.55 net surplus. The statement shown above is the combined figures of the two companies as of December 31, 1921.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

It guarantees policies entitled "Cincinnati Underwriters."

Management and Reputation.— The management is the same as formerly managed the two companies merged to form this company, and is capable and in excellent repute.

The loss paying record of the two companies merged to form this one, was excellent under all conditions. The volume of business written is conservative in proportion to the company's net resources. Its expense of operation is high, but its loss ratio has been low.

Its investments are of good character.

Affiliation.— Western Insurance Bureau.

Territory.— It is licensed in Ill., Ky., Mich., O. and Wis.

Dividends.— It has paid dividends of 6% per annum for many years; 1921, 6⅙% paid.

Officers.— President, F. A. Rothier; vice-president, C. E. Mason; vice-president and secretary, B. Gates Dawes, Jr.; treasurer and assistant secretary, Adam Benus; assistant secretary, F. C. Barton.

Directors.—

Benus, Adam, treasurer and assistant secretary of company.

Carpenter, W. B., stationer.

Dawes, Jr., B. Gates, vice-president and secretary of the company.

Mason, Charles E.

Rothier, C. C., insurance agent.

Rothier, F. A., president of the company.

Ryan, Michael, of the Cincinnati Abattoir Co.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York April 1, 1919, was licensed June 26, 1919, and began business July 1, 1919, with an authorized, subscribed and paid-in capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $100,000. Stock, par value $5 per share, was sold at $8.83 so that the organization expenses were $53,200.

This company was incorporated under its present title, but the title "Eureka Fire Insurance Company, Organizing," was used during the period of organization and the company began soliciting subscriptions for stock in 1917.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— At present the underwriting is supervised by David F. Ryan, who has been connected with the company since it began business. He was formerly connected with the Underwriting Department of the Western Department of the Fidelity-Phenix Insurance Company.

The president is Ray B. Smith, City Bank Building, Syracuse, N. Y. He is a member of the law firm of Smith, Hayden and Setright, and is in good repute. He is also president of the Syracuse Press. Inc., and of the Selina Paper Company, and was formerly a member of the New York State Assembly. For several years he has been the attorney for a number of fire insurance companies and has also been president of one of the leading Syracuse fire insurance agencies.

The company has not operated long enough to have fully established records. The volume of business transacted is conservative. In 1920 its loss and expense ratios were moderate for a new company. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and as a result of the small volume written the expenses also high. Its underwriting loss for the three years since starting business has been $58,011, which is more than the unearned premium account built up in that time.

The board of directors is composed of substantial business men of Central New York, who owned, at the end of 1921, at par value, $38,790 of the capital stock of the company.

It is in good repute as to its treatment of loss claimants.

Its mortgage loans upon property in Oneida, Onandaga, Herkimer and Columbia Counties, New York, are of good character and the securities owned by this company are high grade and the valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1894 with £5,000, authorized capital all subscribed and paid in. Up to December 31, 1909, its paid-up capital remained at £5,000, but during 1910 it was increased to £50,000.

It is practically a private corporation, and its operations have been very profitable. It transacts fire, automobile, accident, marine, and other branches of insurance.

It is not regularly licensed in the United States, but writes all classes of risks in this country through Marsh & McLennan, of Chicago, Ill., under direct contract with that firm who, we are advised does its own underwriting and pays losses direct through its office.

We also have been advised that the company had deposited $100,000 in securities in the Continental and Commercial Bank of Chicago, for the protection of American policyholders.

FARMERS' FIRE AND HAIL INSURANCE COMPANY,

414-415 Mac Lean Block, Calgary, Canada

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Alberta in February, 1917, and was licensed and began business in June, 1917, with an authorized capital of $500,000, of which $343,900 was subscribed and $85,975 paid in. Stock (par value $100 per share) was sold at that price, so that it started without a surplus. The expense of promotion was, according to the information that we have from the company, 15%, one-half being in cash and the remainder in stock. One thousand seven hundred and twenty-five dollars was paid in to capital in 1920, bringing the paid up capital to $87,700.

At the time of going to press with these reports no statement of this company, showing its operations for the year 1921, and its financial condition at the close of the year, was available.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—M. P. Johnson, managing director, has had nine years' experience in insurance, and C. E Prosser, field superintendent, has been engagd in special agency work for over twelve years. W. B. Barnes, secretary-treasurer, has been active in insurance offices for approximately the same period.

The special reserve for hail insurance is one-half the net profits made on that class in 1920, as required by the Provincial Department.

AFFILIATION.—Canadian Hail Underwriters Association, Alberta Automobile Underwriters Association and the Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—It writes fire, hail, live stock (fire and lightning only) and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed in the Provinces of Alberta and Saskatchewan.

During 1920 it wrote $15,902.08 fire premiums, with a loss ratio of 53.1% and $189,857.48 hail premiums, upon which the loss ratio was 34.2%.

Its net retention subject to one fire is limited to $1,000.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in October, 1860, and up to 1868 operated practically as a mutual company. In 1868 $25,000 capital was paid in and the balance of its $100,000 authorized capital was represented by stockholders' notes (par value of stock $100).

In October, 1880, a stock dividend of $75,000 was declared, which cancelled the stockholders' notes and made the paid-in capital $100,000. In December 1909 the capital was increased to $200,000 by another stock dividend of $100,000.

In 1920 the control of this company was purchased by interests identified with the Continental, American Eagle Fire and Fidelity Phenix Fire Insurance Companies, of New York, and Henry Evans, chairman of the board of those companies, is also chairman of the board of this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The affairs of the company are now under the same general management as the group of companies noted above, which is very progressive and successful.

The company writes farm business and takes notes for premiums, which accounts for the large item of "bills receivable," in the statement of assets. These are considered good.

The unearned premiums are figured on the basis required by most States, instead of but 40%, in accordance with the Iowa laws as formerly.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $700, par value of the capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claimants. It writes a moderate volume in proportion to its capital and surplus. Its expense of operation has been high, but its average loss ratio is normal.

Its investments are of good character and yield a good return.

The company states that the property formerly used as its Home Office was sold on contract dated January 28, 1918, and that the unpaid portion thereof is carried as an asset, under real estate owned. It is no longer used as the company's office building.

The mortgage loans are principally upon improved Iowa farm property and are valued at over three times the amount loaned.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, tornado, hail and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Ill., Ia., Minn., Neb. and S. D.

DIVIDENDS.— 1901 to 1909, inc., 15%; 1910 to 1919, inc., 10%; 1920, 12%; total dividends paid since organization (cash) $739.500; (stock) $175,000.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of North Dakota, February 21, 1919, with an authorized capital of $250,000, of which $160,050 had been subscribed on December 31, 1919, and $72,060 paid in. It was licensed June 12, 1919. In 1920 $103,590 additional capital was paid in and $1,812.12 contributed to surplus. In 1921 $56,750 was paid in to capital, making the paid-in capital $232,400.

Stock, par value $50, was sold at $65 per share. The surplus collected, except that noted as paid in 1920, was all allowed for organization expense.

Management and Reputation.— The company has not operated long enough to justify comment on the success of its operations. In 1920 its expense ratio was high, which was to be expected of a new company writing a small volume. In 1921 it wrote a small volume, the loss ratio being high, and the expense ratio very high.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $53,750 at par, of the company's capital stock of $232,400.

Affiliation.— Western Union.

Officers.— President, Obert A. Olson; vice-presidents, L. R. Baird, James A. Buchanan and David Kirk; secretary, L. B. Merry; treasurer, W. A. McClure and general manager, C. F. Merry.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Colorado in August, 1918, and was licensed and commenced business March 6, 1920, with an authorized and fully paid capital of $200,000, the stockholders having contributed $325,000 to surplus.

This company guarantees policies under the title The Associated Federal Underwriters."

During the years 1920 and 1921 the Company issued hail insurance policies on the participating plan, but it has assumed membership in the Western Hail and Adjustment Association, and no longer issues these policies.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting is in charge of J. A. Rice, who for many years was manager of the Rocky Mountain district for the Northwestern National Insurance Company, Wisconsin. The vice-president, A. W. Payne, Jr., was formerly with the Northwestern National Life Insurance Company.

The Federal Mortgage and Investment Company, incorporated for $100,000, which specializes in farm mortgages, is owned by the same interests.

In 1921, the first year of its operations, its loss ratio was about normal, and the expense ratio high, as might be expected considering that it is its first year. There was an underwriting loss of $8,357.23, and it paid dividends to hail policyholders, issued under a participating plan, of $2,113.04.

AFFILIATIONS.—Western Union, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, automobile, hail and tornado insurance.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey, and began business on March 2, 1901, with $500,000 authorized capital. It was organized by interests associated with Chubb & Sons, its managers, who also manage the United States branches of the Alliance Assurance Corporation of London, the Marine Insurance Company of London, the Sea Insurance Company, Limited, of Liverpool, the United States marine branch of the London Assurance Corporation of London and the marine department of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

During 1906 its capital stock was increased from $500,000 to $1,000,000 and $100,000 was added to surplus.

It at first wrote marine insurance exclusively, but during the summer of 1903 it began writing fire insurance also. On February 14, 1907, it reinsured its outstanding fire risks in the National Fire Insurance Company, Hartford, Conn. In 1918 it resumed writing fire business, at first on a limited scale.

Management and Reputation.— The company is under reputable management, and has made good progress. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $83,200, par value, of the capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims.

Its expense of operation has been reasonable, and its average loss ratio has been low. In 1919 the fire loss ratio was high but the marine was normal. Due largely to increased reserves, it lost from underwriting $237,933.58. In 1920 the company had an underwriting profit of $468,999.48, and increased the surplus $347,879.27. In 1921 the company greatly curtailed its writings, especially fire, and the loss and expense ratios were high on the written basis. On the earned basis the loss and expense ratios were above normal and there was a substantial underwriting loss. Substantial dividends have been paid stockholders.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— Fire, marine, automobile, tourists' baggage, registered mail, war risk, tornado, hail, sprinkler leakage and explosion insurance.

Dividends.— It has paid dividends as follows: 10%, 1902 to 1906, inc.; 6% in 1907 and 1908; 8% in 1909, 1910 and 1911; in 1912 and 1913, 10%; 1914 and 1915, 12%; 1916, 14%; 1917 to 1919, 19%; 1920 and 1921, 20%.

Territory.—At last advices it was licensed in Ala., Ariz., Ark., Cal., Colo., Conn., D. C., Fla., Ga., Ill., Ind., Ia., Kan., Ky., La., Me., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., Mont., Neb., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., N. D., O., Ore., Pa., R. I., S. C., S. D., Tenn., Tex., Utah, Vt., Wash., Wyo., W. Va. and Wis. It also operates in Canada, Cuba France, Holland, China and England.

Officers.— President, Percy Chubb; vice-presidents, Hendon Chubb, Geo. B. Ogden, William A. Hamilton and William Redmond Cross; treasurer, Sidney Chubb; secretary, Thomas J. Goddard.

Directors.—

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Illinois and commenced business August 5, 1908, with $100,000 capital and $50,000 surplus paid in.

In 1915, the capital was increased from $100,000 to $200,000 and $42,180 additional surplus was paid in. At the same time a dividend of $19,248.12 was declared for the purpose of equalizing stock values.

The company was organized by interests which had been identified with the Federal Lloyds and the Lumber Insurance Association of Chicago. Some of the former underwriters of the Federal Lloyds are interested as stockholders in this company.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The active manager of the business is T. L. Osborn. The company bears a good reputation and the average loss ratio has been about normal, with the average expense ratio a little under normal.

It writes a full volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus. The substantial dividends paid have prevented building surplus.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its treatment of loss claimants.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgages are mainly on improved property in Illinois, Ohio, New York and Michigan, valued at over twice the amount loaned.

The company writes some risks in States other than those in which it is regularly licensed, both direct and through R. H. McKelvey & Co., New York City.

AFFILIATIONS.— Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, National Automobile Underwriters Conference and Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine and tornado insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Colo., Ill., Iowa, La., Mass., Mich., Neb., N. Y., Ohio, Pa., W. Va. and Wis.

DIVIDENDS.— It paid a dividend of 3% in 1913, none in 1914; $19,248.12 in 1915; 1916, 6%; 1917, 1918 and 1919, 8%; 1920 and 1921, 10%.

FEDERATED FIRE REINSURANCE COMPANY—Continued

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated August 11, 1919, and was licensed by the Insurance Department of the State of Iowa, February 26, 1920.

It has an authorized capital of $1,000,000. December 31, 1920, the capital fully paid was $580,450. In addition $246,806.48 had been collected as partial payments on stock, and one-half of this amount is held as a liability in the above statement, being the proportion of these payments to apply to capital, the stock not being issued until fully paid. During 1921 the paid-in capital was increased to $606,150, and $23,297.68 was contributed to surplus. The shares were sold at about $200, and the expense of promotion was 25%, which is high.

The par value of the shares is $100.

Management and Reputation.— E. G. Dunn, president, was vice-president of the Automotive Insurance Company, Mason City, Iowa, which he helped to organize during 1919. That company reinsured and retired in 1921. He is an attorney and is in excellent repute.

W. C. Kuester, secretary and underwriter, was for many years connected with the Stuyvesant Insurance Company, New York City, in an executive capacity, and prior to that connection held responsible positions with several good stock companies.

W. S. Hazard, Jr., vice-president, is second vice-president and director of the Hawkeye Securities Fire Insurance Company, Des Moines, Iowa, and well known in insurance circles.

The company has not operated long enough to have established a record.

It will be noted that the company has not set up a liability in the above statement for unearned premiums. It advises us that all fire and allied lines had been marked off as expired or terminated, and all hail insurance had expired, so that it had no insurance in force on December 31, 1921, and for this reason there was no unearned premium liability.

In 1920 the expenses were high, as might be expected with a new company. In 1921 the loss ratio was moderate and the expense ratio high. The underwriting loss, $27,888.57.

The stock is not closely held; on December 31, 1921, the directors owned $48,400 of its fully paid capital stock, and $98,100 of its subscribed capital stock.

The securities are high class, and the mortgages secured principally by farm property in the company's home State, with small amounts in Minnesota, North Dakota, South Dakota and Wyoming.

Kind of Insurance Written.— Fire reinsurance and hail insurance.

Territory.— Licensed in Ark., Colo., Iowa, Kans., La., Mich., Minn., Mont., Neb., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Dak., Ohio, Okla., Pa., Texas and W. Va.

Officers.— President, E. G. Dunn, Mason City; 1st vice-president, W. S. Hazard, Jr., Des Moines; 2nd vice-president, A. H. Gale, Mason City; secretary, Walter C. Kuester, Mason City; treasurer, James A. Parden, Mason City.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of South Carolina, and began business May 3, 1916, with a paid-in capital of $25,000. The surplus paid in amounted to $6,250.

During 1918 the paid-in capital was increased to $200,000 and $54,000 was paid into surplus account.

It is under the same management as the Palmetto Fire Insurance Company, and is operated from the same office.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

This company reinsured its outstanding risks in the Globe and Rutgers Fire Insurance Company, of New York, as of December 1, 1921, and will continue in business.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The general manager of the company is Mr. Perry Moses, who is also general manager of the Palmetto Fire Insurance Company. Mr. Moses has been in the fire insurance business for a number of years, and is in good repute. The president, Mr. Moise is a member of the law firm of Lee & Moise, and is a director of the Palmetto Fire Insurance Company.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $166,900, par value of the capital stock of the company of $200,000.

The loss and expense ratios have been low. In 1919 and 1920 it greatly increased its business, which necessitated setting up larger reserves and a decrease of $3,983.90 in surplus in 1919, and $9,316.87 in 1920. It will be noted above that the company reinsured its outstanding risks on December 1, 1921, which accounts for the small amount of unearned premium liability and the high loss ratio to premiums written.

The company has written a full volume of business compared with its net resources but the amout retained in 1921 is moderate.

TERRITORY.—The company is licensed in Ga., Ill., La., Mass., Mich., N. Y., N. C., O., Pa., S. C., Tex. and Va.

DIVIDENDS.—In 1917 the company paid a dividend of 4%; 1918, 12½; 1919, 8%; 1920 and 1921, 10%.

OFFICERS.—President, D. D. Moise; vice-president, H. J. Harby; secretary and manager, Perry Moses; treasurer, Neill O'Donnell; assistant secretaries, T. B. Caudle and W. W. McIver; assistant treasurer, S. C. Roper.

GENERAL REVIEW

HISTORY.—This Company was incorporated August 26, 1919, under the laws of the State of New Jersey and was licensed by the Insurance Department of that State January 8, 1920.

On December 31, 1920, the paid in capital was $100,000, and this was increased in 1921 to $200,000 by the sale of 1,000 additional shares of stock at $135 per share, $100 to capital and $35 to surplus, which was sold without cost for promotion or commissions. The surplus was increased $35,000 by the sale of this stock.

The par value of the shares is $100.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is under the management of Edward E. Seeler as secretary, who started the Atlantic City Fire Insurance Company and who was its secretary for nineteen years; retired from that company in January of 1922 to devote his entire time to the Fidelity Insurance Company.

The Company has not operated long enough to have established records, but in 1921 the loss ratio was low, and the expense ratio especially low for a new company.

TERRITORY.—It is operating at present in New Jersey only.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was formed in February, 1910, by the consolidation of the Fidelity Fire Insurance Company, organized in June, 1906, and the Phenix Insurance Company, of Brooklyn, N. Y., which began business September 10, 1853, and which had a paid-in capital of $1,500,000. The Fidelity Fire was organized with $1,000,000 capital, $1,000,000 surplus, and a special fund of $500,000 to provide for the creation of the unearned premium reserve. The merger became effective March 1, 1910. None of the executive officers of the Phenix Insurance Company are connected with the enlarged company.

The Continental Insurance Company, The Farmers Insurance Company of Cedar Rapids, Ia., and the American Eagle Fire Insurance Company, of New York, are under the same management as this company.

This company guarantees policies issued as the "Phenix Underwriters," and "Fidelity Underwriters," and together with the Continental Insurance Company guarantees policies entitled "Fidelity underwriters," the latter issued in Canada only.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has made excellent progress and ranks as one of the leading companies in the United States. It is backed by powerful interests, and its directorate includes prominent financiers and business men. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 only $184,700, par value, of the company's $2,500,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its treatment of loss claims. It carefully limits its conflagration liability in large cities, its business in the principal ones being of moderate volume in proportion to its premium income. Its writings were increased considerably during 1918, 1919 and 1920. In 1920 the company had a heavy loss, due to continuing to mark its securities down to market value, and this with a large increase in unearned premium reserve and a moderate underwriting loss caused the surplus to be reduced by a considerable amount. In 1921 its premium volume was considerably reduced and with moderate loss and expense ratios it made a substantial underwriting gain, and it made a large gain from the increased value of securities, resulting in a large increase in net surplus.

The company's average expenses of operation are moderate, and its loss ratio has been favorable.

The "Marine Office of America," 56 Beaver street, New York, represents the marine department of this company.

The mortgage loans are secured by improved property in Brooklyn, N. Y.

AFFILIATIONS.— Western Union, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, war risk, automobile, registered mail, explosion, riot and civil commotion, hail, sprinkler leakage, earthquake, tornado, transportation and tourists' floater insurance.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed in all the States and Territories except Guam, Hawaii, the Philippine Islands, Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands; it also operates in Canada.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of the state of Texas and was licensed and began business March 20, 1920, with an authorized capital of $300,000 all of which has been paid in, together with a surplus of $150,000.

Stock, par value $100, was sold at $150 per share, thus providing the surplus. There was no expense of promotion, which is very commendable.

The company had made special deposits with the Insurance Departments of the States of Georgia and South Carolina amounting to $20,000, but it has withdrawn from those states.

The company is operating on a profit sharing plan, by attaching to policies an agreement that the sum of losses and the expenses of doing business shall be deducted from the total earned premiums, and on all profit sharing policies, the profit thus arrived at shall be divided between the company and the policyholders.

It has some agents, but obtains most of its business by direct solicitation of the insured.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—Bailey & Collins, who organized this company, have been appointed United States managers under a general agency agreement, of which we have a copy and find the provisions are very favorable to the company. Bailey & Collins are prominent underwriters in the South and Southwest and are also managers of the Fidelity Union Casualty Company, Dallas, Tex., a stock participating casualty company, and of the American Lloyds of Dallas, Tex.

P. B. Bailey, formerly a member of the firm of Bailey & Collins, sold his interests in 1921 to E. G. Trimble, president of the Employer Indemnity Corporation, of Kansas City, Mo., a casualty Company which he organized in 1914. Mr. Trimble is also attorney and manager of the the Employers Indemnity Exchange of Kansas City and president of the Exchange Mutual Indemnity Insurance Company of Buffalo, N. Y.

Carr P. Collins was formerly secretary of the Indusrial Accident Board of Texas, and later secretary of the Texas Employers Insurance Association.

The president, J. S. Le Clercq, is also president of the Dallas Oil & Refining Company, and the directors are connected with prominent business enterprises in the Southwest.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $60,700 of its $300,000 capital stock.

In 1920, its first year, the expenses were favorable for a new company.

In 1921 the expenses were high, due mainly to the fact that the volume of business increased greatly during that year, and new business, under this company's direct-writing plan is necessarily costly, and the losses above normal. A small amount was paid out as dividends under participating policies, and the company had a comparatively heavy underwriting loss.

The securities are Liberty bonds, and the mortgages apply to Texas properties, seemingly well secured.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed in Ala., Kans., La., Mo., Okla, S. C. and Texas.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—It writes fire, tornado, hail, automobile fire, theft and auto property damage insurance.

DIVIDEND.—In 1921 the company paid a dividend of 3% to stockholders.

OFFICERS.—President, J. S. Le Clercq; first vice-president, A. A. Frierson; second vice-president, R. W. Fort; secretary, George A. Chatfield; treasurer, A. A. Frierson.

FIRE ASSOCIATION OF PHILADELPHIA — Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company began business September 1, 1817, with $500,000 authorized capital. Its surplus was considerably reduced by reason of the San Francisco conflagration in 1906. During 1906 its capital was increased from $500,000 to $750,000, and $1,250,000 was added to surplus by the issuance of 5,000 shares of new stock at $300. During 1917 the paid-in capital was increased to $1,000,000, and $1,000,000 was added to surplus through the sale of 5,000 shares of stock at $250 per share.

The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

Policies issued under the style "Philadelphia Underwriters" are guaranteed by this company and the Insurance Company of North America.

The Victory Fire Insurance Company, Philadelphia, Pa., was organized in 1919 under the auspices of this company and interests identified with those of the Fire Association control the stock. Both companies have the same officers.

Management and Reputation.— The company is well managed and has paid large dividends to its stockholders. It is backed by substantial interests. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 only $62,350, par value, of the company's capital stock.

It writes rather a large volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. Its expenses of operation have been moderate and its average loss ratio normal.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The largest items of real estate are the company's Home Office (a four-story brick and stone building at 401-405 Walnut street, Philadelphia); a seven-story office building, corner of Fourth and Walnut streets, Philadelphia, and a brick mill and two frame dwellings at 4155-4163 Frankford avenue, Philadelphia. Most of the other items are dwellings in Camden, N. J., and Philadelphia.

The mortgage loans are principally upon improved property in Pa., N. J., Ohio, Ill., S. D., Tex., Minn., Colo. and Iowa, and are well secured.

Affiliations.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference and the Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

Kinds of Insurance Written.—Fire, marine, riot and civil commotion, explosion, sprinkler leakage, tornado and automobile insurance.

Territory.— It is licensed in all the States and Territories, except Guam, Philippines, Porto Rico and Virgin Islands. It also operates in Canada, under a Dominion license.

Dividends.— It has paid cash dividends of 40% per annum since 1876.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was licensed by the Insurance Department of Ottawa to commence business October 28, 1918, with an authorized capital of $500,000, with power to increase to $1,000,000; a subscribed capital of $250,000, and a paid-in capital of $100,000. The capital was subscribed at par, $100 per share, with 40% paid up.

With a view of extending the company's operations, the directors decided to further increase the subscribed capital to $500,000, of which $150,000, or 1,500 shares, were offered to the public.

The subscription forms called for the payment of a cash installment of 10%, and 30% on or before December 15, 1918. The present intention of the company is not to call the balance of the capital, but rather to gradually pay it off from earnings. The subscribed capital is $500,000. In 1921 the paid-in capital was increased to $200,000.

The company writes fire insurance only, and operates in all provinces of Canada, except Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island. It does not operate in Newfoundland, or in the Maritime Provinces. It is a "board company" in the Northwest province.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The officers and directors are reputable bankers, insurance and business men.

The vice-president and general director of the company is J. E. Clement, who was formerly for many years manager of the Mount Royal Assurance Company, Montreal, which company he organized in 1903. Mr. Clement is an experienced insurance man, and acts as Canadian manager for the Nationale Fire Insurance Company, of Paris, France. He and the secretary of the company, Mr. J. A. Blondeau, are the only officers who have had any past insurance experience. Mr. Blondeau having acted as Mr. Clement's assistant in the "Mount Royal."

It is writing a conservative volume of business with a low loss ratio, and a low expense for a young company. The securities owned are high class.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized May 6, 1863, and began writing fire insurance June 18, 1863, with $200,000 authorized capital, par value of stock $10 per share. During 1865 its capital was increased to $500,000. In 1867 it commenced writing marine insurance.

In 1871 its stockholders were assessed 50% to meet Chicago conflagration losses, in which the company paid more than its entire capital. In January, 1873, its capital was reduced from $500,000 to $300,000, to assist in meeting losses sustained in the Boston, Mass., conflagration of November, 1872. The par value of its stock was increased to $100 per share, and provision was made for increasing the capital to $1,000,000. In 1880 the paid-in capital was increased to $750,000, and in 1886 to $1,000,000, and $75,000 surplus was also paid in. In January, 1907, the capital was increased from $1,000,000 to $1,600,000, and during 1909 was reduced to $1,500,000, the difference being transferred to surplus. On December 10, 1919, the issue of 15,000 additional shares was authorized (par value $100) to be sold at $150, and during 1920 this additional capital was paid in, making the paid-up capital $3,000,000, and $750,000 was contributed to surplus.

The company lost an immense sum in the San Francisco conflagration, being liable not only under policies issued in its own name, but also under those issued by the Home Fire and Marine Insurance Company, which was owned by the Fireman's Fund, and under policies of the "Pacific Underwriters," which were guaranteed two-thirds by the Fireman's Fund and one-third by the Home Fire and Marine.

Under the laws of California, stockholders of insurance companies were liable to assessment to meet the companies' obligation. The Fireman's fund owned all of the $300,000 stock of the Home Fire and Marine. The total losses for which the Fireman's Fund was liable under the three classes of policies mentioned amounted to $11,175,916.09 gross, on which there was reinsurance of $2,627,354.13, leaving a net loss of $8,545,561.96. In order to protect its policyholders and preserve the business and agency plant of the company, its directors formed, soon after the fire, in 1906, the Firemen's Fund Insurance Corporation, with $1,000,000 capital. All of this company's outstanding risks were reinsured by the "corporation," and later, after the reorganization had been completed, were changed back to the original Firemen's Fund Insurance Company.

The resources of this company and of the Home Fire & Marine were inadequate to meet the San Francisco losses. A settlement was affected with the creditors by which all losses under policies of the Fireman's Fund, the Home Fire & Marine, or the Pacific Underwriters were treated alike. The Fireman's Fund agreed to pay the creditors in cash 50% of the adjusted claims, the other 50% being paid in stock of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company at an arbitrary valuation of $500 per share, the par value being $100.

An assessment of $3,000,000 was levied upon the stockholders, and over $2,000,000 collected, the stock of those who did not pay being forfeited and used in the settlement with creditors.

In its settlement the company actually paid on each $1,000 of its liabilities 56½% in cash, amounting to $565, and one share of its reinstated stock. Claimants have received in cash and convertible stock much more than the full 100% of their claims.

Practically all of the company's records were destroyed in the conflagration, increasing the difficulty of adjusting its affairs. In view of that fact and the immense liability which it had to discharge, the action of the management of the company is worthy of high praise.

The Home Fire & Marine Insurance Co., of San Francisco, is operated and managed in conjunction with this company.

Policies under the title "Occidental Underwriters" are issued and guaranteed by this company and the Home Fire & Marine Insurance Co., of San Francisco.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— In recent years the underwriting has been profitable, and the company has made substantial progress. It has strong backing and is in excellent repute.

The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $200,600, par value, of the $3,000,000 capital stock.

The company increased its writings greatly during 1917, and the fire premiums increased considerably in 1918 and 1919. The volume of business transacted is reasonable in proportion to the company's capital and surplus; for it is widely distributed and a large percentage of the total business is marine. Its expenses of operation are moderate and its average loss ratio is normal.

The company has made a large underwriting profit in recent years, but in 1920 it showed a considerable underwriting loss. In 1921, operating on a considerably reduced income a heavy underwriting loss was incurred, the loss ratio being high especially in Marine classes. This loss was overcome largely by profits in the investment accounts.

The principal value of real estate owned is the company's Home Office property. During 1920 it acquired additional real estate adjoining its Home Office at a cost of $225,000.

The mortgage loans are well secured by property, mostly improved, in the States of California, Washington and Iowa.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated January 21, 1850, under special charter from the State of Indiana, permitting it to transact practically all classes of insurance as well as a general banking business. Under this special charter it is not supervised by the Insurance Department of that State. The company was originally located at Madison, Ind., but during 1916 a syndicate of Indianapolis business men purchased control, and the Home Office was moved to Indianapolis.

After this change, the directors voted to increase the capital stock from $100,000 to $150,000 by the issuance of 2,000 additional shares (par value $25), to be sold at $50 a share. During 1917 the capital was increased from $100,475 to $103,000; in 1918 to $104,425; in 1919 to $105,275; and in 1920 the balance of the $150,000 had been paid in, and $49,239.12 was contributed to surplus.

In November, 1915, all the business of the company was reinsured in the Madison Insurance Company, but in June, 1916, it resumed business with a complete change in officers.

In April, 1919, interests identified with this company purchased control of the Pittsburgh Fire Insurance Company, of Pittsburgh, Pa.

In April 1922 interests identified with the Marquette National Insurance Company secured control of this company, and it will be operated in harmony with that company, and with the Great Western Insurance Company, which is under the same control.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The president, Edson T. Wood; the vice-president, I. N. Harland, and the secretary, H. W. Watkins, have all had considerable experience in the insurance business. The management changed in April 1922 and it is now under the same general management as the Marquette National Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill., Anthony Matre becoming chairman of the Board, and Francis J. Matre president of the company.

It states that it reports to the Indiana Insurance Department, although it has no supervision over the company's methods of doing business; and that it sets up the same unearned premium reserve as other companies.

The company's loss and expense ratios were low in 1916, and in 1918 a good underwriting profit was made; in 1919 it gained from underwriting $4,160.38. In 1920 the marine loss ratio was high, and the company had an underwriting loss of $54,708.58, caused in part by an increase in unearned premium reserve. In 1921 the loss ratio was about normal, the expense ratio favorable, and the company had an underwriting profit of $23,042.85. A loss from investments about offset the underwriting gain.

The company bears a good reputation concerning its treatment of loss claimants.

AFFILIATION.— Western Insurance Bureau.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, tornado and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed only in Indiana.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1902 and 1903, 4%; 1904 and 1905, 6%; 1906 to 1908, inc., 7%; 1909 and 1910, 8%; 1911, 10%; 1912, 8%; 1913, 7%; 1914, 6%; 1916, 3% for six months' operations; 1917, 6%; 1918, 6%; 1919 it paid a cash dividend of $6,280.50, and in 1920 of $3,173.25.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began operations December 3, 1855. It has a paid-up capital of $1,250,000.

Policies entitled "Firemen's Underwriters" are issued and guaranteed by this company.

In January, 1916, it purchased control of the Mechanics Insurance Company and the Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Company, both of Philadelphia, and operates them as separate companies.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is well managed, and considering the rapid growth of its business and the corresponding increase of unearned premium liability, its underwriting has shown satisfactory results. It transacts a large and profitable business and has paid good dividends.

It is backed by substantial interests. On December 31, 1921, the directors owntd $128,850. par value, of the capital stock then outstanding.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. It writes a full volume of business. Its expenses of operation and its loss ratio have been normal. In 1921 the loss and expense ratios were higher and there was a considerable underwriting loss, but a very substantial gain from investments provided a large gain in surplus.

Its investments are of high grade and yield a good return. The security valuations in this statement are actual market values as of December 31, 1921.

The real estate owned is the company's Home Office at Broad and Market streets, Newark. The mortgage loans are mainly upon improved Newark, Elizabeth and Orange, N. J., property, worth over twice the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was chartered by Congress in 1837. It transacted only a local business up to early in 1911, when its charter was amended, giving it authority to write business outside of the District of Columbia.

The paid-in capital is $200,000, and the par value of the stock is $20 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has been well managed, and, while its business is small, it has made progress. It has substantial local backing. Its management expenses are high, but its average loss ratio is low.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated November 13, 1912, and licensed to begin business December 31, 1912. It was organized with $500,000 capital and $500,000 surplus. Its charter provides for the increase of its capital from time to time, to not exceeding $5,000,000. It is chartered to transact all classes of reinsurance.

The par value of its stock is $100 per share.

Nearly all of the stock of the company (4,505 out of 5,000 shares outstanding) was owned by the Munich Reinsurance Company, or interests closely connected with that company. For that reason, the Alien Property Custodian took over the control of the company in 1918.

The enemy-owned stock of the company was sold by the Alien Property Custodian, May 13, 1920, to persons identified with several responsible American Life, Fire and Casualty companies. Since that time the management has been made up of representatives of the new interests.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— Until 1918, Carl Schreiner, for many years United States manager of the Munich Reinsurance Company, was president of this company. He was succeeded by the former vice-president and secretary of the company, H. H. Stryker. Mr. Stryker was formerly president of the Surety Association of America, and vice-president of the American Bonding Company of Baltimore. Samuel Ludlow, Jr., the vice-president and secretary, has long been prominent in banking and financial circles. During the war he was the personal representative in the management of the Alien Property Custodian.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $13,400 of the capital stock of $500,000.

The expenses of operating are low. Until 1921 its underwriting results were profitable. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was a substantial underwriting loss. The securities owned are high class, and the valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, automobile, tornado, sprinkler leakage, riot, civil commotion, explosion, registered mail, fidelity, surety, burglary, accident and life reinsurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Ark., Colo., Conn., La., Mass., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. C., Ohio, Pa., Texas and W. Va.

DIVIDENDS.— 1920, 5%; 1921, 10%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1827. Its authorized capital is 4,000,000 roubles, all of which is paid in. It entered the United States early in 1907.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— No recent Home Office balance sheet is available.

Owing to the present chaotic state of affairs in Russia it would be very difficult, if not impossible, to secure additional funds from the Home Office if needed, and on December 1, 1918, the Soviet Government of Russia decreed the dissolution of all private insurance companies and the confiscation of their assets by the state on April 11, 1919. This action, if sustained, would apparently terminate the authority of their United States representatives; but the assets in this country can be used only to liquidate obligations incurred here.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has always been in excellent repute at its home and in this country. In the United States it is managed by Paul E. Rasor, who is in high standing and is also United States manager of the Moscow Fire Insurance Company, of Moscow, Russia, the Russian Reinsurance Company, of Petrograd, Russia, and of the Nordisk Reinsurance Company, of Copenhagen, Denmark, reported upon elsewhere in this volume.

The United States Branch writes a heavy volume of business in proportion to its net resources.

The expense of management of the United States Branch has been low; its loss ratio has been about normal. In 1920 the company had an underwriting loss of $202,415.22, accounted for largely by the increased unearned premium reserve, and by a slightly higher loss ratio. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was a moderate underwriting loss.

The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.— Paul E. Rasor, New York.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.— Bankers' Trust Company, New York.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— In the United States it writes fire, explosion, sprinkler leakage and tornado reinsurance.

TERRITORY.— In the United States it is licensed in Ark., Colo., Del., Ill., Iowa, La., Mass., Mich., Miss., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Pa., Texas and W. Va.

General Review.

HISTORY.— This company commenced business in 1879. Its authorized capital is 25,000,000 francs ($5,000,000 at normal rate of exchange). It was authorized by the New York Insurance Department to transact business in New York State as an ocean marine company on October 28, 1907. It has on deposit with the Insurance Department of New York $200,000 corporate stock of the city of New York for the protection of its United States policyholders.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— The home office assets are liable for losses here. The home office balance sheet, as of December 31, 1920, shows the following figures: Assets, $14,862,396.29; capital paid in, $1,250,000; surplus, $2,576,193.88. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note page vii).

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— This company is in excellent standing at its home and in this country. It is under the same management in the United States as the Switzerland General Insurance Company, of Zurich, Switzerland.

The company's loss paying record is excellent. Its expense of management has been very low, but its average loss ratio is high. The volume of business transacted is small.

The investments are of excellent character.

UNITED STATES MANAGERS.— Bertschmann & Maloy, New York.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania April 22, 1829, with $400,000 authorized capital (par value of stock $25 per share), and began business in June, 1829.

The company reported a net loss of $1,361,280 in the San Francisco conflagration in 1906. To meet these losses its capital was reduced from $400,000 to $100,000 and then increased by the issuance of $300,000 of new stock at 200%; $600,000 being added to its resources during the year. In 1910 its capital was increased from $400,000 to $500,000; the additional stock was sold at a premium of $25, producing $100,000 additional surplus.

On May 1, 1915, all the outstanding risks of this company were reinsured in the Home Insurance Company of New York. Interests identified with that company purchased the stock of the Franklin, which, however, is operated as a separate company.

Early in 1919 the capital was increased from $500,000 to $1,000,000. The stock was offered to the then stockholders at $50 a share, par value $25, so that $500,000 was added to surplus account.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is backed by substantial interests, and is under the same management as the Home Insurance Company, New York, a very large, successful and reputable institution. The Home interests since February, 1920, have also controlled the City of New York Insurance Company.

At the close of 1921 the directors held $17,790, par value, of the company's $1,000,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute as to its general treatment of loss claims. The volume of business transacted is moderate. Its loss and expense ratios have been below normal in recent years. In 1918 and 1919 the loss ratio was low, and the company made a good underwriting profit in those years. In 1920 the company considerably increased its volume of business, necessitating a large increase in unearned premium reserve, which operated to produce an underwriting loss, and a reduction in surplus. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, but with a low expense ratio there was only a slight underwriting loss.

Its investments are high grade. The security valuations in this statement are those based upon the actual market values.

The chief item of real estate is the company's office building at 421 Walnut street.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, automobile, earthquake, sprinkler leakage, explosion, war risk, tourists' baggage and tornado, riot and civil commotion.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in all the States and Territories except Alaska, Guam, Hawaii, Nevada, Philippines, Porto Rico and Virgin Islands. In Canada it is licensed in the provinces of Ontario and Quebec.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1900 to 1905, inc., 20%; 1906 and 1907, 10%; 1908, 11%; 1909, 12%; 1910, 10.8%; 1911 to 1914, inc., 12%; 1915, 10.6%; 1916 to 1918, inc., 10%; 1919, 14%; 1920 and 1921, 20%.

OFFICERS.— President Elbridge G. Snow; vice-presidents, Frederic C. Buswell and Clarence A. Ludlum; vice-president and treasurer, Charles L. Tyner; vice-president and secretary, Wilfred Kurth; secretary, Harold V. Smith; assistant secretaries, Joseph A. Steel and Vincent P. Wyatt.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was licensed at its Home Office December 19, 1917, and commenced business on the 21st of the same month with Y. 10,000,000 being 200,000 shares of Y. 50, par value, per share. The paid-up capital is Y. 2,500,000. The company regularly entered the United States for business by making a statutory deposit with the Insurance Department of New York of Liberty bonds and received its license from that Department on December 24, 1920, and commenced writing marine business January 1, 1921. On February 6, 1922, it made an additional capital deposit of Liberty bonds with the New York State Department and was authorized to write fire insurance also.

Mr. T. Matsuki is managing director and Mr. Hirao, one of the directors of this company, is also a director of the Tokio Marine and Fire Insurance Company and the Taisho Marine Insurance Company, Ltd.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The U. S. managers of the marine department are Messrs. Carpinter & Baker, 3 South William street, New York City, who are in good repute and represent a number of well-known insurance companies for marine business. The U. S. manager of the fire department is the William H. Kenzel Company, 45 John street, New York City, who are in good repute and represented, until recently, as agents a number of prominent companies for the metropolitan district of New York.

The securities held at the U. S. Branches are high class. In addition to the U. S. Liberty bonds, deposited with the New York State Insurance Department, the bonds held by the trustees are Japanese Sterling loan bonds, held at market value.

The United States trustee is the Central Union Trust Co.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— The Home Office balance sheet as of December 31, 1920, shows total assets, Y. 13,110,404.22 ($6,555,202.11), which includes unpaid capital Y. 7,500,000; paid-up capital, Y. 2,500,000 ($1,250,000); underwriting reserves, special and legal, Y. 1,915,996.63 ($957,998.32); balance from previous year to profit and loss account, Y. 274,571.57 ($137,285.78). GENERAL ACCIDENT FIRE AND LIFE ASSURANCE CORPORATION, LIMITED, Perth, Scotland.

CANADIAN BRANCH, TORONTO, CANADA.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This corporation was organized in 1885 as the General Accident Assurance Corporation, Limited under the laws of Great Britain. On March 2, 1906, the present title was adopted. It entered the United States in 1899. It commenced writing fire insurance in Canada on July 13, 1908. Thomas H. Hall, Toronto, is the Canadian manager.

Its subscribed capital amounts to £1,153,000 ($5,765,000) of which £403,000 ($2,015,000) has been paid in. Of the latter amount £153,000 ($765,000) consisted of 5% preferred shares. In October, 1913, the company issued and offered for public sale 125,000 shares of preferred stock of one pound per share, par value.

It controls the General Accident Assurance Company of Toronto, a small company which was organized in 1906. The General Accident Insurance Company of Philadelphia was absorbed by this company on June 30, 1908. It also owns a controlling interest in the Potomac Insurance Company of Washington, D. C., which transacts a fire insurance business in the United States. Interests closely allied with it also control the Law Fidelity and General Insurance Corporation, Ltd., of London, which writes various classes of business.

The Home Office assets are liable for losses here.

Home Office statement as of December 31, 1920: Total assets, $16,771,155; total liabilities, except capital, $12,184,515; capital paid in, £403,000 ($2,015,000), consisting of £250,000 ($1.250,000) ordinary, and £153,000 ($765,000) 5% preferred stock; surplus over capital and all other liabilities, $693,155. In addition to the cash assets the company has £750,000 ($3,750,000) of subscribed capital subject to call.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was established in 1819. Its authorized capital is 2,000,000 francs, all of which is paid in. On July 14, 1910, it was regularly admitted to do business in the United States.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. We therefore present the following information from the Home Office balance sheet, which includes all its assets and liabilities. Total assets, December 31, 1920, $13,421,677; capital paid in $400,000; surplus funds, $5,177,942. (An arbitary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is in excellent standing, and its United States managers, Fred S. James & Co., are in excellent repute, and act in the same capacity for the Urbaine Fire Insurance Company of Paris, and the Eagle, Star and British Dominion Insurance Company, of London, Eng. The United States Branch writes a full volume of business in proportion to its net resources.

Its average loss and expense ratios are normal. In 1921 the loss ratio was above normal, and there was a moderate underwriting loss.

GEORGE WASHINGTON FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY — Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of North Carolina and began business March 13, 1903, as the Southern Underwriters, continuing under this name until 1921, when the present title was adopted.

The policies first issued under this title were guaranteed by the Home Insurance Company of Greensboro, the Southern Life and Trust Company, the Southern Stock Fire Insurance Company and Underwriters of Greensboro, which were all under the same management. In 1905, however, a change was made, and $100,000 capital was paid in.

The Home Insurance Company of Greensboro was absorbed by this company during 1908, and the capital was made $150,000.

During 1909 the capital was increased from $150,000 to $200,000, and $4,900 premium on this stock was paid in to surplus account.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Management and Reputation.— The company is under the same management as the Pilot Fire Insurance Company and the Greensboro Fire Insurance Company (formerly the Underwriters of Greensboro). Its president is also president of the Southern Life and Trust Company of Greensboro.

In March, 1920, this company, together with the Pilot Fire Insurance Company and the Underwriters of Greensboro (now the Greensboro Fire Insurance Company) formed a special department through which policies are issued under the title of "McAlister Underwriters," which are guaranteed by these three companies.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $13,800, par value, of the $200,000 capital stock.

Its average expenses are slightly above the average, but not unreasonable considering the volume of business transacted. The loss ratio in recent years has been low, and the company has made a good underwriting profit. In 1921 its loss ratio was high and it had a substantial underwriting loss.

The securities owned are mainly local trust and industrial company stocks, and United States Liberty bonds.

The mortgage loans are secured by property in North and South Carolina and Virginia valued at over twice the amount loaned.

The company's loss paying record is excellent. The volume of business transacted is conservative.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Georgia and began business in 1859 with $300,000 authorized capital.

In 1915 $100,000 was transferred from capital to surplus account, making the capital $200,000.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— It is under experienced management, but its underwriting operations have been unprofitable recently. It made a gain from underwriting of $10,831 in 1918 and $19,024 in 1919. In 1920 its loss and expense ratios were higher, and it had an underwriting loss of $29,500.76. In 1921 the loss and expense ratios were still high and it had an underwriting loss of $83,624.83. It is now writing a conservative volume of business in States where the business has proved most satisfactory.

The control of the company is in comparatively few hands. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $17,346.67, par value, of the capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims.

Its investments are of good character and have generally yielded a good return. Some local industrial stocks are held. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The collateral loans are secured by local stocks and United States bonds.

The real estate owned is the company's Home Office at 1046 Broad street, Columbus, Ga., valued at $125,000.

The mortgage loans are chiefly upon Columbus, Ga., property, valued at over twice the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania in March, 1853, and commenced business in May, 1853. In 1906 its capital was increased from $300,000 to $500,000, and $400,000 additional surplus was collected by the issuance of $200,000 of new stock (par value $100), at 300%. The new money was paid in after the San Francisco conflagration, in which the company lost $886,643.

On February 16, 1921, the capital was increased to $1,000,000, and $275,000 was contributed to surplus.

In January, 1916, control of this company was purchased by the Firemen's Insurance Company, of Newark, N. J. The Girard continued in business without any change in its agency or other affiliations.

A policy entitled "Girard's Underwriters" is issued and guaranteed by this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under the same management as the Firemen's Insurance Co. of Newark, N. J., a large and reputable institution.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims.

It writes a volume of business commensurate with its net resources. Its expense of operation is about normal. Its average loss ratio is low.

Its surplus decreased $95,128.18 in 1919, but it added $272,840 to reserve for unearned premiums on account of increase in volume of business accepted. In 1920 a considerable amount was added to the unearned premiums and the surplus lost $103,065.53. In 1921 a small underwriting profit was earned, and there was a substantial gain in surplus from the investment account.

Its investments are of good character. The security

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business May 4, 1850, as the Dividend Mutual Insurance Company. It was reorganized as a stock company under the present title on April 30, 1864, with a capital stock of $100,000, divided into 10,000 shares, par value, $10 each. In January, 1867, its charter was amended and its capital was increased from $100,000 to $200,000. On August 1, 1912, a stock dividend of $300,000 was declared, increasing the capital to $500,000, and, in addition, a cash dividend of 105% was paid during the year. On September 25, 1919, the company increased its capital to $1,000,000.

The company issues policies in accordance with the special reserve fund and guaranty surplus law of New York. It has on deposit with the Insurance Department of New York, $500,000 "special reserve fund," and maintains a $500,000 "guaranty surplus fund."

This company guarantees policies under the title "Glens Falls Underwriters."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is conservatively managed and has made excellent progress. On December 31, 1921, its directors owned $202,770, par value, of its $1,000,000 capital stock.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions. The company writes a full volume of business, and appears to pay due regard to the conflagration liability in large cities. Its expenses of operation have been moderate and its loss ratio is normal.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate consists of the company's Home Office, carried at $200,000, and some smaller properties acquired under foreclosure. The mortgage loans are well secured.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized in February, 1899, by the consolidation of the Globe Fire Insurance Company (organized in March, 1863), and the Rutgers Fire Insurance Company (organized in October, 1853). Each company had $200,000 paid-in capital, and merged on the basis of $400,000 paid-in capital. During 1916 the capital was increased to $700,000 by a stock dividend of $200,000 and by the stockholders purchasing $100,000 of new stock at par, $100 per share.

Policies entitled "Globe Underwriters Agency" are issued by this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has made remarkable progress, and is one of the largest in the country. For many years it has shown a large underwriting profit each year. Its management is able and aggressive.

Its assets, unearned premiums and net surplus have increased very greatly in recent years. It has paid large dividends to stockholders.

Its premium income is very large, and its business was greatly increased in 1917 and 1918. In 1919 it decreased its marine writing considerably, and in 1920 both its fire and marine writings were greatly increased. There was a moderate reduction of volume in 1921.

The remarkable success of the company has, to a large extent, been due to the very low expense of management.

Its loss ratio has been about the average. Its general loss paying record is good.

It is controlled by a few persons who are active in its management, its president being the largest individual stockholder. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $563,900, par value, of the capital stock. Its investments $30,000 each, increasing the capital from $200,000 to $300,000, and the balance, $50,000, was added to surplus.

The name of the company was formerly the German Fire Insurance Company; the above title was adopted in January, 1918.

This company, and the United-American, the National Union, and the Superior Fire Insurance Companies of Pittsburgh, issue and guarantee a policy entitled "Keystone Underwriters."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is carefully managed and its underwriting in recent years has been fairly satisfactory. It writes a conservative volume of business. Its expense of operation has been high, but its loss ratio has been normal.

It is backed by substantial interests. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921, $57,850, par value, of the company's $300,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims.

Its investments are of good character.

The real estate is the four-story brick office building at 216 and 218 Fourth avenue, valued at $143,000. The mortgages are mostly small loans upon real estate in Pittsburgh and suburbs, valued at over twice the amount loaned. The collateral loans are well secured.

General Review.

History.— This company was organized in May, 1917, received its license to commence business July 24, 1918, and commenced business October, 1918. The company's authorized and paid-in capital is $1,000,000, composed of 10,000 shares, par value $100 per share. The total amount paid in by stockholders was $1,817,400, of which $1,000,000 was applied to capital and $394,505.30 to surplus, after paying the organization expenses.

Management and Reputation.—Mr. Doerfler, president of the company, was at one time assistant secretary of the Acme Fire Insurance Co. and later California manager for the Washington Fire Insurance Co., of Seattle. He is also the owner of the Edd G. Doerfler Co., of Cedar Rapids, one of the largest general insurance agencies in Iowa, and is a director of the Federated Fire Reinsurance Company of Mason City, Ia. He is energetic, capable and in excellent repute.

Mr. Fulton, secretary of the company, was formerly accountant for the Old Phenix of Brooklyn, under C. R. Street and was later chief accountant for the London and Lancashire under their Western Department Manager, Charles E. Dox.

The Iowa Insurance Department examined the company and states that the contracts secured by it are with well known, conservative and reputable companies.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $163,208 of the par value of the $1,000,000 capital stock.

It writes a conservative volume of business in proportion to its loss paying capacity.

It has a good reputation for treatment of loss claimants.

The expense ratio in 1919, 1920 and 1921 was moderate. The loss ratio has been about normal.

In 1919, 1920 and 1921 the surplus decreased, due to a rapid increase in premium volume, and a corresponding increase in unearned premium liability. The losses on marine business were heavy in 1920, and very heavy in 1921.

Its securities are of good character.

Affiliation.— National Board of Fire Underwriters.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— The company writes fire, marine, automobile, tornado, sprinkler leakage, hail, explosion and war risk reinsurance.

Territory.—On December 31, 1921, the company was licensed in the following States: Ark., Colo., Del., Ill., Ia., Ind., La., Mass., Mich., Mont., Neb., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., O., Pa., Tenn., Tex. and W. Va.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Iowa January 2, 1920, and was licensed and began business January 9, 1920, with an authorized and paid-in capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $60,000. Shares, par value $100, were sold at $160, thus providing the surplus. There was no expense of promotion, which is highly commendable.

The company was organized to write hail insurance on growing crops.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—C. Fred Morgan, president, was for twenty years an adjuster with the Horticultural Insurance Company, Des Moines, and Frank S. White was for ten years with the same company as district agent and adjuster. Warren T. Ayres, vice-president, served four years as special and district agent for the Horticultural Insurance Company.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $44,600 par value of the capital stock of the company then outstanding.

On January 29, 1921, this company took over the business on the books of the Horticultural Insurance Company, of Des Moines, Iowa, and that company is retiring from business.

The company has not operated long enough to have established a record, but in 1920 its loss and expense ratios were low. For the year 1921 the statement shows some unusual features, which at the time of going to press with these reports had not been explained to us. While the gross premiums written were much more than in 1920 the net was very much less, and the unearned premiums appear much higher than would ordinarily be required for the net volume written. The heavy cancellations and small net volume will account, to some extent at least, for the high expense ratio. The loss ratio was quite low.

The income, and the loss and gain exhibit shows "borrowed money" $81,500, with the effect of carrying that amount into surplus. We do not find any corresponding item in the liabilities, and if this amount was set up as a liability, and removed as a gain item, the surplus would be reduced $81,500 and show a deficit of $13,669.97.

KIND OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Hail insurance.

GRAIN INSURANCE AND GUARANTEE CO.—Continued.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized in 1919 under the Dominion act of 1917, with an authorized capital of $500,000. December 31, 1920, $330,300 of the capital had been subscribed and $165,150 paid in, and at the close of the year had $37,310.81 surplus. During 1921 the paid in capital was increased to $181,665. The par value of the shares is $100. The company was organized by western Canadian grain dealers, chiefly for the purpose of writing fire insurance on country elevator property and guarantee bonds required in the grain trade.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is managed by the Insurance Underwriting Company, Limited, and we are advised that the company has confined its activities so far to fire insurance on country or line elevators and guarantee bonds, with a safe spread of liability. The stock of the company is not closely held and on December 31, 1921 the directors owned, at par, $34,500 of the $181.665 capital stock. In 1921 the expense ratio was low and the loss ratio was normal. The company made a good rate of underwriting profit. The bonds owned are Dominion Victory Loan issues.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire insurance and guarantee bonds.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Alberta and Manitoba, and registered in Saskatchewan.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company commenced business November 12, 1885, with $200,000 authorized capital, which has all been paid in. The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

In the first part of 1921 control of this company was purchased by interests identified with the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company, of Manchester, N. H.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company bears a good reputation, and has made fair progress. It is now controlled by the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company, a large, successful company, and is being operated under the management of that company as a separate institution.

It writes a large volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus. Its expenses of operation are moderate, but its average loss ratio has been somewhat above normal. In 1917, 1918, 1919 and 1920, however, its loss ratios were normal.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $64.400, par value, of the total $200,000 capital stock.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgage loans are first liens upon property valued at over twice the amount loaned.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association and Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, explosion, sprinkler leakage and windstorm insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Colo., Conn., Del., D. C., Ill., Ind., Ia., Ky., La., Me., Md., Mass., Mich., Mo., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Ore., Pa., R. I., Vt., Va., Wash., W. Va. and Wis.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1901 to 1905, inc., 6%; 1906 and 1907, 8%; 1908 to 1918, inc., 10%; 1919, 13%; 1920, 14%; 1921, 14%; total dividends paid since organization, $526,000.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized and commenced business March 7, 1872, with $1,000,000 authorized capital. In 1903 $500,000 additional capital and $913,680 surplus were paid. in. On May 10, 1911, the Rochester German Insurance Company of Rochester, N. Y., was merged with this company, and by this transaction its capital was increased to $2,000,000.

During the latter part of 1918 the paid-in capital was increased to $5,000,000. The new stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $150 per share, so that $1,500,000 was added to surplus.

On February 2, 1920, the capital was increased to $10,000,000.

The American Alliance Insurance Company is under the same management as this company, and operates in harmony with it.

Carolina Home Insurance Company, of Raleigh, N. C., and the Massachusetts Fire and Marine Insurance Company, of Boston, Mass., both of which operate as separate institutions.

This company was formerly the German American Insurance Company, the present title being adopted late in 1917.

Policies entitled "American Alliance Insurance Association" are issued and guaranteed by this company and the American Alliance Insurance Company. This company also guarantees policies entitled "Rochester Underwriters."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting policy of the company has been conservative and successful. The company has made steady progress, and ranks as one of the leading companies of the country. It is backed by substantial interests, and its directorate includes prominent business men and financiers.

The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $772,200, par value, of the company's $10,000,000 capital stock.

The volume of business written is moderate in proportion to the company's net resources. Its average expense ratio is moderate, and its average loss ratio is normal. In 1920, continuing to mark its securities down to the market value, the company took a heavy loss on its investments, and although it had only a small underwriting loss, reduced its surplus in a substantial amount. In 1921 both the loss and expense ratios moved up and there was a heavy underwriting loss, which was overcome and a large gain made in the surplus from the investment account.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions.

The marine underwriting of this company is in charge of Wm. H. McGee & Co., general agents, New York City.

Its investments are high grade. The securities in this statement are based upon actual market values as of December 31, 1921, and not at the higher average prices allowed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters, Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, war risk, riot and civil commotion, explosion, tornado, hail, automobile, tourists' baggage, earthquake, registered mail and sprinkler leakage insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois, August 11, 1917, with an authorized capital of $100,000, and received its license November 6, 1917. The company began writing business on March 1, 1918, with $100,000 paid-in capital. The surplus paid in amounted to $29,566.81. The par value of the shares is $10.

The original title was Polonia Fire Insurance Company, which company was incorporated for the purpose of taking over the completed and uncompleted business of the Polish Union Fire Insurance Company which was incorporated under the laws of Illinois October 23, 1915, with $1,000,000 authorized capital. At a stockholders' meeting held February 4, 1918, the present title was chosen.

Its surplus remaining at the close of 1917 was $16,107.19. By March 1, 1918, $19,964.80 of additional stock had been sold and the cash surplus was $20,566.81, besides which the company held subscription notes aggregating $26,079. The surplus at the end of 1918 was $46,277.57, and the unpaid subscription notes amounted to $575, which were paid in during January, 1919.

The stock (par value $10) was sold as follows: 10,917 shares at $20; 204 shares at $22.50; 8,879 shares at $25, and 20,000 at $30 per share.

In January, 1919, the paid-in capital was increased to $200,000, and $76,757.16 was added to surplus, making that item $109,150.30 on January 31, 1919. Later in 1919 the paid-in capital was increased to $400,000, the surplus collected during the year being $316,336. In 1920 $73,464.73.

and in 1921 $1,645.97, was collected on outstanding notes and applied to surplus account.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting is in charge of Harold W. Letton, who is United States manager of the Netherlands Fire and Life Insurance Company. He is capable and reliable.

The officers and directors represent some of the most influential Polish citizens in Chicago. Mr. Piotrowski, the president, bears a good reputation, and is well regarded by men of influence and position in his community. He is a director of the Metropolitan-Hibernia Fire Insurance Company of Chicago. The directors owned on December 31, 1921, $31,170, at par value, of the $400,000 capital stock.

The income of the company had been built up, prior to January 1, 1921, principally of treaty reinsurance business. As of that date this treaty reinsurance was reinsured and discontinued. This operated to reduce the net writings, and accounts for the small volume in 1921. The company now confines its operations to an agency business. Owing to the very greatly reduced income the loss and expense ratios on the written basis, are out of proportion. The loss and expense ratios on the earned basis were high in 1921, and there was an underwriting loss, as there had been in the three previous years of its operations.

The company bears an excellent loss paying reputation.

The securities owned are of good character and yield a good return. The mortgage loans are apparently well secured.

AFFILIATION.— Western Insurance Bureau and Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Iowa on September 9, 1919, and received its license from the State Department on January 1, 1921. The authorized capital is $1,000,000, the subscribed $1,000,000 and paid-in capital $314,850. The par value of the shares is $100 and selling price $200. We are advised that 25% was authorized for organization expenses, but we are not advised what expense has actually been paid out for promotion cost. The company was organized by interests identified with the North American National Insurance Company of Des Moines, Iowa. In 1921 $2,000 additional capital was paid in, and $115,375 was added to surplus by completing stock subscriptions.

Management and Reputation.— The officers of this company are practically the same as those of the North American National Insurance Company of Des Moines, and the company is being conducted jointly with that company. We are advised that the secretary, John Peterson, has had twenty years' experience in hail and fire insurance business. In its first year, 1921, its losses were about normal, but expenses high, as might be expected, considering the volume and that it is the first year of its operations.

The "Net item of decrease assets" $295,080 in the disbursements is an adjustment of stock subscription accounts to capital and surplus. The total reduction on these accounts was $410,455, and $115,375 added to surplus by completing subscriptions, leaving the net reduction as stated.

The securities are high grade.— The mortgages are all upon Iowa properties, except one in South Dakota, and appear to be well secured.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— Fire, tornado and hail insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated June 5, 1919, under the laws of the State of Georgia with an authorized capital of $100,000. It received its license and began business on October 28, 1920.

The subscribed capital of $100,000 was fully paid in in cash. The stock, par value $100, was sold at $150 per share, which would produce a surplus of $50,000, less the cost of promotion; which it is stated was limited to 10%, which was deducted from the surplus, leaving approximately $35,000 for net surplus.

The company was organized by, and is operated by, negroes for the purpose of doing a fire insurance business.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The president of the company is W. C. Thomas and secretary and treasurer, L. A. Townsley.

The figures furnished to us by the company with the above financial statement show the income and disbursements for the last six month period of 1921, and are inadequate to analyze results for 1921, the first full year of its operations.

List of securities owned were not furnished.

AFFILIATIONS.— Southeastern Underwriters Association.

KIND OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated on October 1, 1920, at which time it was examined by the Insurance Department of the State of Louisiana and license issued. The capital is $250,000, fully paid in, and a like amount subscribed to surplus. The par value of the shares is $10, which was paid in at $20 per share. Nearly all the capital stock of the company is controlled by the Union Indemnity Company of New Orleans.

Management and Reputation.— The company is under the same management as the Union Indemnity Company of New Orleans, the officers and directors being the same. The underwriting is in charge of the president, secretary and assistant secretary, who have been engaged in the insurance business for many years, as local and general agents in New Orleans.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $3,000, par value, of the capital stock of $250,000.

It is writing direct business only in the State of Louisiana and is a member of the American Reinsurance Exchange, through which it is ceded reinsurance on fire and tornado business throughout the United States.

In 1921, the first full year of its operation, it wrote a small volume with losses somewhat above normal and the expense ratio high, but not unreasonable considering the small volume written and the age of the company. No complaints have reached us as to its treatment of loss claimants.

The entire authorized capital of $400,000 has been paid in and $450,000 contributed to surplus.

The company was organized by F. J. Matre & Company, who are interested in the Marquette National Fire Insurance Company also of Chicago. The company was organized to do a reinsurance business and is under the same management as the Marquette National Fire Insurance Company.

This company, together with the Marquette National Fire Insurance Company of Chicago, guarantee policies under the title "Great Western Underwriters."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The president of the company is Anthony Matre, and the secretary-treasurer, Napoleon Picard, both of whom hold similar positions with the Marquette National Fire Insurance Company and are in good repute. This company will participate in the reinsurance of the first cession of the Marquette National Fire Insurance Company.

On December 31, 1921 the directors owned $9,400 par value of the company's capital stock of $400,000.

In the first year of its operations the company wrote a small volume of business with a high loss ratio, and expense ratio above normal.

The company reduced its surplus $138,133.53 in 1921 by charging off "Stock Notes due subject to Call."

The securities owned are high class and the valuations in the statement are those fixed by the convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgages cover property principally in Illinois, there being a few loans on property in Kansas, Missouri, Iowa, Penn., South Dakota, and Wisconsin. The valuations placed upon the properties are more than three times the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of North Carolina in 1898 with $37,500 capital paid in. In 1909 its capital was increased to $100,000 by a stock dividend of $37,500 and $25,000 which was paid in by stockholders. It was chartered as the "Underwriters of Goldsboro," but the charter was afterwards amended and the title "Underwriters of Greensboro" adopted. In 1921 the charter was amended to the above title.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in very good repute and is under the same management as the Pilot Fire Insurance Company and the George Washington Fire Insurance Company (formerly the Southern Underwriters). In March, 1920, this company, together with the Pilot Fire Insurance Company and the Southern Underwriters, formed a special department through which policies are issued under the title "McAlister Underwriters," which are guaranteed by these three companies. It writes a conservative volume of business and its operations have been profitable.

The company is controlled by prominent financiers and business men of North Carolina. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $15,800, par value, of the capital stock then outstanding.

Its loss paying record is excellent. Its expenses of operation are slightly above normal, but not unreasonable considering the volume of business transacted. Its loss ratio in recent years has been low, and it has made an underwriting profit in each of the past several years. except a small loss in 1920 and more substantial amount in 1921.

Its investments are local in character, with the exception of U. S. Liberty bonds which it owns. Among its securities it carries 162 shares of Southern Underwriters (George Washington Fire Insurance Company) stock.

The mortgage loans are upon improved city and farm property in North Carolina and South Carolina. The collateral loans are apparently well secured.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, automobile fire and theft insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed and operates in North and South Carolina only.

DIVIDENDS.— It has paid a dividend of 6% each year since it began business, but paid 7% in 1920 and 1921.

GRESHAM FIRE AND ACCIDENT INSURANCE SOCIETY, LTD.,

London, England.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized in 1908. It is controlled by, and is under the same management, as the Gresham Life Assurance Society, Ltd., which is an old established company with assets over $50,000,000. The paid-up capital of the Gresham Fire and Accident is $1,000,000; the life company took $500,000 of the stock and the balance was taken by the public. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.) The directors of the life and fire companies are the same.

This company is not regularly licensed in this country, but is writing "surplus lines" here through Fred S. James & Co., of New York and Chicago. Under their power of attorney they are authorized to accept service in case of dispute occurring over claims in the United States, and to adjust and pay all losses from their office. They are a prominent and reputable firm of underwriters representing as United States managers the following companies: Eagle, Star and British Dominions Ins. Co., London, England; General Fire Assurance Co., of Paris, France, and the Urbaine Fire Ins. Co., of Paris, France.

It writes fire, employers' liability and general casualty lines at its home.

The Home Office balance sheet as of December 31, 1919, the latest available shows the following: Total assets, $1,933,900; capital paid in, $1,000,000; fire insurance reserve, $270,230; investment reserve, $101,355; profit and loss account, $59,580. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York, November 11, 1919, and was licensed December 22, 1919, with an authorized, subscribed and paid in capital of $200,000, and surplus of like amount. Shares, par value $100, were sold at $200, thus providing the surplus. There was no expense of promotion, which is commendable. In 1920 the authorized capital was increased to $500,000. During 1921, $137,500 was paid in to capital and $137,500 was contributed to surplus.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— This company was organized by interests identified with Edward E. Hall & Co., a large and reputable underwriting firm of New York City, and has substantial backing. The underwriting of the British General Insurance Company, Ltd., and the Century Insurance Company, Ltd., Edinburgh, Scotland of which Henry W. Brown & Company are United States managers, and of the Independence Insurance Company of Philadelphia, Pa., is carried on through this office. Edward E. Hall is also manager of the Underwriters at American Lloyds.

The company has not operated long enough to have established a record, but as indicated above, the management is capable and reputable.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, war risk and automobile insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was established in 1821. Its authorized capital is £2,000,000, all of which has been subscribed and £1,000,000 paid in. The Canadian Branch was established in 1869. At one time the company operated a large branch in the United States, but this branch was discontinued many years ago.

Early in 1917 the Reliance Marine Insurance Company, Liverpool, was merged with this company, but is being operated as a separate institution.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All assets of the company (other than life insurance funds) are liable for the payment of losses, wherever incurred. We therefore present the following information from the Home Office balance sheet: Total assets, December 31, 1920, $46,105,240; capital paid in, $5,000,000. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is conservatively managed and is in good standing. It transacts a large volume of business in Canada, where its operations have been profitable.

CANADIAN MANAGER.—H. M. Lambert, Montreal, Que.; assistant manager, Bertram E. Hards.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed in all the Provinces of Canada.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Utah, in December, 1913, and began business January 1, 1914. Its authorized capital is $500,000, of which, on December 31, 1915, $96,320 had been paid in, with a like amount of surplus. Its stock, par value $10, was sold at $25 per share. The expense of organization was limited by the stock subscription form to 20% or $5 per share. On June 10, 1916, a syndicate purchased 10,000 shares of stock of this company at $20 per share, par value $10. Through this transaction the paid-in capital was increased to $200,250 and the surplus to $200,000. In 1918 the capital was reduced to $200,000.

The company was organized by interests identified with "The Agency Company, Inc.," Salt Lake City, Utah, general agent for this company, and for the Guardian Casualty and Guaranty Company of this city until the latter retired in 1917. The Agency Company, Inc., had a contract for the management of the Guardian Fire Insurance Company for six years from October 1, 1919, with privilege of renewal. The company has advised us, that effective June 1, 1921, this agency contract was terminated, and that "The Agency Company, Inc.," no longer represents the company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has substantial backing, and bears a good general reputation.

The underwriting is in charge of the secretary, Walter Cox, who has been with the company since it was organized, and its secretary since March, 1920.

The company advises that it has discontinued writing ocean marine and automobile classes, and that it has discontinued direct writing in Maryland, Massachusetts, Pennsylvania and South Carolina.

The company transacts a conservative volume of business. The expense ratio has been above normal.

In 1920 the company had an underwriting loss of $34,276.15 and reduced its surplus $33,253.43. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was an underwriting loss of $86,615.69.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $55,800, par value, of the $200,000 capital stock then outstanding.

Its loss paying reputation is excellent.

The mortgage loans are upon property in California, Utah and Idaho, mostly improved, and are apparently well secured.

AFFILIATIONS.— Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Cal., Colo., Idaho, Mich., Mass., N. Y. and Utah.

DIVIDENDS.— In 1916 the company paid its initial dividend of $2,002.50; 1917, $14,017.50; 1918, $24,030; 1919, $16,000; 1920, $19,000; 1921, none.

OFFICERS.— President, no successor to D. C. Eccles, former president, has been elected; vice-president, E. P. Ellison; secretary, Walter Cox; treasurer, Frank Pingree.

DIRECTORS.—

Ellis, A. C., attorney, Salt Lake City, Utah.

Ellison, E. P., capitalist and banker, Layton, Utah.

surplus of $58,805.10 shown. It was organized and is owned by the Guardian Assurance Company, Limited, of London, a very old and reputable institution, which was established in 1821. The Canadian branch manager of that company is the managing director of this company. In the early part of 1918 the title of the company was changed to The Guardian Insurance Company of Canada.

It writes fire, accident and health, burglary, employers' liability, automobile (all risks), plate glass insurance and fidelity and surety bonds, and has a Dominion license. All the business written is guaranteed by the Guardian Assurance Company, Ltd.

The underwriting operations previous to 1921 were unprofitable, due to heavy increases in reserves, as a "trading profit" is shown. In 1921 the premiums written, and the unearned premium liability items were reduced and an underwriting profit was made.

The underwriting exhibit for 1919, 1920 and 1921 includes the figures of the fire department.

HALIFAX FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,

60 Bedford Row, Halifax, N. S.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company began business in 1809, and for ten years operated as a mutual company. In 1819 an Act of Incorporation was obtained under which it did business until 1859, when it was reincorporated, with an authorized capital of $400,000, of which $240,000 has been paid in.

It is the oldest Canadian fire insurance company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is conservatively managed and its business has been profitable. The volume of business written has been small, and the losses and expenses have been moderate.

It is in excellent standing, and its officers and directors are reputable and responsible.

As of January 1, 1919, the company took out a Dominion license, limited to doing business within the Province of Nova Scotia, and has made arrangements for the necessary deposit at Ottawa.

Up to the time of going to press this company had not responded to our requests for statements for the years 1920 and 1921. The report made herein was compiled from information previously furnished to us. If our subscribers are interested and will require statements of the Company and send to us we shall be glad to report upon same.

KIND OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire insurance only.

DIVIDENDS.—In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1904 and 1905, 10% on $120,000 capital; 1906 and 1907, 5%; 1908 and 1912, inc., 6%; 1913 to 1916, inc., 7%; 1917, 6% on $240,000 capital; 1918, 7%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business May 22, 1852.

In 1909 control of the company was secured by interests identified with Lenssen & Co. and E. C. Jameson, president of the Globe and Rutgers Fire Insurance Company of New York, and it resumed active operations on December 10, 1909.

The paid-up capital of the company is $200,004. The par value of the stock is $15 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under experienced and aggressive management, and has substantial backing.

Its stock is closely held, the directors owning $125,844, par value, on December 31, 1921. The majority of the stock is owned by E. C. Jameson and Arthur Lenssen, Jr., who are, respectively, president and vice-president of the company.

Up to 1917 it wrote a moderate volume of business, but has since increased its writings very greatly, and now it transacts a full volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus.

Its operating expenses are very low. In 1917, 1918, 1919, 1920 and 1921, the combined loss and expense ratios on the earned basis were sufficiently low to enable the company to show a large underwriting profit in those years.

The company's general loss paying reputation is excellent.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commisioners.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, automobile, explosion, tornado, sprinkler leakage and war risk insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed to operate in Cal., Conn., Ill., N. J., N. Y. and Pa.

DIVIDENDS.— It paid a dividend of 4% in 1913 and 1914; 1915, 6%; 1916 and 1917, 8%; 1918, 10%; 1919, 12%; 1920 and 1921, 12%; total dividends since commencing business, $829,201.50.

OFFICERS.— President. E. C. Jameson; vice-president, Arthur Lenssen, Jr.; secretary, Charles H. Sanger.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company commenced business July 1, 1873. Its authorized capital is $500,000, $100,000 of which was subscibed and $50,000 paid up on December 31, 1916. During 1917 the paid-up capital was increased to $100,000 by a stock dividend of $50,000.

In order to reduce overhead expenses the Fire Insurance Exchange Corporation, which is under the same control and management, is being absorbed by this Company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is small but has always borne a good reputation.

Late in 1918, control of the company was secured by the London and Lancashire Fire Insurance Co., Ltd., of Liverpool, a large and reputable institution which was established in 1861.

It is under the same management and ownership as the Fire Insurance Exchange Corporation (which will be absorbed by this company), and the Queen City Fire Insurance Company, (which has absorbed the Millers and Manufacturers' Insurance Company), all of Toronto. These companies are operated by Scott & Walmsley, Ltd., under the general supervision of Mr. Alfred Wright, Canadian manager for the London and Lancashire Fire Insurance Co., Ltd., which guarantees their policies.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, automobile and plate glass insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed only in the Province of Ontario, Canada.

OFFICERS.— President, Alfred Wright; vice-president and manager, Jos. Walmsley; secretary, F. E. Dingle.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in April, 1852, with a paid-in capital of $150.000. In 1857 the capital was increased to $200,000, and in 1864 to $400,000. In 1871 it was reduced from $400,000 to $200,000, and later in the same year was again increased to $400.000. In 1872 it was reduced to $250,000, and in 1873 increased to $400,-000. In 1875 it was increased to $500,000 by a stock dividend of $100,000. In 1880 it was increased to $1,000.000.

In 1906 the capital stock was reduced to $500,000, thus transferring $500,000 to surplus, and later in the same year the capital was restored to $1,000,000 by the issuance of $500,000 new stock at a premium of 50%, or $250,000, which was added to surplus account.

The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

This company guarantees policies entitled "Illinois Underwriters."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under experienced and reputable management, and bears an excellent reputation.

The volume of business written is large in proportion to the capital and surplus, but the liability is well distributed. The average loss ratio is normal. The expenses are somewhat above the average.

Its directors are substantial and of high business standing. The company's stock is closely held, large blocks being owned by a comparatively few individuals. Its directors owned, at the end of 1921, $298,450, par value, of the $1,000,000 capital stock then outstanding.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims.

The investments are of high grade. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate is the company's Home Office, a thirteen-story modern building, at Nos. 34 and 36 Pine street, New York City.

AUTOMOBILE UNDERWRITERS CONFERENCES.— Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, automobile, sprinkler leakage and tornado insurance.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1905, 8%; 1906, 4%; 1907, 1908 and 1909, 10%; 1910, 15%; 1911, 19.5%; 1912 and 1913, 16%; 1914, 12½%; 1915 to 1921, inc., 10%.

General Review.

History.— This company began business in August, 1915, with $200,000 capital paid in at par, $50 per share. It succeeded the Harmonia Mutual Fire Insurance Co., which had been in operation since 1877. The stock was oversubscribed by the policyholders, and therefore the allotment was made to them under the supervision and direction of the New York Insurance Department, with scrupulous regard to the rights accorded them by the statute.

The company reinsured its outstanding business in the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company as of January 4, 1917. It continues to operate locally under a treaty arrangement with the Home Insurance Company, of New York, as of August 31, 1918, all risks being automatically reinsured in that company as written.

Management and Reputation.— The company bears a good reputation. It reports no net premium income, reinsuring all its business, receiving a commission on the business written. It is making gains under this plan, adding to its surplus each year.

The stock is closely held; on December 31, 1921, the directors owned $138,650 of the par value of its capital stock of $200,000.

The mortgage loans are secured by Buffalo real estate, valued at over twice the amount loaned.

Kind of Insurance Written.—Fire.

Dividends.— In 1918 it paid a dividend of 5%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in August, 1810, with $150,000 paid-in capital. The par value of the stock is $100 per share. In 1854 the capital was increased to $300,000; in 1857 to $500,000 by subscriptions, and in 1864 to $1,000,000 by a stock dividend of $500,000. In 1871 it was reduced to $500,000, and in the same year was increased to $1,000,000 by subscription. In 1877 it was increased to $1,250,000 by a stock dividend of $250,000, and in 1906 to $2,000,000 by subscription.

The company sustained a net loss of $6,766,937 in the San Francisco conflagration (which was but 52.31% of the previous year's income), including claims under policies of the New York Underwriters Agency, a separate department of the company, writing independent lines. To offset these losses the company issued $750,000 additional stock at 500%, making the paid-in capital $2,000.000, and adding $3,000,000 to surplus. Thus $3,750,000 were added to the company's resources during 1906.

During 1919 the capital was increased to $4,000,000 by the issuance of 20,000 additional shares, par value $100. The new stock was sold at $150 per share, thereby adding $1,000,000 to surplus.

At a special meeting of the stockholders March 8, 1922, the capital was increased to $8,000,000, the additional $4,000,000 to be sold at par, and to be paid in by October 1, 1922.

One department of this company is styled "New York Underwriters Agency." This department, 100 William street, New York, maintains a separate system of local agencies throughout the United States and Canada, and issues "Hartford" policies through such local agencies.

Interests identified with this company control the Hartford Accident and Indemnity Company, which began business in 1913, the Hartford Live Stock Insurance Company, the Citizens Insurance Company of Missouri, and the Twin City Fire Insurance Company of Minneapolis, Minn., control of which was secured in 1920. These companies are operated in close co-operation with this company.

This company also has participating agreements with the Northwestern Fire and Marine Insurance Company, of Minneapolis, Minn., and the Henry Clay Fire Insurance Company of Lexington Kentucky.

In 1921 the same interests secured control of the London Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Toronto, Canada.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting policy of the company has been conservative and successful. It has made steady progress, and ranks as one of the leading companies of the country. Its directors are substantial and of high business standing. Its directors owned at the end of 1921, $165,800, par value, of the $4,000,000 capital stock.

The marine department, both ocean and inland, is in charge of Chubb & Son, New York City, who are in excellent standing, and who act as United States managers for several large foreign marine insurance companies.

The company's loss paying record is excellent under all conditions. It carefully limits its conflagration liability in large cities, its business in the principal ones being of conservative volume in proportion to its size.

Besides its capital and surplus, the company has set aside a special reserve of $1,000,000. The volume of business written appears large in proportion to the company's capital and surplus, but it is widely distributed, being produced by a very large agency force. The new capital being paid in (referred to above) will increase the proportion of surplus to policyholders compared to premium volume. In 1920 the company very greatly increased its unearned premium reserve, which operated to make an underwriting loss and a reduction in surplus. In 1921 both the loss and expense ratios increased somewhat and the company had a moderate underwriting loss.

Its expenses of operation have been low and its average loss ratio normal.

Its investments are excellent. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The items of real estate include the company's previous Home Office at the corner of Trumbull and Pearl streets, a well-located brick and granite building, and also new modern Home Office buildings on Asylum avenue.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Iowa, January 3, 1918, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000, and received its license from the Iowa Insurance Department on January 11, 1919. The capital was all subscribed, and the company's statement as of December 31, 1918, showed a paid-in capital of $344,200, and a net surplus of $177,100.

During 1919 it paid in additional capital and contributed $366,414.16 to surplus account. As of December 31, 1919, it had a paid-in capitalization of $859,650. During 1920 the balance of the authorized capital of $1,000,000 was paid in and $90,079 contributed to surplus.

The stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $200 per share.

The organization expenses were high, but the company explains that this expense included the establishing of an agency plant of about 200 agents in Iowa; also printing, stationery, fees, taxes and other such expenses.

The company was organized by R. S. Howell, its vice-president and secretary, who was formerly connected with the old Hawkeye Insurance Company, of Des Moines, which in 1910 was merged with the Des Moines Fire Insurance Company. This latter company reinsured its business in the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, of San Francisco, in February, 1913.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— H. R. Howell, president of the company, has had many years' experience in the insurance business, having formerly been president of the Hawkeye Insurance Company, of Des Moines. Since that time he has been in the general agency of Wilcox, Howell, Hopkins, Mulock Co., Des Moines.

H. C. Hargrove, vice-president of the company, is president of the Des Moines Silo & Manufacturing Company, with which business he has been connected for a number of years.

W. S. Hazard, Jr., vice-president, was formerly secretary of the Des Moines Mutual Hail Insurance Association, and has for many years conducted a general agency business.

R. S. Howell, vice-president and secretary, has had considerable insurance experience, having formerly been connected with the old Hawkeye Insurance Company. He later became assistant manager for five years of the Iowa department of the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company.

C. M. Garver, treasurer of the company, has been engaged in the coal mining business in Des Moines for many years and is reported to have considerable means.

H. K. Miller, assistant secretary, was also with the old Hawkeye Insurance Co., and later in the Chicago office of the Liverpool & London & Globe Insurance Co.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $151,875, par value, of the company's capital stock. All of the officers and directors are reported to be men of good standing and good business ability.

It is writing a moderate volume of business in proportion to its loss paying capacity, and expense of operation has been moderate for a young company, and its losses moderate, but in 1921, the third year of its operations, the expense ratio was considerably above normal.

It is in good repute as to treatment of loss claimants.

The bonds owned are government, municipal and county issues, valued in the statement at market prices. The mortgages cover, in the greater part, farm properties in the State of Iowa, and are seemingly well secured.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Kentucky on March 1, 1910, with an authorized capital of $200,000, later increased to $500,000. The par value of its stock is $10 per share.

It began business July 14, 1910, with $55,000 capital and $72,546.88 surplus paid in. The amounts subsequently paid into capital and surplus accounts were as follows: 1911, capital, $26,420, surplus, $56,250; 1912, capital $42,410, surplus, $40,926.79; 1913, capital, $38,780; surplus, $79,850.23; 1914, capital, $137,390, surplus, $165,691 91. This made the paid-in capital at the end of 1914, $300.000.

In 1912 it purchased the plant and charter of the Louisville Insurance Company, and in November, 1913, absorbed the United American Fire Insurance Company of Frankfort, Ky.

On February 1, 1915, it absorbed the Great Southern Fire Insurance Company of Lyndon, Ky. Stock of this company was substituted for that of the Great Southern and thus the paid-in capital was increased to $450,000. The surplus collected in 1915 amounted to $61,360.06.

All of the outstanding business of the Great Southern was reinsured by this company. The Kentucky plant of the Great Southern, consisting of about 130 agencies, was conserved by the issuance of an underwriters policy entitled, "Treaty Underwriters," guaranteed by the Henry Clay and issued in Kentucky only.

The entire business of the company outstanding on December 31, 1921 was reinsured in the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., and it is understood that a continuing reinsurance, or working agreement has been made between these two companies, the details of which had not been furnished to us at the time of going to press with these reports.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—Claude F. Snyder, the manager of the company, is an experienced insurance man, having formerly been identified, as State Agent, at different times with the Orient, Thuringia and Manchester insurance companies, and the Insurance Company of North America, in the States of Illinois, Indiana, Missouri, Iowa, Kentucky, Tennessee and Arkansas. He was secretary of the Kentucky and Tennessee Board of Fire Underwriters for five years, and was with the local and general offices of the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Companies, in Chicago, for four years.

The directors of the company are substantial Kentucky business men. They owned $35,075 of its capital stock of $450,000 capital stock at the end of 1921.

The company writes tobacco hail insurance on which no reserve is required at the end of the year. The net hail premiums written in 1919 amounted to $100,507.93, and the net hail losses incurred were $23,892.52. In 1920 the net hail premiums were $69,746.72, and losses $30,415.16, and in 1921 the premiums in this class were $12,625.89, and losses $3,029.28. The volume of business transacted is conservative.

In 1918 and 1919 a good underwriting profit was made.

The company's loss ratio and expense of operation in 1918 and 1919 were low. In 1920 the expense ratio was somewhat higher, the unearned premiums increased considerably, and the company had an underwriting loss. The losses were above normal in 1921, and there was a moderate underwriting loss. To account for the absence of unearned premium liability it will be noted above that the outstanding risks were reinsured.

Its loss paying reputation is excellent.

The company's investments are of good character. The security valuations used are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgage loans are secured by property, mostly in Kentucky, valued at over twice the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in 1864 as the Home Mutual Insurance Company, adopting the present title in December, 1900. It ceased writing business in 1906, due to severe losses sustained in the great San Francisco conflagration.

During 1917 it was decided to re-establish the company and early in 1918 it again began active operations.

The stock, par value $10 per share, was subscribed for at $30 per share, so the company resumed business with a cash capital of $500,000 and a paid-in surplus of $1,000,000. The issue was considerably oversubscribed, due to the fact that the Fireman's Fund shareholders took practically their entire allotment of 45,000 shares.

On August 30, 1921, the authorized capital was increased from $500,000 to $1,000,000, the additional shares to be sold at $25 (par value, $10), to provide $750,000 additional surplus. These additional funds were paid in in January, 1922 and are not included in the above statement.

This company reinsured as of December 31, 1919, all the outstanding fire business of the Montana Fire Insurance Company of Butte, Montana.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is operated and managed in conjunction with the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, a large and responsible institution. The company has always borne an excellent reputation, and the manner in which it met its tremendous San Francisco conflagration losses was deserving of high praise.

The company wrote a heavy volume of business in the first three years after resuming business, and the necessity of setting up a large reserve on such business, caused the company to show an underwriting loss in each of those years and a decrease of surplus each year. In 1921, the volume was very materially reduced, necessarily showing an increased expense ratio, and there was a moderate underwriting loss. It is now writing a conservative volume of business in proportion to its net resources. The securities owned are of good character.

HOME FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY — Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company began business in February, 1905, with $50,000 paid-in capital. The same interests control and operate the Home Life and Accident Company, of Fordyce.

Early in 1907 its capital stock was increased from $50,000 to $100,000, and $75,000 additional surplus paid in. Early in 1908 a stock dividend of $100,000 was declared, increasing the capital to $200,000. On December 31, 1908, the Standard Fire Insurance Company of Fordyce (capital $100,000) (which absorbed the Mercantile Fire of Little Rock early in 1908), was merged with this company. Just prior to this merger $50,000 of stock of the Home Fire was retired and its stockholders contributed $40,000 so that its surplus would equal that of the Standard. The capital of this company was later increased to $250,000.

In April, 1912, the company reduced its capital stock from $250,000 to $100,000, and at the same time reduced its surplus to $100,000, and in making the latter reduction paid a special dividend of $73,377, in addition to a regular dividend of $17,500. In 1919 it increased its capital by stock dividend to $200,000. In 1920 the capital was increased to $300,000 by a stock dividend of $100,000.

In 1921 the paid-in capital was increased to $350,000 by a stock dividend of $50,000.

The par value of its stock is $25 per share.

It issues two forms of participating policies, the Lumber Underwriters of the Home Fire, and the Merchants Underwriters of the Home Fire. These are issued on the inter-insurance plan, the policyholders sharing in the profits. The company guarantees the policy and receives 15% commission on the earned premium, and 15% contingent, after deducting losses and expenses, in the case of the Lumber Underwriters. It receives 25% to cover expenses on the business of the Merchants Underwriters.

In the latter part of 1921 the interests in control of this company secured control of Lee Blakemore, Inc., of Chicago, Ill., the attorney in fact of the Manufacturing Wood Workers Underwriters, an inter-insurance exchange organized in 1909. That Iner-insurance Exchange has discontinued and the business is being absorbed by the "Lumber Underwriters" of The Home Fire Insurance Company, of which Banks-Blakemore Company, Inc., is now manager. In consideration of an agreement made in taking over this business the Inter-Insurance Exchange deposited $50,000 with the Home Fire Insurance Company.

Management and Reputation.— The officers of the company are experience insurance men, being the two members of the local agency firm of A. B. Banks & Co., which firm controls the company.

The stock of the company is very closely held. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned all of its capital stock of $350,000.

Its business is largely insurance on lumber risks. It writes some lumber business in States where it is not regularly licensed, through the Lumber Insurers General Agency, 43 Cedar street, New York. It also writes some business on the Pacific Coast through J. H. DeVeuve, Seattle, Washington.

The company is in good repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. It writes a moderate volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus. The company's expense ratio is very low, and the average loss ratio, considering the class of business written, has not been excessive but has been rather high for the past three years.

In 1920 it had an underwriting loss of $28,270.25, and paid a dividend to policyholders of $31,377.37, a stock dividend of $100,000, and a regular dividend to stockholders of $20,000. The gains from investments offset these items. In 1921 it made an underwriting profit of $38,225.65, increased its reserve for unpaid dividends to stockholders $30,156.33, and paid $91,156.67 dividends to policyholders. Its surplus increased $50,860.84 in 1921.

The investments of the company consist chiefly of local industrial and bank stocks.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— Fire, automobile and tornado insurance.

Territory.— It is licensed only in Arkansas and Louisiana.

Dividends.— It has paid dividends to stockholders of 10% annually since organization. In 1912 a special dividend of $73,377 was paid. In 1919 a stock dividend of 100% or $100,000 and a cash dividend of $10,000 was paid in 1920. In 1921 a stock dividend of $50,000 and a cash dividend of $30,000 was paid.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the Territory of Hawaii on August 10, and began business August 15, 1911. The authorized and subscribed capital was $100,000, $50,000 having been paid in in cash. At a stockholders' meeting March 31, 1920, the balance of the subscribed capital of $100,000 was called in. Later in 1920 500 additional shares of par value $100 were sold at $200 per share, thus increasing the paid-up capital to $150,000 and adding $50,000 to the surplus.

The par value of the shares is $100.

The company states that there was no expense incurred in promoting it. Its charter provides for the writing of various classes of insurance, including fire, casualty and surety.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The promoter of the company, Zeno K. Myers, who was formerly treasurer and manager, died in 1919, and was succeeded by the present incumbent of this office, Ralph E. Clark.

The company operates directly in Hawaii only, but accepts reinsurance in six States.

Commencing January 1, 1921, this company and the California Insurance Company, of San Francisco, issue and guarantee an underwriters' policy styled "California-Hawaiian Underwriters' Policy," issued in Hawaii only.

The volume of business written is small and consequently the expense of management ratio has been high. In 1921 the volume written considerably increased over that of any previous year. A general agency is maintained for all lines of insurance. The surplus is steadily increasing.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $38,200, par value, of the capital stock then outstanding.

It bears a good reputation for loss settlements.

The securities owned are high grade. The company holds

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in April, 1853, with $500,000 paid-in capital, which has been increased as follows: 1858 to $600,000 by subscription; 1859 to $1,000,000 by subscription; 1864 to $2,000,000 by subscription; 1870 to $2,500,000 by stock dividend; 1875 to $3,000,000 by stock dividend, and 1913 to $6,000,000 by stock dividend.

In 1875 the shareholders paid in an assessment on their stock of $1,500,000.

In 1921 the paid-in capital was increased to $12,000,000. The increase of $6,000,000 was paid in at $150 per share, providing additional surplus of $3,000,000.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

On May 1, 1915, this company reinsured the outstanding risks of the Franklin Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia. A syndicate purchased control of that company and later the stock was purchased by the stockholders of the Home Insurance Company, whose officers now operate the Franklin as a separate institution.

In February, 1920, interests identified with this company purchased control of the City of New York Insurance Company, of New York City, which is operated as a separate institution under practically the same officer personnel as that of the Home.

This company issues policies in accordance with the special reserve fund and guaranty surplus law of New York, and has on deposit with the Insurance Department of New York $3,000,000 "special reserve fund" and $3,000,000 "guaranty surplus fund."

Besides its own policies, this company has four separate series of policies under the following titles: "Home Underwriters Agency" and "Hibernia Underwriters Agency," issued in the United States and Canada; "Nova Scotia Fire Underwriters Agency" and "Winnipeg Fire Underwriters Agency," issued only in Canada.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— It is the largest and one of the best managed and most progressive insurance companies in the United States, and is in the highest repute because of its liberality to policyholders and agents.

The underwriting policy of the company has been liberal and successful. In 1918 and 1919 it made very large underwriting profits, besides increasing its unearned premium reserve nearly $7,000,000 during those years. In 1920, although it had a favorable loss and expense ratio, it had an underwriting loss of $1,796,702.67, the unearned premiums having increased about $8,000,000. It took a heavy loss by continuing to bring its security valuations to the market value, and reduced its surplus over $3,370,000. In 1921 it had a comparatively small underwriting loss, and it made very large gains from its investments. The surplus gained $8,512,424.07, including the $3,000,000 paid in by the stockholders.

It is backed by very substantial interests, and its directors are men of proved ability and high reputation. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921, $387,300, par value, of the company's $12,000,000 capital stock.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions. The conflagration hazard is carefully observed. The volume of business written, in view of its very wide distribution, is conservative in proportion to the company's resources. Its expenses of operation are moderate and its average loss ratio is low. In 1921 the loss ratio was above normal.

Its investments are excellent and of such character that they could be readily converted into cash, if necessary. The security valuations in this statement are those based upon the actual market values and not the higher rates allowed by the Insurance Commissioners.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, aircraft, parcel post, riot and civil commotion, hail, sprinkler leakage, explosion, tornado, registered mail, earthquake, rain and flood, tourists' baggage, automobile and war risk insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in all the States and Territories except Guam. It is also a member of American Foreign Insurance Association which operates in foreign countries.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1900, 10%; 1901, 13%; 1902-04, inc., 14%; 1905-8, inc., 20%; 1909, 25%; 1910, 30%; 1911 and 1912, 35%; 1913, 40% cash and 100% stock; 1914 and 1915, 20%; 1916, 22%; 1917, 26%; 1918, 1919, 1920 and 1921, 25%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of the North-West Territories of Canada, August 31, 1905, with its Head Office at Moose Jaw, Sask. In November, 1908, the company's Head Office was moved from Moose Jaw to Vancouver, B. C., and in December, 1915, to Montreal.

Its authorized capital was $100,000, in shares of $10 each. On December 31, 1907, the capital had been fully subscribed and $10,000 paid in in cash. In 1908, by special act of Parliament of Saskatchewan, the company was reincorporated with an authorized capital of $500,000, all of which was subscribed and $50,000 paid in in cash on January, 30, 1910. In 1910 the company was again reincorporated by special act of Parliament of Canada with an authorized capital of $2,000,000, and on December 31, 1911, $829,900 of the capital was subscribed and $150,620 paid up. In 1912 the paid-in capital was increased to $185,930; to $188,080 in 1913; to $228,735 in 1915, and to $230,850 in 1916. The subscribed capital is $872,400. The paid-in capital ($230,850) was impaired at the close of 1919. The paid-in capital at the close of 1920 was $229,150. During 1920 $10 per share was written off the capital account, and $10 per share called in, and the company shows a net surplus of $33,341.20.

On October 3, 1913, this company reinsured all its outstanding liability in the Provinces of Ontario, Quebec, New Brunswick and Nova Scotia in the Northwestern National Insurance Company of Milwaukee. It had been operating in those provinces as a non-tariff company, and this business was reinsured so as to enable the company to resume operations in that territory as a tariff company.

In 1915 control of this company was purchased by the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, a very large and reputable institution.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is controlled by the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, England, as stated above. J. H. Labelle, manager for Canada of the Royal and Queen insurance companies, is president of this company, and Fred W. Walker, branch manager of the Royal Insurance Company, of Vancouver, is vice-president. Fred J. Walker, assistant manager of the Royal Insurance Company is secretary. Allan F. Glover is assistant secretary.

The company's investments are of good character.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York State, and received its license to commence business December 14, 1918. It transacts a direct fire and marine insurance business.

The company was organized by substantial Norwegian interests, over half (5,658) of the shares being owned by the Christiania General Insurance Company, of Christiania, Norway.

The stock, par value $50 per share, was sold at $150 per share, providing $500,000 capital and $1,000,000 surplus.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under the same underwriting management as the United States branches of the Svea Fire & Life Insurance Company, of Gothenburg, Sweden, the Christiania General Insurance Company, of Christiania, Norway, and the Scandinavian-American Insurance Corporation, Ltd., of Christiania, Norway. The directors are identified with insurance and banking interests.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $9,900 of the par value of its capital stock of $500,000.

It is writing a moderate volume of business.

In 1920 and 1921 the company had substantial underwriting losses as might be expected to be the experience of a new company which must set up the required reserves upon a rapidly increasing business. The expense ratio has been above the average, but not excessive considering the age of the company, and has shown a downward tendency, being near normal on an earned premium basis in 1921. The loss ratio was above the average, but showed improvement in 1921. It has a good loss paying record.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, marine, hail, sprinkler leakage and tornado insurance.

TERRITORY.— The company is licensed in Alaska, Ala., Ariz., Cal., Colo., Conn., Fla., Ga., Idaho, Ill., Ind., Iowa, Kan., Ky., La., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Miss., Mo., Mont., Neb., Nev., N. J., N. M., N. Y., N. C., N. D., Ohio, Okla., Ore., Pa., R. I., S. C., S. D., Tenn., Tex., Utah, Va., Wash., W. Va., Wis. and Wyo.

ILLINOIS FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA — Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Illinois May 1, 1876. It began business May 10, 1876, with $100,000 capital and $5,000 surplus paid in. In 1880 the capital was increased to $200,000 and in 1882 to $300,000. In 1892 its capital was reduced from $300,000 to $200,000.

It was formerly known as the German Fire Insurance Company, the present title having been adopted during 1918.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Management and Reputation.— The general reputation of the company is good. It formerly wrote a larger amount of business, but now transacts only a moderate volume.

The control of the company is closely held. At the end of 1921 the directors owned $157,600, par value, of the capital stock.

Its underwriting of late years has not been profitable, but in 1919 a good underwriting profit was made and the surplus increased $39,688.14. In 1920 the company had an underwriting loss, but increased its surplus $30,890.05 from investment earnings. In 1921 it had a small underwriting gain and added a substantial amount to surplus.

Its expense ratio is high and its loss ratio for several years was very high, but in 1919 it was normal, and low in 1920 and 1921.

The securities owned are of excellent character, a large percentage being Peoria, Chicago and New York bank stock. At the end of 1921 the company carried among its securities a block of stock of the Commercial National Bank, which is controlled by persons connected with this company. The securities shown in this statement are valued at the actual market quotations on December 31, 1921.

The general loss paying reputation of the company is good.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— Fire and tornado insurance.

Territory.— The company is licensed in Ill., Ind., Pa. and Wis.

Dividends.— For some years prior to 1912 no dividends were paid. In 1912 and 1913 it paid 10%; in 1914, 20%. In 1919 and 1920 it paid a dividend of 5%; 1921 6%. Total dividends paid since organization, $508,000.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York March 7, 1899, and began business May 1, 1899, with $200,000 capital and $100,000 surplus (par value of stock $100 per share). It was organized by persons identified with the Phoenix Assurance Company, Ltd. of London, which controls it. Prior to October 16, 1914, its title was the Pelican Assurance Company.

The stockholders of the company paid in $50,000 on February 23, 1904, to create a surplus after paying losses sustained in the Baltimore conflagration, and in 1906 $350,000 additional surplus was paid in. In 1918 an 1919 $372,000 and $150,000, respectively, were paid into surplus account. During 1920 $300,000 was transferred from surplus to capital, and in addition 10% dividend on the capital of $200,000.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under the same management as the United States Branch of the Phœnix of London, a large and reputable institution, which is capable and in excellent repute.

The volume of business written is conservative. The average management expenses are moderate and the average loss ratio low. In 1920 the company considerably increased its writings, and the unearned premium reserve increase caused a reduction in surplus in addition to the amount transferred from capital account. In 1921 it had a good underwriting profit and increase of surplus.

The securities owned are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, war risk, explosion, tornado, sprinkler leakage and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.— At last advices it was licensed in Ariz., Cal., Colo., Conn., D. C., Fla., Idaho, Ill., Ind., Ia., Kan., Ky., La., Me., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., Mont., Neb., N. H., N. J., N. M., N. Y., N. D., O., Okla., Ore., Pa., R. I., S. D., Tenn., Tex., Utah, Vt., Va., Wash., W. Va., Wis. and Wyo.

DIVIDENDS.— It paid a dividend of 5% in 1908, the first dividend paid since it started in business, and 10% each year since.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This is a joint stock corporation organized under the provisions of the insurance laws of the State of New York for the purpose of transacting ocean marine insurance. It began business February 20, 1918, with $200,000 authorized and paid-in capital, and a paid-in surplus of $100,000. The stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $150 per share.

In April, 1919, the paid-in capital was increased to $700,000, $250,000 being added to surplus account, and the charter was amended to permit the company to write fire insurance also.

At the same time control of this company was purchased by Leon Schinasi, a wealthy man, prominent in the tobacco industry (who became its president), and his associates.

In 1920 its charter was amended to permit it to write the additional classes authorized under the amended New York laws (weather, rain insurance, etc.), but it does not write those classes as yet.

The company was organized without any promotion expenses, which is commendable.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is backed by substantial interests and has a strong directorate. The directors owned as of December 31, 1921, at par value, $678,950 of the $700,000 capital stock.

The marine manager for the company is The Trans Marine Underwriting Agency, Inc., 47 Beaver street, New York. Jesse Spier, president of The Trans Marine Underwriting Agency, Inc., has the marine underwriting in charge He has had considerable insurance experience and is in good repute.

On June 1, 1919, the company started a fire department, which is now in charge of P. A. Cosgrove, formerly an assistant United States manager of the insurance companies managed by Fred S. James & Co., of New York; and on June 15, 1919, under direction of A. Whelpley, an automobile department was organized. Both of these underwriters have had long and excellent insurance training. The company is conservatively managed, and the conflagration liability closely observed.

Prior to Mr. Schinasi and his associates assuming control, this company and the Washington Marine Insurance Company of New York wrote a joint marine policy through The Trans Marine Underwriting Agency, Inc.

The company writes a full volume of business. It decreased its marine business considerably in 1919 and had a more favorable loss experience on this class of business than the average company. Its expense ratio has been very low for a company of recent organization.

In 1921 its loss and expense ratios increased somewhat. It has a good reputation for treatment of loss claimants.

General Review.

History.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Missouri on October 12, 1917, and began business on October 13, 1917, with an authorized capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $100,000, all of which was paid in, the entire capital and surplus being subscribed, without any promotion expense whatever, which is very commendable. On January 2, 1918, the paid-in capital was increased to $250,000.

This company was examined by the Insurance Department of Missouri as to its condition at the close of April 30, 1920, the report being dated May 10, 1920, with no adverse comment.

On February 18, 1921, the stockholders unanimously voted an increase of $50,000, to surplus, which was all paid in by March 11, 1921. Subsequently in 1921, $100,000 more was paid into surplus.

The directors at December 31, 1920, owned 2,432 shares out of 2,500.

Among the liabilities in the annual statement preceding this report will be found an amount of $101,917.50 for reinsurance. This is the amount due the Employers' Indemnity Corporation of Kansas City, Missouri, for reinsuring a portion of the indemnity company's short-term business, which was left with the indemnity company for the purpose of paying losses occurring under reinsured policies; any profit made under this re-insurance treaty at its expiration, May 1, 1921, will then be adjusted.

Management and Reputation.—During 1919 and 1920, the company increased its volume rapidly. During those two years, as well as 1921, the automobile expense was very low generally, and the Indemnity Company of America suffered heavy losses, which the low expense of the company helped to mitigate. The company wisely reduced its writings during 1921, and the high loss ratio for that year is largely due to losses arising under policies issued prior to 1921. The company will probably participate in the present better quality of automobile insurance generally.

During 1921 the management underwent extensive changes, and the present officers and directors intend to reinforce the company with experienced insurance men and additional capital, avoid the concentration of business in the automobile line by adding other casualty lines, and profiting by the experience of the past, to carry on the work of the company upon a more stable basis.

Kinds of Insurance Written.—Fire, theft, liability, collision and property damage insurance on automobiles.

Territory.—Licensed in Ill., Ind., La., Mich., Minn., Mo., Ohio, Okla., Pa., Tenn., Tex. and Wis.

Dividends.—The company declared its first dividend during 1920, being 5% of which one-half, or $6,250, was paid during that year, and the remainder in 1921. It would appear odd that this dividend was declared, in view of the following contribution to surplus, but this was done by vote of the majority stockholder who has since disposed of his holdings, and new interests have entered into the organization.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1824. Its authorized capital is £1,005,000, all subscribed, of which £201,100 is paid in. It entered the United States in 1889.

Control of this company was secured by the Northern Assurance Company, Ltd., of London, England, in 1917.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. We therefore present the following information from the Home Office balance sheet, which includes all its assets and liabilities: Total assets, December 31, 1921, $18,486,797; capital paid in, $1,005,000. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent repute at its home and in this country, and its operations have been profitable. Its United States managers also direct the business of the United States Lloyds, Inc., of New York, the marine department of the Tokio Marine and Fire Insurance Co., Ltd., of Tokio, and the marine department of the Royal Exchange Assurance of London, and are in excellent standing.

Its average loss ratio is about normal, and its expense ratio is low. The loss ratios in 1919 and 1920 were above the average.

Its loss paying reputation is excellent.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, August, 1910, with $200,000, authorized capital (par value of shares $100 each). It began business in September, 1910, with $200,000 capital and $50,000 surplus paid in. It was organized by the well-known insurance agency and brokerage firm of Henry W. Brown & Company of Philadelphia and New York.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— Henry W. Brown & Company act as managers of the company, on a commission basis, and in addition receive a contingent commission on the underwriting profits. The management expenses have been moderate and the company's operations have been profitable. The average loss ratio is below normal. In 1921 the loss ratio was above the average and it had a small underwriting loss.

The volume of business written is conservative.

The officers of the company are all associated with the firm of Henry W. Brown & Company, and considerable of its stock is held by members of that firm. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $53,500 of the par value of its capital stock of $200,000.

On March 1, 1915, Henry W. Brown & Company, on behalf of the Century Insurance Company, Limited, and the Independence Insurance Company, joined forces with the underwriting department of the Assurance Company of America. Mr. Charles S. Conklin acts as Underwriter for the Century and the Independence, as well as for the Assurance Company of America and the Colonial Assurance Company.

The company's loss paying reputation is excellent.

Its investments are high grade. The securities in this statement are carried at the actual market values as of December 31, 1921, and not at the higher average rates allowed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

AFFILIATIONS.— Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Cal., Colo., Ill., Md., Mass., Mo., N. J., N. Y., N. C. and Pa.

DIVIDENDS.— In 1915 the company paid a dividend of $13,333; 1916, 5%; and an extra dividend of 5% to apply to the year 1911, when none was paid; 1917 and 1918, 5%; 1919, 17.5%; 1920 and 1921, 5%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Ohio in August, 1910, and began business December 5, 1911, with an authorized capital of $100,000, all of which was paid in, together with $51,710.74 surplus. The stock, par value $10 per share, was sold at $10, $20 and $25 per share. Up to September, 1912, it operated an industrial department for the writing of fire insurance in small amounts on the weekly and monthly payment plan.

In June, 1912, the authorized capital was increased to $200,000. On February 19, 1915, the directors voted to absorb the Wilmington Fire Insurance Company of Delaware, and on that date the outstanding liability of that company was assumed by this company, thus increasing the capital paid in to $200,000. The company received from the Wilmington Fire interests $113,919.45, or $12.15 per share. Of this amount $93,730 was credited to capital and $20,189.45 to surplus account.

The surplus received from the sale of the balance of the $100,000 capital was $4,724.97.

On December 30, 1915, the authorized capital was increased to $500,000. On the same date the paid-in capital was increased from $200,000 to $300,000, and $50,000 was paid in to surplus account. The total payments to surplus in 1915 amounted to $74,914.42.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— At the time of the transaction with the Wilmington Fire Insurance Company, J. S. Frelinghuysen, of New York, was elected vice-president of the company, and he has control of its underwriting. G. F. Hutchings, formerly secretary and treasurer of the Wilmington Fire, was elected secretary.

The company has reputable backing, but its underwriting up to 1919 had been very unprofitable. In 1919 an underwriting profit of $55,715.67 was made. A dividend of $9,000 was paid and the surplus increased by $81,281.51. In 1920 it showed an underwriting loss of $47,026.29, a dividend of $18,000 was paid, and the surplus reduced $36,839.42. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was an underwriting loss of $23,437.86. Its expense of operation is low, but its loss ratio is high.

The company transacts a large volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $76,195, par value, of the $300,000 paid-in capital.

The securities owned are of good character. The valuations used are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgages are mostly upon improved property in Akron and are well secured. The real estate consists of three lots in Raritan, N. J., valued at $1,518.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire and tornado insurance.

TERRITORY.—Licensed in Ariz., Cal., Del., Ill., Ind., Mich., N. J., N. Y., O., Ore., Pa. and Wash.

DIVIDENDS.— The first dividend was paid to stockholders in 1915, the amount being $5,000; 1916, $13,500; 1917, $18,000; 1918, none. In 1919 it paid $9,000 and in 1920 and 1921 $18,060. Total dividends since organization, $81,500.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This is a very old company which commenced business in 1792, and was incorporated April 14, 1794, with $600,000 authorized (par value of shares $10 each), under the title "The President and Directors of the Insurance Company of North America." In 1910 its title was changed to the above.

In 1842 its capital was reduced to $300,000, and has since been increased as follows: 1851, to $500,000; 1874, to $1,000,000; 1877, to $2,000,000; in 1882 to $3,000,000, and in 1910 to $4,000,000. In 1882 $1.000,000, and in 1910 $500,000, surplus were paid in. On February 6, 1920, 100,000 shares of the capital stock of the company were issued at $20 per share, thus increasing the capital to $5,000,000 and adding $1,000,000 to surplus account.

The Fire Association of Philadelphia and the company issue joint policies under the title "Philadelphia Underwriters."

This company also issues policies in Southern States under the title "Oglethorpe Underwriters." Interests identified with this company control the Indemnity Company of North America, Philadelphia, Pa., and the National Security Insurance Company, of Omaha, Nebraska.

It has established a $1,000,000 "Conflagration Fund," a "Contingent Reserve Fund" of $2,535,535.55, "Fluctuation in Assets Reserve Fund," $500,000, and "Marine Contingent Reserve Fund," $500,000, which are not included in the surplus.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The underwriting policy of the company has been conservative and very successful. It has made steady progress and ranks as one of the leading companies of the country. It is backed by substantial interests.

The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $104,730, par value, of the company's $5,000,000 capital stock.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions. The conflagration hazard is carefully observed. It writes a large volume of business, which is, however, conservative in proportion to its resources. The company has greatly increased its writings and correspondingly increased its unearned premiums in the last few years, until 1921 when the premium volume was considerably reduced, with a comparatively small reduction in unearned premiums.

Its expenses of operation are low and its loss ratio normal. In 1921 the expense ratio moved up several points owing to reduced premium income.

Its investments are excellent and yield a good return. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The chief items of real estate are the office buildings at Third and Walnut streets, Philadelphia, and 56 Beaver Street, New York.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business November 5, 1794, and is one of the oldest of American companies. In 1905 there was a change in its management, and up to April, 1911, it was operated in close association with the Union Insurance Company of Philadelphia, established in 1803. In February, 1906, its capital was increased from $200,000 to $400,000, and later in the same year was reduced to $200,000, and the difference was transferred to surplus account. This was in connection with the San Francisco conflagration losses.

On August 16, 1911, effective as of June 30, 1911, the Union Insurance Company of Philadelphia and the Spring Garden Insurance Company of Philadelphia, which was organized in 1835, and which, at the time had $400,000 capital, were merged with this company to operate thereafter under the above title, but under the management of those who had been operating the Spring Garden Insurance Company. This consolidation increased the capital of this company to $800,000, and on June 30, 1911, it had a net surplus of $403,254.81. In December, 1913, the American Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia (established in 1810), which was practically under the same control and management, was merged with this company, increasing its capital to $1,000,000. The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Besides its own policies this company issues an entirely separate series under the style "Insurance Underwriters Agency," through J. S. Frelinghuysen, 111 William street, New York, who writes similar brokerage business for the Stuyvesant Insurance Company of New York and the Industrial Fire Insurance Company of Akron, Ohio. It also guarantees policies under the title "American Underwriters Agency," which are issued through the Home Office.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The control of this company is held by J. S. Frelinghuysen, of New York, and some persons closely identified with him. The underwriting, except for the "Insurance Underwriters Agency" business, is in the hands of the vice-president, Waite Bliven, who has had many years' experience.

The volume of business written is rather large in proportion to the net resources of the company. It has, however, exhibited to us evidence that it has carefully limited its liability in congested districts subject to conflagrations.

Its loss paying record, in general, is excellent. The expenses of operation have been normal, but its average loss ratio has been above the average. In 1921 the losses and expenses were above normal, resulting in a moderate underwriting loss.

The investments of the company are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The principal item of real estate owned is the office building at 308-310 Walnut street, Philadelphia, carried at $180,000.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York, March 6, 1909, and began business July 1, 1909, with $200,000 capital and $50,000 surplus paid in. In 1909 its stockholders voluntarily contributed $335,000 to surplus account; in 1912, $100,000, and in 1914, $50,000.

During 1919 its capital was increased to $1,000,000.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

The company cancelled its entire business in force on April 1, 1914, and up to 1917 wrote only a small business, which was simultaneously reinsured with the United States Branch of the Hamburg Assurance Co., of Hamburg, Germany, which company in 1917 was prohibited from transacting further business in this country.

In October, 1918, this company was taken over by the Alien Property Custodian because its capital stock was owned by the Hamburg Assurance Company, of Hamburg, Germany, and other enemy aliens.

On November 21, 1918, the entire stock of the company was sold at auction under the direction of the Alien Property Custodian for $576,500. It was bid in by the Chase Securities Company, of 61 Broadway, New York, which is closely affiliated with the Chase National Bank, a very strong and reputable institution. This bid was later rejected by the Custodian, and the stock was sold at private sale to interests composing the firm of Crum and Forster.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— As stated above, in November, 1918, the ownership of this company passed into the hands of interests connected with the firm of Crum & Forster, 110 William street, New York, which acts as general agent for the United States for the North River Insurance Company and the United States Fire Insurance Company, besides representing other small institutions in various capacities.

Sumner Ballard, the former president of the company, was re-elected president. He is also the United States manager of the five branches of the Scandinavia Insurance Company, and the National Insurance Company, of Copenhagen, Denmark, New India Assurance Company of Bombay, India, Metropolitan National Insurance Company, of Havana, Cuba and the Osaka Marine & Fire Insurance Company of Osaka, Japan.

Its expense ratio is very moderate and its average loss ratio somewhat above normal.

The securities owned are high grade. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated April 26, 1918, as the National Bonding and Insurance Company of Cedar Rapids, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000, divided into 10,000 shares of par value of $100 each. A contract was made May 1, 1918, with the National Finance Company by which it was to receive 25% commission for the sale of the stock, which was to be sold at not less than $200 per share. The National Finance Company in turn entered into a contract with T. F. Fitzpatrick, Walter W. Garner and L. E. Eisele, providing for the actual sale of the National Bonding and Insurance Company stock for 22%.

Contract was later made for the 3% saving in commission to be returned to the insurance company. Total shares sold during the organization period were 10,506, representing sale price of $2,101,200, which was reduced by cancellations to a net subscription of $2,000,000. May 31, 1920, 6,234 shares of stock had been issued.

The company was examined by the Iowa State Insurance Department on May 31, 1920, and received a license to commence business on May 31, 1920. The State Department again examined the company on September 22, 1920, showing at that time capital fully paid up of $624,400; partially paid, $101,539.80, with total admitted assets of $1,055,202.10, and surplus $243,182.18. The cost of promotion was high. At the annual meeting of the company held January 26, 1921, the corporate name was changed to Inter-Ocean Reinsurance Company, the company having originally been organized as a bonding and casualty company and later amended to write a reinsurance fire business. This name was adopted as being more appropriate.

At a stockholders' meeting, February 21, 1921, it was provided that the authorized capital be reduced from $1,000,000 to $500,000 to be fully paid and non-assessable. The officers of the company were given discretion as to the time of filing this amendment. This reduction of capital was carried out in 1921, thus reducing the paid-in capital from $722,500 to $500,000 transferring the difference to the surplus account.

The company was again examined by the Iowa Insurance Department as of June 30, 1921. A large percentage of the assets are invested in mortgages in covering property principally in Iowa, with smaller amounts in Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, and South Dakota. The securities are largely United States bonds. The real estate owned is the company's Home Office building.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has not operated long enough to justify comment upon the success of its operations. The stock is not closely held, and on December 31, 1920, the directors owned at par $48,100 of the stock.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire and tornado insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated December 18, 1911, with $250,000 authorized capital, par value of shares $25 each. It began business July 15, 1914. Its capital and surplus were then $116,912 and $23,572.34, respectively. Up to the end of 1914, $170,495 capital and $54,660.15 surplus had been paid in. During 1915 the paid-in capital was increased to $224,825, and $6,446 was contributed to surplus. In 1916 the capital was increased to $250,000, and $28,047.56 was collected for surplus. In 1917 the capital was increased to $259,150, and $9,150 was added to surplus. In 1921, $22,275 was paid in to capital, and $17,520 was contributed to surplus.

The stock of the company was at first sold through salesmen, at $50 per share, and in 1914 the selling price was increased to $60 a share. A considerable amount of the stock was sold to local insurance agents, who act as representatives of the company in their localities.

Among those active in the organization of the company were several insurance men of Detroit, who are now identified with it as officers, among these being C. A. Palmer, former Commissioner of Insurance of Michigan, and W. A.

Eldridge and Leo K. Hennes, both local insurance men.

This company has entered into a contract with the Commonwealth Insurance Company, of New York, whereby the latter company automatically participates in all the agency business written, and the "Inter-State" issues policies guaranteed by the "Commonwealth."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The president was formerly Insurance Commissioner of Michigan and is in excellent repute. S. D. Andrus, the underwriter of this company, was for fifteen years assistant manager of the Western Department of the Providence-Washington Insurance Company, of Providence. He later became manager of the Western Department of the Georgia Home Insurance Company, of Columbus, Ga. He was the special agent of the Standard Fire Insurance Company, Hartford, for a short time, and later became superintendent of agents of the New Jersey Insurance Company, Newark, which position he held until he went with this company. On March 31, 1922, F. H. Sabin, who previously had been engaged as Resident General Agent of the North British and Mercantile Insurance Company, Ltd., engaged with this company in its underwriting department, as general agent.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $47,325, par value, of the capital stock then outstanding.

The directors are substantial and reputable men.

The company transacts a moderate net volume in proportion to its capital and surplus. Its operations so far have resulted in an underwriting loss each year.

Its expense ratio has been above the average. Its loss ratio in 1917 was normal, but in 1918 and 1919 it was high. On a somewhat reduced business, the loss and expense ratios were high in 1920. With a considerably further reduced net business in 1921 the loss and expense ratios to net premiums written are out of proportion. There was a considerable underwriting loss.

The company's loss paying reputation is good.

The mortgages are mainly small loans on improved property in Michigan, and are apparently well secured. They constitute the bulk of the assets.

AFFILIATIONS.— Western Union, Eastern Union.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Tornado, inland marine, civil commotion, riot, strike, commissions, explosion, implements, leasehold, profits, rents and rental value, sprinkler leakage and use and occupancy insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Iowa July 31, 1905, and commenced business January 17, 1906, with $100,000 authorized capital, all of which was subscribed, and $25,000 paid in. During 1906 $10,000 surplus was paid in. During 1909 the balance of its capital, which had been represented by stockholders' notes, was paid in, with $40,000 additional surplus. The par value of the company's stock is $100 a share.

At a stockholders' meeting January, 1920, the authorized capital was increased to $500,000.

Its reinsurance reserve is figured on the 40% basis, as permitted by the Iowa law, and this must be considered when comparing its statement with those of other companies which figure the reserve on the higher basis required in other States.

On October 21, 1921, this company reinsured the outstanding risks of the Automotive Insurance Company, of Mason City, Iowa.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The directors are reputable Iowa business men, and the company, though small is in good standing. The directors control the company, owning on December 31, 1921, $66,166.67, par value, of the capital stock. Its secretary, Hermann Miller, has been in the insurance business for many years and is in good repute.

The company writes a full volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus. Its underwriting operations up to the end of 1917 were unprofitable, but a small underwriting profit was made in 1918, 1919 and 1920. In 1919 the surplus was increased $13,556; in 1920, $12,197.62, and in 1921, $26,966.28.

Its expenses of operation have been high, but are showing a satisfactory downward tendency. The loss ratio is normal.

It has a good loss paying reputation.

Its investments are of good character. The real estate, which consists of a Home Office site, is carried at $20,000, and the company states that the appraised value is $30,000. The mortgage loans are secured by Iowa farm lands valued at over three times the amount loaned.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, tornado, plate glass and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Iowa only.

DIVIDENDS.— It paid a dividend of $1,500 in 1910 and $3,000 in 1911. In 1919 it paid a dividend of $6,000, in 1920, $7,000 and 1921 $8,000.

General Review.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Iowa, December 9, 1915, and began business January 1, 1917, with $500,000 authorized capital, which was all subscribed. At the end of 1917 the entire $500,000 capital had been paid in, and during that year $221,503.49 was collected for surplus. The surplus on January 1, 1917, amounted to $55,050.80.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share. The stock was sold at $200 per share, except that the forty-seven original incorporators of the company secured the stock at $150 per share. The company was promoted by its president through the Iowa National Investment Company, and the organization expenses were not limited. The company advised us that $40.65 per share, or about 21%, was used for promotion expenses.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The second vice-president, who is also the underwriting manager, has had twenty years insurance experience in the State of Iowa. When the Rate Law of Iowa was enacted in 1914 he was selected to take charge of that department under the Commissioner of Insurance, which position he held until his connection with this company. The secretary of the company was for five years chief examiner in the Insurance Department of Iowa.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $95,800, par value, of the company's $500,000 capital stock.

The underwriting losses in 1917, 1918, 1919 and 1920 were largely due to the setting up of reserves for unearned premium liability.

Expenses have been moderate for a comparatively new company, with a downward tendency. In 1921 the premium volume decreased, with a somewhat higher expense ratio, and loss ratio above normal.

The company bears a good reputation for loss settlements. The investments are of high character. The security valuations shown in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgage loans consist of first liens on Iowa property, and bear interest at from 5% to 6%.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— The company transacts fire, lightning, tornado and automobile fire and theft insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Colo., Ill., Iowa, La., Mass., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Pa., Texas and W. Va.

IROQUOIS FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Peoria, Ill.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Illinois March 27, 1920, with an authorized capital of $100,000 and was licensed by the Insurance Department of that State March 9, 1921. It began business April 1, 1921, with $100,000 paid-in capital and surplus contributed of $21,424.46. The par value of the shares is $50.

Two thousand of the first issue of shares were sold for $150,000, $100,000 being credited to capital stock and the balance above organization expenses, to surplus. The organization expense or commissions on sales of stocks amounted to $22,500. The preliminary expenses amounted to $6,075.54. A second issue of 13,000 shares was put on the market to be sold at $100 per share. Of this issue, we were advised that on August 31, 1921, 3,308 shares were sold and that the organization expense or commissions on sales of stock of this issue amounted to 15% and the preliminary expense to 1.9%. On December 31, 1921, the paid in capital had been increased to $250,000, and the company had net surplus of $29,440.67, but we were not advised as to the amount contributed to surplus nor the additional amount expended for organization expenses.

This company started to organize with headquarters in Chicago, Ill., Henry J. Woessner, formerly secretary and managing underwriter of the Marquette National, being active in the promotion, William L. Dickelman being associated with him as secretary and treasurer. Some of the promotion methods were subject to criticism.

The company later moved its offices to Peoria, Ill.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The Underwriting management is in the hands of Harold W. Letton, 175 West Jackson Boulevard, Chicago, Ill., who is in excellent repute, and is the United States manager of the Netherlands Fire and Life Insurance Company, of The Hague, Holland, and also vice-president and managing underwriter of the Great Lakes Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill.

OFFICERS.— President E. W. Wilson; vice-president and secretary, E. R. Wilson; treasurer, A. H. Addison; vice-president and managing underwriter, Harold W. Letton.

DIRECTORS.— The directors are: E. W. Wilson, president American National Bank, Pekin, Ill.; president Wilson Provision Co., Peoria, Ill.; director State Trust and Savings Bank, Peoria, Ill.; E. R. Wilson, president Brown Swiss Breeders Association, Peoria, Ill.; A. H. Addison, formerly cashier Central National Bank, Peoria, Ill.; C. A. Farwell; Peoria, Ill.; Frank T. GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York in January, 1913, and began business January 31, 1913. Its authorized capital was $250,000, all of which was paid in with $125,000 surplus when it began business. It was organized by Willcox, Peck & Hughes, of New York, an old and well-established underwriting and brokerage firm. The stock, par value $10 per share, was sold at $15 per share.

On August 1, 1919, control of this company was purchased by interests identified with Corroon & Duffey, Inc. On December 31, 1919, the Equitable Underwriters (a Lloyd's, operating under the management of Corroon & Duffey, Inc.), was incorporated under the title of the New York Equitable Assurance Company for the express purpose of merging this institution with the Knickerbocker Insurance Company. Details of this merger were completed March 11, 1920. During 1920 the capital was increased from $500,000 to $600,000, and $100,000 was contributed to surplus. At a meeting of the stockholders April 11, 1922, the capital was reduced to $400,000 thus transferring $200,000 to the surplus.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is managed by Corroon & Duffey, Inc., who have appointed the Central Fire Office Inc., general agents, at 92 William street, New York City. The officers of the Central Fire Office are, T. A. Duffey, president; Wm. J. Reynolds, vice-president; and E. G. Froeb, secretary. It also acts as general agent for the American Equitable Assurance Co of New York, controlled by the Corroon & Duffey, Inc., interests.

The Central Fire Office, Inc., also acts as Metropolitan District manager for a number of other insurance companies.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $184,134 of the par value of the capital stock of $600,000.

The Knickerbocker Ins. Co. and the American Equitable Assurance Co. guarantee a series of policies issued under the title "American International Underwriters." and "Metropolitan Assurance Underwriters."

In 1921 the loss and expense ratios of the company increased somewhat, and it had an underwriting loss of $159,541.26. The company discontinued writing ocean marine and motor vehicle lines in 1921, and had only a small net income from those classes; the fire insurance volume also reduced considerably. The reduced volume tended to increase the expense ratio, which was high, the loss ratio was also high and there was a considerable ratio of underwriting loss.

The company's loss paying record is excellent.

AFFILIATION.— Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company began business in 1869 with an authorized capital of $150,000, of which $46,500 was paid in, the balance ($103,500) being subscribed and paid in later by stock dividends.

In October, 1916, it was voted to amend the charter, increasing the capital stock to $200,000, and permitting the company to write tornado and windstorm insurance in addition to fire insurance.

The new stock was sold at $200 per share, thus increasing the paid-in capital to $200,000 and adding $50,000 to surplus.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is well managed, bears a good reputation, and has made excellent progress. It does purely a local business, which has been very profitable, but subjects it to the conflagration hazard. It has never failed to pay a dividend of at least 10% per annum since 1878.

The control of the company is in a comparatively few hands. On December 31, 1921, its directors owned $59,400, par value, of its $200,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims.

Its average expense ratio has been normal and its loss ratio has been low. In 1919 it had very low losses. In 1920 it showed a small underwriting loss. In 1921 it made a substantial rate of underwriting gain.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are based upon quotations on the New Orleans stock exchange.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated as the Liberty National Fire Insurance Company, under the laws of the State of Louisiana, February 24, 1920, and was licensed June 22, 1920, and commenced business July 12, 1920. with an authorized capital of $200,000. The title was changed to the above in 1921. The organization of the company was started in 1919 with a proposed capital and surplus of $2,000,000. Its statement as of December 31, 1920, showed paid-in capital of $199,980 and net surplus of $32,094.38. During 1921 $324,660 was paid in to capital and $159,244.54 was contributed to surplus. The par value of the shares is $30.

At a stockholders' meeting, February 17, 1922, the charter was amended making the authorized capital $568.590. The company is still collecting unpaid subscriptions and plans that as about $50,000 additional is collected special meetings of the stockholders will be called to authorize increases in the capital, until that item is brought to $600.000 or $650.000.

Management and Reputation.— The managing underwriter of the company is H. H. Rimington, who has been engaged in the fire insurance business for many years in executive and field capacities. He was at one time managing underwriter of the Jefferson Fire Insurance Company, which was then doing a general fire insurance business. He is capable and in good repute. In 1920 the company did only a small business, and the expense ratio was high, as might be expected with a new company. In 1921 the company wrote a small amount of business and the expense ratio was still high, resulting in a comparatively heavy underwriting loss. At December 31, 1921, the directors of the company owned, at par, $42,690 of the stock of the company.

The securities owned by the company shown in the statement are of high class, carried at market values. The mortgages are well secured by Louisiana city and farm properties.

The company writes business in Pacific Coast territory through J. F. McGee of San Francisco, in states in which it is not regularly licensed.

Kinds of Insurance Written.— Fire and tornado.

Territory.— Louisiana and Tennessee. When the company's organization is completed, it plans to seek admittance to a number of other states.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1806. Its authorized capital is £2,075,000, with £1,575,000 subscribed and £406,951 paid in. In 1892 this company purchased the Crown Life Insurance Company, at which time it issued £283.360 of 4% debentures, redeemable at par on December 31, 1942. In 1906 it issued £200,000 in debentures, carrying 4½% interest, to meet the losses sustained in the conflagration at San Francisco, Cal. These debentures were payable in fifteen years at par, or any time after the expiration of five years, at £102 for each £100 of stock, and this was done in 1910. Prior to 1909 this company was known as the Law Union and Crown Insurance Company. In that year the business of the Rock Life Assurance Company, Ltd., of London, was merged with this company and the present title was adopted.

This company entered the United States in 1897.

Early in 1919 the London and Lancashire Insurance Co., Ltd., of London, purchased control of this company, and it was continued as a separate institution.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— All assets of the company (other than life insurance funds) are liable for the payment of losses, wherever incurred. The Home Office balance sheet, as of December 31, 1920, which includes all its assets and liabilities, showed the following: Total assets, $52,261.934.31; capital paid in, $1.979,760; consisting of capital $825,000 and debenture stock $1,154.760; surplus fund, $2,584,492.25. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent standing at its home and abroad. In 1919 the management was transferred from Hall & Henshaw, New York, to A. G. McIlwaine, who is also United States manager of the London and Lancashire Insurance, Ltd., and president of the Safeguard Insurance Company of New York and of the Orient Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn. He is in excellent repute.

Its expenses of management have been slightly above the average, but its loss ratio has been about normal. The volume of business transacted by the United States Branch is conservative. In 1920 both the loss and expense ratios were materially reduced, but were higher again in 1921, and in the latter year there was a moderate underwriting loss.

The securities owned are high grade. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.— A. G. McIlwaine. Hartford, Conn.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.— Central Union Trust Company of New York.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Life, fire and general casualty lines.

In the United States it writes fire, motor vehicle, tornado, sprinkler leakage, earthquake and inland marine insurance.

TERRITORY.— It operates throughout the United Kingdom and in Canada.

In the United States it is licensed in the following States: Ala., Cal., Colo., Conn., D. C., Fla., Hawaii Idaho, Iowa, Ill., Ind., Kan., Ky., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., Mont., Neb., Nev., N. J., N. Y., N. D., Ohio, Okla., Ore., Pa., R. I., S. D., Tenn., Texas, Utah, Wash., W. Va., Wis. and Wyo.

DEPARTMENTS.— Western Department, Chas. E. Dox, Chicago, Ill.; Pacific Department, Geo. O. Smith, San Francisco, Cal.; Hawaii, Theo. H. Davies & Co., Ltd., Honolulu, H. I.

LEGAL INSURANCE COMPANY, LIMITED,

London, England.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in 1908. Its authorized capital is £1,000,000, of which, at last advices, £500,000 had been subscribed and £100,000 paid in.

The company has £400,000 subscribed capital subject to call.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— It is controlled by the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, England, a large and reputable institution.

On June 15, 1900, it commenced writing "surplus lines" in the United States through Fred S. James & Co., 123 William street, New York, who advised us that they hold power of attorney to accept service in case of disputes in this country and that they keep sufficient funds on hand for the payment of all ordinary losses. Fred S. James & Co., are in excellent repute, and represent as United States managers, the following companies: Eagle, Star and British Dominions Ins. Co., Ltd., London, England; General Fire Assurance Co., Paris, and the Urbaine Fire Insurance Co. of Paris, France.

As stated above, it is controlled by the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., one of the strongest companies in the world.

The Home Office balance sheet as of December 31, 1920 showed the following: Total assets, £495,657 ($2,478,285); capital paid in, £100,000 ($500,000); balance revenue account, £43,196 ($215,980). (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, personal accident, burglary, fidelity, liability and plate glass insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated in March, 1854, but did not commence business until November, 1858. The authorized capital is $200,000, of which $100,000 was paid in, in cash, when the company began business. The capital was later increased by a stock dividend of $100,000.

The par value of stock is $100 per share.

Until 1918 its corporate title was German Insurance Company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has substantial backing and is well managed. Its directors owned $42,700, par value, of its capital stock on December 31, 1921.

Its premium income is very small and entirely local, its investment income being greater than the premium income. Good dividends have been paid stockholders and the surplus has steadily increased.

The company's high expense ratio is due to the small premium income referred to above. Its loss paying record is excellent, and its loss ratio is very low.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Missouri and received its license to commence business February 27, 1919.

It started with an authorized and paid-in capital of $200,000 and as of December 31, 1919, $247,021.47 had been contributed to surplus. During 1920 $159,768, and in 1921 $45,519.50, was contributed to surplus by the stockholders.

The stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $125 per share.

The company was organized by the Insurance Corporation of St. Louis, which acts as a holding concern. It was established for the purpose of organizing the Laclede National Fire Insurance Company, which changed its name to the Liberty Fire Insurance Company; and also a Trust Company to conduct a general trust investment business. The stockholders of the Insurnce Corporation are reported to be men of means and of good business standing. The Insurance Corporation is a Delaware corporation having an authorized capital of $2,000,000.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION —John C. Bardwell, president of the Insurance Corporation, is also president of this company. He has been in the insurance business for a number of years and formerly acted as attorney-in-fact for the Central States Inter-Insurance Exchange and the Wholesale Grocers Reciprocal Indemnity Exchange, of St. Louis. The last named exchange was closed out early in 1920, its outstanding liability being assumed by the Central States Inter-Insurance Exchange; and the management of the latter exchange was transferred from John C. Bardwell to the International Service Company. Complaints have reached us from policyholders with reference to methods employed by those exchanges in the matter of adjusting losses, and delay in paying losses after adjustment. The Central States Inter-Insurance Exchange ceased doing business January 1, 1921, and went into liquidation.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $122,000 par value of the capital stock of $200,000.

It wrote a moderate volume of business in 1919, with reasonable expenses for a new company. In 1920 the expense ratio was not high for a new company, but the loss ratio was above normal, and this with the increased reserve caused an underwriting loss of $167,408.18.

In 1921 it wrote a fairly large volume with high loss and expense ratios, and there was a comparatively heavy underwriting loss.

No complaints concerning its treatment of loss claimants have come to our notice.

Its investments are of good character. The mortgages are first liens upon property, nearly all improved, located in Missouri and Illinois.

AFFILIATIONS.—Western Insurance Bureau, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Tennessee March 3, 1913, but the sale of stock was not actively begun until September, 1915. It was licensed by the Tennessee Insurance Department on June 30th, and began business July 2, 1917. Its authorized and subscribed capital is $100,000, of which $36,760 was paid in on June 16, 1917, together with $15,504 surplus.

On December 31, 1917, the capital was $47,965 and the surplus $4,397.77. At the end of 1918 the paid-in capital was $61,280, and the surplus $1,050.71. During 1920 $9,-057.50 was paid in to capital and $976 contributed to surplus. During 1921 $29,662.50 additional capital was paid in, making its capital fully paid. The par value of the stock is $5 per share.

The stock was sold by the American Securities Company, of Nashville, Tenn., at $10 and $12.50 per share, and $3 per share was available for organization expenses, which was consented to by the stockholders.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company operates on the industrial and also on the cash plan. In 1920 it wrote net premiums of $250,424.75, and the management explains that the comparatively small item of reserve covers the unearned premiums, as the industrial policies are written for one week only, and the premiums for the last week of the year are all included in the reserve, together with a pro rata part of the premium collected on the cash plan. The reserve is set up under the Tennessee law which permits the deduction of agents' commissions.

The company's loss ratio is very low, but its expense ratio is very high, on account of the cost of its industrial business.

The president, B. B. Coffey, was formerly president and general manager of the Southwestern Publishing Company, of Nashville. He is also president of the American Securities Co., Inc.

The first vice-president and underwriting manager is H. S. Dortch. The company gives his insurance experience as follows: He has been engaged for fourteen years in fire, life and accident insurance, one year in industrial life and accident business in Nashville, two years as fire insurance solicitor in Jackson and Nashville, for two years was associated with a fire insurance agency in Gulfport, Miss., and in charge of a fire insurance agency in Gulfport for three years. He was in the life insurance business in Mississippi and Louisiana for one year, and in the fire, life and accident business in Nashville for about two years. He is vice-president of the American Securities Co., Inc.

The second vice-president is W. T. Eastes, an employee of the Postoffice at Nashville, Tenn.

The secretary-treasurer is M. S. Ross, an attorney-at-law.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $41,167.50, par value, of the capital stock then outstanding.

The securities are principally high class government issues, and a small amount of railroad and industrial securities.

The mortgages are secured by Nashville and Chattanooga real estate. The real estate owned is lots in Nashville.

The company is writing business in Alabama and Tennessee only. It advised us that the largest policy written is for $1,500, and that it does not accept risks in excess of that amount subject to any one fire. It does business direct and not through brokers.

OFFICERS.— President, B. B. Coffey; first vice-president, H. S. Dortch; second vice-president, W. T. Eastes; secretary-treasurer, M. S. Ross; assistant secretary, F. J. Watson.

General Review.

History.— This company was established in 1836. Its authorized capital is £3,000,000 of which £531,050 has been paid in. In addition the company has issued £1,256,495 in debenture stock, making its total paid-in capital £1,787,545.

It entered the United States in 1848 and owns the Star Insurance Company of America, of New York, the Globe Indemnity Company of New York, and the Thames and Mersey Marine Insurance Co., Liverpool.

In 1919 the Royal Insurance Company, Liverpool, England, acquired control of this company, which will continue to operate as a separate institution. Both of these companies are very prominent in the insurance business, and world wide in their operations.

Home Office Resources.— All assets of the company (other than life insurance funds, are liable for the payment of losses, wherever incurred. We therefore present the following information from the Home Office balance sheet, which includes all its assets and liabilities: Assets, December 31, 1920, capital paid in, including 4% debenture stock, $8,937,725; general reserve fund, $5,000.000; profit and loss balance, $1,083,622. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

Management and Reputation.— This company is in excellent repute both at home and abroad. It is well and conservatively managed and bears an excellent reputation in the matter of loss settlements.

The company's operations in the United States have generally been very profitable. Its expenses of operation have been very moderate, and its average loss ratio is low. The United States Branch of the company did not have a good year in 1921, the loss and expense ratios were higher, and there was a substantial underwriting loss.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in the United States Branch statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners, and those of the Canadian Branch at market valuations.

Directors in New York.—Walter C. Hubbard, Thatcher M. Brown, William H. Wheelock, Edward W. Cheldon and Bertram H. Borden.

Branch offices are maintained in New York, Chicago, San Francisco and New Orleans with the following managers: New York, Thos. H. Anderson and C. A. Nottingham; Chicago, W. P. Robertson and Harold F. Cartlidge San Francisco, Clarence E. Allen; New Orleans, I. G. Pepper.

The company also maintains a branch in Canada, J. Gardner Thompson being the manager, and Lewis Laing assistant manager.

Mr. Thos. H. Anderson is attorney-in-fact for the United States. The ocean marine department is in charge of Frank H. Cauty.

Affiliations.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Western Insurance Bureau, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

Kinds of insurance Written.— Fire, life and marine insurance and general casualty lines.

In the United States it writes fire, marine and inland, war risk, automobile, property damage, tornado, sprinkler leakage, tourists' baggage, hail, explosion, flood, earthquake, registered mail, riot and civil commotion insurance.

Territory.— It operates throughout the United Kingdom and the British possessions and in France, China, Japan and North and South America. In the United States it is licensed in all the States and Territories except Mississippi.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1861. Previous to 1917, its authorized capital was £3,000,000, of which, on December 31, 1916, £2,641,250 had been subscribed and £264,125 paid in. It entered the United States in 1879.

In October 1917, it was voted to increase the capital from £3,000,000 to £3,141,250 by the creation of 5,650 new shares of £25 each. On December 31, 1917, the paid-in capital amounted to $1,566,412. On December 31, 1919, the paid-in capital was £717,430.

This company owns and operates the Orient Insurance Company of Hartford, Conn., acquired in June, 1900, and which the same year reinsured the Norwalk Fire Insurance Company of Norwalk, Conn., the operations of which company were directed by the United States management of this company from 1891 to July, 1900.

In 1917 it purchased control of the Marine Insurance Company, of London. During 1918 it secured control of the Hand-in-Hand Insurance Co., the Queen City Fire Insurance Co., the Millers and Manufacturers Insurance Co., and the Fire Insurance Exchange Corporation, all of Toronto, Canada.

It also controls and operates the Safeguard Insurance Co., of New York, and the Standard Marine Insurance Co., Ltd., Liverpool, England. Early in 1919 it also acquired control of the Law Union and Rock Insurance Co., Ltd., of London.

Besides its own policies the United States Branch issues and guarantees policies entitled "English-American Underwriters Agency."

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses, wherever incurred. The Home Office balance sheet, which includes all its assets and liabilities, showed the following as of December 31, 1920: Total assets, $109,966,540; capital paid in, $3,587,150; The London and Lancashire Insurance Company, Ltd., 5% marine debenture stock, redeemable 1937, $4,046,940; Law Union and Rock Insurance Company, Ltd., 5% debenture stock, redeemable 1929, $4,103,815. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent repute at its home and in this country. The United States Branch is well managed and its operations have been very profitable. Its expenses of operation are moderate and its average loss ratio is low.

Its general loss paying record is excellent.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The real estate owned is an eight-story fireproof office building in New York City, carried at cost.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, Mainland Board of Fire Underwriters, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.— A. G. McIlwaine, Hartford, Conn.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEES.— United States Mortgage and Trust Company of New York.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, accident, loss of profits, burglary, plate glass, liability and live stock insurance and fidelity bonds.

In the United States it writes fire, marine, war risk, automobile, tourists' baggage, tornado, hail, sprinkler leakage, earthquake and explosion insurance.

TERRITORY.— In the United States it is licensed in all States and Territories, except Delaware, Guam, Mississippi, Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands.

MANAGERS.— Western department, Chas. E. Dox, Chicago, Ill.; Pacific department, Geo. O. Smith, San Francisco, Cal.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was organized in 1860. The subscribed capital is £1,000,000, of which £100,000 is paid up. Its shares were purchased by the Yorkshire Insurance Company, Ltd., of York, England.

The company entered this country and was licensed by the Insurance Department of the State of New York, July 31, 1920, to transact a general fire business. At the time of going to press no late Home Office statement of the company was available.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— United States managers are Frank & DuBois, who also manage the Yorkshire Insurance Company, Ltd. They are in excellent repute.

The company only operated a part of the year, so the amount of business written in 1920 was small. In 1921 the volume was conservative, but the loss and expense ratios were high.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, sprinkler leakage, riot and explosion.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.— The New York Life Insurance and Trust Company of New York.

TERRITORY.— Ala., Cal., Colo., Conn., Ga., Guam, Hawaii, Idaho, Ill., N. J., N. Y., Ohio, Ore., Pa., Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, La., Md., Mass., Tex., Utah, Wash. and Wyo. Also Canada, Newfoundland, Cuba, Europe, Asia, Africa and South America.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated August 4, 1862, and commenced business in that year. It has been operating in Canada since 1863. It was formerly known as the London and Lancashire Life Assurance Company and the London and Lancashire Life and General Assurance Association, Ltd., the present title having been adopted in 1919.

The authorized captial is £1,000,000 of which £600,000 has been subscribed and £120,000 paid in.

In May, 1911, this company absorbed the Welsh Insurance Corporation of Cardiff, Wales, a non-tariff concern which had a paid-up capital of £50,000. In 1912 it purchased control of the Scottish Metropolitan Assurance Company, Ltd., of Edinburgh.

On September 11, 1914, the company was regularly admitted in this country.

sheet showed the following items as of December 31, 1920: Assets, £7,152,406 ($35,762,030); capital paid up, £120,000 ($600,000); profit and loss account, £30,124 ($150,620). (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— This company in 1919 decided to enlarge its operations in America and to establish a head office for the United States. This decision caused a change of management from Messrs. Edward E. Hall & Co., 80 Maiden Lane, New York City, who had for five years acted as United States managers, to Mr. Horatio N. Kelsey, to succeed them in that capacity.

Mr. Kelsey has been in the managerial role for a number of years, first being assistant manager, and then manager of the western department of the Sun Insurance office. This connection started in 1901 and he terminated it in 1913 to become manager of the Hamburg-Bremen Fire Insurance Company, which discontinued business in the United States during 1917. He bears an excellent reputation as an underwriter.

The company is in good repute both at home and abroad.

The volume of business written by the United States Branch is moderate. The loss and expense ratios to premiums written have been low. In 1920, partially due to increase in unearned premiums, there was a considerable loss from underwriting, and in 1921 on a reduced income the loss ratio was high with a more moderate underwriting loss.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

AFFILIATIONS.— Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Eastern Union, National Board of Fire Underwriters, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference and the Western Union.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.— The United States manager is Horatio N. Kelsey, 110 William street, New York.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Ala., Cal., Colo., Conn., D. C., Fla., Ga., Hawaii, Ill., Ind., Iowa, Kan., Ky., La., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., Neb., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Okla., Ore., Pa., R. I., S. C., Tenn., Utah, Va., Wash., W. Va., Wis. and Wyo.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEES.— George Cabot Lee, Francis Lee Higginson, Jr., and Norwood Penrose Hallowell.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— The company at its home writes accident, health, burglary, plate glass, automobile and employers' liability, fire and life insurance. In the United States it transacts fire, tornado, automobile, sprinkler leakage, use and occupancy, rents, ocean and inland marine.

GENERAL AGENCIES.—

Dargan & Turner, manager Southern Department, Hurt Building, Atlanta, Ga., for Alabama, Florida, Georgia and Louisiana.

Thomas Griffith, general agent, Charlotte, N. C., for North Carolina and South Carolina.

George W. Beck Co., general agents, 401-405 Kittridge Building, Denver, Colo., for Colorado and Wyoming.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1720 and is one of the oldest companies in existence. Its authorized capital is £2,000,000, of which £1,496,550 has been subscribed and £873,275 paid in.

It entered the United States in 1872 and maintains two distinct branches, one writing fire and allied lines and the other marine insurance. In this report, the figures filed by the two branches are merged.

The company also maintains a Branch Office in Canada, and a direct reporting Branch for the Pacific Coast territory in San Francisco, Cal.

Policies issued under the title "London Underwriters Agency" are issued by this company through its agents.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— All assets of the company (other than life insurance funds) are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. We therefore present the following information from the Home Office balance sheet, the latest available, which includes all its assets and liabilities: Assets, December 31, 1920, £9,286,497 ($46,432,485); capital paid in, £873,275 ($4,366,375); surplus funds, £3,092,-161 ($15,460,805). (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent repute at its home and abroad, and its operations in the United States have, on the whole, been very profitable. Its average expense and loss ratios are low.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions.

AFFILIATIONS.— Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.— John H. Packard, 84 William street, New York; general agents, marine branch, Chubb & Son, 5 South William street, New York; Canadian Branch, Montreal, Canada; H. M. Newhall, general agent, Marine Branch, San Francisco, Cal.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was organized as a mutual company and commenced business in Canada in 1859. It was subsequently changed to a cash mutual and so continued until 1899, when, by Act of Parliament, a capital stock issue of $500,000 was authorized, of which $110,000 has been subscribed and $19,250 paid up. Both the stockholders and the policyholders have the right to vote for directors.

In February, 1912, the stock of this company was purchased by the London and Midland Insurance Company, Ltd., of London, England.

Early in 1917, the London and Midland was placed in the hands of receivers.

In March, 1919, A. H. Carson and his partner, F. D. Williams, purchased from the liquidator of the London and Midland Insurance Co. the stock of the "London Mutual," which had been held by that company since 1912.

About the first of the year 1922, control of this company was secured by interests identified with the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., and it will be operated under the general directions of the management of that company.

At the time of the latest advices the company operated on the premium note plan in Ontario, the only Province in which the mutual feature is retained by the company. Everywhere else stock policies only are issued, the holders being free from any liability beyond the payment of premiums. The premium notes, however, being liable for all losses.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company has built up a considerable business and agency plant, and has accumulated a surplus as shown in the above statement. It is in good repute as regards loss payments.

The firm of Carson, Williams and Williams, Ltd., acts as general managers of the company under an agreement based upon salary and contingent commission.

The volume of business transacted is large in proportion to the company's net cash resources. In 1919 and 1920 the loss ratio was normal and the expense ratio moderate. In 1921, on a reduced premium income, the loss ratio was very high, and the expense ratio above normal.

The investments are of good character.

The real estate owned is the company's Home Office building at Scott and Wellington streets.

The mortgage loans are nearly all small, and are entirely upon property in the Province of Ontario.

AFFILIATIONS.—Canada Fire Underwriters Assn., Western Canadian Board of Fire Underwriters.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed and operates in all the Provinces of the Dominion of Canada except Prince Edward Island, Nova Scotia, Newfoundland and New Brunswick.

LUMBERMEN'S INSURANCE COMPANY—Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company was organized in December, 1873, with $125,000 paid-in capital and no surplus. In 1876 its capital was increased to $200,000 and in 1880 to $250,000. The par value of the stock is $25 per share.

Management and Reputation.— The company is well managed and has made excellent progress.

It is backed by substantial interests. The control of the company is not closely held. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $39,650, par value, of the capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its treatment of loss claims. The volume of business transacted is very conservative. Its expenses of operation have been above the average, but its loss ratio has been favorable.

Its investments are high grade and remunerative. Substantial dividends have been paid to stockholders.

The largest item of real estate is the company's Home Office at 427 Walnut street, Philadelphia, carried at $40,000. The other items were acquired under foreclosure, and consist mainly of improved property in Philadelphia, and some western cities. The mortgage loans are nearly all small, and are well secured. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

Affiliation.— Western Insurance Bureau.

General Review.

HISTORY.— This company was organized in 1831 with an authorized capital of $100,000 (par value of shares $50 each), 20% of which was paid in when it began business, and the balance was represented by notes of stockohlders which were paid later. It operates under a special perpetual charter.

During 1919 the present management purchased the special charter and reorganized the company. Collateral loan certificates (permitted under the special charter) were given for the par value of the stock by the subscribers. The par value of stock is $50, and $25 per share was contributed to surplus.

It is not under the supervision of the Insurance Department of Indiana, since the special charter does not compel it to report to it, but as a matter of courtesy statements are submitted by the company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The president, H. H. Woodsmall, has a local agency in Indianapolis and bears a good general reputation.

The Union Insurance Company of Indiana (also under special charter) is operated in conjunction with it.

The fire underwriting of both companies is in charge of W. W. Cleary, assistant secretary, and the casualty underwriting is directed by H. H. Woodsmall, president.

In the first two years of its operations under the present management the loss ratio has been high, and the expense ratio low, resulting in a small underwriting loss for the period. A considerable portion of the premiums in 1921 were from ocean marine insurance.

The bonds owned are valued at local market prices. The company owns 110 shares of the Union Insurance Company of Indiana stock, which cost the company $13,230.32 and is carried at $11,000. A considerable portion of the assets is invested in loans on collateral, $100,000 of which, the president of the company advises us, represents stock notes given by the subscribers for the par value of the stock, and secured by collateral satisfactory to the finance committee of the company. The balance is on various securities held as collateral.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, plate glass, marine, excluding inland, and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.— It operates only in Indiana.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company commenced business May 20, 1849, having been organized as a mutual company. It was incorporated as the Morris County Insurance Company, and continued under that name as a county mutual until November, 1918, when the control changed, the offices moved to the present location, and the name changed to the above title. Previous to this change the charter had been amended to provide for an authorized capital of $25,000, without surrendering the mutual features.

On December 31, 1920, $12,771 capital had been paid in, of which $10,241 was paid in during 1920, $10,146 of the latter amount being stock dividends. In 1921 the paid-in capital was increased to $25,000 by a stock dividend of $12,229. It is closely affiliated with and operated under the same management as the Manufacturers Liability Insurance Company of Jersey City, the officers being practically the same in each case.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— It is under the same management as the Manufacturers Liability Insurance Company of Jersey City, which is fully reported upon in our Casualty and Miscellaneous Volume.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $15,660 at par of the capital stock of $25,000.

In 1921 the loss ratio was about normal and the expense ratio very low.

DIVIDENDS.— During 1921, $12,229 was paid in dividends.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, October 20, 1920, and received license December 28, 1920. It commenced business January 1, 1921, with an authorized and paid-in capital of $100,000 and $50,000 contributed to surplus. The par value of the shares is $10, which were sold at $15 to provide the surplus.

In 1921 the stockholders contributed $23,765 to surplus.

The company was organized by officers of the Manufacturers Casualty Company of Philadelphia, in order to give full coverage insurance on automobiles.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The officers of the company are the same as the Manufacturers Casualty Company, which was organized in 1915, and is reported upon in our

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Texas on August 6, 1919, and was licensed on the same date. It commenced business in August, 1919, with an authorized, subscribed and paid-in capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $100,000. Stock, par value $100 per share, was sold at $150 per share to provide the surplus. There was no expense of promotion, which is commendable. In 1920 the stockholders contributed $100,000 to surplus.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— J. F. Seinsheimer, vice-president, secretary and general manager, is also vice-president and general manager of the American Indemnity Company of Galveston, Texas, which writes general casualty lines, and is also vice-president of the Texas Indemnity

Insurance Company, Galveston, Texas, organized in 1919 for the purpose of writing workmen's compensation insurance. Mr. Seinsheimer has been in the insurance business for nineteen years and bears a good reputation.

J. M. Jacobs, assistant secretary and agency manager, has been in the insurance business for many years. He is also assistant secretary and agency manager of the American Indemnity Company.

It is backed by substantial interests and the directors are men of prominence in the business world.

The stock of the company is very closely held, the directors, on December 31, 1921, owned $180,000 of the par value of the $200,000 capital stock.

It is too young to have established a record.

It wrote a considerable volume of business for the few months that it was in operation in 1919, and in 1920 greatly increased the volume, which was heavy compared to its net resources. The underwriting expenses were low for a new company, but the loss ratio high, and it had an underwriting loss of $116,469.82 in 1920. The company advised us that they were trying to improve the loss results. In 1921 it greatly reduced its volume resulting in very high loss and expense ratios on the written basis, and these ratios were also very high on an earned basis. The underwriting loss for 1921 was $85,222.90, and the surplus was reduced $66,440.72.

The company advises that on January 1, 1922, it discontinued all lines other than marine, which will be accepted through the American Marine Insurance Syndicate of New York. Also that all automobile lines have been cancelled.

The securities owned are of good character, consisting mainly of Liberty Loan bonds and stocks of banks.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Marine, automobile fire and theft, transportation, property damage and collision.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Ala., Ark., Cal., D. C., Ill., Ind., Kan., La., Md., Minn., Miss., N. J., N. Y., Ore., Pa., Tenn., Texas, Wash. and Wis.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1836. Its authorized capital is £1,000,000, of which £600,000 has been paid in; the balance has been subscribed and is subject to call. It entered the United States in October, 1884.

In 1917 control of this company was purchased by the London and Lancashire Fire Insurance Company, Ltd., Liverpool, England.

HOME OFFICE EXTRACTS.— December 31, 1919, assets, $21,869,565; capital paid in, $3,000,000; reserve fund, $3,000,000; balance of underwriting account, $8,038,585. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent repute and is backed by substantial interests. The underwriting operations of the United States Branch have, on the whole, been very profitable, the losses being normal and the expenses low. In 1918, the loss and expense ratios were high, and the company's operations in this country resulted in an underwriting loss, but in 1919 it had a successful year, gaining from underwriting $342,219.93. In 1920 its loss ratio was normal and expense ratio favorable, and it had an underwriting profit, although it was generally an unfavorable year for marine insurance. On a considerably reduced income in 1921 the loss ratio was high and there was a heavy underwriting loss.

Its loss paying reputation is excellent.

The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

UNITED STATES MANAGERS.— The United States managers, Chubb & Son, New York City, are capable and in excellent repute. They also manage the Federal Insurance Company of Jersey City, the United States Branch of the Sea Insurance Company, Limited, of Liverpool, the United States marine branch of the London Assurance Corporation of London, the United States Branch of the Alliance Assurance Corporation of London, and the marine branch of the Hartford Fire Insurance Company.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.— Guaranty Trust Co., of New York.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in Cal., Colo., Conn., D. C., Ill., Ind., Iowa, Kan., Ky., La., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., N. J., N. Y., Ohio, Ore., Pa., R. I., Tenn., Wash., W. Va. and Wis. It also operates in Canada.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— In the United States it writes marine, war risk, registered mail, tourists' baggage and automobile insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1864. Its authorized capital is £1,000,000, of which £500,000 has been subscribed and £100,000 paid in. It regularly entered the United States in July, 1908. Previous to that time it wrote some business on the Pacific Coast.

In 1914 control of this company was purchased by the Scottish Union and National Insurance Company of Edinburgh.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. We therefore present the following extracts from the Home Office balance sheet (the latest available) which includes all its assets and liabilities: Assets, December 31, 1919, $7,735,136; capital paid in, $500,000; net surplus, $3,661,140. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under reputable and experienced management, and is in excellent repute at its home and abroad. Since early in 1920 its United States branch has been under the same management as the Marine Departments of the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, England, the Queen Insurance Company of America, of New York, the Newark Fire Insurance Company of Newark, New Jersey, and the Star Insurance Company of America, of New York.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of the State of Illinois on October 1, 1912, with an authorized capital of $1,000,000 divided into 40,000 shares; with a par value of $25 each. The company sold 30,000 shares at $50 per share.

In 1914 the charter was amended by reducing the capitalization to $300,000, and the par value of the shares from $25 to $10.

After an examination made by the Insurance Department of the State of Illinois, the company was licensed on January 28, 1915, with $300,000 capital and $35,348.65 surplus.

The company advised us that the organization expenses amounted to 24%, which included the office equipment, maps, etc.

The Marquette Stock Agency, whose president is Francis J. Matre, son of Anthony Matre, president of this company, sold stock of the company which came into the possession of the Stock Agency through the failure of some of the subscribers to complete their payments. Most of this stock was sold at $50 per share, par value, $10, and a limited amount was sold at $60.

On July 13 1921 the Western Alliance Insurance Company of Chicago, Ill., was merged into this company, and the authorized and paid in capital of the merged company, was made $475,000. The paid in capital of the Western Alliance Insurance Company was $350,000, and the net surplus of that company at the time of the merger was $230,333 50.

Early in 1922 interests identified with this company secured control of the Firemens and Mechanics Insurance Company of Indianapolis, Ind., and the Pittsburgh Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh, Pa.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The officers of the company are capable and in good repute.

Mr. Picard, secretary-treasurer, is manager of the Insurance Exchange Building, Chicago, and has had long experience as an insurance man. He is also secretary-treasurer of the Great Western Fire Insurance Company, Chicago, Ill.

The underwriting is directly in charge of H. J. Davis, who has had many years insurance experience.

The expense ratio has been above the average, but it had a downward tendency until the beginning of 1921. The loss ratio had been favorable previous to 1921. A decrease in surplus in 1919 of $39,573.20 was due to the increase of reserves because of greater volume of premiums, and in 1920 there was a further decrease of $100,081.81, partly due to increase of business, and partly to the payment of $61,000 dividends.

The company's business increased greatly during 1918, 1919 and 1920. In 1921 the volume was considerably reduced and is conservative compared to its net resources. The loss ratio was high, and the expense ratio, effected somewhat by the reducing volume was above normal.

Among the securities owned, the company carries United States, municipal, and industrial bonds. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgage loans are chiefly upon Chicago property, and appear to be well secured. There are a few mortgages upon farm lands of Illinois and adjoining States well secured.

The company bears a good reputation with reference to its treatment of loss claims.

TERRITORY.—Licensed in Colo., Ill., Ind., Ia., Kan., Ky., La., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., O., Pa., Tenn., Tex., W. Va. and Wis.

DIVIDENDS.—The first dividend was paid in 1918 the rate being 5%. In 1919 it paid 10%; 1920, 20%; 1921, 30% on $300,000 capital.

DIRECTORS.—

Berning, Joseph, Cincinnati, president Joseph Berning Printing Company, Inc.

MARYLAND MOTOR CAR INSURANCE COMPANY OF DELAWARE — Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Maryland and began business March 1, 1910, with an authorized capital of $100,000, 50% of which was paid in, with $12,500 surplus. The balance of the capital and $12,500 surplus were paid in by May 1, 1910.

During 1912 its capital was increased from $100,000 to $300,000, and $50,000 additional surplus was paid in. The par value of its stock is $100 per share. On December 19, 1912, its was reincorporated under the laws of Delaware.

In 1919 it increased the capital to $500,000 and added $50,000 to surplus. At this time the par value of the shares was reduced to $50 per share.

Management and Reputation.— The company was organized and is managed by J. Purviance Bonsal, its president, who was connected with the United States Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Baltimore for six years, and who had previously been in the insurance agency and brokerage business in the city of Baltimore for some years.

It is backed by substantial interests and its directorate includes prominent bankers and business men of Baltimore. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $100,700, par value, of its capital stock.

The company has made progress. The loss ratio has been low, but its expenses of operation are high, due mainly to the character of its business.

A greatly increased business was written in 1919. This increase necessitated larger reserves, so that in spite of the $50,000 contributed during the year, the surplus decreased $591.35. In 1920 the company increased its business greatly, and then wrote a very large volume of business compared to its net resources. Its underwriting loss in that year was $71,832.06, and the surplus was reduced $80,119.27. In 1921 the premium volume was greatly reduced, and there was an underwriting profit of $69,415.84.

Its loss paying reputation is excellent.

The securities owned are of good character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The company writes motor car insurance only, and is a member of the National Automobile Underwriters Conference, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Southern Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

Kinds of Insurance Written.—Automobile insurance only, covering fire, loss or damage in transportation, theft, collision and property damage.

Territory.— It is licensed in Ariz., Cal., Colo., Conn., Del., D. C., Fla., Ga., Idaho, Ill., Ind., Iowa, Kan., Ky., Me., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., Mont., Neb., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Ore., Pa., R. I., S. C., Texas, Utah, Vt., Va., Wash., W. Va., and Wis.

Dividends.— In 1912 it paid a dividend of 2% on $100,000 capital and 2% on $300,000 capital; in 1913-1915, inc., 5%; 1916, 5.5%; 1917, 6%; 1918, 6.75%; 1919, 7½% on $300,000 capital, the increase of $200,000 not having been paid in until after the dividend period; 1920, 8% on $300,000 capital the first quarter and on $500,000 the remaining quarters; 1921, 8% on $500,000.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts, March 3, 1910, with an authorized capital of $500,000, and began business June 18, 1910. Its stock, par value $100, was sold at a premium of 100%, providing a surplus of $500,000.

On December 13, 1920, the board of directors of this company submitted to their stockholders an offer from interests allied with the Great American Insurance Company of New York, to purchase the stock. The offer was accepted and the control of the company passed to those interests.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The management is under the same general control as the Great American, and American Alliance Insurance Companies, of New York, which companies are very successful.

The directors owned at the end of 1921, $1,400, par value, of the company's $500,000 capital stock.

Its investments are high grade. The security valuations are based upon the actual market quotations and not the higher average prices allowed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The company's loss paying reputation is excellent.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in November, 1869. In June, 1898, interests identified with the National Fire Insurance Company of Hartford secured control of the company, and have operated it since, the National acting as general agent of the company. A majority of the stock is owned by the Colonial Securities Company of Hartford, Conn., which is practically owned and controlled by the National Fire.

This company, together with the National Fire Insurance

Company, of Hartford, Conn., guarantee policies in the State of Wyoming under the title "Columbia Fire Underwriters."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is under the same management as the National Fire Insurance Company of Hartford, a large and reputable institution. The volume of business written is conservative. Its expense of management is moderate, and its average loss ratio below normal.

It has greatly increased its writing in recent years and has added considerably to reserves for unearned premium liability, but it has steadily added to its net surplus.

The amount of stock owned by the directors on December 31, 1921, at par, was $71,000.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate consists of a three-story brick office building at 144 Carondelet street, New Orleans, acquired in 1901.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business May 4, 1854. Its paid-in capital was $250,000.

On January 3, 1916, control of the company was purchased by the Firemen's Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., which also controls the Girard Fire and Marine Insurance Company of Philadelphia. This company is being continued in business as a separate institution under the direction of the Firemen's Insurance Company.

At the annual meeting of the stockholders of this company, held on May 10, 1917, it was voted to increase the authorized capital to $1,000,000, and to amend the by-laws to permit the company to transact other branches of insurance in addition to fire. During 1920 the paid-in capital stock was increased from $250,000 to $600,000 and $385,000 contributed to surplus.

Besides its own policies it guarantees policies under the title "Mechanics Underwriters."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— It is under very capable management, being the same as the Firemen's Insurance Company, of Newark, N. J., a large, successful company in excellent repute.

Except in 1919, when a gain of $42,981.62 was made, the company's underwriting operations in recent years have not been profitable.

The expenses in the past have been high, but in recent years it has been about normal, until 1921, when it was above normal. The loss ratio in recent years has been below the average.

It writes a conservative volume of business in proportion to its net resources.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are at actual market and not at the higher valuations fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

Its loss paying record is excellent.

The real estate is the company's Home Office at 500 Walnut street, corner of Fifth street, a four-story brick and stone building very well located, carried at $98,000.

The mortgage loans are mainly upon improved Philadelphia property worth about twice the amount loaned.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, automobile sprinkler leakage, hail, and tornado insurance.

DIVIDENDS.— For many years the company has paid dividends of 10% per annum.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company is a continuation of the North British and Mercantile Insurance Company which was incorporated under the laws of New York, August 4, 1897, with $200,000 authorized capital (par value of shares $100 each). It began business October 1, 1897, with its capital fully paid, and $1,000,000 surplus. On November 1, 1915, the name was changed to the "Mercantile Insurance Company of America," and on that date the capital of the Mercantile Insurance Company was increased from $200,000 to $1,000,000 by the capitalization of $300,000 cash surplus, $200,000 of earned surplus and by the payment in cash of $300,000 for 3,000 shares of new stock at par. It is controlled by the North British and Mercantile Insurance Company, Ltd., of London, England.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— This company is under the same management as the parent company, and has made excellent progress. The volume of business written is conservative. Its average expense of management and loss ratios are normal.

It is in excellent repute in the matter of loss settlements.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

Early in 1919 Mr. Cecil F. Shallcross, who formerly was United States attorney and manager of the Eastern department of the Royal Insurance Co., Ltd., of Liverpool, assumed the presidency of this company. He is also U. S. manager of the North British and Mercantile Insurance Company.

General Review.

History.—This company was incorporated under the laws of New York State, and received its license to commence business on April 22, 1919, with a paid-up capital of $200,000, and a surplus of $300,000. The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

This company, at a meeting of the board of directors, held on January 21, 1920, authorized an additional $200,000 capital. This new issue, par value $100 per share, will be sold at $250 per share, thus providing additional resources of $500,000; $200,000 will be carried to capital account and $300,000 to surplus account. The company later decided to postpone the sale of this stock, awaiting improvements in financial conditions.

Management and Reputation.—The underwriting management of the company is in the hands of W. J. Roberts, 63 Beaver street, New York City, who is a capable underwriter and in excellent repute. Mr. Roberts also represents as United States manager The Standard Marine Insurance Company, Ltd., of Liverpool, England. The Union Insurance Society of Canton, Ltd., Hong Kong, China, and Marine Department of The Orient Insurance Company, of Hartford, Conn., all of which are in excellent repute. The company has substantial backing, the directors being men of prominent business connections, who owned as of December 31, 1921, at par value, $60,400 of the $200,000 capital stock.

The active direction of the company's affairs is largely in the hands of the secretary, Samuel L. Martin.

It transacts marine insurance only.

It writes a conservative volume of business at a moderate expense. The low loss ratio has been favorable.

It is in excellent repute as to treatment of loss claimants.

If the company was permitted to take credit for reinsurance in, and claims against, unadmitted companies, which are considered good, the net surplus on December 31, 1921 would be $309,612.09. The surplus shown in the statement above is on the New York basis.

The securities owned are of an excellent character, and the valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

Kinds of Insurance Written.—Marine, inland navigation and transportation insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of New York in February, 1910, with $200,000 authorized capital. It began business March 1, 1910, with its capital all paid in and a surplus of $300,000. In January, 1916, the capital was increased to $400,000. The common stock was offered to the stockholders at par, and the preferred stock was issued at 7% accumulative and offered pro rata to the stockholders at $105 per share.

In 1921 the authorized capital was increased to $700,000, and the paid in capital increased to the same amount by a common stock dividend of $300,000. Of the $700,000 stock $600,000 is common and $100,000 preferred.

The company was organized by E. L. Ballard, formerly vice-president of the Continental Insurance Company of New York, who has been president of the company since it commenced business until 1920, when he became chairman of the board of directors.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is well managed and has made good progress. It made an underwriting profit each year for the first nine years of its corporate existence, but in 1920 it very greatly increased its volume of business written, and the unearned premium liability more than doubled, which operated to make an underwriting loss, and continuing to mark the securities down to market value still further reduced the surplus. In 1921, the expense ratio was under the average and the loss ratio above normal. There was a small underwriting loss, but a large gain from investments, making a substantial gain in surplus after providing for the stock and regular dividends.

The volume of business written is large in proportion to the net resources of the company. The management expenses are low, and its average loss ratio is normal.

The company is controlled by prominent business men and financiers, its control being in a comparitively few hands. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $513,800, par value, of its $700,000 capital stock.

It is in excellent repute in the matter of loss settlements.

The mortgage loans are secured by improved property in New York.

The securities owned are high grade. The security valuations used in this statement are those of actual market values as of December 31, 1921.

General Review.

History.— This company was organized under the laws of Colorado in July, 1907, with $50,000 capital and $100,000 surplus. It succeeded the Merchants Mutual Fire Insurance Company.

In December, 1909, the Mercantile Fire Insurance Company of Denver, which was under the same management, was merged with this company and its capital was increased to $200,000. The par value of the stock is $10 per share.

Policies issued under the title "Mercantile Fire Underwriters" are guaranteed by this company.

Management and Reputation.— The company is under competent management. Its directorate includes prominent local business and financial men and its stock is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921, $63,040, par value, of its $200,000 capital stock.

Its operating expenses have been above the average, but its loss ratio has been low. A good underwriting profit was made in 1918, 1919 and 1920, and the surplus increased $18,093.63. $48,963.08 and $7,029.38, respectively, in those years. In 1921 there was a moderate underwriting loss, but the surplus gained $31,904.71 from the investment account.

The company bears on excellent reputation in regard to loss settlements. The volume of business written is conservative.

Its investments are of good character and yield a good return. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. Substantial dividends have been paid stockholders from investment earnings.

The mortgage loans are mostly on improved property in Denver, Colorado, and are well secured.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Indiana and began business September 6, 1917. Its authorized and subscribed capital is $100,000, all of which has been paid in. The stock, par value $50 per share, was sold at $62.50 per share, thus contributing $20,000 to the company's surplus in addition to the organization expenses, which were limited to 5% of the capital, or $5,000, as specified in the application for stock. The company advises that the stock was voluntarily subscribed, and that no solicitors were employed. It is a stock company, but issues participating policies. The amount of dividends paid is noted below.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company was organized by R. B. Clark, who is secretary-manager of the Indiana Retail Merchants Association Mutual Fire Insurance Company, of Indianapolis (formerly of Anderson, Indiana), with which company he has been connected since it commenced business in 1907. The Merchants Fire and the Indiana Retail Merchants Association Mutual are under the same management, and are in the same office, dividing expenses equally.

In 1919, 1920 and 1921 its loss and expense ratios have been low, and the company made a good underwriting profit during these years. The volume of business transacted is conservative.

The investments are of good character.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company began business in January, 1898. It was incorporated under the laws of the Province of Ontario, with an authorized capital of $500,000, $380,000 of which was subscribed and $96,312.50 paid in on December 31, 1908. It lost heavily in the Toronto conflagration in 1904, and made a call upon the subscribed capital. Its paid-in capital was heavily impaired on December 31, 1908, and to offset this, that item was reduced one-half early in 1909, and the amount written off was credited to the reserve fund. The amount subscribed was also reduced by this transaction, but has since increased to $300,000.

During 1910 its paid-in capital was increased from $48,812.50 to $75,000. During 1918, a stock dividend of $75,000 was declared, increasing the paid-in capital to $150,000.

The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is in good standing and is under reputable management. Its operations are confined to the Province of Ontario. It writes a full volume of business in proportion to its net cash resources.

MERCHANTS MARINE INSURANCE COMPANY, LTD.,

London, England.

GENERAL REVIEW.

This company was established in 1871. The authorized capital is £500,000, of which £125,000 is paid up. In 1919 the Employers Liability Assurance Corporation secured control of this company, and it is operated as a subsidiary by that company. The owning company is a large, aggressive and successful company organized in 1880. It is operating a branch in the United States with large funds to its credit. It also maintains a separate branch in Canada, with headquarters in Montreal, Charles W. Woodland being the general manager and John Jenkins the fire manager.

The Merchants Marine Insurance Company, Limited, of London, is not entered in the United States, but has recently taken out a license to operate in Canada, and will be under the same management as the Employers Liability Assurance Corporation, Ltd. The December 31, 1920, Home Office balance sheet of the Merchants Marine, shows the following items:

Assets, £1,132,453 ($5,662,265); capital paid up, £125,000 ($625,000). In 1921 the Home Office premium income was £457,555 ($2,287,775); losses paid, £106,180 ($530,900). (An arbitary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii)

CANADIAN BRANCH STATEMENT.—Assets $145,596.22; surplus to policyholders $75,959.29; premiums written $149,511.

MERCHANTS UNION INSURANCE COMPANY,

Jackson, Miss.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Mississippi in 1903 with $100,000 capital, and began business March 25, 1903, with this capital fully paid and $10,000 credited to surplus. The par value of the shares is $100.

It operated until November 29, 1916, when it reinsured its outstanding risks in the Northern Assurance Company, Ltd., of London, and retired from business.

We are advised that the last payment to the old stockholders in liquidation of the assets was made on March 12, 1921. In reorganizing the company we are advised that the shares were sold principally to local agents.

The company resumed business in 1921 with $100,000

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company is the result of a merger, consummated early in 1919, of the Metropolitan Fire Insurance Company and the Hibernia Fire Insurance Company, both of Chicago, Illinois.

The Metropolitan Fire Insurance Company began business in 1903 with an authorized, subscribed and paid-in capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $25,000. It subsequently increased its capital to $200,000 and afterwards reduced it and at the time of the merger it had a paid-in capital of $100,000. It was organized by John Naghten & Company, which practically controlled the company and which acted as its general agent.

John Naghten & Company also organized and were general agent for the Hibernia Fire Insurance Company, which began business in 1916 with $100,000 capital and $49,341.75 surplus.

As of December 31, 1918, the Metropolitan Fire Insurance Company had total admitted assets of $222,575.56; capital paid in, $100,000; net surplus, $23,135.61. The Herbernia had, as of December 31, 1918, total admitted assets of $203,702.67; capital paid in, $100,000; net surplus, $33,561.36. The combined resources of the two companies as of December 31, 1918, were total admitted assets, $426,278.23; capital, $200,000; net surplus, $56,696.97.

The par value of the stock of the merged company is $10 per share.

The Hibernia Fire Insurance Company had not made any underwriting profit and the Metropolitan Fire Insurance Company for the ten year period prior to the merger had shown an underwriting loss. Both companies had a moderate expense ratio.

During 1920, $50,000 additional was paid into capital, and $11,341.29 contributed to surplus.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—John Naghten & Co., who are in good repute, act as general agent under a contract which is fair to both. The company is under experienced management and has responsible backing. As of December 31, 1921, the directors owned at par value, $69,570 of the capital stock.

In 1919 and 1920 the merged company had a normal loss ratio and an expense ratio which was moderate, so that an underwriting profit of $10,800.24 was made in 1919, and $5,262.41 in 1920. In 1921 the expenses were moderate but the losses above normal, and there was a moderate underwriting loss.

Its investments, listed at local market quotations are of good character, consisting of U. S. Government, industrial, railway, public service corporation and other classes of securities.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed in Ill., O. and Pa.

DIVIDENDS.—With the exception of 1918, when it paid 4%, and in 1920, 6%, the Hibernia Fire Insurance Company has not paid any dividends: the Metropolitan Fire Insurance Company, prior to the merger, paid 10% annually to the stockholders: in 1919 it paid a dividend of $15,984.80; in 1920 it paid 8%. 1921, 10%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This is a stock company incorporated September 20, 1920, and licensed by the Insurance Department of Michigan, October 21, 1920. It began business January 1, 1921. The authorized capital is $250,000, all of which has been paid in.

The company was organized to write different classes of automobile insurance, and to take over at expiration the automobile business of the Michigan Automobile Inter-Insurance Exchange, but did not reinsure same.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The secretary and treasurer is Henry J. Kennedy, who was secretary-treasurer of the Inter-Insurance Agency Company, which was the attorney-in-fact for the Michigan Automobile Inter-Insurance Exchange of Grand Rapids, Mich.

The stock of the company is closely held. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $172,650 par value of its capital stock of $250,000.

The company has not operated long enough to have established records, but in its first year the expenses were moderate and the losses not excessive.

The securities owned are of an excellent character, and are valued at the rates fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

OFFICERS.—President and general counsel, George E. Nichols; vice-president and general manager, Henry J. Kennedy; secretary-treasurer, William M. Ames.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Michigan, in May, 1880, with $200,000 authorized capital. It began business in March, 1881, with its capital fully paid at par. In 1888 its capital was increased from $200,000 to $400,000, and $50,000 surplus was paid in.

The company reported a net loss of $371,101.62 in the San Francisco conflagration, and the stockholders contributed $200,000 to restore its surplus.

The par value of stock is $50 per share.

Formerly this company, the Detroit Fire and Marine Insurance Company of Detroit, and the Niagara Fire Insurance Company of New York, issued and guaranteed policies entitled "Niagara-Detroit Underwriters." The Niagara Fire only now guarantees these policies.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company has been conservatively managed and is in excellent repute. It is backed by substantial interests. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $85,900, par value, of the company's $400,000 capital stock.

The company's loss paying record is excellent under all conditions. It writes a full volume of business. The conflagration hazard is carefully observed.

Its average expense ratio has been slightly above the normal, but its average loss ratio has been moderate.

Its investments are of high grade. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgage loans are upon improved Detroit property valued at about three times the amount loaned.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated and began business April 1, 1852, as a mutual company. In 1885 it was reincorporated as a stock company with $200,000 capital paid in.

The company reported a net loss of $1,433,771.41 in the San Francisco conflagration in 1906, and by the issuance of $300,000 of new stock at 200%, par value, $10 per share, the capital stock was increased from $200,000 to $500,000, and $300,000 was added to surplus during that year.

On June 7, 1911, the Milwaukee Fire Insurance Company (capital $200,000), which had been under the same management, was merged with this company, and a stock dividend of $300,000 was declared, making the total paid-up capital of the company $1,000,000. During 1917 the paid-in capital was increased to $1,250,000, the new stock being sold at $15 per share, thus adding $125,000 to surplus.

This company issues and guarantees policies entitled "Milwaukee Underwriters" in addition to its own policies.

Management and Reputation.— The company is well managed and has made substantial progress. Its directors are substantial and of high business standing. The company's stock is rather closely held. Its directors owned at the end of 1921 $294,280, par value, of the $1,250,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute as to its general treatment of loss claims. It writes a full volume of business, but it has a good spread of liability.

The expenses of operation and its average loss ratio has been about normal. In 1919 it had a low loss ratio and made $197,030.01 from underwriting operations. In 1920 it had a moderate loss from underwriting, having increased its unearned premiums heavily. In 1921 the expense ratio was above normal, but the company made an underwriting profit and a very substantial gain in surplus.

Its investments are high grade.

The mortgage loans are upon Milwaukee property, worth nearly three times the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business July 1, 1902, as the Winona Fire Insurance Company, with $100,000 capital, and assumed risks of the Grain Dealers' Indemnity, an inter-insurance organization. During 1904 its capital was increased to $160,000 and in 1906 the company declared a stock dividend of $40,000, increasing the capital to $200,000. In March, 1911, its title was changed to the above.

During 1917 the stockholders paid in $51,815.18 to surplus account. The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Policies entitled "Globe Fire Underwriters Agency" (issued in N. D., S. D. and Mont.) are guaranteed by this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— Since late in 1917 the underwriting has been in charge of the secretary, Walter C. Leach, who is an experienced underwriter, having been formerly president of the Northwestern Fire and Marine Insurance Co. until that company was purchased by the Hartford.

The company is owned and controlled mainly by people identified with grain elevator interests in Minneapolis. The stock is closely held. On December 31, 1921, its directors owned $166,425, par value, of the $200,000 capital stock.

The company transacts a large volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus, and wrote a very large volume in 1919 and 1920. In recent years its underwriting has not shown a profit, due in part to the increase of the unearned premium liability, but in 1919 and in 1920 a small underwriting profit was made. Its loss ratio has been high in recent years, although in 1918, 1919 and in 1920 improvement was shown in that item. It was high in 1921 and the company had a moderate underwriting loss. The expense ratio is now about normal. Its loss paying record is excellent.

The company was examined by the Minnesota State Insurance Department as of September 30, 1921. The report was favorable, and the examiner commented that "The officers in active management of the company are experienced in management and underwriting and the affairs of the company appear to be in a very satisfactory condition."

The mortgage loans are secured largely by improved farm property located in Minnesota and North and South Dakota.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Minnesota July 15, 1909, with an authorized capital of $200,000 (par value of stock $10 per share). It was organized by interests identified with the Security Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Chatfield, and up to 1912 was practically under the same management as that company. Changes in the management of this company took place in August, 1912.

It began business in November, 1909, with $100,000 capital and $50,000 surplus. Its paid-in capital was later increased to $103,040.

Owing to heavy losses on hail business in 1918, and also to losses sustained in the Minnesota forest fires in October, 1918, this company's capital at the close of 1918 was impaired $25,796.75. The company, after consulting with the Insurance Department, decided to reinsure, as of December 31, 1918, a large portion of its business in force, and also to make an assessment upon the stockholders to restore the capital and furnish a small working surplus.

In 1919 the company restored the impairment of capital by an assesment upon the stockholders of 32½% of the par value of the stock, or $3.25 per share, and retired $2.200 of its capital, making the present capital stock $100,840.

Management and Reputation.—The company is under experienced management, and though small, has always borne a good reputation.

Its operations to date have not been profitable. In 1918 its losses on hail business were very heavy, and the company also suffered through losses sustained in the Minnesota forest fires.

It formerly wrote a large volume of business in proportion to its net resources, but this has been reduced to a conservative amount.

Its loss ratio has been very high in recent years, although its expense ratio is normal. In 1920 the loss ratio was normal, and it was high in 1921. The expense ratio is above the average but not unreasonable in view of the small volume written. There was an underwriting loss in 1921, of $9,800.76.

The company enjoys an excellent reputation in the matter of its treatment of loss claimants.

In Minnesota and South Dakota the business is written at a discount of 20% from the board rate. In North Dakota it is written at 15% off.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This is a stock company incorporated March 18, 1921, licensed by the Mississippi State Insurance Department, April 27, 1921, and began business May 2, 1921.

The authorized capital is $1,000,000. The company started with $200,000 subscribed and fully paid capital, together with $164,489.85 contributed surplus. The par value of the shares is $10 and the selling price was $15, $20 and $25. The stock was sold under contract with G. B. Reynolds to sell up to $1,000,000 capital and $1,000,000 surplus beginning April 27, 1921, and ending April 27, 1922. We were advised by the company that there was no commission paid on the first $150,000, but that the company contributed $3,000 to the expense of selling that amount of the stock. On the next $200,000 (one-half to capital and one-half to surplus account) sold by Mr. Reynolds he was paid 15% commission. On the next $200,000 the selling price was $25, $10 to go to capital and $15 to the surplus.

account less 20% commission to be paid for selling same. The contract with Mr. Reynolds was terminated about the end of 1921.

On December 31, 1921, $143,830 additional capital had been paid in, making that item $343,830, and $318,737.62 additional surplus had been contributed by the stockholders. Additional organization expenses had been paid during that time, of $98,476.82.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The officers are: President, George A. Wilson, Sr., Greenwood, president of the Wilson Banking Co. of Greenwood, Miss.; first vice-president, Judge J. Morgan Stevens, Jackson, ex-judge State Supreme Court, general counsel of Columbian Woodmen of the World, member of the law firm of Wells, Stevens & Jones; secretary, W. D. Mounger, of Natchez, Miss.; treasurer, Dr. J. P. Taylor, Winona, ex-State Treasurer and planter.

The company advises that the financial statement above shown was prepared by a well-known firm of accountants, who set up a liability for the item "estimated taxes hereafter payable," $25,000, but that no such tax will be levied against their 1921 business. It also advises that if credit could be taken for non-admitted reinsurance the surplus would be increased $44,640.24.

The company has not operated long enough to have established records, but in 1921, from the time of commencing business, the expenses were very moderate, especially for a new company, but the losses were above normal.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— The charter of the company permits it to write marine, casualty bonds and automobile insurance, but we are advised that for the present it will write only fire and tornado insurance.

DIRECTORS.—

Barbour, J. F., member of the law firm of Barbour & Henry, Yazoo City, Miss.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company commenced business in June, 1903. In May, 1914, interests identified with Tudhope & Aletter, Ltd., of Toronto, purchased control of the company and moved its headquarters from London, Ont., to Toronto.

In October, 1918, control of the stock was secured by a Montreal syndicate, headed by J. C. Gagne, general manager and secretary-treasurer of the Provident Assurance Co., of Montreal. Mr. Gagne is now the president and managing-director of this company.

Its authorized capital is $500.000, of which $101,400 was subscribed and paid in at the close of 1921. The par value of the stock is $50 per share. The capital has been impaired since 1913.

Early in 1917 the Metropolitan Fire Insurance Co., of Toronto, which was under the same management, was merged with this company.

Its writes business on the cash and mutual premium note plans.

The company is small, but in good repute. The loss and expense ratios are high.

The management advised us that it entered the Province of Quebec in November, 1920, and that the time of entry proved inopportune, the company suffering heavy losses in that Province. It withdrew from Quebec in July, 1921 and reinsured its business there with the Provident Assurance Company.

The underwriting management for Ontario continues to be in the hands of A. M. Aletter, under the title of Ontario Provincial manager.

General Review.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1858. Its authorized capital is 2,000,000 roubles, all paid in. It entered the United States in January 1, 1900, and writes only reinsurance in this country.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.— No recent Home Office balance sheet is available.

Owing to the chaotic state of affairs in Russia it would be very difficult, if not impossible, to secure additional funds from the Home Office if needed, and on December 1, 1918, the Soviet Government of Russia decreed the dissolution of all private insurance companies and the confiscation of their assets by the State on April 11, 1919. This action, if sustained, would apparently terminate the authority of their United States representative; but the assets in this country can be used only to liquidate obligations incurred here.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company has always borne an excellent reputation at its home and in this country, and its United States management is in high standing. It is one of the foremost fire insurance companies in Russia, and its management in the United States is in experienced hands.

The volume of business transacted in this country is very large in proportion to the surplus of the United States Branch.

The company had an underwriting loss in 1920 accounted for by the increased unearned premium reserve, and in 1921 the loss ratio was high, contributing to an underwriting loss in that year. It operates on a low expense ratio.

The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.— Bankers Trust Company, New York.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.— P. E. Rasor, New York.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— In the United States it writes fire, war risk, explosion, sprinkler leakage, tornado and reinsurance.

TERRITORY.— In the United States, at last advices, it was licensed in Ark., Colo., Del., Ill., Iowa, La., Mass., Mich., Miss., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Pa., Texas and W. Va.

MOUNT ROYAL ASSURANCE COMPANY—Continued.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated by an act of the Quebec Legislature in 1902, and began business in 1903. Its authorized capital is $1,000,000, of which $250,000 has been subscribed and paid in. It operated only in the Province of Quebec up to October 25, 1912, when a Dominion of Canada license was secured.

The par value of the stock is $10 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is under reputable management and has made good progress, the surplus having increased during the past thirteen years from $35,091.64 to the amount shown above.

The manager of the company is P. J. Perrin, who was formerly manager of the Strathcona Fire Insurance Co., resigning that position to take up his present duties.

The company's directors are prominent citizens of Montreal, and the control of the company is held by them.

The volume of business written is conservative. The loss ratio in 1919 and 1920 was normal, and the expense ratio low. In 1921 the loss ratio was above normal and the expense ratio moderate. The rate of dividend in 1919 was 8%. In 1920 it paid $192,177 85 in dividends, $172,177.85 of which was a special dividend from surplus accumulated prior to December 31, 1916, which together with shrinkage in securities accounted for the decrase in surplus in that year.

The company's investments are of good character.

AFFILIATIONS.—Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, and Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, plate glass and automobile insurance.

It also writes some "surplus lines" in the United States on sprinkler risks.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed in all the Provinces.

OFFICERS.—President, Hon. H. B. Rainville; vice-president, Hon. Senator J. M. Wilson; secretary and treasurer, J. Deslongchamps; general manager, P. J. Perrin.

DIRECTORS.—

Belleau, Neuville, vice-president Laurentian Power Co.

Decarie, Hon. J. L., judge, Quebec.

Ekers, H. A., director National Breweries; ex-mayor city of Montreal.

Gouin, Sir Lomer, minister of justice, director City and District Savings Bank, director Bank of Montreal.

Ouimet, E. A., vice-president, Credit-Canada.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Nebraska, and started to organize as the American National Fire Insurance Company, and assumed its present title soon after it was incorporated, April 12, 1919. It was licensed April 12, 1919 and began business October 23, 1919, with an authorized capital of $1,500,000, of which $1,115,000 was subscribed. Stock, par value $50 per share, was sold at $100 and $125 per share to provide the surplus, the terms of subscription being one-half cash, notes taken for the balance due in six months, with interest at 6%, the stock being held as collateral until the notes were paid. As of December 31, 1919, $753,300 capital had been paid in. During 1920 the paid-up capital was increased by collection on notes for subscription to capital stock in the amount of $124,955.60, to $878,255.60. In 1921, $35,329.70 additional capital was paid in, making the amount paid in $913,585.30.

The sale of stock and establishing of an agency plant was conducted under an agreement made by the stockholders and Messrs. J. B. Smith and Leroy E. Hughes at a meeting held on April 11, 1919.

In report of examination made by the State of Nebraska, under date of December 30, 1919, the examiner, in concluding his report to the Chief of the Bureau of Insurance, commented as follows: "That item, 'Organization expense, $142,840' (statement as of August 29, 1919) of disbursement is out of proportion; how much, is left for you to decide."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The president of the company, W. H. Ahmanson, has had over thirty years' office experience in fire insurance companies, being secretary of the State Insurance Company of Nebraska until that company was sold to the National of Hartford, and subsequently was with the National of Hartford and the Columbia Fire Underwriters as assistant manager, resigning to assume his present position.

W. L. Wilcox, vice-president, is head of the Wilcox-Burns Agency, one of the largest insurance agencies in Omaha.

James E. Foster, secretary-treasurer, has been in the fire insurance business for many years, having been auditor of the Northwestern Department of the Ætna Insurance Company of Hartford and chief examiner of the Columbia Fire Underwriters, resigning to assume his present position.

Merrick E. Lease, agency superintendent, has been in the insurance business for a long period, serving as state agent and adjuster for the Norwich Union and the Pennsylvania Fire Insurance companies, and eight years as assistant manager and agency superintendent of the Columbia Fire Underwriters, leaving that organization to join this company.

The directors are representative business men of substantial interests scattered throughout the State of Nebraska, and on December 31, 1921, owned $145,700 of the capital stock of the company.

In the assets is shown a large item of cash in banks, a large part of which we understand is time certificates of deposit.

It is writing a moderate amount of business. Its loss ratio was normal until 1921 when it was high, and the expense has been high with a downward tendency, but still above normal.

No complaints have come to us concerning its treatment of loss claimants.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Nebraska in May, 1916, and began business January 3, 1917, with $250,000 subscribed capital, of which $100,000 was paid in cash, together with $25,000 surplus. The par value of the stock is $50 per share. There were no promotion expenses, which is very commendable.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company's affairs are under the direct management of its secretary, who was formerly manager of the Automobile Insurance Company, of Lincoln, Neb., the agencies and business of that company having been taken over by this company. He was a pioneer in the automobile insurance business in this State and consequently has a very wide experience. The president of the company was formerly president of the Federal Insurance Company, of Lincoln, Nebraska.

The assets appear less in 1920 than in 1919, but the company advises that the net assets have increased. In 1919 the premiums in course of collection were included gross in the assets, with an item in the liabilities to cover commissions due the agents, and in 1920 the net premiums only were included in the assets. In 1921 the company very considerably reduced its writings so that the loss and expense ratios to premiums written were very high. These ratios to premiums earned were high and there was a substantial rate of underwriting loss.

It writes a conservative volume of business, with a low loss ratio.

The company transacts all lines of automobile insurance, principally in small towns and farming communities.

It is licensed in Nebraska only.

OFFICERS.—President, Richard Wilkinson; vice-president, Richard F. Stout; secretary and treasurer, Rees Wilkinson; assistant secretary and treasurer, David E. Wilkinson.

DIRECTORS.—Wilkinson, Richard; Wilkinson, D. E.; Wilkinson, Rees; Campbell, S. E.; Richards, Frank S.; Stout, Richard F.; Gish, J. W.; Herzing, F. N.; Livingston, Clarence.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated March 22, 1919, and licensed by the California Insurance Department June 7, 1919, beginning business on October 1, 1919.

It started with an authorized, subscribed and paid-in capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $20,000. Shares, par value $100, were sold at $120 each to provide the surplus. It was expected that the cost of organization would be nominal, but because of the fact that a change in the title was necessary in order to meet the requirements of the Insurance Department, additional expense was incurred, the entire cost of promotion being $4,026, which may be regarded as a very reasonable organization expense.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is backed by substantial interests.

The stock is held very closely, as of December 31, 1921, the directors owned, at par value, all of the $100,000 capital stock.

It is too young to have established a record. In 1919, 1920 and 1921 the loss ratio was favorable, and the expense ratio has been moderate for a new company. It made small underwriting profits in 1919 and 1920, and in 1921 a moderate underwriting loss considering a considerable increase in unearned premiums.

Its securities owned are of good character, and are carried at market value. The mortgage item represents a mortgage of $90,000 covering property of the McClure estate, due July, 1922.

THE NATIONAL BENEFIT ASSURANCE COMPANY, LTD.,

London, England.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was established in 1890 as the National Benefit Trust, Ltd., as a bond investment and endowment certificate company. Additional departments were added from time to time and the company now transacts all classes of insurance. The title of the company was changed to National Benefit Assurance Company, Ltd., in the early part of 1918.

The authorized capital is £500,000 ($2,500,000); subscribed capital, £317,800 ($1,589,000); paid-up capital, £187,537 ($937,685); total assets at the close of 1920, £1,699,913 ($8,499,565. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—The company writes fire, marine and life insurance, and general casualty lines, including employers' liability and also conducts a bond investment and endowment department. In November, 1918, the Company was licensed to transact fire business throughout the Dominion of Canada and has since obtained powers to transact casualty, automobile and hail business, for which licenses have been issued. The chief agent, and attorney for the Dominion, is Mr. Bartle Mahon Armstrong of the firm of Messrs. Black & Armstrong, Winnipeg.

A "combine" policy for the marine coverage is guaranteed by this company and (from January 1, 1920), the following: The Argonaut Marine Insurance Company, Ltd., (established 1917), the Importers & Exporters Marine Insurance Company, Ltd., (established 1918), and the National Marine & Fire Insurance Company, Ltd., (established 1908), all of England. This company and the three others, none of which is licensed anywhere in this country, are jointly and severally liable under this "combine" policy and the four represent combined assets of over $10,000,000.

In the early part of 1922 this agency for writing "surplus lines" in the United States was discontinued by mutual consent, and the company ceased writing this business. W. L. Webster & Co., Inc., will continue to look after such business placed by them until it runs off.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company has made considerable growth in recent years, and is in good repute at its home. It is a non-tariff office in England.

It is not licensed anywhere in the United States, but since January, 1917, wrote some "surplus line" fire business through W. L. Webster & Company, Inc., 1 Liberty street, New York City. The latter have advised us that they hold power of attorney to direct and superintend the affairs of the company in the United States except on marine business, and to accept service and receive process in any lawful suits and proceedings issued against the company in this country.

In June, 1920, this company made application to the State of New York for admission to that state for the transaction of marine business, having arranged to appoint the Trans-Marine Underwriting Agency, Inc., United States Managers, but later withdrew its application for a license.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania, February 6, 1866, and commenced business April 25, 1866, as the National Insurance Company, with $100,000 authorized capital (par value of stock $50 a share), of which $12,500 was paid in, the balance being paid up later by stock dividends. During 1903 it increased its capital from $100,000 to $200,000, and $50,000 surplus was paid in. During 1906 the capital was increased from $200,000 to $500,000 by the issuance of 6,000 new shares at $66.67, and $100,000 surplus was paid in.

On December 28, 1910, the Ben Franklin Fire Insurance Company of Pittsburgh (capital $200,000) was merged with this company and the present title was adopted. The combined capital of $700,000 was increased to $1,000,000 by a stock dividend of $175,000 and by the issuance of 2,500 new shares of stock at $100 per share, which added also $125,000 to surplus account.

This company issues and guarantees a separate series of policies entitled "Ben Franklin Underwriters." It also guarantees with the Superior Fire, Republic, and Allemania, all of Pittsburgh, a policy entitled "Pittsburgh Underwriters."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is well managed, and its underwriting operations have been fairly profitable. Its loss ratio has been moderate, but the expenses are above the average. The company writes a full volume of business in proportion to its net cash resources.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $182,900, par value, of its $1,000,000 capital stock.

Its loss paying record is excellent.

Its investments are high grade. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The real estate consists of the former Home Office building of the Ben Franklin Fire, a one-fifth interest in a seven-story fire-proof office building, Wood and Water streets, Pittsburgh, occupied by its branch offices, and other smaller properties in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The mortgages are practically all upon improved property in Allegheny county, Pa., mainly dwellings, and are amply secured.

General Review.

History.—This company was incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia on August 5, 1919, and was licensed and commenced business January 10, 1920, with an authorized and paid-in capital of $100,000 and a surplus of $10,000. Stock, par value $10, was sold at $11 per share to provide the surplus. There was no expense of promotion, which is very commendable.

The directors owned on December 31, 1921, $23,000 par value, of the $100,000 capital stock.

Management and Reputation.—George R. Repetti, president, who was active in organizing this company, is said to be a real estate and insurance man of some prominence in Washington.

John C. Yost, first vice-president, is president of the East Washington Savings Bank, D. C.

James A. Donohoe, second vice-president, is president of the Donohoe Motor Company, D. C.

Wm. N. Payne, Jr., secretary, was for three years an employee of the Royal Insurance Company, Ltd., at the District of Columbia office, afterwards promoted in 1917 to manager of branch office of the company in East Washington, D. C., which position he held at the time of assuming his present position.

The other directors are men of prominent business connections in Washington.

Affiliations.—Eastern Union, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference.

Territory.—It is licensed only in the District of Columbia.

Dividend.— A dividend of 3% was paid in 1921.

Stockholders' Annual Meeting.—Second Wednesday in January.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was established in 1820. Its authorized capital is 10,000,000 francs, of which 2,500,000 francs is paid in, and the balance is represented by stockholders' notes.

In 1904 this company began writing "surplus lines" in this country through its present United States managers. During 1910 it was regularly licensed to do business in this country. It also maintains a Canadian Department at Montreal.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. The Home Office balance sheet, which includes all its assets and liabilities, showed the following, as of December 31, 1920: Total assets, $11,164,666; capital paid in, $500,000; surplus, $2,809,290. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii).

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—This company is in excellent standing at its home and in this country. Its United States managers are in excellent repute and are conservative underwriters. Besides this company they represent as United States managers, "L'Abeille," the "Phenix," and the "Union" fire insurance companies, of Paris, France. The same interests control and operate the Rhode Island Insurance Company, of Providence, R. I.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions. Its expense of management is moderate, and its average loss ratio is normal. In 1919 its loss ratio was low and it made a gain from underwriting of $56,047.16. In 1920 its loss and expense ratios were higher and it had an underwriting loss of $90,669.39. In 1921 the loss ratio was high and there was an underwriting loss of $94,640.85.

The company's investments are high grade. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

AFFILIATIONS.—Western Insurance Bureau, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

General Review.

History.—This company was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey in August, 1865, with $100,000 authorized capital, par value of stock $50 per share. It began business November 1, 1865. In 1921 the stockholders contributed $125,000 to the surplus.

On April 1, 1920, all of the outstanding marine and one-half of the fire business of this company was reinsured in the Globe & Rutgers Fire Insurance Company. As of December 31, 1920, the entire outstanding business of the company was reinsured in the Globe & Rutgers Fire Insurance Company. As of December 31, 1921, the entire outstanding business was again reinsured in the Globe & Rutgers Fire Insurance Company. The company will continue writing fire insurance only.

The responsibility of the Globe & Rutgers Fire Insurance Company is beyond question.

Management and Reputation.—The company though small is under aggressive management and bears a good general reputation. Its directors held $51,750, par value, of its capital stock on December 31, 1921.

It has been writing a very large volume of business in proportion to its rather limited net cash resources as has been pointed out in our reports for some time, being far in excess of conservative figures proportionate to its capital and surplus. Its writings have been heavy in recent years, especially in 1917 and 1918. A large portion of the business was marine, but the company no longer writes that class.

The company makes a specialty of writing high rated special hazards, and it also writes "surplus lines." On account of the reinsurance of its business loss and expense ratios are out of proportion.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations shown in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgage loans are upon improved property in Elizabeth, N. J., valued at over twice the amount loaned.

The company's loss paying record is good.

Kind of Insurance Written.—Fire insurance only.

Territory.—It is licensed only in New Jersey, but writes "surplus lines" in other States.

Dividends.—In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1901 to 1905, inc., 6%; 1906 and 1907, 7%; 1908, 8%; 1909, 9%; 1910 to 1912, 10%; 1913, 8%; 1914, 6%; 1915, 10%; 1916, 14%; 1917, 12.5%; 1918, 15%; 1919, 5%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Connecticut, June 4, 1869, with $500,000 authorized capital, par value of shares $100 each. It began business December 1, 1871, with its capital fully paid in.

In 1878 its capital was increased to $600.000 by a stock dividend. In 1881, $400,000 capital was paid in at par, and in 1912 $1,000,000 capital and $1,250,000 surplus were paid in, making the total paid-in capital $2,000,000.

The company maintains a separate department, issuing policies entitled "Colonial Fire Underwriters," writing independent lines in all the States in which the company is operating. It also issues policies under the title "Columbia Fire Underwriters," on business in the States of Colorado, Iowa, Kansas, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Dakota, and Wyoming.

This company indirectly controls the Mechanics and Traders' Insurance Company of New Orleans, and acts as its general agent for a portion of the United States.

In January, 1917, it commenced writing ocean marine insurance, but writes only a small volume of this class.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is very successful and well managed, and substantial dividends have been paid to stockholders. The business has grown rapidly in recent years, and in spite of the corresponding increase of unearned premium liability, the company's underwriting, taken on the whole, shows a large profit.

The company is backed by substantial interests, and its directorate includes prominent business men and financiers. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $112,900. par value, of the company's $2,000,000 capital stock.

The company has set up a special reserve fund of $500,000, to cover all contingent liabilities which is not included in the surplus, but deducted as a liability.

It writes a full volume of business, but it has an exceptionally large income in certain Western States in which its liability is widely distributed, and we understand that its conflagration liability is closely observed. Its average expenses of operation are moderate and its loss ratio has been low.

It made a large underwriting profit in 1919 and added $1,382,336.24 to surplus, and an underwriting profit was made in 1920 with an addition of $260,727.59 to surplus. In 1921 it had a comparatively small underwriting loss, but made a substantial gain in surplus from the investment account.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The largest item of real estate is the company's Home Office at 95 Pearl street, a well-located, modern brick building, and an addition, carried at $445,000. The next largest item is an office building at 119 Pearl street, Hartford, Conn., carried at $90,000. The other items are located in Hartford, and all are carried at the market value.

The mortgages are principally loans upon western city improved and farm property, the largest amounts being in the States of Iowa, Kansas, Nebraska, and Missouri, valued at more than three times the amount loaned.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, New Brunswick Board of Fire Underwriters, Nova Scotia Board of Fire Underwriters.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, ocean marine, war risk, hail, motor vehicle, tourists' baggage, sprinkler leakage, explosion and tornado insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in all the States and Territories except Guam and Philippines. It also operates throughout Canada, Central America and West Indian Republics.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1900 to 1905, inc., 12%; 1906, 7%; 1907, 11%; 1908, 12%; 1909, 13%; 1910 to 1921, inc., 20%.

OFFICERS.— President, H. A. Smith; vice-president, F. D. Layton; secretary, S. T. Maxwell; assistant secretaries, C. B. Roulet, G. F. Cowee and R. M. Anderson; treasurer, F. B. Seymour.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was organized in 1905 with a subscribed capital of kr. 1,000,000, of which kr. 100,000 was paid in. On December 31, 1917, the subscribed capital was kr. 6,000,000 and the paid-in capital kr. 1,500,000.

Since beginning business the company has paid dividends ranging from 6% to 20% per annum, the latter being the rate in 1917.

On July 12, 1917, this company entered the United States and was licensed by the Insurance Department of New York to transact marine and fire insurance. It writes both direct and reinsurance business in the marine branch, but reinsurance only in the fire branch.

In this report the statements of the fire and marine branches have been combined.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses incurred here. The Home Office balance sheet as of December 31, 1920, which included all its assets and liabilities, showed: Total assets, $14,830,864; surplus to policyholders, $999,353; capital paid in, $400,000. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note page vii).

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company bears a good reputation and has made steady progress.

The U. S. manager is Sumner Ballard, who also acts in the same capacity for the Skandinavia Insurance Co., of Copenhagen, Denmark, the New India Assurance Company of Bombay, India, and the Metropolitan National Insurance Company of Havana, Cuba. Mr. Ballard is president of the International Insurance Co., of New York.

The United States manager for the marine branch is Walter D. Despard, who also is president of the Union Hispano Americana Insurance Company, of New York.

The company writes a full volume of business compared to its net United States resources. It has had a low expense ratio and a normal loss ratio, but has shown an underwriting loss in each year except one, principally on account of a rapidly growing unearned premium reserve.

The bonds owned are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

It operates at a low expense ratio, and rapidly built up a large business at its United States Branch. The volume at the end of 1920 was large compared to the net resources of its United States Branch, but in 1921 the volume was greatly reduced. The ratios of losses and expenses to premiums written are out of proportion on account of the great reduction in premium volume, but there was a slight underwriting gain.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.—Sumner Ballard, 80 Maiden Lane, New York, for fire branch; Walter D. Despard, 31 South William street, for marine branch.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEES.—Daniel Schnakenberg, president Hagedorn & Co., insurance, New York; John E. Gardin, vice-president National City Bank of New York, and Henry Schaefer.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—At its home the company writes fire, marine, liability automobile, and accident and health insurance. In the United States it writes marine, both direct and reinsurance, and fire, automobile, explosion and tornado reinsurance.

TERRITORY.—The company is licensed in Ark., Colo., Del., Ill., Iowa., La., Mass., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., Ohio, Pa., Texas, Utah and W. Va.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was formerly the Germania Fire Insurance Company, but on March 1, 1918, the present title was adopted.

It began business March 2, 1859, with $200,000 paid in In 1865 the capital was increased to $500,000, and in 1880 to $1,000,000. The par value of the stock is $50 per share.

It issued policies in accordance with the special reserve fund and guaranty surplus law of New York, and has on deposit with the Insurance Department of New York $500,000 "special reserve fund," and maintains a "guaranty surplus fund" of the same amount. It ceased issuing these policies in October, 1919, and when all policies with this provision expire the fund will be withdrawn.

Policies issued under the title "Washington Underwriters Department" are guaranteed by this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—This company is conservatively and well managed, and its business has been profitable.

It is backed by substantial interests. The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $105,300, par value, of the company's $1,000,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. The volume of business written is moderate. Its expense ratio has been above the average for a company of its size, but its average loss ratio is low. In 1921 the expense ratio was high, and the loss ratio above normal.

Its investments are excellent. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

In 1920 the company sold its Home Office building at a profit of $238,300 over the amount at which it had been carried on their books. The property was sold for $950,000, and the company holds a purchase money mortgage against it in the amount of $650,000.

The marine department of the company is in charge of Carpinter and Baker, 3 South William Street, New York.

The mortgage loans are all upon first class New York property worth nearly twice the amount loaned. The securities owned are high class, and are carried in the statement at market values.

AFFILIATIONS.—Western Insurance Bureau, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters. Association, Eastern Automobile Underwriters Conference, National Automobile Underwriters Conference, New England Automobile Underwriters Conference, Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference, Western Automobile Underwriters Conference.

GENERAL REVIEW

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Illinois and licensed by the same State May 29, 1919, and began business July 1, 1919, with an authorized, subscribed and paid-in capital of $300,000 and a surplus of like amount. Shares, par value $100, were sold at $220, which provided $660,000, the $60,000 additional being the cost of promotion, or $20 per share, which was less than 10% of the funds collected. It was organized by interests identified with the Dubuque Fire & Marine Insurance Company, Dubuque, Iowa, and is operated in connection with that company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—With the exception of vice-president, an inactive office in both companies, the officers are the same as those of the Dubuque Fire & Marine, which company has made good progress and is in excellent repute. As of December 31, 1921, the directors owned, at par value, $93,500 of the $300,000 capital stock.

The company has rapidly developed its business to a full volume. The reserve for unearned premiums increased greatly in 1920, and this with decline in the value of securities resulted in a decrease in surplus. In 1921 it slightly decreased its volume, but there was a considerable

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated September 11, 1914, and began business on June 14, 1915, with $500,000 authorized capital. At the end of 1915 $248,875 capital and $216,450.70 surplus had been paid in. Out of the latter amount $42,617.50 was paid for commissions on stock sales. During 1916, $1,125 was added to capital, making that item $250,000, and $1,125 premium was collected. In addition, $1,257.42 surplus was paid in through stock subscription notes held at the end of 1915. The stock notes remaining unpaid on January 1, 1917, were $39,076.50. During 1917, $21,804.49, and in 1918, $3,475, were paid into surplus on these stock notes.

The par value of its stock is $100 per share and the stock was sold at $200 per share. The amount available for organization expenses was 15%, which was specified in the application for stock.

In the latter part of 1921 interests identified with the Insurance Company of North America, Philadelphia secured a controlling interest in the stock of this company, and it will continue as a separate institution.

As of March 16, 1922, this company reinsured the outstanding risks of the Bankers Fire Insurance Company of Lincoln, Nebraska.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The management of the company is now under the control of the Insurance Company of North America, a large, successful company, which is in excellent repute.

The company's loss paying reputation is excellent.

The bonds owned are of good character and are carried at par. The mortgage loans are upon Nebraska property valued at nearly three times the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Pennsylvania February 14, 1901, and began business March 1, 1901, with $200,000 paid-in capital, which was increased later in the year to $500,000, and $250,000 surplus was paid in. In 1902 additional capital in the amount of $250,000, and surplus of $125,000 were paid in. It reported a net loss of $1,119,892.95 after the San Francisco conflagration, to meet which an assessment of 140%, $1,050,000, was levied upon and paid in by the stockholders. In 1909 $150,000 capital and $75,000 surplus, and in 1911 $100,000 capital and $60,000 surplus were paid in.

At a special meeting of the stockholders held on April 9, 1920, the authorized capital was increased to $2,000,000, the additional $1,000,000 to be sold at a premium of $500,000, to be credited to surplus. The board of directors was authorized by the stockholders to issue the increased capital in accordance with the company's program for future expansion, and during 1920, $300,000 additional capital was paid in, and $150,000 contributed to surplus. In 1921 $200,000 was paid in to capital and $100,000 to surplus.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Besides its own policies it issues and guarantees those issued under the title "Duquesne Department" and "Calumet Department."

During 1915 this company established a branch in London, England, to do a home and foreign fire reinsurance business. The manager of the London branch is A. Percy Mummery.

This company reinsured the outstanding risks of the Union Insurance Company, of Pittsburgh, Pa., as of December 31, 1921.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company was organized and is controlled by men prominent in Pittsburgh business and financial circles. Its directors owned $457,900, par value, of its capital stock on December 31, 1921.

The company bears a good reputation for its treatment of loss claimants.

The volume of business appears rather large in proportion to the company's present capital and surplus, but the liability is secured through a broad agency organization and is widely distributed. The increase of capital and surplus above referred to is intended to meet the requirements of this growing business.

The expense of management has been moderate, and the average loss ratio about normal. In 1921 the loss and expense ratios were somewhat above normal, and the company had a considerable underwriting loss.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgage loans are upon improved property in Pennsylvania and Utah valued at over three times the amount loaned.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated by special act of Congress, and began business in 1865. The paid-in capital is $100,000

The par value of the stock is $5 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is in good repute and is conservatively managed. The volume of business written is very small and is entirely local.

The company's high expense ratio is due to the small premium income referred to. Its loss ratio is low.

The company's loss paying reputation is excellent.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $36,035, par value, of the $100,000 capital stock.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was established in 1845. Its authorized capital is £500,000, of which £100,000 has been paid in, and the balance is subject to call. The name of the Company was formerly the Netherlands Fire and Life Insurance Company, having been changed to the above title in the latter part of 1921. It originally entered the United States in 1897, and transacted an agency business in this country up to 1901, when it reinsured all its outstanding risks and withdrew. It then wrote some "surplus lines" business here through agents in New York City.

Early in 1913 it re-entered the United States, making the necessary deposit with the New York Insurance Department, and depositing also $367,000 with the Harris

Trust and Savings Bank, Chicago, Ill., its United States trustee.

The United States Branch issues and guarantees underwriters' policies entitled "Holland-American Underwriters Agency."

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All assets of the company (other than life insurance funds) are liable for the payment of losses wherever incurred. The Home Office balance sheet, which includes all its assets and liabilities, showed the following as of December 31, 1920: Assets, $4,911,167, capital paid in, $500,000; reserve fund, $597,938. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is in excellent repute at its home, and its United States management is in capable hands. Its manager in this country is Harold W. Letton, Chicago, Ill., who is also vice president and managing underwriter of the Great Lakes Insurance Company, of Chicago, Ill.

Until 1919 its underwriting in recent years was not profitable, due mainly to the increase of business and the corresponding increase of unearned premium liability. Its expense of management and its average loss ratio have been about normal. It had a very moderate loss ratio in 1919 and gained from underwriting, $49,666.52. In 1920 the expense ratio was considerably reduced, and the loss ratio somewhat above normal. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was a substantial underwriting loss.

Its loss paying record is excellent. The volume of business transacted is conservative.

The securities owned are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

General Review.

History.—This company was organized under the laws of Nevada and was incorporated on March 30, 1911. It commenced writing business on March 1, 1914. Its head office was formerly at Carson City, but was moved to Reno in March, 1916.

The authorized capital was formerly $200,000, of which on December 31, 1914, $179,340 had been subscribed and $100,000 paid in. In 1914, $15,698.43 was collected for surplus accounts; in 1915, $6,354.27, and in 1916, $48,290.52. In 1916 the capital was increased to $200,000 by the transfer of $93,285 from surplus account.

In accordance with a recommendation of the California Insurance Department, following an examination of this company by it, the par value of the stock was increased at a special meeting of the stockholders on June 5, 1917, from $5 to $10 per share. This increased its authorized capital from $200,000 to $400,000. During 1917 the paid-in capital was increased to $204,510 and $791.02 was collected for surplus. In 1918 the capital was increased to $218,090, and $6,790 was paid into surplus. In 1919 the capital was increased to $221,210. In 1920 the capital was increased to $250,360, and $14,575 was contributed to surplus.

This company, together with the California Insurance Company, of San Francisco, California, guarantees policies under the title "Pacific Underwriters."

Management.—The underwriting is in the hands of Robert Carlson, secretary and treasurer of the company. He had been in the fire insurance business in San Francisco for many years, during which time he occupied various positions with different companies.

It writes a conservative volume of business and its loss ratio has been low. The expense ratio is also low. In 1920 it had an underwriting profit of $26,038.04. In 1921 it had an underwriting profit of $11,155.52.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $86,830, par value, of the capital stock then outstanding.

It bears an excellent reputation concerning loss settlements.

The mortgages are chiefly farm loans, no loan exceeding 50% of the real value of the property.

Affiliations.—Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific Coast Automobile Underwriters Conference.

Kinds of Insurance Written.—Fire and automobile insurance.

Territory.—The company is licensed in Nevada and California.

Dividends.—In 1918 the company paid a dividend of $10,289. In 1919 it paid $13,160, 1920, $13,312.60 and in 1921, $17,525.20.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This is a very old company, having been incorporated in 1811 with an authorized capital of $250,000. In December, 1911, the charter of the company was amended, broadening its scope of operations, and an increase in its capital from $250,000 to $500,000 was authorized by its stockholders. The new stock was sold in 1912, and $255,937 surplus was paid up. The par value of the stock is $5 per share.

At a meeting of the stockholders of this company held on July 24, 1914, it was voted to authorize the increase of the capital to $1,000,000, and to amend the charter, permitting the company to insure automobiles against loss or damage, and against damage to the property of others resulting from the operation of automobiles.

In April, 1917, the control of this company passed to the Royal Insurance Company, Limited, of Liverpool, England, a very strong and reputable institution, the Newark being continued as a separate company.

Policies issued under the title "Newark Fire Underwriters" are guaranteed by this company.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company bears a high reputation and has aggressive and efficient management.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey, December 27, 1826, with $50,000 authorized capital (par value of shares $25), and began business May 1, 1832. There was a change in control early in 1903, so that its previous history is unimportant.

NEW BRUNSWICK FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY—Continued.

During 1905 its capital was increased from $50,000 to $200,000, and $30,000 surplus was paid in. In March, 1906, the capital was increased to $300,000 and later in the same year was reduced to $200,000, the difference being transferred to surplus. During the same year it was again increased from $200,000 to $300,000 and then reduced to $200,000, thus again transferring $100,000 to surplus.

In January, 1912, it was voted to increase the capital to $500,000 by the issuance of 12,000 shares at $50 per share, and during July, 1913, the paid-in capital was increased to $300,000 and $100,000 additional surplus was paid in. During 1914 the capital was increased to $400,000, and $51,649.99 surplus was paid in. In 1916 the capital was increased to $500,000 and $100,000 surplus was paid in, the stock being sold at double par.

The company retired from the Pacific Coast States, reinsuring its outstanding risks in those states in the latter part of 1920, and as of December 1, 1921, reinsured in the Home Insurance Company, of New York, a part of its outstanding liability in Eastern, Western and Southern states.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company bears a good reputation. Upon the death in 1918 of its president, Mr. Geo. A. Viehman, Mr. Chas. D. Ross, formerly vice-president of the company, was elected president. The underwriting is now in the hands of its vice-president, I. D. Clark, who has been with the company for a number of years.

Its directors are substantial and of high business standing. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $65,950, par value, of the total $500,000 paid-in capital.

Its general loss paying reputation is excellent.

It now writes a moderate volume of business in proportion to its capital and surplus. Its expense of operation was formerly above the average, but in recent years it has been about normal. Its loss ratio has been low, but in 1919 the marine loss ratio was high. In 1920 the fire loss was somewhat higher, the marine loss very high, and the expense ratio increased. In 1921 the premium volume was greatly reduced causing the loss and expense ratios to amount written to appear very high. On the earned basis the loss ratio was high but the expense ratio low, resulting in about an even break on underwriting results.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The bulk of the mortgage loans are secured by improved property in and around New Brunswick, N. J.

The real estate owned is the company's home office property.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of Massachusetts on November 14, 1919, and was licensed under the laws of that State January 7, 1920. It started business with an authorized, subscribed and paid-in capital of $200,000 and a surplus of $300,000. Shares, par value $100, were sold at $250 per share, thus providing the surplus. The expense of organization was $2,383.99, less than one-half of one per cent., which is very commendable.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is backed by substantial interests, the directors being men of business prominence in New England, and the underwriting is under the control of Franklin W. Fort, of Newark, N. J., who acts as United States manager of the fire department of the Baltica Insurance Company, Ltd., of Copenhagen, Denmark, and secretary of the Eagle Fire Insurance Company, of Newark, N. J.

The stock of the company is rather closely held, on December 31, 1921, the directors owned $88,200 par value of its capital stock of $200,000.

The company has not operated long enough to have established a reputation, but in its first year its losses were moderate and its expense ratio low for a new company, and in its second year the losses were high and the expenses moderate.

The securities owned are of a good grade, and are valued at market. The mortgage item is one mortgage covering improved property in Pittsfield, Mass., valued at over three times the amount loaned.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire insurance only.

TERRITORY.—Colo., Del., Ill., Ia., La., Mass., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N Y., N. C., Ohio, Pa., Texas and W. Va.

DIVIDEND.—It paid a dividend of 15% in 1921.

OFFICERS.—President, H. Calvin Ford; vice-president, Winthrop M. Crane, Jr.; secretary, Carl B. Gale; manager, Franklin W. Fort; office manager, James Y. Milne.

NEW HAMPSHIRE FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY — Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New Hampshire with $100,000 authorized capital, and began business in April, 1870. Its capital has been increased as follows: In 1872 from $100,000 to $221,450; in 1873 to $250,000; in 1882 to $500,000; in 1888 to $600,000; in 1891 to $700,000; in 1893 to $800,000; in 1896 to $900,000; in 1897 to $1,000,000; in 1907 to $1,100,000; in 1910 to $1,200,000, and in 1912 to $1,350,000. On January 5, 1917, the paid-up capital was increased to $1,500,000, the required $150,000 being paid in by the stockholders at par. October 1, 1920, $250,000 additional capital was paid in at par, and in 1921 $250,000 was paid in, making the paid-in capital $2,000,000.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Early in 1914 interests identified with this company purchased control of the County Fire Insurance Company of Philadelphia, an old and reputable institution, which has continued in operation as a separate company but under the direction of the New Hampshire Fire Insurance Company. Early in 1921 these same interests secured control of the Granite State Fire Insurance Company, of Portsmouth, New Hampshire.

Management and Reputation.— The company is under excellent management, and its underwriting policy has been conservative and successful. It has made steady progress and ranks as one of the leading companies of the country. It transacts a large and profitable business, and bears an excellent reputation. It is backed by substantial interests, and its directorate includes prominent business men and bankers.

The control of the company is not closely held. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $409,400, par value, of the company's $2,000,000 capital stock.

The conflagration hazard is carefully observed. The volume of business written is conservative and in proportion to the company's net resources.

Its expenses of operation are moderate, and its loss ratio is normal.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions.

Its investments are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

There are six items of real estate, one being located in a western city and six in Manchester, N. H. The largest item is a new fireproof Home Office building at 156 Hanover street, valued at $150,000.

NEW JERSEY INSURANCE COMPANY — Continued.

General Review.

History.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New Jersey on December 21, 1910, and began business in April, 1911. Its authorized capital at first was $200,000, with privilege to increase it to $750,000. In January, 1912, its charter was amended, providing for the increase of its capital from time to time until it reached $1,000,000. It began business with a paid-in capital of $200,000 and a paid-in surplus of $148,363.27.

On December 31, 1912, its paid-in capital was $400.000, and during 1912 $500,000 additional capital and $381,627.50 surplus were paid in. In December, 1913, the final $100,000 of the $1,000,000 authorized capital was paid in, together with $76,500 surplus. The total surplus paid in by stockholders was $754,000 net, after deducting organization expenses.

Previous to June, 1917, the title of the company was New Jersey Fire Insurance Co.

The par value of the stock is $25 per share.

The outstanding liability of this company, with the exception of that in the State of New Jersey, was reinsured in the Providence-Washington Insurance Company, of Providence, as of noon, May 26, 1915, but the company has continued in the same territory.

The outstanding liability of this company, other than marine insurance, was reinsured in the Home Insurance Company, of New York, as of noon November 15, 1920.

At the regular annual meeting of the stockholders of the company on December 11, 1918, a new board of directors was elected and control of the company passed into the hands of C. P. Stewart, president of the American Merchant Marine Insurance Company, of New York, and his associates. During 1920 the control of the company changed to the present management, and November 15, 1920, the outstanding fire, automobile, windstorm, and allied classes, were reinsured in the Home Insurance Company, of New York, and the company is continued under the new management.

Management and Reputation.— The underwriting management is in charge of C. V. Meserole, who also acts as an officer and underwriter for the Pacific Fire Insurance Company, and the Bankers and Shippers Insurance Company, of New York. The marine business is under the supervision of O'Keefe & Lynch, New York City.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $90,000 par value, of the capital stock then outstanding.

The underwriting to date has not been profitable. The company's expenses of operation were high prior to 1916, but its average loss ratio has been normal. In 1919 and 1920 it had a high loss ratio on marine business. In 1920 owing to the reinsurance of its business, above referred to, the reinsurance and return premiums exceeded the written premiums, so that loss and expense ratios cannot be applied thereto. In 1921 the loss and expense ratios were above normal, and there was a heavy underwriting loss.

The company bears an excellent reputation for loss settlements.

Its investments are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are at actual market.

The largest item of real estate owned is an eight-story fireproof building, used as the Home Office of the company, situated at 38-40 Clinton street, Newark, N. J., carried at $325,000.

The mortgage loans are upon improved property in the State of New Jersey, and are well secured.

The authorized capital is $200,000, all of which is subscribed and fully paid in, together with $200,000 surplus. The par value of the shares is $10.

This is a reorganization of the Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Albany. All assets and liabilities of that company are taken over by the New York State Fire Insurance Company.

The Mutual Fire Insurance Company of Albany began business in 1836 and confined its operations to the State of New York. The company owned the building which it occupied as a Home Office and which was carried in its statement at $50,000. On December 31, 1920, it had admitted assets of $415,518.43, and net cash surplus of $265,571.90.

The officers of that company were: President, A. K. Smith; vice-president, Noel S. Bennett; secretary, Russell M. Johnston; treasurer, E. C. Leonard.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The underwriting for this company is done by Crum & Foster, 110 William street, New York, who are in excellent repute, and who also operate the North River Insurance Company, of New York, the United States Fire Insurance Company, of New York, the Richmond Insurance Company, of West New Brighton, New York, and who control the International Insurance Company, of New York.

The investments are high grade. The securities valuations are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The stock is closely held. The directors at the end of 1921, owned $190,340 of the $200,000 issue of capital stock.

OFFICERS.— The officers of the New York State Fire Insurance Company are: President, A. K. Smith; vice-president, Noel S. Bennett; secretary, J. Allen Warner.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business in 1859. Its authorized capital is £1,500,000, all of which has been subscribed and £750,000 paid in. It operates practically all over the world.

It has been operating in the United States on the Pacific Coast since 1875. In January, 1919, it opened an Eastern Department in New York City to transact a fire and marine business.

Policies entitled "New Zealand Underwriters" are issued and guaranteed by this company on the Pacific Coast.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All assets of the company are liable for the payment of losses, whenever incurred. The Home Office balance sheet, which includes all its assets and liabilities showed the following, as of May 31, 1921: Total assets, £2,469,467 ($12,347,335); subscribed capital, £1,500,000 ($7,500,000); paid-in capital, £750,000 ($3,750,000); profit and loss balance, £155,369 ($776,845). (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is in excellent repute. Its United States management is in high standing, and the company's business in the United States has been very profitable.

The company's loss paying record, under all conditions, is excellent. The expense of management of the United States Branch has been moderate although the ratio was high in 1918. Its average loss ratio is very low.

In January, 1919, the company opened an Eastern Department in New York City, with Mr. H. E. Kempthorne, 110 William street, as manager, Mr. Kempthorne has been

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York in July, 1850, with $200,000 authorized capital (par value of shares $50). It began business in August of the same year.

In February, 1864, its capital was increased to $500,000, and in November of the same year to $1,000,000. In December, 1872, the capital was reduced to $500,000. During 1906 its capital was reduced from $500,000 to $250,000, subsequently being increased to $750,000, at which time $250,000 additional surplus was paid in. In 1910 the capital was increased to $1,000,000.

A special meeting of the stockholders of this company was held on May 3, 1920, and approved the proposal of the board of directors to increase the paid-in capital to $2,000,000. During 1920, this additional capital was paid in, and $2,325 contributed to surplus.

This company issues policies in accordance with the special reserve fund and guaranty surplus law of New York. It has on deposit with the Insurance Department of New York $526,000 "special reserve fund," and maintains a "guaranty surplus fund" of like amount. The company served notice about two years ago of its intention to withdraw from the operation of this safety fund and guaranty surplus law, and when the policies issued under this provision expire that fund will be withdrawn.

Policies under the title "Niagara Detroit Underwriters" were formerly guaranteed by this company, the Detroit Fire and Marine Insurance Company and the Michigan Fire and Marine Insurance Company, of Detroit, Mich. These policies are now guaranteed by the Niagara Fire Insurance Company only, and are issued in all States except Delaware, Mississippi, District of Columbia, Nebraska, North and South Carolina.

The Detroit Fire and Marine and the Michigan Fire and Marine Insurance Companies, both of Detroit, Mich., are associated with this company to the extent of receiving each 20 per cent. of the premiums written, and assuming 20 per cent. of its liability.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is well managed, is in excellent repute, and ranks among the leading companies of the country. It is backed by substantial interests.

The directors owned at the end of 1920, $518,400 par value, of the company's $2,000,000 capital stock.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions.

The company writes a full volume of business. Its premium income increased greatly in 1918, 1919 and 1920. Its expenses of operation have been moderate and its average ratio favorable. In 1921 its premium income was reduced, the loss and expense ratios increased, showing a slight underwriting loss.

Its investments are of excellent character. The mortgages are upon improved New York City property, and are well secured.

AFFILIATIONS.— Eastern Union, Western Union, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association, Canadian Fire Underwriters Association, Western Canada Fire Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, marine, leasehold, farm, war risk, explosion, lightning, tornado, hail, sprinkler leakage, use and occupancy, earthquake, tourists' baggage and automobile insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in all States and Territories except Del., Guam and the Virgin Islands. It also operates in Canada and in all Provinces except New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, Prince Edward Islands and Newfoundland. It also operates in Central America, South America, Dominion Republic, Panama and Porto Rico.

DIVIDENDS.— In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1906, 16%; 1907 to 1909, inc., 20%; 1910, 30%; 1911, 20%; 1912 to 1920, inc., 25%; 1921, 20%.

OFFICERS.— President, O. E. Lane; vice-presidents, Bernard M. Culver and William L. Steele; secretary, Charles A. Lung; treasurer, Walter W. Richey; assistant secretaries, H. J. Zechlin, Myles Walsh, James G. Maconachy, Jos. H. Macfarlane and Henry J. Houge.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—The Nippon Fire Insurance Company was established in 1892. It has a subscribed capital of Yen 5,000,000, with Yen 2,500,000 paid up in cash.

This company has entered the United States, and was licensed by the New York Insurance Department August 6, 1919, to transact a fire reinsurance business.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—The home office balance sheet as of December 31, 1920, shows the following items: Admitted assets, $8,260,820.26; paid in capital, $1,250,000; surplus, $577,842.52. (Arbitrating rate of exchange has been used; see note page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—Fester, Fothergill & Hartung, 110 William street, New York City, are its United States managers, who also act in the same capacity for the Northern Insurance Company of Moscow, Russia, the Union and Phenix Espanol Insurance Co., Madrid, Spain, and the Warsaw Fire Insurance Company of Warsaw, Russia; Alpha General Ins. Co., Ltd. of Calcutta, India, and the European General Reinsurance Co., Ltd., London, England.

In 1920 the loss and expense ratios were favorable, but the rapidly increasing business necessitated a considerably increased unearned premium reserve and the company showed an underwriting loss of $163,578.42. In 1921 the expenses were moderate, but the loss ratio was high and there was an underwriting loss of $205,916.50.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.—The Banker's Trust Company as trustees.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, auto, inland, tornado, sprinkler leakage, riot, tourist baggage, earthquake and flood.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed in Ark., Colo., Ill., Iowa., La., Me., Mass., Mich., Mont., Nev., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C. O., Pa., Tex. and W. Va.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was established in 1894 and bears a good reputation. The capital is Kr. 10,000,000 with 25% paid in. The general manager is P. Chr. Olsen.

This company has entered the United States by making the statutory capital deposit with the New York State Insurance Deparment, and was licensed by that department October 8, 1919, to transact a fire reinsurance business.

The Home Office balance sheet as of June 30, 1919, showed the following: Total assets, $7,589,938; capital paid in, $675,000, capital reserve fund, $400,190. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— Paul E. Rasor has been appointed United States manager. He is in high standing and is also United States manager for the First Russian Insurance Company, the Moscow Fire Insurance Company and the Russian Reinsurance Company, all of which are in good standing.

The company had a rather heavy underwriting loss in 1920 accounted for principally by the large addition to unearned premium reserve. In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was a moderate underwriting loss. The expense ratio is low.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.— Paul E. Rasor.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.— Bankers Trust Company, New York, N. Y.

KIND OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— It writes fire reinsurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company, which started to organize in 1918 under the title of Farmer's Crop Insurance Company, by amended articles of incorporation as of March 5, 1919, changed its name to North American Fire Insurance Company and made the capital stock $500.000, divided into shares of $100 each.

The authorized capital was increased to $750,000 on August 23, 1919. An examination under date of September 20, 1919, was made by the Insurance Department of Iowa, and the company was granted a license to commence business with $500,000 capital paid up and a surplus of $243,233.11. The expense of promotion was slightly more than 25%, which is high.

The paid in capital was increased in 1921 by $9600, making the paid in capital $562,350.

*On June 6, 1922 the stockholders voted to reduce the capital to $281,500. This will operate to transfer $280,500 from the capital account to surplus.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The officers first elected were: O. G. Chesley, president of Des Moines, Ia.; M. H. Cohen, vice-president; A. E. Reed, secretary; R. L. Chase, Jr., treasurer.

After an investigation by the Insurance Department of the State of Iowa the following officers were elected early in April, 1920: President, O. P. Ode; vice-president, M. H. Cohen; secretary, John Peterson; assistant secretary, A. E. Reed; treasurer, P. L. Chase, Jr.

Later in 1920, H. J. Green was elected vice-president in place of M. H. Cohen; V. F. Becker treasurer, in place of P. L. Chase, Jr., and W. G. Hodge was elected assistant secretary.

The secretary, John Peterson, has had an insurance experience of more than twenty years in office and field work. On December 31, 1921, the Directors owned $37,400 par value of the capital stock then outstanding.

The company has not operated long enough to have established a record, but in 1920 the expense ratio was low, especially for a new company. The losses were about normal in 1921, but the expense ratio high, and there was a high rate of underwriting loss.

The item of $124,300 in disbursement is a net decrease in ledger assets by adjustment of stock subscription accounts.

The securities are high class, and are carried at the valuations fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners. The mortgages cover properties located in Iowa, except a few loans made upon properties in South Dakota.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire, tornado and hail insurance.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company began business January 1, 1869. Of its first $200,000 capital stock, only $48,664 was actually paid in in cash, the remaining $151,336 being paid through stock dividends.

At the close of 1914 the paid-up capital was $126.400, but in 1915 a stock dividend of $73,600 was declared, making the paid-in capital stock $200,000.

During 1919 the capital was increased to $400,000.

In May, 1888, interests identified with the German American Insurance Company of New York (now the Great American), acquired controlling interest in the stock of this company.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— Though small, the company is very well managed and has made steady progress. It writes a conservative volume of business, and its underwriting has been very profitable.

It is operated under practically the same control as the Great American Insurance Company of New York, a large and reputable company. At the close of 1920 the directors owned $43 200. par value, of the $400.000 capital stock.

Its expense ratio has been moderate, and its average loss ratio low.

The securities owned are of excellent character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The company's loss paying record is excellent.

AFFILIATION.— Southeastern Underwriters Association.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed for direct business in Ill., N. J., N. Y., Ohio, Cal., Ore., Wash., Va. and Wis. It is also licensed in Mass. and Pa., to accept reinsurance from the Great American Insurance Company.

KIND OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire insurance.

DIVIDENDS.— In 1913 and 1914 it paid dividends of 6%; 1915, 6% and a stock dividend of $73,600; 1916 to 1919, inc., 6%; 1920 and 1921, 7%; total dividends paid since organization, cash, $172,206.29; stock, $151,336.

OFFICERS.— President, Alexander Webb; vice-president, John F. Bruton; secretary, George P. Folk; assistant secretary, Jno. M. Harney.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was established in 1862. Its authorized capital is £150,000, all of which has been subscribed, and £40,000 paid in. The company was established in China, but its registered office is in London, England.

It regularly entered the United States in November, 1912, to write marine insurance. For some years previous to that time it wrote marine business in California and Washington.

On March 21, 1919, it was licensed by the New York Insurance Department to transact a fire insurance business. The United States trustee is the Metropolitan Trust Company, of New York.

The Home Office statement as of December 31, 1919, the latest available, showed the following: Total assets, $4,450,998.25; capital paid in, $200,000; net cash surplus, $3,314,070.88. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii.)

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is in excellent standing and is backed by reputable interests. Its United States manager is also manager here for the Thames and Mersey Marine and the Union Marine Insurance companies of Liverpool; also of the marine department of the Liverpool and London and Globe Insurance Co., Liverpool, the Phoenix Assurance Co., Ltd., London, England, the Norwich Union Fire Insurance Society, Ltd., Norwich,

NORTH EMPIRE FIRE INSURANCE COMPANY,

Winnipeg, Manitoba, Can.

GENERAL REVIEW

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of the Dominion of Canada and began business August 12,1909. Its authorized capital is $2,000,000, of which $687,900 has been subscribed and $206,370 paid in. The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

The company was organized by A. J. Adamson, banker, Winnipeg; Donald H. McDonald, former president of the company, and Michael Long, the former manager of the company.

On May 1, 1912, the company secured control of the Canada-West Fire Insurance Company, and reinsured the business of that company in the Provinces of Saskatchewan and British Columbia. Policies of the Canada-West in force in the Provinces of Manitoba and Alberta are guaranteed by this company. The Canada-West Fire was fully absorbed by this company later on.

On March 9, 1920, we were advised that the London Guarantee & Accident Company, Ltd., London, Eng., now controls this company but that the Head Office will remain in Winnipeg and it will be operated as a separate institution.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company is under experienced management, and has responsible backing.

The loss ratio in recent years has been above normal, but the expense ratio moderate.

TERRITORY.—It is operating in the Provinces of Alberta, British Columbia, Manitoba, Ontario and Saskatchewan.

OFFICERS.—President, J. A. Thompson; vice-president, J. D. McArthur.

DIRECTORS.—

Adamson, C. A., general manager The Western Trust Co, Winnipeg.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was established in 1872. Its authorized capital is 1,200,000 roubles ($600,000), all paid in. The company also has a reserve capital of $600,000. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note page vii). It entered the United States in 1911 to transact a fire reinsurance business.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—Owing to the present chaotic state of affairs in Russia, it would be very difficult, if not impossible, to secure additional funds from the Home Office if needed, and on December 1, 1918, the Soviet Government of Russia decreed the dissolution of all private insurance companies, and the confiscation of their assets by the State on April 11, 1919. This action, if sustained, would apparently terminate the authority of their United States representatives; but the assets in this country can be used only to liquidate obligations incurred here.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The company has always been in excellent repute in Russia. Its United States managers, Fester, Fothergil & Hartung, represent also, as United States managers, the Union and Phenix Espanol Insurance Company, Madrid, Spain, the Warsaw Fire Insurance Company, of Russia, the Nippon Fire Insurance of Japan, Alpha General Insurance Company, of Calcutta, India, and the European General Insurance company of London, England, all of which are transacting reinsurance business in the United States.

The United States Branch of this company formerly transacted a full volume of business in proportion to the net cash resources of that branch, but its writings were considerably reduced in 1918, 1919 and 1920. It will be noted that the Company had a deficit in premium income, at its United States Branch, in 1921, the return premiums having exceeded the written premiums.. The ratios on the written basis are not significant because of the decreased volume of business. The normal expense ratio is low.

The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was formed in November, 1900, by the consolidation of the Northern Insurance Company and Eastern Insurance Company, both of New York. The former began business October 25, 1897, with $200,000 paid-in capital and $100,000 surplus. The Eastern Insurance Company of New York began business under the same management April 22, 1896, with $200,000 capital and $100,000 surplus. On November 30, 1900, the two companies, whose combined capital was $400,000, were merged and the capital of the enlarged company was reduced to $250,000. In June, 1904, $100,000 additional capital was paid in at par, making that item $350,000. In June, 1917, the stockholders paid in $150,000, increasing the capital to $500,000.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The entire business of this company is transacted under a general managers' contract with the firm of Willard S. Brown & Co., New York City. The present contract expires in 1925. Willard S. Brown & Co. are experienced underwriters and are in excellent repute. James Marshall, a member of that firm, is secretary of this company.

Its underwriting, considering the growth of the business and corresponding increase of unearned premium liability, has been satisfactory. The company writes a volume of business in proportion to its net resources. Its business is well distributed, and the conflagration hazard is carefully observed. Its expense of operation has been above the average, but its average loss ratio is normal.

Its directors are substantial and of high business standing. The company's stock is fairly well distributed. The directors owned at the end of 1921 $131,600 par value, of the $500,000 capital stock then outstanding.

Its loss paying record is excellent under all conditions.

Its investments are high grade. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention of Insurance Commissioners.

The mortgage loans are guaranteed as to principal and interest by a very strong institution and are secured by improved real estate in New York City.

AFFILIATIONS.—Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—Fire and tornado insurance.

TERRITORY.—It is licensed in Ala., Ariz., Cal., Colo., Conn., Fla., Ga., Idaho, Ill., Ind., La., Md., Mass., Mich., Minn., Mo., Mont., N. J., N. M., Va., N. Y., Ore., Pa., R. I., Utah, Va., Wash., Wis. and Wyo.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of New York, February 6, 1822, with $350,000 authorized capital. It began business March 6, 1822, with its capital fully paid in.

In August, 1913, its stockholders voted to increase its capital from $350,000 to $500,000. The new stock (par value $25 per share) was sold at $37.50 per share, producing $75,000 additional surplus. In October, 1916, the capital was increased to $600,000. The stock was sold at $37.50 per share, thus adding $50,000 to surplus. In August, 1919, the capital was increased to $1,000,000 by the issuance of 16,000 shares (par value $25), which were sold at $31.25, thus adding $100,000 to surplus. On June 7, 1920, the stockholders approved the recommendation of its board of directors that the capital stock be increased to $2,000,000 by a stock dividend of $500,000, and the sale of $500,000 additional stock at $31..25 per share (par $25). This adjustment was made, and the $500,000 additional stock and $125,000 surplus was paid in.

It issues policies in accordance with the special reserve fund and guaranty surplus law of New York, and has on deposit with the Insurance Department of New York $500,000 "special reserve fund"; it also maintains a $500,000 "guaranty surplus fund."

Early in 1921 this company occupied a new fire-proof office building, owned by interests identified with the management.

The underwriting for the entire United States is done by the general agency of Crum & Forster, 110 William street, New York, who also operate in the same way the United States Fire, the Richmond Fire insurance companies, of New York, the Union Fire Insurance Company, of Buffalo, N. Y., and the New York State Fire Insurance Company, of Albany, N. Y.

It underwrites, with the United States Fire Insurance Company of New York, policies entitled "United States Underwriters Policy."

In 1918 Crum & Forster purchased the International Insurance Company, of New York, reported upon elsewhere in this volume.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is aggressively managed and in general bears an excellent reputation. It writes a full volume in proportion to the capital and surplus, but the business is well distributed.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $205,900, par value, of the $2,000,000 capital stock.

Prior to 1918 the underwriting operations had not shown a net profit in recent years, due largely to the increase in the volume of premiums written, and the corresponding increase in the unearned premium liability. In 1918, however, even though the reserve increased over $400,000, the company made a gain on its underwriting of $133,831.17, and in 1919 it gained in underwriting $325.096.81. In 1921 it had an underwriting loss of $405,009.54.

The loss ratio has been normal, but the average expense ratio is slightly above the average.

Its treatment of loss claimants is excellent.

Its investments are high grade. The mortgage loans are principally secured by improved New York and Brooklyn property, valued at over twice the amount loaned, two mortgages cover property in Salt Lake City, Utah.

AFFILIATIONS.— Western Insurance Bureau, Southeastern Underwriters Association, Board of Fire Underwriters of the Pacific; Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, marine, automobile, sprinkler leakage, explosion, hail, earthquake, and tornado insurance.

TERRITORY.— It is licensed in all the States and Territories except Alaska, Del., Guam, Me., Miss., N. H., N. M., Philippine Islands, Porto Rico, Vt., Virgin Islands and Wyo.

DIVIDENDS.— The company has never failed to pay a dividend since 1822. In recent years it has paid dividends as follows: 1909 to 1904, inc., 8%; 1905 to 1918, inc., 10%; 1919, 10%; 1920, stock dividend of $500,000 and cash 10% on $2,000,000 capital; 1921, 10%.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company was incorporated under the laws of North Dakota in May, 1899, with $100,000 authorized capital. It began business with $26,000 paid-in capital, which was increased to $100,000 in May, 1900; to $122,250 during 1902, and to $200,000 in 1904. It was reincorporated under the laws of Minnesota on March 7, 1906, and its capital stock was increased from $200,000 to $300,000, and $75,500 additional surplus was paid in by the issuance of $100,000 new stock at 175%. It was originally located at Grand Forks, N. D. Its headquarters were moved to Minneapolis April 30, 1904.

The company's operations up to 1909 were very unprofitable. Early in 1909 it was reorganized, and a considerable portion of its business was reinsured at a good profit. The change proved beneficial and the company has since made progress.

In February, 1909, the capital of the company was reduced from $300,000 to $200,000, carrying $100,000 to the surplus account, and in November, 1910, this amount was restored to the capital by a stock dividend. On December 1, 1915, the capital was increased to $400,000, the $100,000 additional stock being sold on the basis of $155 per share, thus adding $55,000 to surplus.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Early in 1915 the company entered into a reinsurance contract with the Hartford Fire Insurance Company, Hartford, Connecticut, whereby its entire outstanding business was reinsured. The company continued to write new business which was automatically reinsured in the Hartford Fire. In October, 1915, the reinsurance contract with the Hartford was amended and extended for a term of years, and a reinsurance treaty contract was entered into with Hartford Fire, by the terms of which the Northwestern Fire and Marine Insurance Company reinsures with that company all of its original business and in turn participates in a portion of the Hartford's business. It writes a large volume of gross premiums, but retains only a moderate part, which is in proportion to its loss paying capacity. In 1919 it wrote but $311,356.49 in net premiums, a large reduction from the net premium income of the preceding year. In 1920 it increased its net writings to $602,557.24, again reducing same to $209,521.85 in 1921.

During 1915 this company distributed $570,000 among its stockholders. It has paid 10% dividends in each of the past few years.

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is well managed, and in recent years has made progress. Its expenses of operation have been low and the loss ratio normal. It made a good underwriting profit in 1919, an underwriting loss in 1920, and substantial gain in 1921.

The company under the present management is in excellent repute in the matter of loss settlements.

The company's investments are of good character. The security valuations in this statement are those fixed by the Convention Commissioners. The mortgage loans cover improved farm property in Minnesota, Montana, and North and South Dakota, and are apparently very well secured.

On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $79,200, par value, of the company's capital stock.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.— This company was incorporated under the laws of Wisconsin on February 20, 1869, and began business July 1, 1869, with $150,000 capital paid in. The capital has been increased as follows: 1871, $187,500; 1872, $235,500; 1873, $300,000; 1874, $600,000, and in 1906 to $1,000,000.

The par value of the stock is $100 per share.

Besides its own policies this company issues and guarantees policies styled "Northwestern Underwriters' Agency."

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.— The company is very well managed and has strong backing. Its premium income has steadily grown, until 1921, when there was a considerably reduced volume.

The directors are responsible and in high business standing. On December 31, 1921, the directors owned $225,400, par value, of the company's $1,000,000 capital stock.

The company is in excellent repute concerning its general treatment of loss claims. It writes a full volume of business. The company has set aside and carries as a liability a special conflagration reserve of $1,000,000 as a reserve for conflagration and extraordinary losses.

The company's expense ratio is high, but its average loss ratio is under normal.

Its investments are of excellent character.

The mortgage loans are mostly all upon Milwaukee property, all improved, valued at over three times the amount loaned.

The principal item of real estate is an office building, corner of Jackson and Wisconsin streets, used for the company's offices, valued at $178,000.

AFFILIATIONS.— Western Insurance Bureau, Rocky Mountain Underwriters Association.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.— Fire, windstorm and automobile insurance and allied branches.

GENERAL REVIEW.

HISTORY.—This company began business in January, 1915, and entered the United States during 1918, receiving its license from the New York Insurance Department on November, 9, 1918. In this country it transacts a direct marine business and a fire reinsurance business.

On December 31, 1921, its paid-in capital amounted to Kr. 6,000,000 ($1,560,000).

The company is backed by important interests in Norway. The managing director, Harald Stange, is considered an experienced insurance man.

HOME OFFICE RESOURCES.—All assets of the company are liable for losses incurred here. The Home Office balance sheet as of December 31, 1920, showed the following: Total admitted assets, $7,551,763; paid-in capital, $1,560,000; surplus funds, reserve fund, $392,439; general insurance fund, $1.845,846. (An arbitrary rate of exchange has been used; see note, page vii).

MANAGEMENT AND REPUTATION.—The United States manager is the Northern Underwriting Agency, Inc., 56 Beaver street, New York City, which also acted as general agent for the Jefferson, Liberty Marine, and North Atlantic insurance companies, until the retirement of these companies in 1920. The president of the Northern Underwriting Agency, Inc., Mr. C. Steendal, also acted for a time as marine manager of the Hudson Insurance Company of New York, and the National Liberty Insurance Company of America, of New York.

In 1919, writing a volume of business well up to its net resources, it sustained a loss ratio somewhat above normal. In 1920 the volume of business written increased greatly, necessitating a heavy increase in unearned premium reserve, which partially accounted for the underwriting loss of $239,824.14. The loss ratio was somewhat above normal.

In 1921 the loss ratio was high, and there was a moderate underwriting loss. The expenses at its United States Branch are low. The company is now writing a full volume of business in proportion to its net resources at its United States Branch.

The securities owned by the United States Branch are high grade.

UNITED STATES MANAGER.—Northern Underwriting Agency, Inc., 56 Beaver street, New York City.

UNITED STATES TRUSTEE.—Empire Trust Company.

KINDS OF INSURANCE WRITTEN.—In the United States it writes a direct marine business and fire reinsurance.

TERRITORY.—It operates principally in Scandinavia, England and France, but has an organization extending all over the world. The United States Branch is licensed in Ark., Cal., Colo., Ill., Ia., Ky., La., Mass., Mich., Mont., N. H., N. J., N. Y., N. C., O., Pa., Tex. and W. Va.
